3-11 COMMAND STAFF RESPONSIBILITIES

3-11-1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to describe the roles and responsibilities of command staff from the ranks Commander through Assistant Chief.

3-11-2 Policy

The command staff of the Department will assist the Chief of Police in management of the Department, including day to day operations, supporting the mission and vision statements of the Department, promoting community policing, and upholding the Department's core values of integrity, respect, fairness, and pride.

3-11-3 Procedures

A. Appointments

The Assistant Chief, Deputy Chief, Major, Executive Director and Commanders are assigned by the Chief of Police per City Personnel Rules and Regulations.

B. Chain of Command

1. Deputy Chiefs' line of reporting is to the Assistant Chief, who then reports directly to the Chief of Police. Majors, Executive Director, and Commanders line of reporting is directly to their assigned supervisor. The chain of command is further described in the Organizational Chart.
2. When an Assistant Chief, Deputy Chief, Major, or Commander is unable to perform their duties (vacation, illness, etc.), he/she shall designate a temporary replacement to fulfill this responsibility.
3. Should the Chief of Police become incapacitated through illness, injury, death, or should the Chief of Police be absent from the City of Albuquerque for any reason, the Assistant Chief shall assume command. Should the Assistant Chief be incapacitated or otherwise be unable to act during this time, a Deputy Chief of the remaining bureaus shall assume command on appointment by the mayor or his/her designee.

C. General Expectations of Command Staff

The command staff assumes responsibility for all matters relating to the fulfillment of the functions and divisions under their command. Command staff work in conjunction with each other to provide consistent leadership and unified direction to the multiple segments of the Department, assisting the Chief with the management of the Department. In addition to overseeing day to day operations, command staff ensure the Department meets objectives and goals set forth by City Council, engage

- 3. Area Commanders will ensure that all officers under their command understand the duties and expectations of the Department. They will ensure that all officers under their command have access to applicable Department policy and a copy of the Department of Justice Settlement Agreement and will provide guidance and explanation regarding these expectations as necessary. Area Commanders will monitor performance of officers under their direct command to ensure compliance with these expectations, including all Department policies, federal and state statutes, municipal ordinances, and all components of the Department of Justice agreement through training, supervision, and discipline where appropriate.

- 4. Commanders will promote community policing within their area commands. They should lead by example, communicating with community members (residential, business, civic, religious, community policing councils, and other groups) and other city Departments to address issues and priorities within their area.

- a. Through communications with community members and city Departments, commanders will identify issues within their areas which impact quality of life for community members and for which law enforcement activity may be an appropriate solution. Commanders will plan and implement strategies for addressing the identified issues. Commanders will inform the contributing community members of the implementation plan and contact them at an appropriate time after implementation, but at least within a year, for feedback on effectiveness in addressing the issue. Based on the feedback, the commander may alter or discontinue the strategy. Where the commander determines that law enforcement activities may not be the only or best solution to the issue, the commander will collaborate with other city Departments for solutions or a multi-Department approach.

- b. Commanders will ensure that sworn, uniformed personnel within their area attend community meetings and events as part of APD ongoing community outreach. Attendance should be in uniform and shall be documented with the appropriate databases that the Department designates:

- i. Time and Date of Attendance.
- ii. Duration of meeting.
- iii. Issues, concerns and or any positive input provided by the community members.

I. Department Operations Responsibility During Non-Business Hours

- 1. All Assistant Chiefs, Deputy Chiefs, Majors and Commanders are responsible for operations/incidents within their Bureau/Area Command, 24 hours a day.
- 2. Duty Chief
