E. On-Line Citizen Reporting (Cop Logic)

1. The Telephone Reporting Unit is responsible for the processing of online reports submitted by citizens.

2. The following offense/incident reports are listed in Cop Logic as being reportable in the Cop Logic system:

   - Auto Burglary
   - Lost Property
   - Theft/Larceny
   - Vandalism
   - Vandalism of Vehicle
SOP 8-11

- Telephone Harassment
- Shoplifting

3. Online reporting can be accomplished by visiting the Albuquerque Police Department website and clicking on the link marked “Online Citizen Reporting” or by entering the following URL: http://apdsop.tripod.com/onlinereports/start-report.html

4. The citizen will then be asked three questions reference their incident before being allowed to proceed. If they answer yes to any question, they will not be allowed to report their incident on-line and will be given directions on what to do next.
   - Is this an emergency?
   - Did this incident occur outside the Albuquerque City limits?
   - Do you know who committed this crime?

   If the answer to all three questions is no, they will be allowed to proceed.

5. Once the required information reference the report is entered and submitted, a temporary police report case number will be issued.

6. Upon review and approval of the report by a Telephone Reporting Unit Police Technician, a permanent case number will be issued. The report will then be submitted for supervisor approval.

7. Upon supervisor approval, the report will be submitted through the Records Management System.

8. Required information is necessary for completion of an accurate report. Failure to submit required information will result in the TRU Police Technician rejecting the report.

9. This reject will be forwarded on-line to the reporting person, accompanied with an explanation. The reporting person has 15 days to submit the required information. Cop Logic will delete the report from the system if the 15-day time period is not met.
