

City of Albuquerque

Goal 1 - Human and Family Development

Family and Community Services Department

This measure reflects the number of people provided with substance abuse treatment or prevention services. The number of people served is based on available funding and is not reflective of the overall demand for the services. For more information on the City's behavioral health services, search "behavioral health services" on the City website (<http://www.cabq.gov>).