

City of Albuquerque

Goal 2 - Public Safety

Police Department

The above graph depicts the number of dispatched calls for service received by the Albuquerque Police Department Communications Division. This measure is important as it is a good indicator of workload and service needs. This measure will be updated annually. For more information regarding this measure, please contact APD's Communications Division Manager.