A review of lapel videos and interviews revealed Ms. Anderson complained the handcuffs were too tight and Officer C., former APD Officer R. and Detective M. looked at the handcuffs and adjusted them and at no time did Officer C. or any of the officers or personnel on scene laugh at Ms. Anderson and tell her she was okay, as alleged in her complaint.

The CPOA finds Officer C.'s conduct UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE M.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, lapel video, Officer's reports and interviews with the Complainant and Detective M..

A) Did Detective M. comply with Albuquerque Police Department (APD) General Order 2-52-3 (A)? General Order 2-52-3 (A) states:

A. Officers may use force when objectively reasonable based on a totality of the circumstances. The objectives for which force may be appropriate include:

- To effect a lawful arrest or detention of a person.
- To gain control of a combative prisoner
- Prevent and/or terminate the commission of a crime.
- To intervene in a suicide or self-inflicted injury
- To defend an officer or member of the public from the physical acts of another.

Ms. Anderson said Detective M. and other APD Officers responded to her home on March 14, 2013, and arrested her for various crimes. Ms. Anderson complained that Detective M. placed handcuffs on her wrists so tightly her right wrist was broken.

A review of lapel videos and reports written by Detective M., Officer C., and former APD Officer R. showed Detective M. and Officer C. handcuffed Ms. Anderson and took her into custody after Ms. Anderson was tased by Officers C. and R. for swinging a baseball bat at her neighbor and at Officer C.. This evidence also showed Detective M., and Officers C. and R. checked and adjusted Ms. Anderson's handcuffs to ensure they were not too tight. Additionally, fire/rescue arrived on scene to check Ms. Anderson's vital signs, and remove taser prongs from her prior to Ms. Anderson being placed in a police car and transported from the scene. The evidence showed Ms. Anderson did not complain to fire/rescue her wrist was broken. Had Ms. Anderson done so, fire/rescue would have been legally obligated to take her to University of New Mexico Hospital (UNMH) for treatment prior to officers transporting her to the jail.

A CPOA Investigator contacted MDC medical personnel who verified that they would not have allowed Ms. Anderson to be booked into their facility broken wrist because all prisoners are required to pass a medical clearance before they are received into their facility. They said they would not have placed a cast on Ms. Anderson's wrist if it were broken because they don't have the needed supplies or expertise on hand to do so.

The investigation revealed Detective M. took the necessary steps to ensure Ms. Anderson's handcuffs were checked and were not too tight after Ms. Anderson complained to him. Additionally, the investigation revealed that due to the nature of the call where it was reported Ms. Anderson was breaking windows with a hammer and baseball bats, Ms. Anderson may have caused the injury to her wrist by her own actions. Lastly, without medical records it cannot be determined if Ms. Anderson's wrist was actually broken.

The CPOA finds Detective M.'s conduct UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

B) Did Detective M. comply with Albuquerque Police Department (APD) General Order 1-4-1 (F)? General Order 1-4-1 (F) states:

F. Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off-duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Anderson complained that Detective M. laughed at her and said she was okay when she told him her wrist hurt.

A review of lapel videos and interviews revealed Ms. Anderson complained the handcuffs were too tight and Detective M. Officer C. and former APD Officer R. looked at the handcuffs and adjusted them and at no time did Detective M. or any of the officers or personnel on scene laugh at Ms. Anderson and tell her she was okay, as alleged in her complaint.

Re: CPC # 042-15

Dear Ms. Baca:

The complaint you filed against Officers J. and L. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on March 25, 2015, regarding an incident that occurred on March 17, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Baca has filed numerous complaints with the CPOA against officers. These complaints usually consist of the same information against her neighbors. Ms. Baca frequently calls police on her neighbors and then Ms. Baca often files complaints against the responding officers to those calls. Ms. Baca filed a complaint regarding her contact with officers on March 17, 2015.

Ms. Baca's written complaint was regarding Officer J. Ms. Baca wrote that Officer J. asked her why she had so many calls against her neighbors. Ms. Baca wrote that Officer J. told Ms. Baca the calls she made were not necessary. Ms. Baca claimed the calls were necessary because the neighbor harassed her and her daughter. Ms. Baca wrote that Officer J. was being mean to her and that she wanted discipline against him. The rest of Ms. Baca's written complaint was about her neighbors harassing her and Ms. Baca wanting an investigation into the situation.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator reviewed Ms. Baca's complaint and researched the matter so that we could obtain more information about the incident by obtaining the Computer-Aided Dispatch (CAD) report and the police report. The CPOA Investigator determined the identity of the Officer in question and learned it was Officer L. and not Officer J., based on the review of the lapel videos and Ms. Baca's written complaint.

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the lapel videos from both officers. The lapel videos showed the officers initially contacted Ms. Baca and got her version of events. Officer J. was very understanding and professional. Officer L. hardly spoke during the first contact. Officers went to the neighbor's house and got the neighbor's version of events. The neighbor expressed frustration over the situation. Both officers were professional with the neighbor. The officers returned to talk to Ms. Baca. During the course of the conversation, Officer L. asked Ms. Baca how many times she had called police. The videos showed Officer L. never said Ms. Baca's calls were unnecessary. The videos showed Ms. Baca immediately became angry and accused Officer L. of judging her, criticizing her and harassing her. Ms. Baca threatened to file an official complaint against the officers and stated she intended on getting them in trouble. Officer J. provided everything she would need to file a complaint. Ms. Baca raised her voice and would not allow officers to explain anything. Ms. Baca told both officers to leave. The videos showed both officers were patient, non-confrontational and professional with Ms. Baca.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

This complaint was preliminarily investigated by reviewing Ms. Baca's complaint and all the evidence. This case should be administratively closed based on a review of the available evidence as there were no policy violations by the responding officers. The CPOA will administratively close this complaint and no further investigation by our office will occur.

Dear Ms. Gallardo:

The complaint you filed against Sergeant B., Officer E., Officer M. and Officer S. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on May 25, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on February 24, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Karen Gallardo wrote that on February 24, 2015 while exiting Goodwill and opening the trunk of her car, Ms. Gallardo stated she heard yelling and someone saying "hands up". Ms. Gallardo wrote that she turned around and saw a man in a vest and plain clothes pointing a gun in her face. Ms. Gallardo wrote she put her hands up and at that point observed other men in plain clothes with guns yelling as well. Ms. Gallardo wrote other officers had their guns pointed at her son Brandon who was with her. Ms. Gallardo stated the men identified themselves as officers and began patting her down, searching her purse and vehicle and continually asking, "Where's Robert"? Ms. Gallardo stated an officer asked to see her cell phone but that she had left it at home. Ms. Gallardo wrote that one of the officers screamed "where is RJ"? and with guns pointed directly at her and her son Brandon, Ms. Gallardo stated she felt like she had to answer the questions or be shot. Ms. Gallardo wrote the officers were questioning about her son Robert, and Ms. Gallardo told the officers that Robert was in California. Ms. Gallardo stated she asked the officers if they had a picture of Robert because he is 6'3" tall and her son Brandon, which was with her, is 6'8" tall. Ms. Gallardo wrote she felt the officers could not have confused the 2 individuals as possibly being the same. Ms. Gallardo stated she kept asking if they had a photo, which appeared to anger the officers. Ms. Gallardo wrote the officers told her Brandon looked like Robert and that is why they stopped her. Ms. Gallardo stated the officer said Robert had a warrant and they were looking for him. Ms. Gallardo stated the entire time guns were pointed directly at her and her son Brandon.

Ms. Gallardo alleged she was denied her civil rights, unlawfully detained, racially profiled and had excessive force and intimidation used upon her and her son. Ms. Gallardo wrote she also requested a copy of the lapel video of the officers but was informed there were no recordings.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING SERGEANT B.'s CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the photo of Mr. Solis and Mr. Gallardo, the interviews of Sergeant. B., Officer E., Officer M., Officer S. and Ms. Gallardo.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-03-3 (A) (1) regarding Sergeant B.'s conduct, which states:

Biased based policing and or profiling by any member of this department are prohibited. Investigative detentions, field contacts, traffic stops, arrests, searches, property seizures and forfeiture efforts will be based on a standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause in accordance with the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Karen Gallardo wrote in her complaint that she and her son were stopped and detained by police officers due to racial profiling.

The investigation showed the Sgt. B. and officers stopped Ms. Gallardo and her son Brandon Solis due to the fact Robert Gallardo, Ms. Gallardo's other son had a felony warrant out for his arrest. Sgt. B. and the officers detained both parties because Brandon Solis and Robert Gallardo appear similar in physicality. Ms. Gallardo and her son Brandon were released from the scene in a matter of approximately 10 minutes after identities were verified.

The CPOA find Sergeant B.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-02-2 (B) (2) regarding Sergeant B.'s conduct, which states:

Make only those arrests, searches and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Karen Gallardo wrote that the officers searched her vehicle and that she and her son Brandon Solis were unlawfully detained.

Sgt. B. and the officers were conducting a felony search warrant regarding Ms. Gallardo's son, Robert Gallardo. Brandon Solis and Robert Gallardo are similar in physicality. Sgt. B. and the officers only detained Ms. Gallardo and Brandon Solis to identify Brandon, whom they thought was Robert Gallardo. Both Ms. Gallardo and Brandon Solis were only detained for approximately 10 minutes to be identified.

The investigation showed Sgt. B. and the officers did not search Ms. Gallardo's vehicle, they cleared the vehicle for officer safety reasons to ensure no person or persons were hiding inside the vehicle.

The CPOA find Sergeant B.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-39-1 (A) regarding Sergeant B.'s conduct, which states:

It will be the responsibility of the primary officer to ensure that the incident will be recorded in its entirety. If at any time the primary and secondary officer (s) should become separated, it will be the responsibility of the secondary officer(s) to record all of their contact and/or actions during the incident.

Karen Gallardo stated she requested a copy of the lapel footage of the incident and was told the officers did not record this incident.

On the date of the incident Sgt. B. was assigned to the Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms Violent Crimes Task Force. Albuquerque Police Officers are assigned to Federal Task Forces to assist those agencies and act as an agent of that particular agency. Federal Agencies, including the ATF, prohibit their agents and task force agents to utilize recording devices during operations. Sgt. B. is required to follow the agency he is assigned to Standard Operating Procedures.

The CPOA find Sergeant B.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures or training.

D) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-52-3 (A) regarding Sergeant B.'s conduct, which states:

Officers may use force when objectively reasonable based on a totality of the circumstances. The objectives for which force may be appropriate include

➤ To effect a lawful arrest or detention of a person.

Karen Gallardo wrote that several plain clothes officers approached her and her son, Brandon Solis, with guns drawn and pointed at her while exiting the Goodwill store.

Ms. Gallardo was asked during the interview with the Investigator if the officer's firearms were pointed directly at her as she stated in her written complaint. Ms. Gallardo stated the guns could have been pointed to the side and or down and made a physical gesture showing a "low ready" position. Ms. Gallardo stated then again, they were pointed at her.

The investigation showed Sgt. B. exited his vehicle with a shotgun. Sgt. B. arrived on scene as Ms. Gallardo and Brandon Solis already exited the vehicle and were being instructed by the other officers. Sgt. B. was acting on the suspicion that Brandon Solis was Robert Gallardo. Robert Gallardo had a felony warrant for a violent crime in which firearms were used.

The CPOA find Sergeant B.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures or training.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER E.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the photo of Mr. Solis and Mr. Gallardo, the interviews of Sergeant. B., Officer E., Officer M., Officer S. and Ms. Gallardo.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-03-3 (A) (1) regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Officer S. did have a firearm out due to the concern and subject matter of the felony warrant. The investigation showed Officer S.'s firearm was never directly pointed at Ms. Gallardo or Brandon Solis and remained in a low ready position.

The CPOA find Officer S.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures or training.

Dear Ms. Graham:

The complaint you filed against Officer W. and Officer M. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on May 28, 2015, for an incident which occurred December 19, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Lou Anne Graham called the Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) on May 28, 2015, to file her complaint regarding this incident. The CPOA Investigator spoke with Ms. Graham on the following dates, during which Ms. Graham repeated what was in her original complaint: May 29, 2015, July 13, 2015, and July 21, 2015.

Ms. Graham complained that Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer W. and Officer M. failed to properly investigate a theft of property from her home by failing to contact the suspects and failing to locate her stolen property. Additionally, Ms. Graham complained Officer T. from John Carrillo substation was rude to her and not diplomatic in dealing with her when she called the substation to inquire about the incident that occurred in December 2014. Ms. Graham complained APD Officers W., M., and T. used a doctor's note stating she had mental health issues as a reason to not properly investigate the incident.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER W.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, reports, lapel videos, and interviews with the Complainant, Officer M. and Officer W.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-24-3 (A)(5)(b) regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

A. Preliminary Investigations

5. Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations that may include but are not limited to:

b. Locate, identify, and interview witnesses, victims and suspect(s).

Ms. Graham complained Officer W. did not do enough to investigate the alleged Theft of her property, or do enough to get her property back.

A review of the interviews, reports and Officers W. and M.'s lapel videos of the December 19, 2014 incident revealed that during the initial incident on December 19, 2014, Ms. Graham would not allow Officers W. and M. into her home to investigate the scene and would not allow a Field Investigator to come and look for prints. The officers had no physical evidence to support Ms. Graham's claim and she was considered an uncooperative victim. Officer W. gave Ms. Graham the case number and asked Ms. Graham to have her Optum Health case worker, Mr. McGrew, call him about the incident but Mr. McGrew never called. Officer W. performed a Google search and located a Tim McGrew with Adult Protective Services (APS) and called him but no one answered the phone and Tim McGrew never returned Officer W.'s call. According to Officer W., Tim McGrew may not be the correct person but Ms. Graham never provided her caseworker's full name so that's all he had to work with.

The investigation revealed Officers W. and M. were unable to obtain information from Optum Health. Additionally, the officers were unable to obtain a search warrant to force Optum Health to release employee information because they could not file criminal charges in the incident. Officer W. and his supervisor, Sergeant A., agreed the incident was a civil matter because Optum Health was likely hired to remove property from Ms. Graham's home at the request of her case worker, Mr. McGrew. Officer W. explained this to Ms. Graham, who did not agree with Officer W. but seemed to understand.

The investigation revealed Officers W. and M. returned to Ms. Graham's home on December 20, 2014, because Ms. Graham requested a Field Investigator for fingerprints. When officers arrived, Ms. Graham let them in and showed them all the areas the Optum Health employees touched when they were at her home, however when officers said they were going to call a Field Investigator out Ms. Graham, again, refused to allow a Field Investigator to come out to look for fingerprints.

The investigation revealed Officer W. took all the steps necessary and possible to investigate the alleged burglary with the limited information he had, contrary to what Ms. Graham alleged in her complaint.

The CPOA Investigator reviewed interviews, reports and Officers W. and M.'s lapel videos, and determined Officer W.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER M.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, reports, lapel videos, and interviews with the Complainant, Officer M. and Officer W.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-24-3 (A)(5)(b) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

B. Preliminary Investigations

6. Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations that may include but are not limited to:

c. Locate, identify, and interview witnesses, victims and suspect(s).

Ms. Graham complained Officer M. did not do enough to investigate the alleged Theft of her property, or do enough to get her property back.

A review of the interviews, reports and Officers W. and M.'s lapel videos of the initial incident on December 19, 2014 revealed that, Ms. Graham would not allow Officers W. and M. into her home to investigate the scene and would not allow a Field Investigator to come and look for prints. The officers had no physical evidence to support Ms. Graham's claim and she was considered an uncooperative victim. Despite not having physical evidence, Officer M. called Optum Health to see who hired them to clean Ms. Graham's house, to get their side of the story and to identify the two employees sent to Ms. Graham's home but Optum Health wasn't allowed to give out any information. Officer M. exhausted his resources with the limited information he had at that time.

The investigation revealed Officers M. and W. were called back out to Ms. Graham's home on December 20, 2014, because Ms. Graham requested a Field Investigator for fingerprints. When officers arrived, Ms. Graham let them in and showed them all the areas the Optum Health employees touched when they were at her home however when officers said they were going to call a Field Investigator out Ms. Graham, again, refused a Field Investigator come out for fingerprints.

Letter to Ms. Graham

The investigation revealed Officer M. took all the steps necessary and possible to investigate the alleged burglary with the limited information he had, contrary to what Ms. Graham alleged in her complaint.

The CPOA Investigator reviewed interviews, reports and Officers W. and M.'s lapel videos, and determined Officer M.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer M.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Mr. Carlos Gonzales
[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87108

Re: CPC #079-15

Dear Mr. Gonzales:

The complaint you filed against Officer E. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on May 28, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on May 26, 2015. On June 2, 2015, a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Carlos Gonzales wrote in his complaint that on May 26, 2015 at about 1:05 PM, an unidentified male and female entered his place of business, Shamrock Finance. Mr. Gonzales and two other employees were present. When asked by an employee how they could help the people who had come into the business, the female said that they wanted to apply for a loan. One employee asked the female to sit down so they could start the loan process. It was at that time that the male ran around the front desk towards the back of the office. One of the employees told the man to stop but the man kept coming and ran past that employee. The male grabbed a gaming system that was sitting on top of a filing cabinet. The male and the female then fled the store with the gaming system. The two employees in the front of the store pressed their panic alarm buttons.

Mr. Gonzales complained that it took the police a half an hour to arrive. Officer E. responded and when Officer E. arrived she asked the employees what happened. They told Officer E. what had occurred and Officer E. asked them what they wanted Officer E. to do. They told her that they needed her to do a police report on the matter. Officer E. allegedly told the employees not to push the panic buttons unless they felt threatened. When an employee told Officer E. that they did feel threatened Officer E. insisted that the panic buttons should not be pushed because doing so endangers officer's lives because they have to answer calls with their lights turned off. Mr. Gonzales wrote that he thinks that Officer E. needs to re-evaluate the job she is in. He wrote that Officer E. makes other officers look bad.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER E.'S CONDUCT

The Assistant Lead Investigator of the CPOA conducted the investigation, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, a review of the Computer Assisted Dispatch (CADs) Report and APD police report, an interview with Ms. Romero who is a store employee and an interview with Officer E.. Officer E.'s lapel video recording of the incident was also reviewed. Several documented attempts to interview Mr. Gonzales were unsuccessful as Mr. Gonzales travels out of state and was not available for an interview by the time the investigative time limit expired in this case. One of Mr. Gonzales's employees was interviewed by the CPOA Assistant Lead Investigator.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1-F regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Gonzales complained that it took the police a half an hour to arrive at his business after his employees pushed their panic alarms. Officer E. responded and when she arrived she asked the employees what happened. The employees told Officer E. what had occurred and Officer E. asked them what they wanted Officer E. to do. Mr. Gonzales told Officer E. that they wanted a police report on the matter. Officer E. allegedly told the employees not to push the panic buttons unless they felt threatened. When an employee told Officer E. that they did feel threatened Officer E. insisted that the panic buttons not be pushed because doing so endangers officer's lives because they have to answer calls with their lights turned off. Mr. Gonzales wrote that he thinks that Officer E. needs to re-evaluate the job she is in. He wrote that Officer E. makes other officers look bad. Ms. Romero, an employee of the business, alleged that Officer E. was unprofessional in her conduct.

The investigation showed that the panic alarm buttons at Mr. Gonzales's business were pushed at 12:57 PM. The panic alarm buttons only notify the business's alarm company of trouble. The panic buttons do not link directly to APD. The CADS report showed that the alarm company called the Albuquerque Police Department at 1:09 PM accounting for a 12 minute delay in even getting the call dispatched. The alarm company provided the APD with the wrong information. They reported to APD that their store employee, Carlos Gonzales, the complainant, stole merchandise from the business and fled on foot. The call was dispatched 3 minutes after that at 1:12 PM. There were a minimum number of officers available to handle the call. Officer E. arrived on scene at 1:24, twelve minutes after being dispatched. APD's average response time to Priority One calls such as this is just under 12 minutes. It was not an excessive amount of time to respond to the call. Half of the delayed response time was because of the alarm company's actions.

Letter to Mr. Gonzales

With regard to Officer E.'s conduct, the lapel video showed the following:

Officer E. arrived on scene and entered the store. She contacted the people inside. Officer E. greeted the employees politely. She asked the employees what had occurred and one of the employees told her what had occurred. Officer E. asked the employees if the person who stole the gaming system was someone who they knew. The employee told Officer E. that they did not know the offender. Officer E. explained that the information relayed to her was that an employee had stolen merchandise. The employees laughed at that. Mr. Gonzales went on to explain to Officer E. what had occurred and how it was two individuals involved in the theft. Officer E. asked what items were stolen. Mr. Gonzales did not have that information immediately available but he was trying to locate it at the time. Mr. Gonzales said that it was a PS4 gaming system that was stolen. Officer E. asked if she could get the information on the item stolen and then asked, "So what is it you would like from me?" Mr. Gonzales told her that he wanted to have her file a police report for the theft. Officer E. responded, "Okay."

Officer E. then asked, "And so you guys notified us by?" One of the employees said, "I pushed the panic button." Officer E. then said, "So what I would caution you for the future, is that that is not what the panic button is for." One of the employees said, "Really? Oh." Mr. Gonzales said, "Home office actually wants them to do that in a situation because we didn't know if we were going to be held up or not." The other employee said, "He was trying to go for the back." Mr. Gonzales said, "They were coming back here behind the counter..." Officer E. said, "Okay. Well the only reason that I tell you that is because we take panic alarms very seriously." Mr. Gonzales asked, "What if they had a gun and we don't know?" Officer E. said, "Well, but here's the thing, we can play what if all day long." Mr. Gonzales said something inaudible but he was seemingly upset and said, "...that's why we pushed it." Officer E. said, "Okay. What I'm telling you is this; you need to do whatever you need to do. And I would like for you to stay safe no matter what. But if somebody comes in, grabs something, and leaves, um, and I don't know, I wasn't here, and I don't know whether you guys have video of it or not, um, do you?" Mr. Gonzales said, "No." Officer E. asked if the suspects touched anything. Officer E. then said, "So I would caution you simply because of the, the panic alarm is for when your life is in danger, not when things are being stolen from you. And there's a difference because obviously if somebody comes in and does hold you up at gun point, we want to get here as quickly as we absolutely possibly can. Okay, but if we start getting, and I don't know, I've never even come here before. I've never had an alarm for you guys. So what I need to tell you is our response, whenever we get a panic alarm is lights and siren, pushing everybody out of the way, which means that we are putting our lives in danger and we are putting the rest of the public in danger." Mr. Gonzales said, "Right." Officer E. said, "So, if you're not in danger and an item is being taken..." Mr. Gonzales interrupted and said, "But if I have an individual coming behind the counter, my life is not in danger?" Officer E. said, "I don't know that. I can't say that." Mr. Gonzales said, "So that's why we pushed the panic button." Officer E. said, "Okay." Mr. Gonzales said that at the moment that they pushed the panic button, they did not know if they were in danger or not. (The evidence showed that the employees pushed the panic buttons as the offenders left the store). One of the female employees, later identified to be Theresa Romero, told Officer E. that she was scared because she was an older woman and that the man scared the hell out of her. Ms. Romero said that she would not be able to chase after anyone at her age. Officer E. said, "No. and I'm not asking you to chase them." Ms. Romero said, "He did scare me. I'm not going to lie. My sister is a cop and so is my nephew... You just never know what he is going to do. He was coming for the back. I had to stop and yell at him... I don't know if he had something or not... it is scary and I, you know, what good is the panic button if we can't call you?" Officer E. said, "I'm not saying don't call. I'm not saying don't call. I'm saying it's kind of like the whole crying wolf thing, if you are going to call every time somebody takes something, then you know..." Another Officer then arrives on scene and the rest of the interaction on the lapel video is routine. When interviewed, Ms. Romero said that she had no further complaint against Officer E. once the other officer arrived on scene.

One of the employees then asked Officer E. if she would rather have them call the police rather than pushing the panic button. Officer E. replied, "I'm just trying to relay information to you that I think would make your life safer and our life easier. But if you feel like you need to push the button every single time then I think that you..." An employee said, "We're not pushing the alarm all the time." Officer E. said, "No, I'm just saying, you guys just moved in." Ms. Romero said, "You never had an incident over there either," referring to the place where the business was previously located. Officer E. said, "All I was trying to relay to you is that if you feel like your life is in danger, then that's exactly what the panic button is for. But if somebody is coming in and stealing an item and leaving with it, then that's not what the panic button is for." Ms. Romero said, "Okay. Well I didn't know what he was going to do." Officer E. said, "And that's fine and I completely understand that. I completely understand that this isn't your norm and that this isn't what you're accustomed to and that a lot of things might be going through your mind. And I can imagine that that is probably a scary situation."

Officer E. then goes on to gather the information for her police report. Officer E. told the employees, "The other thing is that when you call in you can actually give us the description and direction of travel and all that because they (the alarm company) have to call back and get all that information." Ms. Romero said that after they hit the alarm that they did call the police department because they didn't get any response. The rest of the recording shows Officer E. gathering the report number and the number for the telephone reporting unit so that the company could call with the serial number for item that was stolen. Officer E. gave that information to Mr. Gonzales. On the way out of the store, Ms. Romero asked Officer E. for her name and Officer E. gave it to Ms. Romero. The lapel video ended after that.

In reviewing the evidence in this case, it was clear that Ms. Romero and the other employees were in fear for their own safety at the time of the incident. The lapel video showed that Officer E. was professional in her behavior. Mr. Gonzales and Ms. Romero were offended by what Officer E. told them, but what Officer E. told them was correct information. A hold up alarm does trigger a priority one response and that response does put officer and citizen lives in danger. In this situation, statements given to Officer E. at the time, recorded on video, showed that the panic buttons were pushed as the offender was leaving the premises with a stolen item. Officer E. told the victims that she was not there and did not know how they felt and that what they did was okay. Officer E. told the victims that she was sure that it was a scary situation and that things like that don't normally happen to them. Officer E. was clear that she wanted the victims to do whatever they needed to do to stay safe and if that included pushing the panic buttons then so be it. Officer E. was offering information that might be helpful in future situations should they occur.

Letter to Mr. Gonzales

The CPOA finds Officer E.'s conduct to be Exonerated, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer E.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Dear Ms. Cole:

The complaint you filed against an unknown Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on April 14, 2014 regarding an incident that occurred on April 13, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator, along with a contract independent investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint.

Ms. Cole complained about an unidentified APD police officer's treatment toward her and her family while the family was at the Walgreen's store on Eubank NE on April 13, 2014. The assigned investigator reviewed APD's Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) reports for the date and time described, as well as APD police report records. There were no records of the encounter between Ms. Cole and any APD officers at the time, date, and location described. The lack of records does not mean the event did not occur, it means the officer did not call out the event to APD dispatch. The lack of records precludes the CPOA from identifying the officer involved.

This matter will be administratively closed due to the lack of evidence. Thank you for your time to alert the Civilian Police Oversight Agency with your concerns.

Austin Wolff
[REDACTED], NM 87102

Re: CPC # 081-15

Dear Mr. Wolff:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on May 28, 2015, for an incident, which occurred on May 28, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Wolff wrote Officer B. tailgated vehicles and cut another vehicle off. Mr. Wolff wrote Officer B. sped and Officer B.'s driving was an exhibition of road rage.

The CPOA Investigator attempted to interview Mr. Wolff, but Mr. Wolff was unavailable for an interview.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER B.'S CONDUCT

The investigation included review of the Complaint, SOPs, and an interview of Officer B..

Letter to Mr. Wolff

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-6N regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall operate official vehicles in a careful and prudent manner and shall obey all laws and all department orders pertaining to such operation.

Mr. Wolff wrote Officer B. operated his vehicle recklessly and exhibited road rage. Mr. Wolff wrote Officer B. tailgated two vehicles and cut off another vehicle without signaling. Mr. Wolff wrote Officer B. revved his engine and sped.

There is no evidence to review for this issue. Mr. Wolff described poor driving behaviors. Officer B. did not recall driving in the manner described.

The CPOA finds Officer B.'s conduct to be NOT SUSTAINED regarding the violation of this SOP, which means the investigation was unable to determine whether the alleged misconduct occurred.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer B.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Mr. Zachary Little

[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87114

Re: CPC #087-15

Dear Mr. Little:

The complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 10, 2015 regarding an alleged incident that occurred on June 2, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA investigated your complaint. The CPOA made a finding, based on the information you provided, of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Zachary Little complained that on June 2, 2015 his wife was involved in a car accident. Mr. Little stated his wife called 911 to inform them of the incident and was told police would be responding. Mr. Little stated that after 10 minutes one of the vehicles involved in the accident left the scene. Mr. Little stated he then called the non-emergency number to inquire about the status of an officer arriving. Mr. Little stated the dispatcher informed him that they were very busy and that one would be made available soon. Mr. Little wrote that he called several times asking about the arrival of an officer. Mr. Little stated it was not until he told a dispatch supervisor that it was over an hour and a half and it was unacceptable that the supervisor informed him an officer had become available.

II. INVESTIGATION

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the complaint, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS) and the Computer Aided Dispatch report (CAD) of the incident. The investigation showed that call was a priority 2 call, an accident with no injuries. The CAD showed the call was dispatched at 1810 hours and also showed there were no officers available to take the call at that time due to other higher priority calls. The CAD also showed that the area of the accident in which Mr. Little's wife was involved, was at below minimum reserves for availability of officers.

The Investigator contacted Mr. Little and explained the concerns Mr. Little complaint addressed. The Investigator conferred with you regarding the staffing issues of the Albuquerque Police Department and reviewed priority calls. You and the Investigator agreed to administratively close your complaint due to no specific Albuquerque Police officer at fault, however the Investigator assured your complaint would be addressed by the Police Oversight Board in regards to concerns of staffing.

III. CONCLUSION

The CPOA has made the decision to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE your complaint, due to not being able to identify any specific Albuquerque Police Officer related to this incident and the preliminary investigation showed that the slow response was due to call volume and officers available. Please note your concerns will be addressed by the Police Oversight Board and will be forwarded to the Albuquerque Police Department's Chain of Command to review the issues discovered by your complaint.

Administratively closed complaints may be re-opened if additional information becomes available. Please contact the CPOA in regards to your Civilian Police Complaint if you can provide further details and wish to have the complaint re-opened.

If you have a computer available, we would greatly appreciate your completing our client survey form at <http://www.cabq.gov/iro/survey> .

Thank you for participating in the process of civilian oversight of the police, ensuring officers and personnel of the APD are held accountable, and improving the process.

Brianna Bell
[REDACTED]

Re: CPC # 088-15

Dear Ms. Bell:

Your complaint against Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer C. was received by our office via e-mail on June 4, 2015 for an incident which occurred on June 3, 2015. Your complaint was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator for review and investigation on June 10, 2015. You listed only an e-mail address as a way for the CPOA Investigator to contact you. In an effort to obtain more information from you, on June 12, 2015, the CPOA Investigator e-mailed you to request an in person interview concerning your complaint. You did not respond to that e-mail.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Bell complained that on June 3, 2015 she was on your way to the hospital to see her mother. Ms. Bell wrote that her mother had just been taken by ambulance to the hospital due to a seizure that her mother had endured. Ms. Bell wrote that near Coors and Dellyne, she made a legal U-turn. Ms. Bell then noticed a police car travelling in the opposite direction slowing to make a turn. Ms. Bell wrote that the officer pulled up next to her. Ms. Bell tried to explain where she was going and that she had done nothing wrong. Ms. Bell alleged that the officer allegedly yelled at her, saying, "No, I don't want to hear it. That is a lame excuse." Ms. Bell wrote that she started crying. Ms. Bell alleged that the officer told her that next time Ms. Bell would be crying because of the accident she would cause. Ms. Bell wrote that the officer drove off. Ms. Bell obtained the license plate off the officer's car, and included it in her complaint. Ms. Bell wrote that based on the officer's actions and the way the officer addressed her, she no longer supported APD.

II. THE INVESTIGATION

The initial investigation inquiry revealed that the police car was assigned to Officer C.. The CPOA Investigator interviewed Officer C.. Officer C. stated that that although the made a Ms. Bell in a location which permitted U-turns, Ms. Bell did not yield to oncoming traffic. Officer C. felt that the traffic violation was minor and only required a verbal warning to you to be more careful. Officer C. could not pull in behind Ms. Bell to make a proper stop, so he spoke to her when he pulled up next to her car. Officer C. disagreed that he said what Ms. Bell

Letter to Ms. Bell

alleged. Officer C. stated that when he saw that Ms. Bell was visibly upset, he reminded Ms. Bell to be more careful and he drove away.

The CPOA Investigator made a second attempt to set up an interview with Ms. Bell by e-mailing her on June 17, 2015. The Investigator wanted to update Ms. Bell on the progress of the investigation. Ms. Bell responded to that e-mail. Ms. Bell told the CPOA Investigator that while she was glad that Officer C. was informed of the complaint, she did not wish to go through any interview process. Ms. Bell stated that day that this incident occurred was an entirely unpleasant day and that she did not wish to relive it. Ms. Bell wrote in her reply e-mail that she was sorry for wasting the Investigator's time.

The CPOA Investigator e-mailed ack explaining that Ms. Bell's complaint was not a waste of time. The Investigator further explained that the CPOA takes each complaint seriously and that he was willing to conduct a thorough investigation into the matter. The Investigator explained that each complaint becomes a part of the officer's personnel record even if the citizen withdraws the complaint or the complaint is Administratively Closed. Ms. Bell did not respond to that e-mail.

III. CONCLUSION

Ms. Bell's complaint was investigated to the extent that we could investigate it given that she chose not to participate further in the process. Officer C. was made aware of Ms. Bell's concerns, and was interviewed. Ms. Bell's complaint will become a part of Officer C.'s personnel records. Because the alleged policy violation was minor and because a full investigation could not be conducted, the CPOA administratively closed this complaint without further investigation.

Tonya Hoyland

[REDACTED]

Albuquerque, NM 87106

Re: CPC # 090-15

Dear Ms. Hoyland:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on June 4, 2015, for an incident, which occurred on May 6, 2015. This is directly connected to another investigation, CPC 080-15, where the same parties were interviewed and the same concerns were addressed. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Hoyland wrote Officer E. was rude and judgmental when asking her supervisor, Ms. Martinez, questions about missing rent monies. Ms. Hoyland wrote Officer E. asked questions repeatedly and seemed dissatisfied with the responses she received. Ms. Hoyland wrote Officer E. seemed very biased and made her mind that someone in the office took the money. Officer E. claimed it was weird that the surveillance cameras did not work when the incident happened. Ms. Hoyland wrote Officer E. was reluctant to give Ms. Martinez her information.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Ms. Hoyland. Ms. Hoyland repeated in her interview that Officer E. had a predetermined idea of the situation. Ms. Hoyland stated Officer E. acted rudely towards Ms. Martinez. Ms. Hoyland felt Officer E. was very opinionated during the whole situation. Ms. Hoyland thought Officer E. said something about it being strange there was no video surveillance and how Officer E. thought that was stupid. Ms. Hoyland said Officer E. was reluctant to provide her information.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER E.'S CONDUCT

The investigation included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report (CAD), Officer E.'s lapel video, and interviews of Tonya Hoyland, Linda Martinez and Officer E..

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-1F regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Hoyland stated when Officer E. entered the office she behaved rudely from the start and interrupted the conversation Ms. Martinez was having with another tenant. Ms. Hoyland felt Officer E. blamed Ms. Martinez for the missing rent money. Officer E. badgered Ms. Martinez for information and seemed dissatisfied with her answers. Ms. Hoyland felt Officer E. was very opinionated, especially about the camera system. Ms. Hoyland stated Officer E. did not directly address Ms. Martinez and instead stood off to the side.

The video showed Ms. Martinez engaged Officer E. and that Officer E. did not interrupt. The video showed Ms. Hoyland in and out of the office, but she was not part of the conversation. The video showed Ms. Martinez refused to provide the name or information about the employee accessing the camera. The video showed Ms. Martinez did not have a straight answer about whether there was video or not until Ms. Martinez called someone and asked them about the camera. The video showed when it was discovered the video was set to a 24-hour loop Officer E. said that did not sound very smart. The video showed it did not seem like Officer E. was blaming Ms. Martinez for the video. The video showed Ms. Martinez and Officer E. bickered some about the value of the video and a previous incident. The video showed overall that the contact was congenial, but towards the end, both Ms. Martinez and Officer E. became somewhat snippy with each other. However, Officer E.'s conduct did not violate policy.

The CPOA finds Officer E.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-02-3A regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall cordially furnish their name and employee number to any person requesting such information when they are on duty or while acting in an official capacity except: (exceptions did not apply in this case).

Ms. Hoyland claimed Officer E. was reluctant to provide her information when asked for it by Ms. Martinez.

The video showed Ms. Martinez asked for Officer E.' business card. Officer E. offered to write down her information since she did not have a card. The video showed Ms. Martinez could not read Officer E.' handwriting and asked for her name, which Officer E. provided. The video showed Ms. Martinez still did not understand so Officer E. repeated her name and pointed to her nametag. The video showed Officer E. provided her name when requested and did not do so with attitude or reluctance.

The CPOA finds Officer E.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did not occur.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-4N regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel will not act officiously or permit personal feelings, animosities, or friendship to influence their decisions.

Ms. Hoyland stated Officer E. seemed biased against Ms. Martinez.

The lapel video showed the conversation between the tenant and Officer E.. There was no familiarity between them. Ms. Hoyland did not have any evidence there was a connection between the officer and the tenant, she just felt Officer E. had a predetermined attitude. A report was taken and no one from the office was listed as a suspect so Officer E.' actions did not change based on Officer E.' conversation with Ms. Martinez.

The CPOA finds Officer E.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did not occur.

(D) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-4U regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall not alter, misrepresent, or otherwise make any false statement on any report or other written document, which has been filled out in the course of their employment.

Ms. Hoyland criticized in the report where Officer E. called Ms. Martinez "strangely defensive." Ms. Hoyland felt Ms. Martinez answered the questions to the best of her ability. The video showed Ms. Martinez did make several speculative statements about the video until she called to confirm there was no video. The video showed Ms. Martinez told Officer E. she would not reveal the name of the employee that was in charge of the cameras. Police reports are to list all pertinent information necessary concerning a specific incident. Police reports also reflect an officer's observation of events. Both the citizen and the officer have a skewed portrayal of the encounter, which was fairly innocuous upon third party observation via the video. Officer E. provided justification for her choice of language and her actions did not rise to a level of violating policy.

Letter to Ms. Hoyland

The CPOA finds Officer E.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer E.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Re: CPC #092-15

Dear Ms. Cano:

The complaint you filed against Officer T. and Officer M. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 4, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on May 22, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Elizabeth Cano wrote in her complaint that on May 22, 2015 at about 6:10 PM, her friend had parked near a gas pump at the gas station located at 8601 Central Avenue SE. Ms. Cano wrote that she was approached by Officer X., who asked her what was going on. Ms. Cano wrote that she told Officer X. that her friend had thrown her phone out and that they needed to go and get it. Prior to the police approaching Ms. Cano, she and her friend, Paul Sena, had a disagreement and she threw beer on Mr. Sena. Mr. Sena said that he would take Ms. Cano to her friend's house but they ended up at the gas station where they were approached by the police. Officer X. allegedly charged Ms. Cano with defamation of character, false imprisonment, and sexual harassment. Ms. Cano was in jail for several days until she was released. Ms. Cano wrote that she wanted to file a lawsuit.

M006613

When Ms. Cano was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator, Ms. Cano stated that she was mistake in her written complaint. She was not complaining about Officer X., but rather she was complaining about Officer T. and Officer M.. She said that Officer T. and Officer M. were "rude and ridiculous," and they acted unprofessionally during the incident.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER T.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, a review of the Computer Assisted Dispatch (CAD) Report and APD police report, an interview with Ms. Cano and an interview with Officer T and an Interview with Officer M.. Officer T.'s lapel video recording of the incident and Officer M.'s lapel video recording of the incident was also reviewed.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1-F regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Cano alleged that she had been charged with defamation of character, false imprisonment, and sexual harassment. Ms. Cano was in jail for several days until she was released. Ms. Cano wrote that she wanted to file a lawsuit.

When Ms. Cano was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator she said that she was complaining about Officer T. and Officer M.. She said that Officer T. and Officer M. were "rude and ridiculous" and they acted unprofessionally during the incident. In particular, Ms. Cano alleged that Officer T. asked her whether or not she had sex with her friend. She stated that asking her that question was rude and absurd. Ms. Cano felt that she should not have been arrested because she did nothing wrong, and even if she did, she did not commit any violation of law in the officer's presence.

The police report was reviewed. Ms. Cano was interviewed. Officer T. was interviewed. Officer M. was interviewed. The officer's lapel videos were reviewed. Ms. Cano was arrested for Domestic Violence/Battery on a Household Member.

The lapel videos showed that Mr. Sena, Ms. Cano's friend, wanted Ms. Cano, who appeared to be intoxicated, to get out of his car, which she refused to do. Mr. Sena characterized his relationship with Ms. Cano as boyfriend/girlfriend. The lapel video showed that Officer T. did not ask Ms. Cano if she and Mr. Sena had sex. Officer T. asked if they had been intimate to which Ms. Cano relied that they had. The lapel video showed that Mr. Sena alleged that he and Ms. Cano had been at Ms. Cano's aunt's apartment earlier and Mr. Sena and Ms. Cano had argued. Mr. Sena alleged that Ms. Cano threw a beer at Mr. Sena and some of the beer splashed onto Mr. Sena. Mr. Sena's shirt was still wet with beer at the scene. Mr. Sena had not been drinking.

Officer T. asked the intimacy question of Ms. Cano because he had already established that a battery had occurred under the law. Whether he could arrest for that battery depended on the relationship between Mr. Sena and Ms. Cano. The lapel video showed that both Mr. Sena and Ms. Cano were more than friends, and that they had a relationship. Under the law, a battery committed by a household member outside the presence of the officer, is an arrestable offense provided there is probable cause to believe that the offense occurred. Based on what both parties told Officer T. and based on the physical evidence, it was determined that Ms. Cano had committed a battery and that she was the primary aggressor. Under New Mexico State Law and under APD's Domestic Violence Policy, once the primary aggressor has been determined and once there is probable cause to believe the aggressor committed a crime, the officer must arrest the aggressor. The arrest is mandated by law.

In reviewing the criminal complaint in the matter, there were no charges of defamation of character, sexual harassment, or false imprisonment filed. The lapel videos showed that Ms. Cano refused to get out of Mr. Sena's car. She had been drinking. There was an argument and Ms. Cano threw beer on Mr. Sena. Officer T. was mandated by policy and state law to arrest Ms. Cano. The lapel videos showed that both officers acted professionally throughout the entire encounter.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED, as the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER M.'S CONDUCT

- A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1-F regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Cano alleged that she had been charged with defamation of character, false imprisonment, and sexual harassment. Ms. Cano was in jail for several days until she was released. Ms. Cano wrote that she wanted to file a lawsuit.

When Ms. Cano was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator she said that she was complaining about Officer T. and Officer M.. Re: CPC # 093-15

Dear Mr. O'Malley:

The complaint you filed against an Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer H. was received in our office on June 5, 2015, regarding an incident that occurred on June 3, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. O'Malley complained that on June 3, 2015 at about 10:00 PM, Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer H. responded to his residence and called him a liar. Mr. O'Malley said he is not a liar but physically disabled.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

On June 15, 2015, a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was reviewing Mr. O'Malley's complaint when Mr. O'Malley came to the CPOA office and requested to dismiss his complaint. Rather than dismiss the complaint altogether, Mr. O'Malley was encouraged to have his complaint investigated informally.

On July 24, 2015, the CPOA investigator interviewed Officer H. and explained that Mr. O'Malley wanted to dismiss his complaint however he was encouraged to have the complaint investigated informally. On August 6, 2015, the CPOA investigator contacted Officer H.'s supervisor, Sergeant Y. and requested Sergeant Y. speak with Officer H. regarding Mr. O'Malley's allegation.

On August 7, 2015, the CPOA Investigator received notification from Sergeant Y., stating that he had contacted Officer H. and discussed Mr. O'Malley's complaint with Officer H. and reminded Officer H. to be professional when interacting with citizens. On August 7, 2015, Sergeant Y. called Mr. O'Malley, who did not answer his phone so Sergeant Y. left Mr. O'Malley a voicemail providing him an update on the informal investigation.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

This complaint was handled informally. It was sent to Officer H.'s Supervisor for review and action. Officer H.'s Supervisor did discuss Mr. O'Malley's concerns with Officer H. Mr. O'Malley's complaint was informally resolved. Therefore, I am administratively closing this complaint and no further investigation by our office will occur.

Re: CPC #094-15

Dear Mr. Sanchez:

The complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 10, 2015 regarding an alleged incident that occurred on March 11, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA investigated your complaint. The CPOA made a finding, based on the information you provided, of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation, and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Sanchez complained officers entered and searched his home on March 11, 2015. Mr. Sanchez wrote officers did not provide a copy of the search warrant to him, but his understanding was the search was for drugs. Mr. Sanchez alleged that officers handcuffed and manhandled him and his adult children. Mr. Sanchez alleged that officers asked him where they purchased their drugs and threatened them with charges. Mr. Sanchez alleged that during the search he asked one officer about the warrant was told to mind his own business. He was then told to leave his home and would be told when to return. Mr. Sanchez understood there had been a drug raid earlier at the Econo Lodge where no drugs had been found and took it out on his family. Mr. Sanchez wrote about an earlier incident in 2012 where the same thing essentially occurred.

II. INVESTIGATION

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS) and the Citizen Police Complaint.

Letter to Mr. Sanchez

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the complaint Mr. Sanchez submitted. Records located a report on August 8, 2012 where Mr. Sanchez's adult children were the target of the investigation. A search warrant had been issued and a search conducted on August 17, 2012. Mr. Sanchez specifically said to the CPOA Investigator he was not complaining about this incident.

Records located an incident at the Econo Lodge Mr. Sanchez mentioned on March 10, 2015. The investigation did not involve narcotics, but a stolen vehicle. Mr. Sanchez's adult son was present during this situation, but not listed as an offender. Nothing else recent involving APD could be located for Mr. Sanchez's address or involving his family. Calls to several different units all reported no involvement at the address Mr. Sanchez provided. The CPOA Investigator called BCSO Internal Affairs Unit (IA) July 17, 2015. BCSO researched the issue and determined their agency was involved in the search Mr. Sanchez complained about and APD was not a party to the situation.

The CPOA Investigator called Mr. Sanchez on July 17, 2015 and advised him his complaint was with BCSO, not APD. Helena Gonzalez from BCSO Internal Affairs Unit received a copy of Mr. Sanchez's complaint. Mr. Sanchez understood the case would be administratively closed in our office, as it did not involve APD.

III. CONCLUSION

The CPOA has made the decision to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE your complaint, due to the Albuquerque Police Department not being involved in the incident.

If you have a computer available, we would greatly appreciate your completing our client survey form at <http://www.cabq.gov/iro/survey>.

Thank you for participating in the process of civilian oversight of the police, ensuring officers and personnel of the APD are held accountable, and improving the process.

Rose Archuleta

Albuquerque, NM 87122

Re: CPC# 095-15

Dear Mrs. Archuleta:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on June 10, 2015, for an incident, which occurred on January 13, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Rose Archuleta wrote that she was in the process of divorcing her husband, George Archuleta. The Archuletas shared a business. Ms Archuleta explained that Mr. Archuleta called the police to report an incident involving Ms. Archuleta at their office. Officer H. responded to the call. Ms. Archuleta alleged that Officer H. was ill mannered and told her to "shut up" when she tried to explain her side of things. Mrs. Archuleta wrote Officer H. handcuffed her and threatened her with arrest if she did not leave the business. Mrs. Archuleta wrote a Judge ruled she had a right to be in her business. Mrs. Archuleta wrote Officer H. refused to review the security footage to show her ex-husband made false allegations against her. Mrs. Archuleta wrote Mr. Archuleta accused her of being drunk so Officer H. gave her sobriety tests in front of her employees and customers, which was degrading. Mrs. Archuleta wrote

Officer H. refused to look at the paperwork she tried to provide to show she had a right to be at the business. Mrs. Archuleta wrote Officer H. and her husband laughed at her expense after she left. Mrs. Archuleta wrote whenever she drove past her business her ex-husband called and Officer H. responded.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Mrs. Archuleta. Mrs. Archuleta reiterated much of her written complaint. Mrs. Archuleta stated a Judge ruled she had a right to be in her business so she went to work on January 13, 2015. Mrs. Archuleta denied she threatened her husband. Mrs. Archuleta stated she told Officer H. to check the cameras to confirm her side of things, but he refused. Mrs. Archuleta stated she offered to show Officer H. documentation that she owned the business, but Officer H. refused to look at it. Mrs. Archuleta stated Officer H. degraded her by having her complete sobriety tests in front of her customers and employees. Mrs. Archuleta stated Officer H. handcuffed her. Mrs. Archuleta claimed Officer H. was good friends with her husband.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER H.'S CONDUCT

The CPOA Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report (CAD), Albuquerque Police Report, Officer H.'s lapel video, and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Mrs. Archuleta, Mr. Archuleta, and Officer H..

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-1F regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off-duty in a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mrs. Archuleta claimed Officer H. told her to "shut up." Mrs. Archuleta said Mr. Archuleta and Officer H. laughed at her. Officer H. embarrassed her in front of employees and customers by making her perform sobriety tests. When Mrs. Archuleta told Officer H. a Judge said she could be at the business, Officer H. told her he was being "judge and jury" right now and it was his decision for her to leave. Officer H. had her sit against the police car while her husband took pictures. She claimed Officer H. used handcuffs on her.

Mr. Archuleta stated Officer H. acted professionally and did not use handcuffs. The lapel video recording showed Officer H. did not tell Mrs. Archuleta to shut up, but he did tell her he could only talk to one person at a time. The video showed that he did threaten to use handcuffs and take her outside if she did not stop interrupting. The recording showed that while Officer H. spoke to Mrs. Archuleta individually, he treated her professionally. However, Officer H.'s recording stopped in the middle of his conversation with Mr. Archuleta so his second contact with Mrs. Archuleta and the HGN assessment were not captured on the recording. Some portions of Mrs. Archuleta's complaint occurred in the unrecorded portion.

Letter to Mrs. Archuleta

The CPOA finds Officer H.'s conduct to be NOT SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation is unable to determine whether the alleged misconduct occurred.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedural Order 2-24-3F1 & 3 regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations: 1. Observe all conditions, events and remarks. 3. Protect the crime scene and the evidence. Ensure that necessary evidence is collected.

Mrs. Archuleta claimed Officer H. refused to review the proof she had that she had a right to be at the business. Officer H. also refused to review the surveillance video to show that her husband lied about her threatening him.

The lapel recording showed Mrs. Archuleta said all her documentation was at home, not there, in contrast to her interview. The specifics of the business disputes were a civil matter. Mr. Archuleta demonstrated to Officer H. that he was a property owner and Mrs. Archuleta could not. As the property owner, Mr. Archuleta could request Officer H. to issue her a trespass notice since Mrs. Archuleta caused a disturbance. Mr. Archuleta claimed Officer H. did not need to see the surveillance video because Officer H. heard Mrs. Archuleta's threats when Officer H. came in. According to Officer H., there was no threats of violence so he did not need to see video. The portion that was recorded showed no mention of threats from anyone.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer H. was EXONERATED, which means the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-4N regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel will not act officiously or permit personal feelings, animosities, or friendship to influence their decisions.

Mrs. Archuleta claimed that Officer H. and Mr. Archuleta were "good friends." She believed this to be true because her sister-in-law said Mr. Archuleta was friends with an officer. Mrs. Archuleta said Mr. Archuleta threatened to send Officer H. after her when she parked near the business once.

Mr. Archuleta stated he did not know Officer H. personally. The lapel recording showed Officer H. indicated no familiarity or bias with either party. Officer H. mentioned he had been to the business before for a call. There is no evidence to support the allegation that Officer H.'s decision to issue a trespass notice was based on any friendship with Mr. Archuleta.

M006624

Letter to Mrs. Archuleta

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer H. was UNFOUNDED, which means the alleged misconduct did not occur.

(D) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-39-2B regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

All sworn department personnel will record each and every contact with a citizen during their shift that is the result of a dispatched call for service, arrest warrant, search warrant service or traffic stop. Personnel will activate the recorder prior to arriving at the call or prior to citizen contact on a non-dispatched citizen contact. Uniformed civilian personnel issued digital recorders will also comply with this section. The recordings will be saved for no less than 120 days.

Officer H.'s recording stopped early into the call. Officer H. stated he did not know why his recording stopped and blamed equipment failure. There was nothing notated on the report because he did not know his video cut out until later when his sergeant brought it to his attention.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer H. was SUSTAINED, which means the alleged misconduct did occur.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer H.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

CPC# 096-15

Dear Ms. Chavez:

Your complaint against former Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer D. was received by our office via e-mail on June 11, 2015 for an incident which occurred at your residence on an unknown date. Your complaint was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator for review.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Chavez complained about the actions of an APD Officer who is no longer employed by APD.

II. CONCLUSION

The CPOA office has no authority to investigate the actions of former police officers. The CPOA would have no way to compel him to come in for a statement and even if they did, there would be no way for anyone to impose any administrative sanction on an officer who no longer works for APD. Because the CPOA lacks jurisdiction to address this complaint, the CPOA will administratively close this matter. Should Officer D. return to work in the future as an APD employee, this office could re-open this matter at your request.

Admah Levy

Re: CPC #097-15

Dear Ms. Levy:

The complaint you filed against Officer T., and Officer W. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 14, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on June 14, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Admah Levy wrote in her complaint that on June 14, 2015 at about 3:30 AM, the police were called to an apartment complex located at 215 Lead SW, in reference to two white males walking through the apartment complex screaming at each other and arguing extremely loudly over an incident that happened earlier in the night. Ms. Levy and her fiancée, as well as a neighbor from across the way, went outside and yelled at the two men to keep it down. The men yelled back at them. Ms. Levy, in agitation, yelled back at the men who left but then came back. The men threatened to fight both a neighbor and Ms. Levy's fiancée. Upon the arrival of the officers, the one man who was making the most noise was not detained. He just went to a waiting car across the street. The officers talked to the men for about 3 minutes and the men were let go and allowed to rejoin their friends across the street and drive away. The officers came over and told Ms. Levy's neighbor that he was not allowed to yell out of his window anymore because he was apparently disturbing the peace and he could be fined for that. Ms. Levy said that this incident was the most backwards showing of protect and serve that she had ever seen.

Letter to Ms. Levy

When Ms. Levy was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator, she said that she was motivated to file the complaint because of the way the police officer addressed her neighbor. Ms. Levy, who is African American, stated that her neighbor is also African American. Ms. Levy said that her fiancée, who is white and obnoxious, was clearly making more noise from their balcony than the African American neighbor was making from his. Ms. Levy felt that the officer only warned the African American neighbor that he was disturbing the peace because he is African American. She said that her white fiancée was not warned. Ms. Levy felt the officer's action was an act of discrimination.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER T.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Computer Assisted Dispatch (CADS) Report, an interview with Ms. Levy, and interviews with Officer T., and Officer W.. Officer W.'s lapel video recording of the incident was also reviewed.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-02-2(B)(1) regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall take appropriate action and render assistance in any instance coming to their attention whether on or off duty.

Ms. Levy complained that the police were called to her apartment complex in reference to two white males walking through the apartment complex screaming at each other and arguing extremely loudly over an incident that happened earlier. Ms. Levy and her fiancée, as well as a neighbor from across the way, went outside and yelled at the two men to keep it down. The other men yelled back at them. Ms. Levy, in agitation, yelled back at the men who left, but then came back. The other men threatened to fight both a neighbor and Ms. Levy's fiancée. Upon the arrival of the officers, the one man who was making the most noise was not detained. He went to a waiting car across the street. The officers talked to the remaining men for about 3 minutes and the men were let go and allowed to rejoin their friends across the street and drive away. The officers came over and told Ms. Levy's neighbor that he was not allowed to yell out of his window anymore because he was apparently disturbing the peace and he could be fined for that. Ms. Levy called that "backwards" policing.

Both Officers who were present at the call were interviewed. One officer's lapel camera video was reviewed. Ms. Levy was interviewed. The investigation revealed that Officer W. and not Officer T. dealt with the two men involved in the complaint. The lapel video showed that both men, when approached by the police, were apparently not intoxicated to the point where they were impaired significantly. The men were calm, spoke clearly, and were not obviously intoxicated. The men were adults, and they were walking through the complex at 3:30 AM. The officers did not observe the men yelling at anyone. Officer W. had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion after the men were contacted to detain them. Officer W. properly allowed the men to go on their way after a brief stop.

Officer T. did observe Ms. Levy and her fiancée on their balcony conversing with their neighbor across the street, who was on his balcony. Both parties were speaking loudly; loud enough that they could be heard from the street. Officer T. told the one man on the balcony to go back inside and to be quiet and when he went to address Ms. Levy and her fiancée, they had gone back inside their apartment already.

With all parties either back inside or gone, peace and quiet had been restored. It should be noted that whoever called the police initially requested that the police not contact them.

The evidence showed that the officers responded properly to the situation and took appropriate action.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be EXONERATED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-03-3-A 1 regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Biased-based policing and/or profiling by any member of this Department are prohibited. Investigative detentions, field contacts, traffic stops, arrests, searches, property seizures and forfeiture efforts will be based on a standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause in accordance with the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

When Ms. Levy was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator, she said that she was motivated to file the complaint because of the way the police officer addressed her neighbor. Ms. Levy, who is African American, stated that her neighbor is also African American. Ms. Levy said that her fiancée, who is white and obnoxious, was clearly making more noise from their balcony than the African American neighbor was making from his. Ms. Levy felt that the officer only warned the African American neighbor that he was disturbing the peace because he is African American. She said that her white fiancée was not warned. Ms. Levy felt the officer's action was an act of discrimination.

Officer T. observed Ms. Levy and her fiancée on their balcony conversing with their neighbor across the street who was on his balcony. Both parties were speaking loudly; loud enough that they could be heard from the street. Officer T. told the one man on the balcony to go back inside and to be quiet and when he went to address Ms. Levy and her fiancée, they had gone back inside their apartment already.

There is no evidence to support that Officer T. committed an act of discrimination by addressing the man across the street first instead of addressing Ms. Levy and her fiancée first. Had Officer T. had the chance to address Ms. Levy and her fiancée, he would have gladly done so.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED, as the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-39-2 B regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

All sworn department personnel will record each and every contact with a citizen during their shift that is the result of a dispatched call for service... Personnel will activate the recorder prior to arriving at the call...and will record the entirety of the citizen contact.

Officer T. was required by policy to record the incident in its entirety as this was a dispatched call for service. Officer Wickens did not turn on his lapel camera while responding to the call for service or while he was on scene. He was required to do so.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED VIOLATION NOT BASED ON ORIGINAL COMPLAINT, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that misconduct did occur but was not alleged in the original complaint but that was discovered during the misconduct investigation.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER W.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-02-2-B 1 regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall take appropriate action and render assistance in any instance coming to their attention whether on or off duty.

and drive away. The officers came over and told Ms. Levy's neighbor that he was not allowed to yell out of his window anymore because he was apparently disturbing the peace and he could be fined for that. Ms. Levy called that "backwards" policing.

The investigation revealed that Officer W. and not Officer T. dealt with the two men complained of. The lapel video showed that both men, when approached by the police, were apparently not intoxicated to the point where they were impaired significantly. The CPOA finds Officer W.'s conduct to be EXONERATED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer T.'s and Officer W.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Re: CPC #98-14

Dear Ms. Garcia:

The complaint you filed against Officer D. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on July 18, 2014, for an incident which occurred on April 21, 2014. You complained about an Officer-Involved Shooting involving Officer D.. You alleged that Officer D.' committed a homicide. You further alleged that Officer D. was unfit to be a public servant.

Under a Memorandum of Understanding and the Police Union Contract, all APD Officer-Involved Shootings are investigated by a criminal Multi-Jurisdictional Task Force. The Albuquerque Police Department Internal Affairs Division completes the administrative investigation. After both of these investigations are complete, I, as Acting Executive Director, of the Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) review both the criminal and administrative investigations to propose findings as to whether the subject officer(s) followed APD Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs).

While awaiting both the criminal and administrative investigations in this matter, Officer D. was terminated from the Albuquerque Police Department. Under City Ordinance, the CPOA only has jurisdiction over current APD employees. Because Officer D. is no longer an APD employee, the CPOA no longer has jurisdiction to review your complaint.

Therefore, the Agency has administratively closed the matter of your complaint for lack of jurisdiction.

Re: CPC #098-15

Dear Mr. Chavez:

The complaint you filed against Officer L. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on June 14, 2015, for an incident which occurred June 14, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the APD officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Joel Chavez complained that APD Command Staff has ignored repeated pleas to investigate and intervene in suspected drug trafficking at his neighbor's home. APD Command Staff first learned of Mr. Chavez's allegations on June 4, 2013 via the Albuquerque City Council Office. As a result, APD Lieutenant (Lt.) B. contacted Mr. Chavez and asked him to report suspicious activity when he saw it. Mr. Chavez said he started recording the activity in February 2015 and reported it to Commander B. in March 2015. Commander B. said he would look into it but Mr. Chavez complained he never heard back from Commander B. and the suspected drug activity at his neighbor's home continued so in May 2015, Mr. Chavez reported his concerns to APD Chief E. Mr. Chavez said an APD Narcotics detective visited Mr. Chavez at his home in May, 2015. Mr. Chavez complained that on May 19, 2015, he told Commander B. that twice an unidentified female APD officer was seen speaking to the neighbor involved in the illegal drug activity, which Mr. Chavez found disturbing. Mr. Chavez complained that APD Command Staff, specifically Commander B., has not taken appropriate action and have shown a complete lack of concern regarding his allegations about the illegal drug activity and of the female officer's inappropriate interactions with Mr. Chavez's neighbor.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER L.'S CONDUCT

The Assistant Lead Investigator of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, lapel videos and interviews with the Complainant, Mrs. Chavez, Officer L. and Commander B..

A) Did Officer L. comply with Albuquerque Police Department (APD) General Order 1-04-6 (H)? General Order 1-04-6 (H) states:

H. Personnel shall treat the official business of the department as confidential. Information regarding official business shall be disseminated only to those for whom it is intended, in accordance with established department procedures.

Mr. Chavez complained that APD Officer L. worked in collusion with his neighbor, Clarence, by providing Clarence with inside APD information.

The interviews and lapel videos were reviewed and showed Officer L. contacted Mr. Chavez' neighbor, Clarence, on May 12, 2015 and May 26, 2015. The May 12, 2015 video showed Officer L. sitting in her patrol vehicle conducting surveillance on Clarence's house and watching for traffic violations, when Clarence contacted her from the sidewalk across the street from her patrol vehicle and asked to speak with her. The video showed Clarence reported various issues in his neighborhood to Officer L. and she responded appropriately to his concerns and questions. The May 26, 2015 video showed Officer L. and several other officers contacted Clarence and a small child on his driveway and spoke to Clarence about shots fired in the area. The video showed a male officer ask Clarence if officers could search his residence to ensure no one had been shot or was deceased inside his residence. Clarence gave the officers verbal consent to search his home, which they did but they did not find anything suspicious so they left. The lapel videos did not show any familiarity between Officer L. and Clarence, nor did they show Officer L. provide Clarence with any inside information, as alleged in Mr. Chavez' written complaint and interview.

The CPOA finds Officer L.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer L.'s Internal Affairs records.

In addition to his allegations against Officer L., Mr. Chavez alleged inaction on the part of APD Command Staff, specifically Commander B. It is not an SOP violation if an officer does not respond to a citizen's email correspondence or phone call; however the CPOA Investigator reviewed pages of email correspondence between Mr. Chavez and Commander B., Mr. Chavez and Lt. B., Mr. Chavez and Lt. M., and Mr. Chavez and Chief E. which shows that Commander B. and APD Command staff have been responsive to Mr. Chavez' concerns. Additionally, the email correspondence showed emails between Commander B., his staff and other APD officers and units requesting assistance in addressing Mr. Chavez' concerns. Specifically, staff was asked to increase patrols in Mr. Chavez' neighborhood, conduct special enforcement operations to issue traffic citations and citations for other violations, as needed, and set up a speed trap in the area all in an effort to increase APD visibility and presence in the area. APD officers and staff did as Commander B. and other Command Staff members requested.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re:    CPC # 101-15

Dear Mr. JeanLouis:

Your complaint against Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Detective R. was received by our office via e-mail on June 15, 2015 for an incident which occurred on May 18, 2015. Your complaint was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator for review and investigation on June 17, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

You complained that on May 18, 2015 your child went with his mother and that on May 19, 2015, your child's mother refused to bring the child back to you. You reported this to the APD. Detective R. was assigned to the case to investigate why the child had not been returned to you. Detective R. contacted you and told you that the child was going to remain the mother because she had paperwork showing that she could keep the child. You wanted to know what paperwork she had to show Detective R. that made it okay for your child to remain with the mother.

II. THE INVESTIGATION

You believed that since you had a Minute Order granting you granting you sole temporary custody of the child that the child's mother was committing custodial interference. The Minute Order was granted on December 12, 2014. Detective R.'s investigation into the matter determined that the Minute Order was dismissed on February 9, 2015. The records indicated that you were at that hearing and that you were aware of the dismissal. That dismissal set custody of the child back to where it was before the Minute Order was issued. Detective R. contacted the mother of your child and made sure that your child was being cared for properly. Detective R. also checked with the Judge who had dismissed the Minute Order and the Judge confirmed that custody of the child had been reverted to where it was before the Order was granted. Detective R. contacted you and told you what he had found. You were under the impression that you still had sole custody of the child at the time but that was not the case. Detective R. advised you to go back to court to request any modifications to the custody arrangements, as the Court had superceded the Minute Order with a new custody order.

Letter to Mr. JeanLouis

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Detective R.. The CPOA Investigator reviewed the Court Documents, the initial police report in the matter, Detective R.'s report, and a recorded phone calls between Detective R. and the child's mother. The CPOA Investigator contacted you by phone on August 17, 2015. You told the CPOA Investigator that this matter had been settled and that you wanted to drop the complaint. Although you were assured that the CPOA would fully investigate your complaint, you gain advised that the mater had been settled and that you wished to drop your complaint against Detective R..

III. CONCLUSION

Your complaint was investigated to the extent that we could investigate it given that you did not want to participate further in the process. You stated that the matter had been resolved and you specifically requested that the complaint be dropped and no further action would be required by the COPA. The preliminary CPOA Investigation also revealed no evidence of any violations of APD Standard Operating Procedures by Detective R. Because there was no evidence of policy violations and because you specifically requested that your complaint be closed before a full investigation could be conducted, the Civilian Police Oversight Agency is administratively closing your complaint without further investigation.

If you have a computer available, we would greatly appreciate you completing our client survey form at <http://www.cabq.gov/iro/survey> .

Albuquerque, NM 87110

Re: CPC #103-14

Dear Ms. Barth:

The complaint you filed against Detective O. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on May 27, 2014 regarding an incident that occurred on May 23, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and independent contract investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Elizabeth Barth wrote in her complaint that Elizabeth Barth filed an online attitude complaint on an unknown APD officer. The claimant was at Kaseman emergency room and had Barth had engaged in conversation with two APD Officers who were there following up on a suicide call. IRO Investigator Chris Davidson researched CADS and identified Officer John A Montoya, a field training officer and Theodore Hatcher, a recruit officer.

Barth alleged that on May 23, 2015 she entered into a conversation with two APD Officers who were at Kaseman emergency room conducting an investigation. The investigation determined that Officer M. and Officer H. were the two officers Ms. Barth was speaking about. Ms. Barth alleged that Officer M. told her that his Kevlar armored vest cost $1500.00. Ms. Barth said she replied that she was surprised by the cost. Officer M. then told her with all of his training he is a "million dollar killing machine." Barth said that she felt that he was serious with this remark and not joking. Ms.

Letter to Ms. Barth

Barth said she did not respond to that remark. Ms. Barth said she then asked Officer M. if domestic violence call was the most dangerous calls for police officers and he replied that was true and traffic stops were dangerous because officers did not know if the person being stopped had a weapon. Ms. Barth felt the Officer was inappropriate with his remark.

Ms. Barth noted that the other officer was quiet and not engaged in the conversation. The other officer was later identified thru CADS as being Officer H., who was a recruit at the time. Ms. Barth also indicated in her interview with the CPOA Investigator that she did not want to be notified through the Findings Letter in this case, but merely wanted Officer H.'s supervisor to speak with him about his remark regarding the "million dollar killing machine."

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE O.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Report in the case, interviews with Ms. Barth, Officer M. and Officer H..

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1 (F) regarding Detective O.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Barth alleged that during a conversation at Kaseman Hospital, that Officer M. told her with all of his training he is a "million dollar killing machine." Ms. Barth said that she felt that he was serious with this remark and not joking. Ms. Barth believed that Officer M.'s statement was inappropriate.

The contract independent investigator interviewed the two officers involved. Officer M. recalled the conversation with a staff member at Kaseman Hospital, but denied making the statement about being a killing machine. Officer H. did not recall any of the conversation between Officer M. and the hospital staff.

The CPOA find Officer M's conduct to be NOT SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means that there was insufficient evidence to determine whether or not the incident occurred as alleged.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer M.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC # 105-15

Dear Mr. Monsivais:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on June 24, 2015, for an incident, which occurred on June 24, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Monsivais wrote he noticed a traffic accident and slowed down to avoid endangering Officer W.. Mr. Monsivais wrote Officer W. yelled at him, asked him "what the hell" he was doing, and called him stupid. Mr. Monsivais tried to respond, but Officer W. told him to get the hell out of there.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Mr. Monsivais. Mr. Monsivais repeated his written complaint and said Officer W. degraded and belittled him. Mr. Monsivais stated Officer W. called him stupid. Mr. Monsivais stated she told him to get the hell out of there a few times. Mr. Monsivais was upset with her treatment of him, but decided to leave instead of escalate a confrontation. Mr. Monsivais stated as he left he heard her say something derogatory about him to the fire truck personnel, but he did not know the specifics.

Letter to Mr. Monsivais

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER W.'S CONDUCT

The investigation included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report (CAD), Officer W.'s lapel video, and interviews of Mr. Monsivais and Officer W..

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-4P regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall not use coarse, violent, profane, or insolent language or gestures.

Mr. Monsivais turned down a street where Officer W. was walking down the middle of the road. Mr. Monsivais stated Officer W. degraded and belittled him when he made his turn, accusing him of being stupid. When Mr. Monsivais tried to discuss the situation with Officer W., she repeatedly told him to get the hell out of there. As he left, he could tell she spoke negatively about him to the fire truck personnel.

The video showed Officer W. was walking in the middle of the street when Mr. Monsivais turned contrary to Officer W.'s assertion. The video showed Officer W. accused Mr. Monsivais numerous times of not seeing her as she walked in the middle of the street. It did not appear that Mr. Monsivais almost struck Officer W. although it was not clear in the video where Mr. Monsivais' focus was. The video showed Officer W. did not call Mr. Monsivais stupid as Mr. Monsivais claimed. The video showed Officer W. told Mr. Monsivais to get out of there several times. The video showed after Mr. Monsivais drove off Officer W. muttered an insult about Mr. Monsivais, but no one would have been able to hear it. The video showed Officer W. asked the other individuals if they saw Mr. Monsivais almost run her over, but in more of a joking manner. Officer W.'s reaction was insolent and excessive for the situation.

The CPOA finds Officer W.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did occur.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer W.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Mr. Ian Stephens-McCormick

[REDACTED]

Albuquerque, NM 87109

Re: CPC #107-15

Dear Mr. Stephens-McCormick:

The complaint you filed against Officer B. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 29, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on June 18, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint on July 1, 2015. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Ian Stephens-McCormick wrote in his complaint that on June 18, 2015 at about 10:00 PM, he was pulled over and arrested by Officer B.. Mr. Stephens-McCormick said he was in a hurry to get home because his wife was having female problems. Officer B. had Mr. Stephens-McCormick step out of his car and Officer B. arrested Mr. Stephens-McCormick for reckless driving. Mr. Stephens-McCormick complained that Officer B. was rude to his wife and when she asked Officer B. if she could speak to Mr. Stephens-McCormick, Officer B. allegedly told her that she could not and it wasn't as if she wasn't going to see him again because he wasn't going to prison. Mr. Stephens-McCormick complained that Officer B. had stopped him twice before and that Officer B. was rude to him during those stops. Mr. Stephens-McCormick wrote in his complaint that he felt that Officer B. had it out for him and that he was being judged and targeted by Officer B. because of the color of Mr. Stephens-McCormick's skin. Mr. Stephens-McCormick is African American.

Letter to Mr. Stephens-McCormick

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER B.'S CONDUCT

The Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), a review of the Citizen Police Complaint, an interview with Mr. Stephens-McCormick and an interview with Officer B.. Officer B.'s lapel video recording of the incident was also reviewed.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1-F regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Stephens-McCormick complained that Officer B. was rude to his wife and when she asked Officer B. if she could speak to Mr. Stephens-McCormick, Officer B. allegedly told her that she could not and it wasn't as if she wasn't going to see him again because he wasn't going to prison.

The lapel camera video of the traffic stop was reviewed. The video showed that Officer B. was not rude with Mr. Stephens-McCormick's wife. Officer B. asked her twice if she had any questions and Officer B. responded politely to the questions asked. When Mr. Stephens-McCormick's wife asked if she could tell Mr. Stephens-McCormick bye, Officer B. said, "You'll see him again. It's not like he's going to prison. He was drag racing."

Overall, Officer B.'s conduct was reviewed and Officer B. did not commit any infractions or say or do anything that reflected negatively on the Albuquerque Police Department.

The CPOA finds Officer B.'s conduct to be Exonerated, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but it did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-03-1 regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department to respect and protect the constitutional rights of all individuals during law enforcement contacts and/or enforcement actions and that such enforcement decisions will not be predicated solely on the basis of an individual's race, color, national origin or ancestry, citizenship status, language spoken, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, disability, or economic status.

Mr. Stephens-McCormick wrote in his complaint that he felt that Officer B. had it out for him and that he was being judged and targeted by Officer B. because of the color of Mr. Stephens-McCormick's skin. Mr. Stephens-McCormick is African American. In his interview, Mr. Stephens-McCormick alleged that he was arrested and charged with the offenses that he was because he was African American. Mr. Stephens-McCormick admitted in his first encounter with Officer B. that he had a license plate cover over his plate. He said that at the time he did not know that was illegal. Officer B. warned him about his exhaust and his display of the red marker lights on the front of his car. He said that Officer B. took no enforcement action on him at that time; that he was simply warned to get everything fixed. Officer B. confirmed that was true.

Mr. Stephens-McCormick said the second time Officer B. pulled him over Officer B. gave Mr. Stephens-McCormick tickets for the modified exhaust, the license plate cover, and for having red marker lights on the front of his car. All of those things he was warned to fix before. Mr. Stephens-McCormick admitted he had not taken care of the problems at that time, even though he was previously warned by Officer B. to get the problems fixed. Officer B. confirmed this.

In this last encounter, the one where Mr. Stephens-McCormick was arrested, Mr. Stephens-McCormick admitted that he was violating the law by driving his car at excessive speed up Montgomery Boulevard.

In each encounter, Mr. Stephens-McCormick admitted that he had violated the law and in each encounter Officer B. had probable cause to stop Mr. Stephens-McCormick and take enforcement action.

Biased based policing is prohibited by APD. Mr. Stephens-McCormick's traffic stops, enforcement action, and arrest, were all based on probable cause.

The CPOA finds that Officer B.'s conduct was Unfounded, as the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-48-2 B 2 regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Vehicles will be towed when the driver has been incapacitated, hospitalized, arrested, or when the vehicle cannot be released to a responsible party. Officers will not tow the vehicle if the vehicle is parked at the driver's place of residence, or his/her registered address.

The lapel video evidence, the police report, and the investigation showed that this traffic stop took place at 8000 Montgomery where Mr. Stephens-McCormick resides. The lapel video evidence showed that it was Officer B.'s car that was blocking traffic in and out of the complex and not Mr. Stephens -McCormick's car. Although Mr. Stephens-McCormick's car was not in a parking space, it was at the residence, and his girlfriend/wife was there, as well as his roommate, and either one of those responsible adults could have moved and parked the car with Mr. Stephens-McCormick's permission. The video showed that Officer B. decided to tow the car even before Mr. Stephens-McCormick had a chance to ask if his passengers could move or take possession of the car. Mr. Stephens-McCormick's car should not have been towed.

The CPOA finds Officer B.'s conduct to be Sustained, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged misconduct did occur.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer B.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

If you have a computer available, we would greatly appreciate your completing our client survey form at <http://www.cabq.gov/iro/survey>.

Monica M. Stockdale
[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87106

Re: CPC #111-13

Dear Ms. Stockdale,

The complaint you filed against Officer A. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 4, 2013, regarding an incident that occurred on January 20, 2013.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Stockdale complained that on January 20, 2013, Officer A. was rude and dismissive following her attempts to remove squatters from her rental home. Ms. Stockdale indicated that Officer A. refused to take a report from her and was antagonistic toward her in a situation he deemed to be an eviction.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) employee was assigned to follow up on this case, reviewed Ms. Stockdale's complaint, and researched the matter so that we could obtain more information about the incident. The employee learned that Officer A. is no longer employed by the Albuquerque Police Department. On May 5, 2015, the CPOA employee assigned to follow up on this matter contacted Ms. Stockdale and informed her that Officer A. was no longer an officer and that the complaint would be administratively closed. Ms. Stockdale stated she understood.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Because Officer A. is no longer an APD employee, the CPOA lacks jurisdiction to further investigate this complaint. Therefore, the CPOA will administratively close this complaint and no further investigation by our office will occur.

A copy of the Complaint and this letter will be placed in Officer A.'s Internal Affairs file.

Dear Dr. Karr:

The complaint you filed against Officer H. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 6, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on July 3, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Dr. Kari Ward Karr called in her complaint to the Civilian Police Oversight Agency on July 6, 2015. Dr. Karr reported that on July 3, 2015 APD Officer H. and another officer had set up a speed trap. Officer H. had Dr. Karr pull over. Officer H. gave Dr. Karr a ticket for speeding. Officer H. also gave Dr. Karr a ticket for not having signed her vehicle registration. Officer H. refused to let Dr. Karr sign the registration in front of him and instead issued Dr. Karr the ticket which required her to appear in court. Dr. Karr alleged that Officer H. was rude, discourteous, and seemed to want to abuse his power as a police officer. Dr. Karr alleged that she was inconvenienced by having to appear in court to show the judge that her registration was now properly signed, as opposed to permitting Dr. Karr to mail in payment for the speeding ticket. Dr. Karr subsequently filed a written, signed complaint.

That complaint alleged that Officer H.'s manner and behavior toward Ms. Karr "as an apparent nonminority Caucasian in the northeast heights" lead her to conclude that Officer H. has had claims of excessive force against him. Dr. Karr complained that Officer H.'s issuance of the second ticket for having an unsigned registration demonstrated vindictiveness, poor judgment, and a lack of his awareness of his public duty to protect and serve those that support and pay for his career and his obligation to resolve conflicts in a reasonable manner. Dr. Karr alleged that the issuance of the second ticket created as senseless waste of public monies, a reckless burden on the court system, a drain on the judge's time, and unnecessary stress on Dr. Karr and an inconvenience for her patients. Dr. Karr stated that Officer H.'s bullying behavior perpetuated APD's already tarnished reputation. Dr. Karr stated that Officer H. issued a frivolous ticket and turned clerical matter into a huge expense and a waste of time for the city and its citizens. When Dr. Karr was interviewed, she alleged that Officer H. discriminated against her because of her age and gender.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER H.'S CONDUCT

The Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), a review of the law that Dr. Karr was cited under, the Citizen Police Complaint, an interview with Dr. Karr and an interview with Officer H.. Officer H.'s lapel video recording of the incident was also reviewed.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1-F regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

When Dr. Karr phoned in her complaint to the Civilian Police Oversight Agency on July 6, 2015, she reported that APD Officer H. issued Dr. Karr a ticket for speeding and a ticket for not having signed her vehicle registration. Dr. Karr reported that the ticket required her to appear in court. Dr. Karr alleged that Officer H. was rude, discourteous, and seemed to want to abuse his power as a police officer. Dr. Karr alleged that she was inconvenienced by having to appear in court to show the judge that her registration was now properly signed, as opposed to permitting Dr. Karr to mail in payment for the speeding ticket. When Dr. Karr was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator Dr. Karr filed a subsequent written, signed complaint.

That complaint alleged that Officer H.'s manner and behavior toward Dr. Karr "as an apparent nonminority Caucasian in the northeast heights" lead her to conclude that Officer H. has had claims of excessive force against him. Dr. Karr complained that Officer H.'s issuance of the second ticket for having an unsigned registration demonstrated vindictiveness, poor judgment, and a lack of his awareness of his public duty to protect and serve those that support and pay for his career and his obligation to resolve conflicts in a reasonable manner. Dr. Karr alleged that the issuance of the second ticket created as senseless waste of public monies, a reckless burden on the court system, a drain on the judge's time, and unnecessary stress on Dr. Karr and an inconvenience for her patients. Dr. Karr stated that Officer H.'s bullying behavior perpetuated APD's already tarnished reputation. Dr. Karr stated that Officer H. issued a frivolous ticket and turned a clerical matter into a huge expense and a waste of time for the city and its citizens.

Dr. Karr told the CPOA Investigator, "Obviously, I was being professional. I was driving a new car. I don't look like I have no money. He insured that I had to lose a day of work. It ended up costing me approximately 735.00. But it would not have cost me if I had one ticket to deal with. I thought the abuse of power occurred when he gave me a second, and completely unnecessary, ticket. I could have simply sent in the payment if had not done that. He insured that I had to take a day of work and a day of personal time instead of being able to see patients. So in total it was an abuse of power."

Officer H. recorded his entire interaction with Dr. Karr on his lapel camera. The CPOA Investigator reviewed that lapel camera recording. It showed the following:

Officer H. greeted Dr. Karr with "Good Morning." She replied, "Hi there." Officer H. told Dr. Karr that she was speeding 59 miles per hour in a 40 mile per hour zone. Officer H. said, "I'm Officer H. with APD." Dr. Karr said, "I'm sorry. It's a new car. I'm not used to it." Officer H. said, "Okay. Can you please put it in park so you don't bump up on the curb? Thank you." Dr. Karr produced her driver's license and gave it to Officer H.. She then showed him the registration and proof of insurance which was in a plastic bag. Officer H. asked Dr. Karr to remove the registration from the bag. He called her ma'am in doing so. Officer H. asked Dr. Karr if she currently lived at the address on her license and she confirmed that she did. Officer H. said, "Thank you." When Dr. Karr handed Officer H. her registration, he again said, "Thank you." Officer H. looked at the proof of insurance and made sure that it was current. Officer H. said, "Thank you ma'am. Please stay in the car. I'll be right back." Officer H. then walked to his car. After the tickets were written, the video then captured Officer H. returning Dr. Karr's car.

Officer H. said to Dr. Karr. "Two citations. That registration doesn't have a signature and one for speeding." Dr. Karr said something that was inaudible. Officer H. said, "You'll have to sign your registration and bring it to court to show that you're in compliance and then you have to go to court on your speeding citation." Dr. Karr asked, "I just can't sign it now?" Officer H. replied, "No." Officer H. gave Dr. Karr a court date. Dr. Karr pointed to her registration and said, "But I told you how new it is." Officer H. said, "Okay. I understand that." Officer H. told Dr. Karr where the court was located and told her what to do if she couldn't make it to court on the given date and time. Officer H. told Dr. Karr, "You're signing for court date, not admitting guilt to anything." While Dr. Karr signed the citations Officer H. said, "You need to watch your speed. I realize it's a new car but almost twenty over the speed limit is a little quick okay?" Dr. Karr said something inaudible and then said, "I have no speeding tickets for 30 years." Officer H. said, "I believe you." Officer H. said, "I have to scan your signature and I will bring these copies right back to you." Dr. Karr said, "While we're doing this." Dr. Karr then signed the registration in front of Officer H.. He said, "Yeah sign it and just bring it into the courthouse with you." Dr. Karr said, "You know I have to tell you sir, this was a little more than, a little much. And I think, a little inconvenient.” Officer H. said, “Okay. Alright. Well, I’m just doing my job. I’ll be right back ma’am.” Dr. Karr said, “I have no problem with the speeding ticket. I think this is uncalled for.” Officer H. said, “Okay.”

Officer H. returned to his car and scanned the signatures on the citations. Officer H. returned to the Dr. Karr’s vehicle and spoke with Dr. Karr. In handing the citations to Dr. Karr he said, “Here’s your copy Ma’am.” Dr. Karr asks, “Can I have my license?” Officer H. replied, “Yes Ma’am you can. You’re free to go. Please watch your speed.” Dr. Karr asked Officer H. if his name was on the tickets. He replied, “Yes ma’am my name is Officer H.. It is also on the, they are written down right here. Let me show you on the citations. Officer H.. This is my police ID number, XXXX. Alrighty ma’am, please drive safe.” Officer H. then walked away and the video ended.

The CPOA Investigator also reviewed the applicable law.

State Statute 66-3-13 is not a penalty assessment misdemeanor and because it is not, any person charged with a violation of the statute is required to appear in court. The law is cited below:

66-3-13. Evidence of registration to be signed and exhibited on demand.

- A. Every owner, upon receipt of registration evidence, shall write that owner’s signature thereon in a space provided. Every such registration evidence or duplicate of registration evidence validated by the division shall be exhibited upon demand of any police officer.
- B. A person charged with violating the provisions of this section shall not be convicted if the person produces, in court, evidence of a signed registration valid at the time of issuance of the citation.

Dr. Karr was required by law to sign her registration when she received it as part of her new car purchase. The signature on the form is also an affirmation that the vehicle has liability insurance coverage, which is also required. The dismissal of Dr. Karr’s second citation in court for not having a signed registration was dismissed because it was mandated by law.

The investigation revealed that Officer H. was not rude or discourteous. Officer H. did not abuse his power as a police officer because he cited Dr. Karr into court. Officer H. was not “bullying” in his behavior. The evidence in the case showed that Dr. Karr was in violation of the law. She was speeding 19 miles per hour over the posted speed limit. She did not have a signed vehicle registration in her possession when she was stopped. Officer H. routinely cites people for that same violation. The issuance of the citations was lawful and proper.

The CPOA finds Officer H.’s conduct to be Unfounded, as the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

- B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-03-1 regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department to respect and protect the constitutional rights of all individuals during law enforcement contacts and/or enforcement actions and that such enforcement decisions will not be predicated solely on the basis of an individual's race, color, national origin or ancestry, citizenship status, language spoken, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, disability, or economic status.

When Dr. Karr was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator in person, she additionally alleged that Officer H. discriminated against her because of her age and gender. Dr. Karr offered no facts to support her allegation other than saying that she did not feel that Officer H. would have taken the same action if she were male or if she were a young pretty girl. Dr. Karr went on to say that she also felt discriminated against because her sister is a criminal defense attorney who has had some run-ins with Officer H. in the past. She said her voice and name is clearly similar to her sister's voice and name. She felt that Officer H. discriminated against her because of that.

The investigation showed that Officer H. had never met Dr. Karr prior to this incident and he did not know who Dr. Karr's sister was. There was no mention of Dr. Karr's sister on the lapel video. Officer H. was unaware that Dr. Karr's sister was a defense attorney. During Officer H.'s administrative interview he asked for Dr. Karr's sister's name but the name had never been provided to the CPOA Investigator. Officer H. said that without a name he wouldn't know who Dr. Karr's sister was. In the course of his duties Officer H. deals with a lot of defense attorneys. He does not know who their family members are.

During the investigation Officer H. was asked if Dr. Karr's age or sex influenced his decision to issue the tickets. Officer H. issued the citations to Dr. Karr because she violated the law. There was no outside influence on him, no proof of bias, and no evidence uncovered during the investigation that would support Dr. Karr's allegations that she was discriminated against or that the issuance of the second ticket was discriminatory in nature.

The CPOA finds that Officer H.'s conduct was Unfounded, as the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer H.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

MEMORANDUM TO FILE –RE: CPC 112-14 –
FROM: Robin Hammer, Acting Executive Director

On July 1, 2014, Detective Z. from APD Internal Affairs sent a memo to Acting Executive Robin Hammer regarding an anonymous citizen complaint. On June 5, 2014, an unidentified citizen filed an unofficial anonymous complaint with the Independent Review Office. The complaint advised that on May 28, 2014, at approximately 0700 hours, they were traveling on I-40 westbound at Eubank when the complainant observed three to four people standing in the middle of an overhead walkway pointing what appeared to be a gun at the complainant and/or at the complainant's vehicle. The complainant believed they were going to get shot. The complainant stated they had nowhere to go but forward. The complainant stated they did not know that the people standing on the overhead walkway were police officers using radar.

The anonymous citizen believes that the officers doing this could have caused major accidents and believes that this was very inconsiderate and a dangerous tactic for a few speeding tickets. The complainant believed this tactic may cause fear in the community, as a few days later a woman was shot in the face as she traveled on a busy road and a person from a walkway shot her.

According to news reports, on May 30, 2014, at approximately 1615 hours, a man standing on a bridge over Paseo del Norte fired off a shot to traffic below, hitting a woman in her face as she was driving.

The anonymous complaint's concern occurred two days prior to the reports of an unknown male firing a shot from a bridge at a vehicle and striking a woman. The woman being shot from the bridge appears to be an isolated event and such an event has not occurred again.

Detective Z. from Internal Affairs stated that the anonymous complaint is unsigned and has no contact information for the complaint. Per 20.1.2.2 of the city contract, this type of complaint is defined as an unofficial complaint, and the department will not conduct administrative investigations into unofficial complaints of a non-criminal nature. The officers did not violate any state or city laws by utilizing a radar unit over an interstate.

Detective Z. advised that if another similar shooting occurs again, he would recommend that APD revisit its current policy and procedures governing the radar usage and usage of such devices over major corridors. Detective Z. was unable to identify any department violations regarding this incident.

Detective Z. requested that the complaint be inactivated and closed. The Acting Executive Director will administratively close this case.

Re: CPC #113-15

Dear Ms. Ortega:

The complaint you filed against Officer M. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on July 7, 2015, for an incident which occurred November 20, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the APD officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Ortega said that on November 20, 2014, at approximately 12:45 PM, Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer Andrew Michaud and Sergeant Bruce Werley and Office of the Medical Investigator (OMI) Investigator Rhonda Moya responded to 9412 Valle Caldera Road SW in reference to the unattended death of Jose Alderete. Mr. Alderete was Ms. Ortega's 21-year-old son. Ms. Ortega complained no one from APD, or the OMI attempted to contact her regarding her son's death. Ms. Ortega complained her son was treated like a nobody. Ms. Ortega complained her sister called the OMI and asked if Ms. Ortega could go to the OMI and identify her son's body but was told she could not and it was not necessary because her son's body was positively identified using fingerprints. Ms. Ortega complained she still has not, officially, been notified about her son's death, nor has she received an apology for not being notified.

Letter to Ms. Ortega

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER L.'S CONDUCT

The Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, reports, and interviews with the Complainant and Officer M..

A) Did Officer M. comply with Albuquerque Police Department General Order 2-28-3(B)(4)? General Order 2-28-3(B)(4) states:

APPARENT NATURAL DEATH

B. The Dispatched Officer(s) will:

4. Be responsible for contacting the next of kin of the deceased and recording the contact in the incident report. The officer will only make death notification accompanied by a Chaplain or another officer.

Ms. Ortega said that on November 20, 2014, at approximately 12:45 PM, Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer M. and Sergeant W. and Office of the Medical Investigator (OMI) Investigator M. responded to 9412 Valle Caldera Road SW in reference to the unattended death of Jose Alderete. Mr. Alderete was Ms. Ortega's 21-year-old son. Ms. Ortega complained no one from APD, or the OMI attempted to contact her regarding her son's death. Ms. Ortega complained her son was treated like a nobody. Ms. Ortega complained she still has not, officially, been notified about her son's death, nor has she received an apology for not being notified. NOTE: Sergeant W. retired from APD and declined to be interviewed for this investigation.

The interviews, report and CADS revealed Officer M. attempted to contact Ms. Ortega, who is Jose Alderete's next of kin, and when he was unsuccessful, he contacted OMI Investigator M., who said she would take responsibility for the death notification. The evidence revealed that Officer M. did not violate any Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) although he was unsuccessful in contacting Ms. Ortega.

The CPOA finds Officer M.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate Albuquerque Police Department policies, procedures or training.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer M.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC # 118-15

Dear Ms. Burger:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on July 10, 2015, for an incident, which occurred on July 5, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Burger wrote her keys were stolen for the third consecutive day and that this has happened several times before. Ms. Burger wrote about her history of being targeted by various crime groups through her neighbors. Ms. Burger wrote she called police to report the issue with her keys. Ms. Burger wrote Officer T. did not listen to her. She wrote Officer T. only asked her if she took medication and the last time she had been in the hospital. Ms. Burger wrote Officer T.'s questions were irrelevant. Ms. Burger wrote Officer T. obviously had been influenced by the crime groups and would not document her theft of keys.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Ms. Burger. Ms. Burger explained more in depth why she was being targeted in her interview. She also showed a letter, but said she could not provide a copy. Ms. Burger reported her neighbor was skilled at hypnosis, able to freeze her in her tracks, and while powerless to stop him; the neighbor took her keys to make wax impressions of them. She called police and Officer T. responded. Officer T. shifted weight so often she suspected the crime groups had interfered with Officer T.. Ms. Burger told Officer T. some of what had been going on and the suspected reasons. Instead of asking relevant questions, Officer T. asked her if she had been diagnosed with mental illness or had been taking medication. Ms. Burger stated his question was irrelevant and she told him to leave.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER T.'S CONDUCT

The investigation included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report (CAD), Officer T.'s lapel video, and interviews of Ruth Burger and Officer T..

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-1F regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Burger called police to report that her neighbors have been stealing her keys to make wax impressions of them. Ms. Burger explained to Officer T. that the neighbors used hypnosis to stop her in her tracks and gain access to the keys. Ms. Burger explained to Officer T. she was being targeted by various crime groups. These groups focused on her because of the work she did in the past.

The lapel video showed Ms. Burger did not provide an immediate reason why she called police and instead described numerous things from various years. The lapel video showed Officer T. listened to Ms. Burger and did not interrupt her as she explained things for about ten minutes. The video showed Officer T. asked a question about her mental health. Ms. Burger immediately became angry and dismissed Officer T. from her home.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-05-2C4 regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel of the Department Shall Write Reports On any incident that is of great importance where the officer is at the scene, at the scene of a crime, or any incident where a citizen/victim requests a report. The calling party will not be referred to the Telephone Reporting Unit.

Ms. Burger wanted a report concerning the issue with her keys. Based on his question about her being in the hospital it was obvious the crime groups had gotten to Officer Tillman before he came to her house and little to nothing would be reported. She told him when he left he should write an honest report.

The lapel video showed Ms. Burger never got to the point about specifically asking for a police report; she only alluded to it. The video showed Ms. Burger excused Officer Tillman after a single question. He did not have the information required for a report.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer T.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Dear Ms. Martinez:

The complaint Ms. Gabaldon filed against Officer E. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on June 11, 2013, for an incident which occurred on June 11, 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate the complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated the complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Police Officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Gabaldon complained that Officer E. filed a false police report and that there was no evidence to support the assertion that she was making harassing phone calls. Officer E.'s police report indicated that he was dispatched on the day of the complaint, June 11, 2013, regarding a disturbance between Ms. Gabaldon and Alejandra Salas-Lopez.

Officer E. was familiar with the ongoing disturbance between the two people because Officer E. had dealt with a similar incident on May 4, 2013 in which Ms. Gabaldon admitted to repeatedly calling Ms. Salas-Lopez concerning bail for a man, Adam Chavez, who was Ms. Gabaldon's ex-boyfriend and Ms. Salas-Lopez's current boyfriend. The issue pertained to the bail that Ms. Gabaldon had posted for her ex-boyfriend. On May 4, 2013, Ms. Gabaldon indicated to Officer E. that she would rather have a telephone harassment charge against her than lose the bail money she had posted.

Letter to Ms. Martinez

When Officer E. met with Ms. Salas-Lopez, she showed him messages from 505-702-6000. Officer E. verified that this was Ms. Gabaldon's number through dispatch logs from the previous call and through a police database listing Ms. Gabaldon's contact information. The messages from Ms. Gabaldon included profanity, taunting, and caused Ms. Salas-Lopez to feel harassed.

Officer E.'s police report listed some, but not all of the harassing messages Ms. Gabaldon made to Ms. Salas-Lopez. The messages included statements such as, "Hey, dirty skank...;" "Hey stalker how ur day going?" and "And bitch please I'm not obsessed with that fool I only had to find him cuz I had bonded him out on that bond, but everything is cool now he's in custody! bahaha." Ms. Salas-Lopez tried to block contact from Ms. Gabaldon, but Ms. Gabaldon would use internet applications to circumvent the block, using the skills and knowledge Ms. Gabaldon had learned working for a cellular company.

Ms. Gabaldon denied sending the text messages and showed her empty text history as proof. Officer E. was aware of the fact that text messages could be erased. Officer E. looked at her internet history on the phone, which showed internet messages but did not show who the messages were sent to or the content of the messages/

Officer E. determined that Ms. Gabaldon's phone records were insufficient to show that she did not contact Ms. Salas-Lopez. In his police report, Officer E. noted that Ms. Gabaldon also referred to Ms. Salas-Lopez as a "popo ho" a term that was used in the messages to Ms. Salas-Lopez.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, Officer E. determined that there was a reasonable likelihood that Ms. Gabaldon had made the threatening and intimidating texts to Ms. Salas-Lopez. Officer E. issued a criminal summons based on his finding of probable cause and told Ms. Gabaldon that the ultimate determination would be up to the courts.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING EMPLOYEE E.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, and interview an interview with Officer E.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Procedural Order 2-24-3(F)(1), (4) & (5) regarding Officer E.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations: 1. Observe all conditions, events and remarks. 4. Effect the arrest (in this case issue the summons) of the suspect. 5. Report the incident fully and accurately.

M006666

Letter to Ms. Martinez

Ms. Gabaldon's prior behavior in repeatedly contacting Ms. Salas-Lopez, Ms. Gabaldon's admitting to that behavior, Ms. Gabaldon's indication that she would continue to contact Ms. Salas-Lopez, the continued texts in the same vein of profane content, and the subject of the mutual boyfriend led to the summons being issued to her supported Officer E.'s conclusion that Ms. Gabaldon was harassing Ms. Salas-Lopez. Officer E. said he did not have evidence to support Ms. Gabaldon's denials in the face of her prior contact with Ms. Salas-Lopez and the text messages shown to him by Ms. Salas-Lopez. A preponderance of the evidence gathered supported Officer E.'s conclusions in charging Ms. Gabaldon.

The CPOA finds with regard to the allegation made by Ms. Gabaldon about Officer E.'s conduct that the allegation was UNFOUNDED, which means that the investigation determined, by clearing and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

The complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer E.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the Executive Director or the Chief to appeal that decision to the POC within ten business days of receipt of this letter. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re:    CPC # 121-15

Dear Mr. Lovell:

Your complaint against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 17, 2015. Your complaint was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator for review on July 21, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Your complaint alleged you are being followed and harassed by Albuquerque Police Department (APD) officers on a daily basis for at least eight consecutive days however your complaint did not contain any information which would allow the CPOA to identify any APD officers.

II. THE INVESTIGATION

An investigation into your complaint cannot be conducted without any identifying information regarding the suspected APD officers. Should you receive information in the future which would help us identify the officers, please contact our office and we will address the complaint at that time.

III. CONCLUSION

By City Ordinance, we may only investigate and address complaints which are filed against the APD and its officers and employees we are able to identify. We do not have enough information to investigate your complaint because your complaint contains no identifying information about any APD officer or APD employee. Therefore, I am inactivating your complaint without further investigation.

If you have a computer available, we would greatly appreciate you completing our client survey form at <http://www.cabq.gov/iro/survey>.

Re: CPC #122-15

Dear Ms. Polchies:

The complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 17, 2015 regarding an unspecified date in 2009 and a March 19, 2012 incident. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA investigated your complaint. The CPOA made a finding, based on the information you provided, of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Polchies wrote that she has resided in California since 2009, but APD records informed her there were reports that her identity had been stolen. Ms. Polchies listed a date of March 19, 2012. Ms. Polchies also wrote in 2009 several officers showed up at her home making the claim that her vehicle was involved in a bank robbery and entered her home without a warrant. After the officers left she called APD dispatch who told her officers had not been to her home nor had there been bank robberies. Ms. Polchies believed her neighbor arranged the officers to come to her home. The officers indicated her neighbor had been watching and listening to her. Ms. Polchies wrote her neighbor had said in the past that she had family members in law enforcement. Ms. Polchies wrote one of the officers that yelled at her in 2009 she has seen in California several times. Ms. Polchies wrote she has been a victim of hate crimes in California and there was a connection. Ms. Polchies wrote officers came to her neighbor's home several times and gave Ms. Polchies information they should not have.

II. INVESTIGATION

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS) and the Citizen Police Complaint.

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the complaint Mrs. Bernier submitted. The CPOA Investigator preliminarily talked to Ms. Polchies to try to get more information. Ms. Polchies provided a correct address since the one she originally wrote in her complaint did not exist. Ms. Polchies also provided a case number for the case she said occurred in March of 2012.

The CPOA Investigator had APD records run Ms. Polchies name to locate any incidents involving her as well as the address she provided. The address revealed a couple of reports, but nothing involving her or any indication she lived at the address provided. A search of her name revealed some missing persons reports from 2007 and one report from January 2, 2012. The report from January matched the case number Ms. Polchies provided, but Ms. Polchies claimed that report was from March. The report took place at a hotel. The reason Ms. Polchies called police was that house-cleaning staff entered her hotel room. APD records also looked for cases involving Ms. Polchies' neighbor cross-referenced with Ms. Polchies, but nothing came up.

The CPOA Investigator spoke to Ms. Polchies again on August 11, 2015, to advise her that no information matched what she provided. Ms. Polchies again claimed she called police just after officers entered her home and wanted that call looked for. She also wanted a search done of any bank robberies in the time she stated in 2009. Ms. Polchies indicated during the conversation possibly officers from Las Cruces, NM posed as APD officers all connected to her ex-husband. She mentioned a specific name, which was not on the APD roster. Ms. Polchies said this all was interconnected to what was going on currently in California with her.

The CPOA Investigator had the APD Records and Data coordinator search for the phone number she claimed she used to call police. There were no phone calls made from that number during the time Ms. Polchies claimed it happened. No bank robberies occurred during the time Ms. Polchies claimed it happened. There is no information to identify what incident or officers caused Ms. Polchies to file her complaint.

III. CONCLUSION

The CPOA has made the decision to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE your complaint, due to not being able to identify any Albuquerque Police Officer related to this incident and not having enough information to further the investigation. The CPOA Investigator advised you of this possibility over the phone.

Administratively closed complaints may be re-opened if additional information becomes available. Please contact the CPOA in regards to your Civilian Police Complaint if you can provide further details and wish to have the complaint re-opened.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Tadeusz (Tad) Niemyjski wrote in his complaint that on June 25, 2013 he was parked in his car on private property. Mr. Niemyjski that Officer T. pulled him over. Mr. Niemyjski alleged that Officer T. told him to leave the property and was verbally abusive to Mr. Niemyjski.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER B.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator and the contract investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) Report, the Citizen Police Complaint, an interview with Mr. Niemyjski, and an interview with Officer T..

David Derringer

Re: CPC #129-14

Dear Mr. Derringer:

The complaint you filed against Detective J. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on June 27, 2014 regarding an incident that occurred in June 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and an independent contract investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

David Derringer wrote in his complaint that he was involved with divorce proceedings with his ex-wife and there was a dispute about property and personal belongings. Mr. Derringer stated that he was assaulted by friends of his ex-wife and has filed two separate civil lawsuits against these people. Mr. Derringer alleged that some of his personal property was taken to his ex-wife's attorney's office and he alleged that property was moved and abandoned and he called APD to take a report. Mr. Derringer stated he had problems with missed and unreturned phone calls with Detective J.. Mr. Derringer alleged that Detective J. was hateful, vengeful, and had great animosity towards him. Mr. Derringer alleged that Detective J. advised him that he would need to pursue any further action in a civil court and Mr. Derringer had requested addresses to pursue a service of summons on his ex-wife and her attorney. Detective J. was concerned for their safety and refused to disclose any information. Mr.

Letter to Mr. Derringer

Derringer attempted to talk to Detective J.'s lieutenant but he never returned his phone call. Mr. Derringer alleges that Detective J. facilitated the alleged larceny and embezzlement of his property by personally authorizing the ex-wife and her attorney to keep and dispose of his property. It should be noted that in his complaint Mr. Derringer identifies the Detective as a different name, but the correct Detective was identified through records.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE O.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA and the contract independent investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Report in the case, and a review of two recorded statements, one by the complainant and one by Detective J..

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1 (F) regarding Detective J.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Derringer alleged that Detective J. violated his "oath of office" by refusing to pursue this matter as a criminal matter. Mr. Derringer also alleged that Detective J. violated New Mexico State Statutes when he did not pursue this incident as a criminal act. After interviewing Detective J., it is clear that this is a property dispute between husband and wife who are in the midst of a divorce. A police officer has no jurisdiction in this matter and no criminal act has occurred within Detective J.'s jurisdiction.

The investigation revealed Mr. Derringer called Detective J. and attempted to ascertain the current address of his ex-wife. Detective J. would not provide that information for good reason. Mr. Derringer stated in his complaint that Detective J. was "hateful, vengeful and had great animosity towards him." Mr. Derringer provided no evidence in his statement nor in his complaint to substantiate this claim. Detective J. stated that he was polite, professional and courteous toward Mr. Derringer.

The CPOA find Detective J.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means that the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Detective J.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please

Re: CPC # 130-15

Dear Mr. Coleman:

The complaint you filed against Officer M. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 24, 2015, regarding an incident that occurred on July 24, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Coleman complained that on July 24, 2015 at about 11:30 AM, he was at the bus stop located at Utah and Central Avenue, eastbound, when he was contacted by City of Albuquerque Transit officers and APD Officer M.. Mr. Coleman said the officers told him he was loitering because he did not get on the bus when it arrived at the stop and APD Officer M. issued him a Criminal Trespass Notification. Mr. Coleman also complained officers took a photograph of him and asked him to surrender his Sun Van picture identification card, which Mr. Coleman refused to do.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator reviewed your complaint and contacted you on August 7, 2015 to schedule an interview on August 10, 2015. You did not show up for the interview, or call to cancel or reschedule. The CPOA Investigator contacted you, again, on August 12, August 20 and August 21, 2015 in an attempt to interview you over the phone however you were not available for an interview on any of those days and did not call back for the interview. Despite not being able to interview you, the CPOA Investigator interviewed Officer M. to determine whether, or not, Officer M. violated any APD Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs). The CPOA Investigator also reviewed Officer M.'s lapel video, which revealed Officer M. responded to the bus stop at Utah and Central Avenue at the request of Transit officers. Transit officers cannot issue Trespass notifications or citations and must rely on APD to do so. Additionally, the investigation revealed it was Transit officers and not Officer M. who took a photograph of you. The investigation conducted determined that Officer M. did not violate any SOPs by assisting the Transit officers.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

By City Ordinance, the CPOA may only investigate and address complaints which are filed against the APD and its officers. We do not have legal authority to investigate your complaint against the Transit officers. A review of APD Officer M.'s lapel camera video revealed that Officer M. did not violate any APD Standard Operating Procedures.

Therefore, I am administratively closing your complaint and no further investigation will occur.

Tadeusz Niemyjski
[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87102

Re: CPC # 132-13

Dear Mr. Niemyjski:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on June 27, 2013, for an incident which occurred on June 27, 2013. I assigned your Complaint to be investigated by a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. I, as Acting Executive Director, made findings of whether the police officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Since officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, Sections 9-4-1-13 and 9-4-1-14 of the Police Oversight Ordinance mandate that their statements not be made public. Further, the contract between the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association and the City of Albuquerque sets forth guidelines on the information which I may disclose to you. Below is a summary of the complaint, my findings and any discipline imposed.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Tadeusz Niemyjski wrote on June 27, 2013, that he was across the street from the Clinic for the Homeless when he was approached by Officer R. Mr. Niemyjski stated that Officer R. asked if he was taking pictures of the clinic and what he was doing there. He stated that Officer R. told him he could not be on the street or looking in the direction of the clinic. Mr. Niemyjski stated that he feared Officer R. and did not understand why he could not be on a public street. He stated that Officer R. threatened to give him a criminal trespass and arrest him. He felt that Officer R. abused his authority. Mr. Niemyjski asked when and where does APD harassment end and stated that the officers need better training.

Mr. Niemyjski was interviewed in the office of the investigator on August 4, 2013. He reiterated what was in his written complaint. He also stated he went to Healthcare for the Homeless on June 27, 2013. Mr. Niemyjski stated he asked an administrator who had paid for his last appointment. He stated he was sent to another office to speak with another person. He stated that Healthcare for the Homeless was violating his civil rights by asking for his personal information to be treated at the clinic. He also stated he is also required to sign in at the Healthcare for the Homeless even if he wanted a cup of coffee. Mr. Niemyjski stated an attorney told him it was a violation of his rights as well and that is when Officer R. became involved. Mr. Niemyjski stated he called the police to file a charge of harassment against Healthcare for the Homeless. He stated that Officer R. informed him that he could not look at the building from the street because it would be considered intimidation and he could be arrested. Mr. Niemyjski stated he was issued criminal trespass notifications by Healthcare for the Homeless and Officer R.

Mr. Niemyjski asked if the Investigator could file charges against Terry Ellis, Director for Healthcare for the Homeless. The Investigator explained to Mr. Niemyjski that our office could only investigate SOP violations against Officers of the Albuquerque Police Department. Mr. Niemyjski understood and stated to the Investigator to leave Terry Ellis out of the complaint due to Mr. Niemyjski having an attorney who was going to look into the alleged violations Healthcare for the Homeless conducted against him.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER R.'S CONDUCT

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report (CADS), the police report, and interviews of Mr. Niemyjski and Officer R.

(A) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer R.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Niemyjski wrote on June 27, 2013, he was across the street from the Clinic for the Homeless when he was approached by Officer R. He stated that Officer R. asked if he was taking pictures of the clinic and what he was doing there. He stated that Officer R. told him he could not be on the street or looking in the direction of the clinic. Mr. Niemyjski stated he feared Officer R. and did not understand why he could not be on a public street. Mr. Niemyjski stated Officer R. threatened to give him a criminal trespass and arrest him. Mr. Niemyjski stated that he felt Officer R. abused his authority. Mr. Niemyjski asked when and where does APD harassment end, and stated the officers need better training.

Officer R. indicated that he did not recall the incident. Officer R. was a bike officer and would handle numerous calls on a daily basis at Healthcare for the Homeless. Officer R. stated calls come in daily asking officers to have either people removed from the premises or police presence at Healthcare for the Homeless. Because this case was a very long time ago, he could not recall, due to the numerous times a day he was called to the location.

Due to the timeframe of the investigation, lapel video could not be retrieved, as it was outside the 120-day retention guideline.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer R. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(B) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 3-3-2(A)(B) regarding Officer R.'s conduct, which states:

A. If the owner, lessee, proprietor or any other person in lawful possession of real property lawfully denies consent for a subject to return on or about that property, an officer shall complete an offense/incident report utilizing the New Mexico Uniform Incident report.

B. The Criminal Trespass Notification-Order Not to Return form shall be completed by the officer. After obtaining the appropriate signatures (if subject refuses, write REFUSED) the officer shall disseminate the copies...

Mr. Niemyjski stated that he felt harassed by Officer R. and that Officer R. threatened to give him a criminal trespass. Officer R. did issue Mr. Niemyjski a criminal trespass due to the director of Healthcare for the Homeless asking Officer R. to issue that trespass notification. APD report 13-0057429 describes the entire call and the reason for the criminal trespass notification. Mr. Niemyjski also signed the criminal trespass notification. Officer R. followed Standard Operating Procedure by responding to a private business at the request of the Director, filing the appropriate police report, and issuing the criminal trespass notification.

I find Officer R.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer R.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the IRO or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC # 134-15

Dear Mr. Yedin:

The complaint you filed against Officer C. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 28, 2015, regarding an incident that occurred on July 27, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Yedin complained that on July 27, 2015 at about 12:05 AM, sugar was poured on the outside of his gas tank. Mr. Yedin said he called APD to report the incident and Officer C. arrived approximately an hour and half later. Mr. Yedin said Officer C. called and requested a fingerprint examiner to come out and process his tank. however Officer C.'s request was denied because no sugar actually entered his gas tank.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator reviewed your complaint and contacted you on August 7, 2015 and spoke with you about the incident. The CPOA Investigator learned that Officer C. responded to your residence reference someone tampering with your gas tank by pouring sugar in it. You said Officer C. requested a fingerprint technician to respond to the location to process your vehicle, but his request was denied. The CPOA Investigator explained the reason Officer C.'s request was most likely denied was due to the inability to prove someone tampered with your gas tank even if the unidentified fingerprint technician would have been able to obtain fingerprints from the gas tank lid. Additionally, the CPOA Investigator told you Officer C. took the appropriate action necessary for this type of call and did not violate any APD Standard Operating Procedures in regard to this incident. You told the CPOA Investigator the explanation made sense and that you were satisfied with it. You also told the CPOA Investigator you were satisfied with our investigation into the matter and that no further investigation would be necessary into the incident.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

The investigation conducted determined that Officer C. responded and took the appropriate action necessary for this type of call and did not violate any APD Standard Operating Procedures in regard to this incident. After you received the above information from the CPOA Investigator, you indicated that no further investigation into the matter was necessary.

Therefore, the Civilian Police Oversight Agency will be inactivating your complaint and no further investigation will occur. It is our hope that your complaint was resolved to your satisfaction by our office and by the Albuquerque Police Department.

Re: CPC # 135-15

Dear Ms. Ashton:

The complaint you filed against an Albuquerque Police Department (APD) 911 dispatcher was received in our office on July 28, 2015, regarding an incident that occurred on January 24, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Elizabeth Ashton complained that on July 24, 2015 at about 3:00 PM, she called Albuquerque Police Department (APD) 911 to report a possible lead on her stolen vehicle. Ms. Ashton told the APD 911 dispatcher her vehicle might be at 304 Texas Street NE because she tracked her iPad, which was inside her vehicle when it was stolen, to that address. Ms. Ashton complained the APD 911 dispatcher asked her to meet APD officers at 304 Texas Street NE, which was unsafe and could have put Ms. Ashton in harm's way. Ms. Ashton complained the dispatcher was also rude. Ms. Ashton said the dispatcher's suggestion to meet at a location where she might encounter suspects is a huge liability for the City. Ms. Ashton suggested the dispatcher receive more training so no one else will be put in danger.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator reviewed Ms. Ashton's complaint and contacted Ms. Ashton on the phone on August 12, 2015. Ms. Ashton explained that she did not want to sue APD or make a big deal about this but wanted to make us aware of the dangers involved if a 911 dispatcher were to send someone to a location where a burglary and motor vehicle theft suspect may be while waiting on APD officers to arrive. Ms. Nunez agreed that she would be satisfied to have this complaint handled informally by Officer C.'s Supervisor rather than having it investigated formally. The CPOA Investigator said that she would have Officer C.'s Supervisor contact Ms. Nunez so that she could discuss her concerns directly with the Supervisor.

Letter to Ms. Ashton

On August 25, 2015, the CPOA Investigator spoke with APD's Dispatch Supervisor, Ms. W., who indicated that she had spoken with Ms. Ashton and discussed her complaint with you. Ms. W. said that she confirmed with Ms. Ashton that she would address the complaint with the 911 Dispatcher and speak to the Dispatcher about her behavior. Ms. Ashton indicated to Ms. W. that she was satisfied with the way Ms. W.'s actions to address the complaint. Ms. Ashton said that she did not want mediation or any further action taken.

Miles Donaldson

Albuquerque, NM 87104

Re: CPC #140-15

Dear Mr. Donaldson:

The complaint you filed against Officer L. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 31, 2015 regarding an incident that occurred on July 31, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Miles Donaldson said that on July 31, 2015 at about 1:00 PM, he was panhandling in his wheelchair at the intersection of Rio Grande and I-40. Mr. Donaldson said that his wife's sister, who lives in Oklahoma, had her leg amputated and he was trying to get money to help out his sister-in-law. Mr. Donaldson was approached by Officer L.. Mr. Donaldson said that Officer L. told him that he had ten seconds to leave the area and started counting down from 10. Mr. Donaldson said that Officer L. threatened to arrest him if he did not leave and the officer allegedly told Mr. Donaldson that if he did arrest him, he would leave his wheelchair behind. Mr. Donaldson complied and left the area. Mr. Donaldson returned to the same intersection on August 4, 2015 and allegedly, Officer L. drove by him twice on that day and told him to move. Mr. Donaldson did. Mr. Donaldson believed that panhandling was legal and he had allegedly been told by an unnamed APD Sergeant that what he was doing was okay.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER L.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, an interview with Mr. Donaldson and an interview with Officer L.. Officer L.'s lapel video recording of the incident was also reviewed.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1-F regarding Officer L.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Miles Donaldson said that on July 31, 2015 at about 1:00 PM, he was panhandling in his wheelchair at the intersection of Rio Grande and I-40. Mr. Donaldson said that his wife's sister, who lives in Oklahoma, had her leg amputated and he was trying to get money to help his sister in law out. Mr. Donaldson was approached by Officer L.. Mr. Donaldson said that Officer L. told him that he had ten seconds to leave the area and started counting down from 10. Mr. Donaldson said that Officer L. threatened to arrest him if he did not leave and the officer allegedly told Mr. Donaldson that if he did arrest Mr. Donaldson, Officer L. would leave Mr. Donaldson's wheelchair behind. Mr. Donaldson complied and left the area. Mr. Donaldson returned to the same intersection on August 4, 2015 and allegedly, Officer L. drove by him twice on that day and told him to move. Mr. Donaldson did. Mr. Donaldson believed that panhandling was legal and he had allegedly been told by an unnamed APD Sergeant that what he was doing was okay.

Mr. Donaldson was interviewed. Officer L. was interviewed. Officer L.'s lapel video was reviewed. Mr. Donaldson admitted that he was panhandling. Under City law, panhandling consists of any solicitation, begging, or any other form of asking for donations made in person upon any public place in the city in which a person requests an immediate donation of money or other gratuity from another person. A public place is defined in the ordinance as street, highway, or sidewalk, as well as many other places. Panhandling from a sidewalk is illegal. Mr. Donaldson was admittedly committing a violation of the law when he was approached by Officer L.. Officer L. had probable cause to approach and caution Mr. Donaldson that Mr. Donaldson was breaking the law and that Mr. Donaldson needed to leave or face the legal consequence for violating the law.

The lapel video showed that Mr. Donaldson was argumentative with Officer L.. Officer L. asked Mr. Donaldson to leave the area but Mr. Donaldson continued to argue with Officer L.. In an effort to get Mr. Donaldson to comply with the law and to stop panhandling, Officer L. increased his command presence by telling Mr. Donaldson that he had ten seconds to stop panhandling and to leave. By the time Officer L. was down to a count of 8, Mr. Donaldson was leaving; not happily, but leaving nonetheless. The tactic worked and Officer L. was able to accomplish his objective without having to make an arrest or take any enforcement action.

Letter to Mr. Donaldson

The contact was proper and lawful. Officer L.'s behavior did not violate any policy or procedure of the Albuquerque Police Department.

The CPOA finds Officer L.'s conduct to be EXONERATED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer L.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC #141-14

Dear Mr. Gaudette:

The complaint you filed against Officer D. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on July 18, 2014, for an incident which occurred on April 21, 2014. You complained about an Officer-Involved Shooting involving Officer D.. You alleged that Officer D.'s actions were wrongful. You further alleged that APD failed to properly train and supervise Officer D..

Under a Memorandum of Understanding and the Police Union Contract, all APD Officer-Involved Shootings are investigated by a criminal Multi-Jurisdictional Task Force. The Albuquerque Police Department Internal Affairs Division completes the administrative investigation. After both of these investigations are complete, I, as Acting Executive Director, of the Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) review both the criminal and administrative investigations to propose findings as to whether the subject officer(s) followed APD Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs).

While awaiting both the criminal and administrative investigations in this matter, Officer D. was terminated from the Albuquerque Police Department. Under City Ordinance, the CPOA only has jurisdiction over current APD employees. Because Officer D. is no longer an APD employee, the CPOA no longer has jurisdiction to review your complaint.

Therefore, the Agency has administratively closed the matter of your complaint for lack of jurisdiction.

Re: CPC # 142-13

Dear Mr. Sowell:

The complaint you filed against several officers of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on July 16, 2013, regarding an incident that occurred for an incident that occurred earlier that day. Your case was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and a contract independent investigator.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Sowell complained that on July 16, 2013 he was confronted by unknown uniformed APD officers while Mr. Sowell walking on a public street with an exposed rifle in his possession. According to Mr. Sowell, he refused to identify himself to the officers when the officers asked him to provide them with his name, in order for them to determine if he was a Felon in Possession of a firearm. Later the same morning, Mr. Sowell when he was wearing a pistol was encountered two other APD bicycle officers, who asked him for his identification. Mr. Sowell refused to provide his information. According to Mr. Sowell, the bicycle officers spoke with his apartment manager and obtained Mr. Sowell's personal information. Mr. Sowell alleged it was improper for the unknown officers to ask him for his information and for the officers to contact his apartment manager.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and the contract independent investigator attempted to determine which officers spoke with Mr. Sewell. A review of the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) Reports and police report for the day, time and locations failed to find any records. In addition, based upon Mr. Sewell's written complaint, there were not any violations of Standard Operating Procedures. Officers are permitted to speak with persons to attempt to determine whether or not a crime has been committed.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

By City Ordinance, the CPOA makes findings in cases where there is an allegation of a violation of a Standard Operating Procedure made against APD officers. The investigation revealed that no APD violated any APD Standard Operating Procedures and we could not identify which officers were involved. Therefore, the CPOA is administratively closing your complaint and no further investigation will occur.

Interoffice Memorandum

August 27, 2015

To: File for CPC 145-15
From: Robin S. Hammer
Subject: Administratively Closing Anonymous Complaint

The complaint you filed against Officer A. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on August 10, 2015, regarding an incident that occurred on August 10, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

An anonymous citizen complained that on August 10, 2015 at about 7:20 AM, they were at the intersection of Westside Boulevard and Trail Side Road in Rio Rancho, NM, when they witnessed APD Officer A. talking on a cell phone, turning without using a signal and obstructing a traffic lane.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator reviewed your complaint and interviewed Officer A. to determine whether, or not, Officer A. was at the aforementioned location on that date and time and whether, or not, Officer A. violated any APD Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs). The investigation revealed Officer A. could not recall this particular incident but he may have momentarily been without a hands-free device prior to plugging in the hands-free headset. The investigation revealed that while Officer A. could not recall this particular incident, he typically uses his turn signals while operating a motor vehicle. The investigation revealed that while Officer A. could not recall this particular incident, the intersection in which the alleged violation took place is extremely large making it very unlikely that his vehicle would have been obstructing traffic in that intersection.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

The CPOA Investigator could not determine if the alleged misconduct occurred due to a lack of information.

Therefore, the CPOA will be administratively closing this complaint and no further investigation will occur.

Re: CPC #151-15

Dear Mr. Garner:

The complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on August 21, 2015 regarding an alleged incident that occurred on April 18, 2008. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA investigated your complaint. The CPOA made a finding, based on the information you provided, of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Garner complained that Officer K, Officer G. and Officer P. determined him incapable and suicidal in 2008. Mr. Garner stated the officers harassed, bullied and intimidated him. Mr. Garner stated what the officers did was lies and disrespectful.

II. INVESTIGATION

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the complaint, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS) and previous police reports. The Investigation showed that in 2008 Mr. Garner was involved in an incident. The Investigator investigated the same concerns and issues Mr. Garner had previously filed in April 2015. Mr. Garner filed CPC 057-15 and was interviewed by the Investigator. During that interview the Investigator explained to Mr. Garner that there were no records of any misconduct or records of the specific incident Mr. Garner complained about. This citizen complaint concerns the same issues the Investigator spoke to Mr. Garner about previously and concurrently with this citizen complaint. Mr. Garner did provide officer names during this complaint however the investigation showed Officer K., Officer G. and Officer P. were all retired from the Albuquerque Police Department.

III. CONCLUSION

The CPOA has made the decision to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE your complaint, due to the allegations being duplicative, no SOP violations occurring by any member of the Albuquerque Police Department and a lack of any further information from Mr. Garner.

Administratively closed complaints may be re-opened if additional information becomes available. Please contact the CPOA in regards to your Civilian Police Complaint if you can provide further details and wish to have the complaint re-opened.

Diane P. Walsh
[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87176

Re:    CPC # 152-15

Dear Ms. Walsh:

Your complaint you filed against an unidentified member of the Albuquerque Police Department Telephone Reporting Unit (TRU) was received by our office on August 18, 2015 for an incident which occurred on March 7th or March 8th, 2015. Your complaint was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator for review and investigation.

I. THE COMPLAINT

You wrote that on March 7 or March 8, 2015, at about 8:30 AM, you called 242-COPS to report your car stolen. You were referred to the Telephone Reporting Unit to file the report as you had no information as to who stole the car or when it was stolen. You complained that when you called the TRU, the person who took your call refused to take your report because you told the person that you did not have insurance on your car. You alleged that the TRU person with whom you spoke, told you that you cannot report a car as stolen if you do not have insurance on the car. You alleged that the TRU person refused to take a report or give you a report number. You stated that you took no further action in reporting your stolen car until August of 2015.

You wrote that in August of 2015, a friend told you that he thought he had seen your car being towed somewhere. At that time you called the Albuquerque Police Department to inquire as to whether or not your car had been towed. You also wanted to report your car stolen at that time. On August 17, 2015, you reported your car stolen. Within 45 minutes of reporting it stolen, you were informed that the car had been towed by an APD officer on July 3, 2015 and the man who had been driving your car was not arrested but only cited and released. You complained that had you been able to report your car stolen in March of 2015, the man driving your car in July of 2015 would have been arrested and charged with stealing your car.

Letter to Ms. Walsh

II. THE INVESTIGATION

The CPOA Investigator conducted a preliminary investigation into your complaint. The CPOA Investigator spoke with you over the phone. You repeated what you had written in your complaint. The CPOA Investigator told you that he would try to determine who the person was with whom you spoke at the TRU. If that person could be identified a full investigation into the matter would be conducted. You said that you understood that it would be hard to identify the person who refused to take your report over the phone since the call was placed over five months ago. The Investigator told you that if he could not identify the TRU person with whom you spoke, that he would address the matter with the TRU Supervisor to make sure that the TRU employees were aware that you do not need to have insurance on a car to report it stolen. You also agreed that the officer who towed your car on July 3, 2015 did not commit any misconduct because there was no way for that officer to know at the time that your car was stolen.

The CPOA Investigator contacted the APD Research and Recording Unit and the Investigator tried to locate the date and time you called APD originally from the phone numbers that you provided to the Investigator. The only call coming from your cell phone was the one in August of 2015 you wanted to see if your car had been towed. There were no other calls found from your cell phone and records were checked back to December 1, 2014. When the Investigator had APD check an alternate phone number that you provided that you may have called from for the same time period, there was only a record of a call from APD going out to that number and there was no answer. The CPOA Investigator was unable to determine from the information provided, when you originally called the APD to report your car stolen. The CPOA Investigator further attempted to identify who it was from the TRU who told you that you could not file a report. The CPOA Investigator learned that the telephone lines in the TRU are not recorded. Even if the person who allegedly told you that you could not file a report was identified, since the telephone conversation was not recorded, there would be no way to prove or disprove the allegation that the person told you that you couldn't file a report because your car was not insured.

III. CONCLUSION

Your complaint was investigated to the extent that we could investigate it. The person who answered the phone in the TRU could not be identified in spite of our best efforts to do so. Since the lines in the TRU are not recorded, there would be no way to independently prove or disprove your allegation. The CPOA Investigator did e-mail the TRU Supervisor and the Investigator made the Supervisor aware of your allegation. The TRU Supervisor told the Investigator that they would let the TRU staff know that insurance is not required on a vehicle before it can be reported stolen. Even though we could not conduct a formal investigation into your complaint, we hope that the complaint was addressed to your satisfaction. Because the alleged policy violation was minor and because the investigation could not be conducted for lack of evidence, the CPOA will be administratively closing your complaint without further investigation. If additional information or evidence becomes available, your complaint may be re-opened.

Dear Ms. Garza:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on August 20, 2015, for an incident, which occurred on August 20, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Garza wrote she observed PSA S. texting while driving his police vehicle.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Ms. Garza. Ms. Garza reiterated that she observed PSA S. texting while driving his police vehicle. Ms. Garza stated this went on for about five minutes before he noticed her and tossed his phone aside. She had no other complaints about his driving.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING PSA S.' CONDUCT

The investigation included review of the Complaint, SOPs, and interviews of Dominique Garza and PSA S..

Letter to Ms. Garza

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-4Z2a regarding PSA S.' conduct, which states:

Except for emergency communication, the use of hand-held cellular telephones or electronic devices is prohibited while operating a city vehicle.

Ms. Garza observed a PSA texting while driving. The two of them were traveling in the same direction on Candelaria. She saw the PSA was on a smart phone glancing to the side of his lap. She would not have filed the complaint if he had been on his computer. She estimated it was about five minutes before he noticed her and tossed his phone to the side.

Ms. Garza had nothing additional to add other than she observed the texting while driving. PSA S. denied the allegation. There was no additional evidence to review. Ms. Garza did not want a findings letter and refused to provide an address.

The CPOA finds PSA S.' conduct to be NOT SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation was unable to determine whether the alleged misconduct occurred.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in PSA S.' Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC #162-14

Dear Ms. Montoya:

The complaint you filed against Officers of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on August 25, 2014 regarding an incident that occurred on September 1, 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and an independent contract investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Diana Rodriguez wrote in her complaint that her daughter, Krysten Rodriguez, was involved in an accident on September 1, 2013. A Harley Davidson motorcycle driven by Enos Herkshan ran into the side of Krysten Rodriguez' vehicle. According to the complaint, Mr. Herkshan was travelling at over 100 miles per hour when the collision occurred. Mr. Herkshan was intoxicated at the time of the accident and was charged with DWI. Assistant District Attorney Evan Woodward was the state representative for the case. Mr. Woodward claimed that on four occasions he requested interviews from the Albuquerque Police Officers on this case. According to the complaint, not one of the officers ever showed up for the interview.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE O.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator and the independent contract investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the court case docket sheet, the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) report, interviews with Officer M., Assistant District Attorneys Evan Wood and Taryn Kaselonis.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-01-3 regarding the officer's conduct, which states:

All personnel directed to appear in court, pretrials, or M.V.D. hearings must appear and be prepared to testify. A special court notice, posted court/M.V.D. hearing notices, or subpoenas are considered an order to appear. For civil case subpoena and conflict of interest case directions, see subsections 2-01-6 and 2-01-8.

The Bernalillo County Metropolitan Court docket showed the mandatory scheduled hearings. Assistant District Attorney Evan Woodward who handled the case said the court case was dismissed due to the time limit rule in Metro court requiring a defendant to be tried within six (6) months of that defendant being charged. All the officers showed up for every scheduled court appearance and all officers complied with every request for pretrial interviews by the defense until the final setting. The final court setting was scheduled for a day when Officer Miller was off work on approved leave. Unfortunately, this case was called and delayed on at least two occasions causing the rule to run before Mr. Herkshan could be prosecuted.

The CPOA find the officers conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means that the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer M.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re:    Citizen Police Complaint 162-15

Dear Mr. Ramos:

Your complaint against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on August 24, 2015 for an incident which occurred on August 21, 2015. Your complaint was reviewed by the Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Assistant Lead Investigator and a preliminary investigation was conducted.

I. THE COMPLAINT

You wrote in your complaint that on August 21, 2015, you were the victim of a home invasion and you were violently assaulted. You wrote on your complaint that you did not have an issue with any particular officer but that the Albuquerque Police Department was being slow to respond to the investigation of the crime committed and you had not had any follow up from APD. You requested our assistance in getting someone to follow up on the investigation.

II. THE INVESTIGATION

The CPOA Assistant Lead Investigator conducted a preliminary investigation into your complaint. On August 28, 2015 The CPOA Investigator sent a copy of your complaint to the Commander of the Criminal Investigations Division. There was a short delay in getting your report to the appropriate division for investigation. The Property Crimes Division Commander reviewed your complaint and assigned an investigator to your case that day. On September 2, 2015, the CPOA Investigator contacted you by phone and discussed the actions taken by this office with you. You indicated that a Detective had been assigned to you and was working with you on recovering some of the property that was stolen from you. The Detective was also trying to find out who may have committed the crime. You indicated that you were satisfied with the action of the CPOA Investigator and that no further action would be necessary as far as our office was concerned.

III. CONCLUSION

We are sorry that you were a victim of such a violent crime. We hope that our actions contributed to a quicker response and follow up by APD. Our hope is that the offenders will be caught and prosecuted to the fullest extent allowed by law. Should you need further assistance from this office in the future, please do not hesitate to contact us. Because you indicated that you were satisfied with our response and because you indicated that no further action was necessary on your complaint, I am administratively closing your complaint without further investigation.

Dear Ms. Tapia:

The complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on September 8, 2015 regarding an alleged incident on an unknown date. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint.

Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation, and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Tapia wrote she called police to report her bankcard was stolen at another time. Ms. Tapia wrote the officer told her if she kept calling police, she could lose her housing voucher. Ms. Tapia wrote she did not understand the officer's comment when she called because she needed help.

II. INVESTIGATION

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the complaint Ms. Tapia submitted. Ms. Tapia did not provide a date of incident. Ms. Tapia said the incident occurred at Motel 76, but there are two locations in town. Ms. Tapia provided one phone number on her complaint, but it was not her phone number. A friend provided other potential numbers for her.

The CPOA Investigator contacted Ms. Tapia on October 20, 2015 on one the numbers she provided. The CPOA Investigator mentioned her complaint could not be investigated without some basic information. Ms. Tapia said she was not sure she wanted to pursue the complaint and would call back by the end of the week. At the end of the week, the CPOA Investigator called Ms. Tapia on October 23, 2015 to see what she wanted to do with her complaint. Ms. Tapia wanted to withdraw her complaint. The CPOA Investigator asked Ms. Tapia if she received any coercion or intimidation to withdraw her complaint. Ms. Tapia said no and simply did not want to pursue it.

RE: CPC 170-14, Anonymous Complaint

An anonymous complaint alleged that an officer driving a vehicle with NM Government Plate number G82522 was driving over 100 miles per hour on September 6, 2014. This case was assigned to Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Internal Affairs (IA) Division. The IA Investigator contacted APD Fleet Maintenance Supervisor, Randy Chavez. Mr. Chavez determined that APD does not possess any vehicle with the listed license plate. Under City Ordinance, the CPOA only has jurisdiction over current APD employees. Because APD does own the vehicle described, the CPOA has no jurisdiction to review this complaint.

Therefore, the Agency has administratively closed the matter of this complaint for lack of jurisdiction.

Re: CPC #173-12

Dear Mr. Strones:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on August 23, 2012, for an incident which occurred on May 28, 2012. I assigned your Complaint to be investigated by an Independent Review Office Investigator. The Independent Review Office thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. I, as Independent Review Officer, made findings of whether the police officers involved violated Standard Operation Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Since officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, Sections 9-4-1-13 and 9-4-1-14 of the Police Oversight Ordinance mandate that their statements not be made public. Further, the contract between the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association and the City of Albuquerque sets forth guidelines on the information which I may disclose to you. Below is a summary of the complaint, my findings and any discipline imposed:

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Strones complained that on May 28, 2012, at 3:25 a.m., he called police to report that he had been a victim of a theft of items from his home. He alleged that APD Officer B., who was one of two officers who responded to the call, acted as if the crime that Mr. Strones was reporting was not worthy of his time. He alleged that the officer refused to believe his story about what had happened and that the officer did not take a report on the theft. Mr. Strones believed that the officer mistreated Mr. Strones and the officer was prejudiced because Mr.

Letter to Mr. Strones

Strones has a brain injury. Mr. Strones alleged that the officer believed that his disability meant that he was stupid. Mr. Strones alleged that the officer did not record the contact.

Mr. Strones alleged that when he called APD dispatch to complain about the officer and the way that he was treated, the dispatcher, Operator J., told him that she would send a supervisor to his home to address his complaint, and that she never did that. Mr. Strones also alleged that the dispatcher never told him how to file a formal complaint.

II. INVESTIGATION BY INDEPENDENT REVIEW INVESTIGATOR

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator which included interviews with Mr. Strones, Officer B., Officer G., and Telephone Operator J. Also reviewed were the CAD (Computer Aided Dispatch) printouts, the police report, message logs, and the lapel video.

The CPOA Investigator conducted an interview with Mr. Strones. Mr. Strones did not return messages and requests for an interview until most of the investigation in this case was completed. Mr. Strones repeated what he had written in his complaint, but added to it by saying that he patronized a prostitute three weeks prior to this incident and paid her, and later the prostitute and her pimp showed back up at his apartment demanding more money. Mr. Strones went to the bank and took out more money from the ATM and paid a second time.

On May 28, 2012, Mr. Strones said a female knocked on his door and when he answered it, that female and the same pimp forced his way into the apartment and they looked through all of his things. Two hours later they left with his computer. The woman told him that she would call him later to return the computer. They kept the computer because they believed it contained evidence that Mr. Strones had raped another prostitute and it had been filmed and that video was on his laptop. Mr. Strones told me that allegation by his offenders was absurd.

Mr. Strones called to report the theft of his computer and said that Officer B. didn't believe his story about what happened, and that he was treated badly because he has a brain injury and disability. He said that the officer was not helpful and acted as if the matter was petty or insignificant. Mr. Strones alleged that he called back to police to complain about the officer, and that the dispatcher assured him that she would send a supervisor out to speak with him, but she never did. Mr. Strones stated that he should have been informed by the dispatcher how to file a formal Complaint.

Mr. Strones alleged that Officer B. failed to run lapel video on the incident and he failed to write a report on the incident. Mr. Strones was not aware until the CPOA Investigator told him that the officer did run lapel video on the incident and that the officer did write a report. Mr. Strones complained that Officer B. was rude and unprofessional. Mr. Strones stated that his brain injury is what led to Mr. Strones' poor treatment. Mr. Strones did not complain about Officer A..

Mr. Strones stated that he formally objects to any dissemination in any public forum, including any Police Oversight meetings, of his complaint, or any documents prepared by the CPOA pursuant to the investigation of the complaint, wherein the officers' names or identifying information is redacted or obscured, while any information that identifies him is left viewable by the public.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Officer B.. Officer B. stated that he had been dispatched to Mr. Strones' residence in reference to a theft. Officer B. claimed that he handled the matter professionally and that he was concerned about the incident that Mr. Strones had reported. He said that at the beginning of the incident, he found the story given to him as suspicious because, based on his training and experience, the actions taken by the offenders and Mr. Strones were not consistent with a home invasion. Officer B. stated that he had to ask a series of questions during his investigation to determine what crime or crimes had occurred. Officer B. felt Mr. Strones was not forthcoming with all of the information. Officer B. stated that eventually Mr. Strones told Officer B. that he suspected it was a prostitute and a pimp who had done business with him in the past that had taken his computer.

Officer B. denied that he had done anything wrong in his handling of the incident, and said that he even called rescue to have Mr. Strones evaluated, as he was complaining of pain. Officer B. ran lapel video and provided lapel video to the CPOA investigator. Officer B. also followed up on the crime when Mr. Strones called back, stating he wanted to have a drinking glass fingerprinted that was touched by the offenders. Officer B. was never told by the dispatcher that Mr. Strones wanted to file a Complaint against him.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Officer G.. Officer G. was the acting supervisor on duty at the time this incident took place. Officer G. said that neither Mr. Strones told him that he wanted to file a Complaint nor was any such message relayed to Officer G. by the dispatcher. Officer G. said that if he had been notified, he certainly would have called Mr. Strones and told him how to file a Complaint. A review of the available evidence in this case shows that Officer G. was never told that Mr. Strones wanted to file a Complaint or be contacted to file a Complaint.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Telephone Operator J.. When Mr. Strones called back after the initial encounter with the police, Operator J. handled the call. Mr. Strones expressed to her that he wanted to complain about the initial officer. Operator J. asked him about his complaint, but she stated that she never told Mr. Strones she would send a supervisor to his home. Operator J. told him that she would have a supervisor call him. Officer J. stated that she felt that was sufficient and she did not need to explain to him how to file a complaint because the supervisor would probably take care of that.

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the message audit logs in this case, which confirmed that Mr. Strones did call to complain about the officer, and that the telephone operator sent a message to the radio dispatcher to have the Sergeant call Mr. Strones. That message was never sent to Officer G., according to the logs. The log shows Officer G. out on a priority call at the time the call came in and that he went off duty just after that priority call. There was a

Letter to Mr. Strones

shift change at that time, and it appears that the message to call Mr. Strones was never sent to Acting Supervisor G. The phone calls from Mr. Strones were recorded. The final calls indicated that he may have known the offender, as she had apparently called him on his phone later to return his stolen laptop.

The CPOA Investigator reviewed the lapel video furnished by Officer B. The video only covers the first six minutes of the incident. The video starts with the officers arriving on scene and Mr. Strones is on his cell phone with someone. After Mr. Strones completed his call, Officer B. and Officer A. asked him what happened. Mr. Strones told them that he had just been robbed.

The video showed that a second officer, Officer A., told Mr. Strones to just be honest. Officer B. can be heard asking Mr. Strones if it was the same prostitute who had robbed him before, and he said that it was not but that the same male or pimp was involved. Mr. Strones continued telling his story to Officer B., and at that time Officer A. walked away. Officer A. returned and asked Mr. Strones about the incident taking place at midnight, but he didn't report it until 4 a.m. Officer B. asked, "They were in your apartment for four hours?" Mr. Strones answered, "Yeah."

Officer A. told Mr. Strones that he was going to let rescue tend to him and then they would regroup because the incident sounded odd to him. Officer A. said "If you said it's been since midnight, and where does the forcing their way in part come in if it just happened right now?"

Officer B. asked Mr. Strones about what problems he was having medically. Mr. Strones reported that he is having trouble breathing. One of the officers suggests that he put his cigarette out until the paramedics can evaluate him. Rescue arrived on scene and Mr. Strones told the paramedics that he suffers from anxiety attacks. The paramedic asked Mr. Strones if he wanted to go to the hospital, but he declined.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OPERATOR J.'S CONDUCT

The CPOA reviewed Albuquerque Police Department Administrative Order 3-43-3(G)(1) and (2) regarding 911 Operator J.'s conduct, which states:

Verbal citizen complaints will be accepted by the Albuquerque Police Department. Any person receiving a verbal complaint will be responsible for obtaining sufficient information to assess the seriousness of the complaint and for determining if an informal resolution may be reached.

The individual receiving the complaint or conducting a follow-up regarding a complaint must notify a citizen of his right to make a written complaint and explain the process for making a written complaint.

Letter to Mr. Strones

The evidence revealed that 911 Operator J. did obtain sufficient information to assess the seriousness of Mr. Strones' complaint and decided to have a supervisor call Mr. Strones to assist him further with his complaint. Operator J. did not notify Mr. Strones that he had a right to make a written Complaint, and she did not explain the process for making a written Complaint.

The CPOA finds this allegation against Telephone Operator J. is SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

IV. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER B.'S CONDUCT

(A) The CPOA reviewed Albuquerque Police Department General Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Strones alleged that Officer B. was rude and unprofessional during the encounter. Although there is video that suggests that Officer B. was not rude or unprofessional, the video is only six minutes long and the officers were at the scene for at least an hour-and-a-half. That is not sufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

The CPOA finds this allegation against Officer B. is NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Albuquerque Police Department General Order 1-04-4(O) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

In the performance of their duties, personnel shall maintain a neutral and detached attitude without indicating disinterest or that a matter is petty or insignificant.

Mr. Strones alleged that Officer B. acted as if what happened to him was insignificant and not worthy of his time. Although there is video and other evidence that suggests that Officer B. was concerned about what happened, and that the matter was not petty or insignificant, the video is only six minutes long and the officers were at the scene for at least an hour-and-a-half. That is not sufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

The CPOA finds this allegation against Officer B. is NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Albuquerque Police Department General Order 1-04-4(Q) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Letter to Mr. Strones

Personnel shall obtain information in an official and courteous manner, and act upon it in a proper and judicious manner, within the scope of their duties, and consistent with established department procedures whenever any person requests assistance or advice, or makes complaints or reports, either by telephone or in person.

Mr. Strones alleged that Officer B. did not obtain information from him in a courteous manner, and he only conducted a cursory investigation of the crime he reported to Officer B.

Although there is video and other evidence that suggests that Officer B. did conduct a proper preliminary investigation, the video provided is only six minutes long and the officers were at the scene for at least an hour-and-a-half. That is not sufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

The CPOA finds this allegation against Officer B. is NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(D) The CPOA reviewed Albuquerque Police Department General Order 1-03-2(C) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Department personnel will provide the same level of service to every citizen regardless of their race, color, national origin or ancestry, citizenship, status, language spoken, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, disability, or economic status.

Mr. Strones alleges that Officer B. treated him differently than he would have anyone else because he has a brain injury. Specifically he alleged that Officer B. believed that he was stupid because of that injury and that he was prejudiced towards Mr. Strones, and that was what led to him being treated poorly by Officer B. There is no evidence or any valid facts offered by Mr. Strones to support that allegation.

The CPOA finds this allegation against Officer B. is UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

(E) The CPOA reviewed Albuquerque Police Department General Order 1-39-2(B) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

All sworn personnel will record each and every contact with a citizen during their shift that is the result of a dispatched call for service, arrest warrant, search warrant service, or traffic stop... The recordings will be saved no less than 120 days.

The investigation revealed that Officer B. did record the encounter with Mr. Strones, but by the time Officer B. was made aware of the existence of the complaint, 120 days had passed. Officer B. was only required to keep the video for 120 days. Even though he no longer had video, his backup officer did, and the officer provided that video to the CPOA Investigator.

Re: CPC # 176-14

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Begay:

The Complaints you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) were received by our office on September 15, 2014, and October 8, 2014, for an incident which started on August 22, 2014, and continued for several day. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. and Mrs. Begay's complaints were based on Detective J.'s conduct starting on August 22, 2014, and continuing for several days. On August 22, 2014, allegations of child abuse were forwarded to APD by the school staff. Detective J. went to the school in order to initiate an investigation. Detective J., along with Children, Youth & Families Department (CYFD) interviewed some of the children. Based on the admissions by the children, Detective J. left and worked on obtaining a search warrant for the Begay residence. Detective J. initiated the process for a 48-hour custody hold on the children. When Mr. and Mrs. Begay went to pick up their children from school, they were told they could not go home because of the pending search warrant and that their children were being taken into custody.

Mr. and Mrs. Begay stated in their complaints that they were given no information as to why their children were being taken and why their home was being searched. They wrote when they were eventually told they could go home late at night, things were left a mess, and that unnecessary areas of their home were searched. Mr. and Mrs. Begay stated that their children and dogs were taken for no reason, and that there were no marks to indicate abuse. They claimed Detective J. was intimidating and rude with their children, particularly their 13-year-old daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Begay stated that they attended a meeting with CYFD and determined their case was confused with another Begay family. Mr. Begay believed police became involved due to that error. They wrote that Detective J. called on August 29, 2014, asking if Mr. Begay wanted to make a statement. Mr. Begay stated that he told Detective J. he did not want to make a statement without an attorney. Detective J. told him he would assume Mr. Begay was guilty. Mrs. Begay alleged that Detective J. tried to enter their house on August 29, 2014, while no one was home.

Mr. and Mrs. Begay allege that a warrant was issued for Mr. Begay's arrest without reason and without providing them warning. Mrs. Begay wrote Detective J. showed up to the house on September 12, 2014, and tried to get her to open the door. Mrs. Begay alleged that Detective J. had a Comcast employee knock on the door to try to get her to answer.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Begay. They repeated much of what was in their written complaints. They claimed there was no justification for Detective J.'s actions, because there were no marks on any of their children. Mr. and Mrs. Begay claimed the school personnel lied about the allegations. They alleged that their children were coerced or bribed into lying. They alleged that the whole thing was discriminatory against Native Americans.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE J.'S CONDUCT

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report, police reports, Detective J.'s lapel videos and audio recordings, Detective H.'s lapel videos, and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Mildred Begay, Elden Begay Sr., and Detective J.

(A) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-33-4(A)(3) regarding Detective J.'s conduct, which states:

When responding to any form of child abuse, the officer must determine if the child should be removed from the environment for the child's safety. Pursuant to New Mexico Statute 32A-3B-3, an officer may take a child into protective custody when the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the child: 3. Is in danger from his surroundings and removal from those surroundings is necessary.

Letter to Mr. and Mrs. Begay

Mr. and Mrs. Begay claimed there were no marks on their children to justify their children being taken into custody. They alleged that their children were taken without giving them information as to why, and without proper procedure. Mr. and Mrs. Begay claimed their family was merged with another family from Farmington under investigation and that resulted in police being involved.

The allegations of abuse were of a very serious nature. The lack of marks did not automatically mean the allegations had been proven untrue. The recorded interviews of the children showed there were disclosures that led both CYFD and Detective J. to believe a custody hold and investigation were necessary. There was some confusion apparently on the part of CYFD at a meeting which blended two families, but that had nothing to do with APD's criminal investigation.

I find Detective J.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(B) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Detective J.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall:

2. Make only those arrests, searches and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Mr. and Mrs. Begay felt their rights were violated because they were not permitted to return home pending a search warrant. They complained that officers looked through things that they should not have or that were unnecessary to look through. Mr. and Mrs. Begay claimed all the items the officers were looking for were contained in the garage, yet Mrs. Begay's personal belongings in her bedroom were searched. They were kept from their home until late in the evening. When they finally were allowed to go home, things were in a mess, such as milk left on the counter, lights on, the TV was on and things strewn about. They also complained that an arrest warrant was placed on Mr. Begay without warning, such as a summons. They also claimed that according to their neighbors, Detective J. tried to enter their home on August 29th while no one was home.

The process of obtaining the search warrant was started in the afternoon. The search warrant specified any and all evidence to show residency, which could have been anywhere in the home. The search warrant also specified any and all whips, ropes, belts, back scratchers and/or other implements believed to have been used to strike or bind the children, so that also entitled officers to search all areas of the home. The process of writing and obtaining the authorizations for the search warrant takes time. The hours the search took place were considered before a nighttime search, which requires additional authorization. The lapel videos from the officers showed the condition of the home before the search was conducted.

The milk was already on the counter, the lights and TV were on, and things were in disarray. The arrest warrant was appropriately signed off per SOP 2-33-6(C). Summonses are not issued for felony charges. When both Mr. and Mrs. Begay were asked for neighbors' information about what the neighbors saw while they were not home, both Mr. and Mrs. Begay became vague. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Begay provided contact information and just said they heard about it from neighbors. No one said Detective J. entered the house on that occasion.

I find Detective J.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(C) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Detective J.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. and Mrs. Begay claimed that Detective J. pressured their 13-year-old daughter into saying things and that they intimidated her. They alleged that Detective J. was rude when he spoke to their daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Begay claimed Detective J. asked Mr. Begay for a statement over the phone. When Mr. Begay declined to be interviewed, they claimed that Detective J. told him he assumed Mr. Begay was guilty of the allegations against him. Mrs. Begay also claimed Detective J. enlisted the help of a Comcast employee to try to trick her into opening the door, but she saw Detective J. standing behind and did not answer the door.

The audio and lapel videos showed that Detective J. was polite with all the children. Detective J. suspected the 13-year-old girl was covering for her parents and he asked her questions to get her to be honest. The recordings showed that Detective J. never bullied her into saying something or crossed lines. Detective J. recorded his phone conversation with Mr. Begay and never told Mr. Begay he assumed the charges were true or that Mr. Begay was guilty because he did not provide a statement. Comcast was contacted to determine if an employee was in the area. The Comcast regional security manager looked, but could not find evidence of a Comcast dispatch for the area.

I find Detective J.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(D) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-03-2(A) regarding Detective J.'s conduct, which states:

Biased-based policing/profiling by any member of this Department is prohibited. Investigative detentions, field contacts, traffic stops, arrests, searches, property seizures and forfeiture efforts will be based on a standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause in accordance with the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Mr. and Mrs. Begay alleged that the whole situation was created due to a racial bias against Native Americans. Mr. and Mrs. Begay said there was no justification to take their children or animals away because there were no marks on the children. Mr. Begay expressed concern about where his children were being fostered, and both parents said that violated in place by the Indian Child Welfare Act. Mr. Begay claimed that Detective J. made a disparaging comment, but he did not remember what it was.

The allegations were serious and that was what prompted the investigation, not the Begay's ethnicity. CYFD places the children in foster care, so if there are any issues with following the Indian Child Welfare Act, that responsibility would be with CYFD. Mr. Begay could not remember what negative remark Detective J. supposedly made. Detective J.' contact with Mr. Begay was recorded and there was no remark made.

I find Detective J.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

Additional Note:

Mr. Begay stated in his interview he did not have a complaint about Detective H. Mrs. Begay's complaint was that Detective H. did not give them any information. There is no SOP that requires officers provide full information about an investigation to a suspect. The lapel videos showed Detective H. was professional and provided as much information as he could to the family about what was going on. Detective H. was not targeted as this was the only complaint Mrs. Begay had about Detective H. and he was not involved in other aspects of the investigation.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Detective J.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Renell Hull
[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87108

Re: CPC # 182-13

Dear Mrs. Hull:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on August 23, 2013, for an incident which occurred on August 16, 2013. I assigned your Complaint to be investigated by a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. I, as Acting Executive Director, made findings of whether the police officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Since officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, Sections 9-4-1-13 and 9-4-1-14 of the Police Oversight Ordinance mandate that their statements not be made public. Further, the contract between the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association and the City of Albuquerque sets forth guidelines on the information which I may disclose to you. Below is a summary of the complaint, my findings and any discipline imposed.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mrs. Renell Hull wrote that on August 16, 2013, her son, who has Down Syndrome, had taken off from her home with his Nerf guns and a broken rubber band gun. Mrs. Hull stated that her son's sister was following him to make sure he had not gone too far. Mrs. Hull stated the neighbor had become upset due to her dogs barking and informed the sister that she could not be in the alley.

Mrs. Hull then wrote the entire South East police department showed up with guns pointed at her son and daughter. Mrs. Hull stated that Sergeant V. informed her a neighbor had called the police stating Mrs. Hull's son was in the alley with a rifle. Mrs. Hull wrote that she was very frustrated with the lack of concerns for people with disabilities.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER F.'S CONDUCT

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Reports (CADS), the police report, and interviews of Mrs. Hull, Officer F. and Sergeant V.

I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-52-3(C) regarding Officer F.'s conduct, which states:

While it is not possible to precisely define what is reasonable for a given situation, use of force requires careful consideration of the facts and circumstances that surround that particular situation. When determining whether force is reasonable and the level of force used, officers always consider:

1. Threats presented by the subject to the officer and/or public and the immediacy of them.

Mrs. Hull stated in her complaint and during her interview she had felt the police should have considered and understood her son had Down Syndrome. Mrs. Hull stated that she felt the officers should not have had their weapons drawn on her son and should have realized the guns her son had were fake.

Officer F. and other officers responded to a dispatched call of two subjects in an alley with a rifle. Officer F. arrived to the call at 1817 hours and was the first and primary officer on scene with Sergeant V. The CAD report showed that within six minutes of arriving, the officers had received information and determined that the subject, Mrs. Hull's son, had Down Syndrome and had toy guns. Officer F. had his firearm out but never pointed it at Mrs. Hull's son. At that time the officers stood down and spoke to [REDACTED], Mrs. Hull's son, and Mrs. Hull. Officer F. and Sergeant V. spoke with Mrs. Hull and informed her of why they were there and why they had shown up with rifles and weapons drawn. Sergeant V. explained to Mrs. Hull the call was a subject with a gun in the alley and the caller made no reference to any disability or that they were toy guns. Officer F. indicated that Mrs. Hull stated she understood why the officers' presence with force was utilized. Lapel video of the incident was unavailable at the time the investigation was completed due to the 120-day retention policy.

I find Officer F.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING SERGEANT V.'S CONDUCT

I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-52-3(C) regarding Sergeant V.'s conduct, which states:

While it is not possible to precisely define what is reasonable for a given situation, use of force requires careful consideration of the facts and circumstances that surround that particular situation. When determining whether force is reasonable and the level of force used, officers always consider:

1. Threats presented by the subject to the officer and/or public and the immediacy of them.

Mrs. Hull stated in her complaint and during her interview that she felt the police should have considered and understood her son had Down Syndrome. Mrs. Hull stated that the officers should not have had their weapons drawn on her son and should have realized the guns her son had were fake.

Sergeant V. was dispatched to a call on August 16, 2013, in reference to a subject in an alley with a rifle. There was no information given by the caller that the subject had Down Syndrome or a disability of any kind, or that the gun was fake.

Upon arrival at the scene, Sergeant V. noticed there were officers with long guns and firearms out but could not recall if they were pointed at the subject. It was possible due to the officers using scopes on their rifles to gain a visual on the subject. Shortly after being there, contact was made with Mrs. Hull's husband and daughter and Sergeant V. was informed the subject had Down Syndrome and that the weapons he was carrying were fake. As soon as Sergeant V. confirmed that, he made contact with Mrs. Hull's son and Mrs. Hull. Sergeant V. recalled Mrs. Hull being upset about the officers' presence with firearms, but Sergeant V. explained to Mrs. Hull why the response was necessary.

I find Sergeant V.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer F. and Sergeant V.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the IRO or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

If you have a computer available, we would greatly appreciate your completing our client survey form at <http://www.cabq.gov/iro/survey>.

Jose Castillo

████████████████████
Albuquerque, NM 87121

Dear Mr. Castillo:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on September 18, 2015 for an incident, which occurred on September 18, 2015. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Jose Castillo wrote on September 18, 2015 he was pulled over by Officer H. Mr. Castillo complained that Officer H. cited and towed his vehicle for having the windows tinted too darkly and for tint on the front windshield. Mr. Castillo also complained that Officer H. was rude and his conduct was unacceptable when Officer H. told Mr. Castillo's sister to "shut up" and that Officer H. made Mr. Castillo's children cry.

On October 20, 2015 the Investigator interviewed Mr. Castillo. Mr. Castillo reiterated what was in his complaint and nothing else to add. The Investigator informed Mr. Castillo that he could contact Risk Management to file a claim in regards to the monies he incurred due to the towing of his vehicle.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER E.'S CONDUCT

The investigation included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report (CAD), Officer H.'s lapel video, interviews of Officer H. and Mr. Castillo and review of applicable New Mexico State laws.

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 1-04-1F regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Castillo complained that Officer H. told his sister to "shut up" and that Officer H. made Mr. Castillo's children cry. Mr. Castillo stated Officer H. was rude and disrespectful.

Lapel video showed Officer H. never told Mr. Castillo's sister to "shut up". Lapel video showed Officer H. explaining to Mr. Castillo's sister that he was explaining the tow and paperwork to Mr. Castillo because he was the driver and the vehicle was Mr. Castillo's. Lapel video also showed Officer H. never doing or saying anything to the children of Mr. Castillo causing them to cry.

The CPOA finds Officer H.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the investigation determined, by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur or did not involve the subject officer.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating General Order 2-48-2 (4) (A) regarding Officer H., which states:

Any police officer may order the impoundment of any vehicle within the municipal corporate limits, without prior notice to the owner or operator of the vehicle, when a vehicle is being driven unsafely under state law due to one of the following:

- i. Failure to have insurance on the vehicle as required and as documented....*
- ii. Failure to have a driver's license as shown by the NM Department of Motor Vehicles*
- iii. Driving while the license has been suspended or revoked...*

Mr. Castillo complained that Officer H. towed his vehicle for tinted windows. Mr. Castillo knew the windows were tinted too dark, however his vehicle should not have been towed causing a loss of money.

Letter to Mr. Castillo

The investigation showed, that although Mr. Castillo's windows, including the front windshield, were tinted beyond the allowance of New Mexico state law, Mr. Castillo's truck should not have been towed. New Mexico State laws have two statutes separating sun screen of windows and unsafe motor vehicles. New Mexico state law 66-3-846.1 states:

A. A person shall not operate on any street or highway a motor vehicle that is registered or required to be registered in this state if that motor vehicle has a sun screening material on the windshield or any window that does not comply with the requirements of this section.

B. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a sun screening material:

(1) when used in conjunction with the windshield, shall be nonreflective, shall not be red, yellow or amber in color and shall be used only along the top of the windshield, not extending downward beyond the ASI line or more than five inches from the top of the windshield, whichever is closer to the top of the windshield; and

(2) when used in conjunction with the safety glazing materials of the side wings or side windows located at the immediate right and left of the driver, the side windows behind the driver and the rearmost window shall be nonreflective, shall have a light transmission of not less than twenty percent and shall be used only on the windows of a motor vehicle equipped with one right and one left outside rearview mirror.

C. Each manufacturer shall:

(1) certify to the division that a sun screening material used by that manufacturer is in compliance with the nonreflectivity and light transmission requirements of this section;

(2) provide a label not to exceed one and one-half square inches in size that:

(a) is installed permanently and legibly between the sun screening material and each glazing surface to which it is applied;

(b) contains the manufacturer's name, the date that the sun screening material was manufactured and the percentage of light transmission; and

(c) is placed in the left lower corner of each glazing surface when facing the motor vehicle from the outside; and

(3) include instructions with the sun screening material for proper installation, including the affixing of the label specified in this subsection.

D. No person shall:

(1) offer for sale or for use any sun screening material for motor vehicle use not in compliance with this section; or

Letter to Mr. Castillo

(2) install any sun screening material on motor vehicles intended for operation on any street or highway without permanently affixing the label specified in Subsection C of this section.

E. The provisions of this section do not apply to a motor vehicle registered in this state in the name of a person, or the person's legal guardian, who has an affidavit signed by a physician or an optometrist licensed to practice in this state that states that the person has a physical condition that makes it necessary to equip the motor vehicle with sun screening material that is in violation of this section. The affidavit shall be in the possession of the person with such a physical condition, or the person's legal guardian, at all times while being transported in the motor vehicle.

F. The light transmission requirement of this section does not apply to windows behind the driver on truck tractors, buses, recreational vehicles multipurpose passenger vehicles and motor homes. The provisions of this section shall not apply to motor vehicle glazing which complies with federal motor vehicle standards.

G. The provisions of this section do not apply to motor vehicles that have sun screening material on the windshield or any window prior to the effective date of this section.

Re: CPC # 186-14

Dear Mrs. Hill:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on October 2, 2014, for an incident which occurred on August 31, 2014, and September 1, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Alicia Hill's complaint is based on Officer S.' conduct during two encounters on two days, August 31, 2014, and September 1, 2014. On August 31, 2014, Alicia Hill phoned APD to assist her with her 16-year-old son, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] had been staying with the Frank Gallegos family, whose son was a friend of [REDACTED]. Alicia Hill wanted her son to leave the Gallegos house and return to her home. The police were called to investigate a disturbance at the Gallegos residence between Frank Gallegos and Alicia Hill and her husband, Kent Holland. While police were at the Gallegos residence, [REDACTED] father, Anthony Sandoval, came and spoke to officers. [REDACTED] parents agreed that it would be okay for [REDACTED] to go to his father's house.

Letter to Mrs. Hill

On September 1, 2014, [REDACTED] father, Mr. Sandoval, phoned Officer S. and informed her that Alicia Hill had posted on Facebook that she intended to turn [REDACTED] room into an art studio. Mr. Sandoval requested Officer S.' assistance to allow [REDACTED] to retrieve some of his personal property from his mother's home. Officer S. and Officer D. agreed to meet with Mr. Sandoval and [REDACTED] outside of Alicia Hill and Kent Holland's residence to permit [REDACTED] to get clothing and items he needed for school, including a guitar, from his mother's home. Alicia Hill complained about events which occurred on the second day she interacted with Officer S., September 1, 2014.

Alicia Hill wrote in her complaint that during the first contact with Officer S., which was on August 31, 2014, Officer S. was very nice. Officer S. told her son to follow her instructions. Alicia Hill wrote that Officer S. returned later that day and took her son out of Alicia Hill's home to live with his father, Anthony Sandoval. Alicia Hill wrote that she did not have an issue with the decision for her son to live with his father at that time. Alicia Hill wrote that she asked Officer S. if her son could make that decision, since Alicia Hill was the court-ordered custodial parent.

Alicia Hill wrote the next day, September 1, 2014, her son called her about picking up more property and she denied his request. Alicia Hill complained that officers entered her courtyard without permission and pounded on her doors so hard her back door came open. Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. yelled at her. Alicia Hill asked if Officer S. needed a warrant before Officer S. forced her way into her home. Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. told her she could come in if she wanted, warrant or not. Alicia Hill alleged that if she had not complied with Officer S., she believed Officer S. could brutally attack her. Alicia Hill also wrote she was concerned about the younger children at home with her. Alicia Hill wrote that Officer S. refused to speak to her mother in private when talking to her mother about her Facebook posts.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Alicia Hill. Alicia Hill repeated much of what was in her written complaint. She claimed that when her son left to live with his father, her son no longer had residency at her home. Alicia Hill agreed she told her son he could be arrested if he returned to the house to get property while she was not at home. Alicia Hill stated that Officer S. yelled at her when Alicia Hill came out of her house. Alicia Hill claimed Officer S. called her a bad mother. Alicia Hill claimed that every time she tried to speak, Officer S. told her to shut up. Alicia Hill repeated that she asked about a warrant and was told by Officer S. she could come in, warrant or not. When asked to clarify her statement about being brutally attacked, Alicia Hill said she made the statement because Officer S. would not let her talk, and told her to shut up. Alicia Hill was inconsistent as to whether Officer S. physically came near her. Alicia Hill later understood from her mother, Patricia Hill, that Officer S. criticized Alicia Hill in front of her son. Alicia Hill stated that Officer S. refused to discuss things with Patricia Hill in private.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER S.' CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report, Albuquerque Police Report, Officer S.' lapel video, Officer D.'s lapel video, and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Alicia Hill, Kent Holland, Patricia Hill, and Officer S.

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer S.' conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off-duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Holland claimed that on September 1, 2014, Officer S. said that his and Alicia Hill's household was abusive. Alicia Hill complained that Officer S. immediately started yelling at her when Officer S. accompanied her son to her residence, and called her a bad mother. Alicia Hill claimed that Officer S. told her to "shut up" several times. Alicia Hill stated she feared Officer S. would "brutally attack her" because Officer S. told her to shut up. Alicia Hill was inconsistent whether Officer S. made any physical actions towards her. Both Mr. Holland and Patricia Hill said Officer S. was being very critical of Alicia Hill. Patricia Hill, Alicia's mother, in particular, did not think it was Officer S.' place to lecture Alicia Hill. Both Mr. Holland and Patricia Hill said that Officer S. started talking about her own family as comparison, which was strange. Mr. Holland and Patricia Hill both complained that Officer S. ignored Patricia Hill's request to speak to Officer S. in private.

Officer S.' lapel videos from August 31, 2014, and September 1, 2014, showed Alicia Hill appreciated Officer S. lecturing her son on August 31, 2014. The videos showed Officer S. never called Alicia Hill's home abusive. The videos showed things ended pleasantly on the first day. The next day, September 1, 2014, Officer S. showed up with Alicia Hill's son to obtain additional property. The videos showed Officer S. explained to Alicia Hill that her son needed a guitar for a class, but Alicia Hill wanted to argue the ownership of the guitar.

The videos from September 1 showed that Officer S. never called Alicia Hill a bad mother, but did ask in surprise if she wanted her son to flunk a class. The videos showed Mr. Holland said his stepson could have whatever he wanted of his property, including the guitar in dispute, which turned out to be at school. The videos showed that Officer S. told Alicia Hill how her comments emotionally affected her son. Alicia Hill defended her right to make the comments and did not feel bad about making them. The videos showed Alicia Hill spoke over Officer S. several times. The videos showed Officer S. sternly told Alicia Hill not to interrupt, but never told Alicia Hill to shut up.

The videos showed that Officer S. never came towards Alicia Hill to attack her. The video showed Patricia Hill casually mentioned she and Officer S. should discuss things away from her grandson so he did not feel empowered. However, Patricia Hill continued the conversation and did not make a move or insist she and Officer S. talk elsewhere. The video showed when Patricia Hill talked about how Mr. Sandoval had to deal with his son for the toughest years, Officer S. happened to mention ages ten and twelve were hard. The video showed Officer S. said nothing else about her personal situation and neither Patricia Hill nor Mr. Holland expressed annoyance at a comparison. The video showed Patricia Hill and Mr. Holland both were in agreement with Officer S.

The CPOA finds Officer S.' conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Officer S.' conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall:

2. Make only those arrests, searches and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. said the day prior that she was there to take her son from her and her son was going to live with his father. Since that was the case, Alicia Hill alleged her son no longer had residency at her address. When her son wanted to come to the house to get additional property, Alicia Hill denied his request. Alicia Hill alleged that after her refusal to permit Officer S. to enter her home, Officer S. ignored the sign and doorbell on her gate. Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. instead entered her latched gate by removing an unlocked padlock from over the top of the fence. Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. and another officer pounded on her doors continuously, and so hard that her back door started to open from the force. Alicia Hill stated that she felt compelled to come to the door. Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. demanded that she was there to get her son's additional property. Alicia Hill felt her son spent long enough yesterday getting property. Alicia Hill alleged that Officer S. told her that she could come in, warrant or not.

The videos from August 31, 2014, showed that Officer S. obtained Alicia Hill's permission for her son to live with his father for a trial period. The videos showed there was no discussion of Alicia Hill's revoking her son's residency at her home. Nothing had yet been changed in the courts for custody. The next day, September 1, the videos showed Alicia Hill's son wanted to get property and called police for an escort. The videos showed there was no sign on the gate, but there was what looked to be a doorbell to the left that Officer S. missed. Officer S. entered the curtilage with permission of a resident. The videos showed no one knocked excessively hard or continuously. The videos showed that neither Alicia Hill asked about a warrant, nor did Officer S. claim she could enter without a warrant. The videos showed Alicia Hill wanted to get whatever property from the house instead of allowing her son to enter. The videos showed that Officer S. explained to Alicia Hill she would escort Alicia Hill's son, and Alicia Hill was welcome to accompany them, to avoid any additional problems over property. The videos showed Alicia Hill granted permission, albeit reluctantly. The videos showed Officers S. did not physically threaten Alicia Hill or move closer to her, as Alicia Hill claimed. Officer S. had a resident of the house wishing to get property.

Dear Ms. Rivers:

The complaint you filed against Sergeant T., Detective C. and Officer B. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on September 4, 2013 regarding an incident that occurred on August 27, 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and an independent contract investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Patricia Rivers wrote in her complaint that on August 27, 2013, Albuquerque Police Department Officers came to her door, entered her house and repeatedly asked her questions while interrogating her. Ms. Rivers further alleged that as many as six officers entered her house during the incident and looked around the house without gaining consent to do so. Ms. Rivers alleged that officers were looking for her son, who they claimed had a battery charge and an intimidation charge. Ms. Rivers alleged that she was harassed by the officers.

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator and contract independent investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Report in the case and a review of lapel camera recording.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-17-1 regarding procedure, which states:

Department policy is to provide officers with guidelines to conduct warrantless searches and seizures in order to uphold individual civil rights, protect officers and others, and govern the collection of evidence.

Officer B. and Detective C. were interviewed via the telephone. The investigation revealed that Officer B. gone to 4409 Mountvale Ave. NW to assist Northwest Impact Team Members in locating a suspect who was wanted for Felony Battery and Intimidation of a Witness. When they arrived, they made contact with Patricia Rivers. Ms. Rivers told officers that her son was not home and asked officers to come in. Officer B. stayed in the entrance and living room. Officer B. could not remember if he walked all the way into the house or just stood outside and in the entry area of the house. Officer B. did not conduct a protective sweep and does not recall anyone else conducting a sweep. Officer B. did not witness any behavior on the part of officers that he though was inappropriate.

Detective C. had driven to the residence because this was the listed residence for Patricia River's son, Desmond Spikes. Mr. Spikes was wanted for Battery and Intimidation of a Witness regarding an incident that occurred on August 1, 2013. After conducting an investigation, Detective C. had obtained from the court an arrest warrant for Mr. Spikes. Officer B. and Sergeant T. accompanied him. They knocked at the door. Ms. Rivers answered and invited the officers into her home. Ms. Rivers wanted to know about the charges levied against her son and if the charges were based on rumor. Detective C. explained that the victim had sustained serious injuries from her son and that there were a number of witnesses who had identified him as the perpetrator of the crime. In addition, the crime was captured on video. After a short conversation the officers left. No one conducted a protective sweep of the residence. Officer C. did not see any officer conduct himself in a manner that was inappropriate or unprofessional. Detective C. made lapel camera recording of the incident.

The lapel camera recording was reviewed and revealed that only three officers were at the incident. Ms. Rivers answered the door and invited officers into her home. She told officers that her son was not home. At no time did any officer ever leave the room that Ms. Rivers had asked officers to come into. The video showed that the officers did not search the residence. The video showed that the officers were courteous and answered all of Ms. River's questions. All three officers made every attempt to reasonably explain why they were looking for her son. At no time did officers interrogate Ms. Rivers. No one repeatedly asked any questions.

Dear Mr. Barnes:

The complaint you filed against Officer P., Officer W., and Detective M., of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on October 24, 2014, for an incident which occurred on September 11, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your complaint on October 29, 2014. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Allan Barnes was arrested on September 11, 2014, by APD Officer P. Mr. Barnes complained that prior to and after his arrest Officer P. used profanity with Mr. Barnes. Mr. Barnes alleged that when he was arrested, Officer P. took Mr. Barnes' wallet, which contained a computer flash drive and personal documents. Mr. Barnes alleged that he never got the wallet and its contents returned to him.

Mr. Barnes was taken to the Southeast Police Substation, where Officer W. assisted Officer P. with Mr. Barnes. Mr. Barnes was placed next to a seated Narcotics Unit Detective who was later identified as Detective M. Prior to Detective M. leaving the room, Mr. Barnes alleged that Detective M. used profanity in a threatening manner towards Mr. Barnes. Mr. Barnes alleged that Officer W., while walking Mr. Barnes to a police car, pulled Mr. Barnes' handcuffs up beyond the rear of Mr. Barnes' head, causing the handcuffs to cut into Mr.

Barnes' wrists, and Mr. Barnes' hands to turn purple. Mr. Barnes alleged that at the Prisoner Transport Unit (PTU), another officer photographed Mr. Barnes' hands and the injuries to his wrists. Mr. Barnes alleged that the photos of his injuries were never released to him. Lastly, Mr. Barnes complained that Officer P. failed to appear at trial.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER P.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, the police report, the Computer-Aided Dispatch (CAD) report, and Officer P.'s lapel video recording. The CPOA also reviewed the CPOA Investigator's interviews with Mr. Barnes, Officer B., Officer P., Officer W., Detective M., Detective W., and PTU Sergeant P.

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer P.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

Mr. Barnes complained that Officer P. acted unprofessionally with Mr. Barnes during this incident. Mr. Barnes claimed that Officer P. yelled at him to stop by using profanity. He also complained that Officer P. called him by derogatory names when Officer P.'s lapel camera was off.

Officer P. did record parts of the incident on video. The video that was available was reviewed and when the video was on, Officer P. acted professionally with Mr. Barnes. However, Mr. Barnes alleged that it was when the video was off that he was treated unprofessionally. Mr. Barnes saw the videos and admitted that he gave Officer P. a hard time at points during the interaction.

Because Officer P. failed to record the incident in its entirety, there is no way to prove or disprove the allegation that Officer P. conducted himself, at times, unprofessionally when he was dealing with Mr. Barnes.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer P. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-4(P) regarding Officer P.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall not use coarse, violent, profane, or insolent language or gestures.

Mr. Barnes specifically alleged that Officer P. told him to "get the f*** over here" when Officer P. was attempting to stop Mr. Barnes. Although those words are not captured on the video, the first 30 seconds of the video is a buffer and for 30 seconds from Officer P. turning on the lapel camera, these 30 seconds contained no audio. Mr. Barnes alleged that Officer P. used that profanity before the video was turned on. Mr. Barnes alleged that when Officer P. had the video turned off, Officer P. directed derogatory comments toward Mr. Barnes, calling Mr. Barnes a "Bitch."

Because Officer P. failed to record the incident in its entirety, there is no way to prove or disprove the allegation that Officer P. used profane language when he was dealing with Mr. Barnes.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer P. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-52-3(A) regarding Officer P.'s conduct, which states:

Officers may use force when objectively reasonable based on a totality of the circumstances. The objectives for which force may be appropriate include: to effect the lawful arrest or detention of a person; to gain control of a combative prisoner; prevent or terminate the commission of a crime; to intervene in a suicide or self-inflicted injury; to defend an officer or member of the public from the physical acts of another.

Mr. Barnes alleged in his written complaint that he was subdued by Officer P. and later at the police substation he was assaulted by Officer P. and Officer W.

The lapel video taken by Officer P. at the time of Mr. Barnes' arrest showed that Mr. Barnes did not comply with any of Officer P.'s commands. Mr. Barnes resisted arrest. Mr. Barnes was not responsive to Officer P.'s directions, and Mr. Barnes physically resisted being handcuffed. The video revealed that the only action Officer P. took to control Mr. Barnes was to hold him until another officer arrived on scene and assisted in getting Mr. Barnes handcuffed. Any use of force used to subdue and hold Mr. Barnes until the other officer arrived was objectively reasonable.

Mr. Barnes said in his recorded interview that Officer P. did not "assault" him at the substation. He described his "assault" as being committed by Officer W. and not Officer P. Mr. Barnes alleged that Officer W. assaulted him by pulling up on the handcuffs Mr. Barnes was wearing so that his arms were pulled above his head, causing the handcuffs to cut into Mr. Barnes' wrists. All parties interviewed agreed that Officer P. did not assault Mr. Barnes.

The CPOA finds Officer P.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(D) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-01-3(A) regarding Officer P.'s conduct, which states:

M006748

All personnel directed to appear in court, pretrials, or MVD hearings must appear and be prepared to testify.

Mr. Barnes complained that Officer P. did not appear at his scheduled trial as he was required to do. Officer P. had been subpoenaed to the trial but was sick on the day that the trial occurred. Officer P. had called in sick to his supervisor, but he failed to call the Court or Court Services to notify them that he was sick. Officer P. was not excused from making a Court appearance.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer P. was SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

(E) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-39-2(B) regarding Officer P.'s conduct, which states:

All sworn department personnel will record each and every contact with a citizen during their shift that is the result of a dispatched call for service, arrest warrant, search warrant service or traffic stop. Personnel will activate the recorder prior to arriving at the call or prior to citizen contact on non-dispatched events (within the safety parameters of 1-39-1B) and will record the entirety of citizen contact...

Mr. Barnes claimed in his complaint that Officer P. had a lapel camera that malfunctioned during the incident and therefore no footage from the incident was available.

Officer P. used his lapel video to record some of the incident, but did not record the incident in its entirety. An inquiry into Officer P.'s equipment log showed that he was issued a new lapel camera on or about October 30, 2014, because his old lapel camera had audio problems with the microphone. Although there is evidence to support that the camera may have malfunctioned, Officer P. indicated that it was possible that he turned the camera off at the police substation. Officer P. had turned the camera off when he spoke with his supervisor and other officers about the incident and he had turned it back on when he and Mr. Barnes arrived at the substation. Apparently, the on/off function of the camera was working that day, leading to the conclusion that Officer P. turned the camera on and off and he did not record the incident in its entirety as he was required to do.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer P. was SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

(F) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer P.'s conduct, which states:

Officers collecting evidence, property, or found items are responsible for the custody of these items until they have been turned into the evidence room or substation drop boxes or lockers.

Mr. Barnes alleged that his wallet, which was actually a padded case with a zipper, was taken by Officer P. and that case was never turned in as part of Mr. Barnes' property when he was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center. Mr. Barnes stated that he tried to get the case back as it contained a state ID, personal papers, and his computer flash drive which he had personal writings on. Officer B. was interviewed and he indicated that he gave the case to Officer P. The lapel video showed that Officer B. did do that. The lapel video also showed Officer P. in possession of the case at the police substation. That case was never turned in to evidence or to the PTC where Mr. Barnes was booked after his arrest. Officer P. indicated that he misplaced the case and did not know where it was.

Furthermore, Mr. Barnes alleged that while he was at the PTC, Officer P. had pictures taken of Mr. Barnes' wrists because Mr. Barnes had complained of injury. PTC Sergeant W. indicated that he took the pictures and put them on a disc and gave them to Officer P. Officer P. admitted that he did get a disc from the PTC that had the pictures of Mr. Barnes on it, but he did not pick up that disc until a month or so after the incident. Officer P. intended to tag the disc into evidence but he never did. Officer P. lost the disc and has no idea where it may be.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer P. was SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER W.'S CONDUCT

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-52-3(A) regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

Officers may use force when objectively reasonable based on a totality of the circumstances. The objectives for which force may be appropriate include: to effect the lawful arrest or detention of a person; to gain control of a combative prisoner; prevent or terminate the commission of a crime; to intervene in a suicide or self-inflicted injury; to defend an officer or member of the public from the physical acts of another.

Mr. Barnes alleged that while he was at the police substation he was assaulted by Officer W. Mr. Barnes described his "assault" as being committed by Officer W. Mr. Barnes said that Officer W. assaulted him by pulling up on the handcuffs he was wearing so that his arms were pulled above his head, causing the handcuffs to cut into Mr. Barnes' wrists.

Officer P. indicated that he thought Officer W. may have "put a little pressure" on the cuffs to control Mr. Barnes, but in no way was it way up high and over Mr. Barnes' head, as Mr. Barnes had alleged. Officer P. explained that Officer W. "did lift him up a little" but not enough to where it would have bothered Mr. Barnes.

Officer W. denied ever lifting up on Mr. Barnes' handcuffs. Officer W. indicated that Mr. Barnes started leaning forward on his own, saying something to the effect of "let's just get this over with." Officer W. indicated that he did apply some pressure to the cuffs but only enough to keep control and to straighten Mr. Barnes back up from his forward leaning position. Officer W. indicated that he never lifted up on the cuffs or pulled them up over Mr. Barnes' head as Mr. Barnes had described. Officer W. explained that it was only a 15-20 foot walk to the car and that there was no force used on Mr. Barnes, as Mr. Barnes had alleged.

Officer W. ran his lapel video the entire contact all the way to the PTC and he only turned it off when he left the PTC. Officer W.'s video had been deleted as it was only available for 127 days after upload. The audit trail showed that Officer W. did upload the video for this incident on the day the incident occurred. Mr. Barnes alleged that Officer W. used unnecessary force by pulling up on the handcuffs Mr. Barnes was wearing so that his arms were pulled above his head, causing the handcuffs to cut into Mr. Barnes' wrists.

Officer P. and Officer W. denied that happened. The disc that would have contained pictures to prove that Mr. Barnes was injured by the handcuffs was lost and never made it into evidence. Officer P. did not run his video the entire time and Officer W.'s video had been deleted by the time Officer W.'s identity was revealed. There is no independent evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer W. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-39-1(A) regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states in part:

In such incidents where the primary officer tags a recording and secondary officer(s) also have a recording: all recordings will be tagged into evidence.

Although Officer W. was not originally dispatched to the call, he did log out on the call and ended up assisting Officer P. at the police substation where Mr. Barnes was alleged to have acted out. Officer W. recorded his contact with Mr. Barnes from the police substation to the PTC. Officer W. failed to tag his lapel video as evidence, which would have preserved the video for a longer period of time.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer W. was SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

IV. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE M.'S CONDUCT

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Detective M.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

Mr. Barnes complained about Detective M.'s behavior during his recorded interview. Officer P.'s video showed Mr. Barnes being escorted into the police substation. The video showed Mr. Barnes being seated next to Detective M. Mr. Barnes asked Detective M. if he wore his mask outside. Detective M. said to Mr. Barnes, "I didn't realize that me and you are friends." The video showed that as Detective M. gets up to leave, he told Mr. Barnes in a threatening manner, "I'll remember you. What's his name?" Officer P. gave Detective M. Mr. Barnes' ID. Detective M. pointed at Mr. Barnes and said, "All right, Allan. We'll remember you, Allan. And you won't be talking shit to us. I guaran-f***ing-tee it. You too and your flag shorts."

Detective M. admitted that he reacted to Mr. Barnes in an unprofessional manner and that he used profanity towards Mr. Barnes. Detective M. had nothing to do with the arrest or processing of Mr. Barnes. Mr. Barnes asked a question of Detective M. and Detective M. reacted in an unprofessional manner.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Detective M. was SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-4(P) regarding Detective M.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall not use coarse, violent, profane, or insolent language or gestures.

The lapel video showed that Detective M. used profane language and threatening gestures towards Mr. Barnes. Detective M. admitted that he reacted to Mr. Barnes in an unprofessional manner and that he used profanity towards Mr. Barnes.

The CPOA finds the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Detective M. was SUSTAINED, which means the allegation is supported by sufficient evidence.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer P., Officer W., and Detective M.'s Internal Affairs personnel files.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC # 202-14

Dear Mr. Carver:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on November 1, 2014, for an incident which occurred on October 30, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Carver's complaint is based on Officer A.'s conduct during the encounter on October 30, 2014 between his wife, Miranda Carver and his grandmother, Lillian Sanchez. Ms. Sanchez called APD to report Mrs. Carver battered her. Ms. Sanchez reported to police she sought refuge at the neighbors' house.

Mr. Carver wrote in his complaint that Officer A. failed to listen to his wife's version of events when there was a conflict between Mrs. Carver and Ms. Sanchez. Mr. Carver claimed he had evidence to show Officer A. that Officer A. refused to consider. Mr. Carver wrote Officer A. failed to see that Ms. Sanchez lived in uninhabitable conditions. Mr. Carver stated he was Ms. Sanchez's caretaker.

Letter to Mr. Carver

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Mr. Carver. Mr. Carver repeated much of what was in his written complaint. Mr. Carver restated that Officer A. failed to listen to his wife's side of the situation. Instead Mr. Carver claimed Officer A. listened to neighbors that were not there and had a bias against Mr. Carver and his wife. Mr. Carver stated it was improper for Officer A. to handcuff Mrs. Carver immediately upon contacting her. Mr. Carver believed Officer A. should have assessed his grandmother's mental health and ordered a psychological evaluation for his grandmother before arresting his wife. Mr. Carver believed Officer A. should have asked Mr. Carver or Mr. Carver's mother for information about Ms. Sanchez's background. Mr. Carver claimed Officer A. filed a false police report because he did not get the facts. Mr. Carver was not present during the situation and received the information from his wife about what happened. Mr. Carver admitted he did not have power of attorney or other court ordered guardianship over his grandmother.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Mrs. Carver, as well, since she was the one present, not Mr. Carver. Mrs. Carver also complained Officer A. did not listen to her side of the story. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. did not do a proper investigation and wrongfully arrested her. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. did not knock or announce his presence and simply walked in the house. Mrs. Carver stated it was wrong for Officer A. to handcuff her right away if she was only detained. Mrs. Carver tried to tell Officer A. Ms. Sanchez's history, but Officer A. did not consider the information she tried to provide. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. refused to call her husband or mother-in-law who had information to contribute. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. got an attitude with her and called her "smart mouthed".

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER A.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report, Albuquerque Police Report, Officer A.'s lapel video and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Mr. Carver, Mrs. Carver and Officer A.

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Procedural Order 2-24-3(F)(1-5) regarding Officer A.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations: 1. Observe all conditions, events and remarks. 2. Locate, identify and interview witnesses, victims and suspect(s). 3. Protect the crime scene and the evidence. Ensure that necessary evidence is collected. 4. Effect the arrest of the suspect. 5. Report the incident fully and accurately.

Mr. Carver claimed Officer A. did not listen to his wife's version of events. Mr. Carver claimed the police report did not have any of his wife's statement. Mr. Carver stated Officer A. only listened to the neighbors who were not even present and biased against him and his wife. Mr. Carver said Officer A. should have spoken to him and his mother who could have provided history on Ms. Sanchez's mental health issues. Mr. Carver stated he had texts and phone calls from his wife that illustrated what happened. Officer A. did not do a proper

Letter to Mr. Carver

investigation because he failed to recognize a mental health situation. Mrs. Carver stated she tried to tell Officer A. about Ms. Sanchez's history and that Ms. Sanchez filed false claims against her before. Mrs. Carver tried to get Officer A. to contact her husband and mother-in-law about Ms. Sanchez so Officer A. could understand Ms. Sanchez's history. Mrs. Carver told Officer A. that Ms. Sanchez tried to bite her. Mrs. Carver claimed Ms. Sanchez threw herself around to cause injury to herself. Mrs. Carver claimed Ms. Sanchez was the cause of the altercation and tried to goad Mrs. Carver into fighting. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. did not listen to her and did not allow Mrs. Carver to provide proof of Ms. Sanchez's condition such as brain scans and blood work.

The video showed Officer A. spoke to Mrs. Carver, Ms. Sanchez, and the neighbors because that was where Ms. Sanchez fled to. The video showed Officer A. saw injuries and had additional injuries documented by a field investigator at the hospital. The video showed no additional family members arrived. Mrs. Carver confirmed no additional people came to the scene while Officer A. was present. The video showed Officer A. made the arrest based on his investigation and what was relevant to that night's occurrence. The report reflected the statements all parties made to Officer A..

The CPOA finds Officer A.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure General Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Officer A.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall:

2. Make only those arrests, searches and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. did not knock on the door or announce his presence. Mrs. Carver at first said she was outside and then said she was inside with the inner door open and the screen door closed. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. walked into the house. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. immediately instructed her to put her hands behind her back and handcuffed her. Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. told her at that time she was not under arrest and only detained, which Mrs. Carver believed a person could not be handcuffed if only detained. Mr. Carver too claimed Officer A.'s actions were illegal. Mrs. Carver claimed she should not have been arrested given the circumstances of Ms. Sanchez's mental health and that Ms. Sanchez attacked her. Mr. Carver claimed Officer A. should have had a mental health assessment performed on his grandmother before arresting his wife. Mr. Carver felt if it was necessary Officer A. could have issued a summons later.

The video showed Ms. Sanchez made allegations and had visible injuries. The video showed the neighbors confirmed the existence of other injuries. Ms. Sanchez had debris on her jacket and hair which substantiated Ms. Sanchez's claim she hid in bushes to escape Mrs. Carver. A 911 call from Mr. Carver's mother reported some of the allegations Mrs. Carver had about what happened that night, but the information was coming to her from Mrs. Carver. Mr. Carver's mother was not present herself. Officers are required by state statute 31-1-7 and SOP 3-12611 to make an arrest and assess which party is the primary aggressor in domestic violence situations. The video showed the inner door of the residence was open and Officer A. confirmed Mrs. Carver's identity as he entered the home. Officers may use handcuffs whether the person is detained or arrested if the situation warrants it. Mrs. Carver admitted in her interview she lied to Officer A. when she told him she had not hit Ms. Sanchez and that Ms. Sanchez threw herself around. Mrs. Carver admitted the truth was she and Ms. Sanchez battered each other. Officer A. based his arrest on the evidence presented to him at the time. Ms. Sanchez's possible mental health concerns did not dismiss the evidence a domestic situation occurred.

The CPOA finds Officer A.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure General Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer A.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off-duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Carver claimed Officer A. was aggressive and hostile because they did not listen to his wife. Mr. Carver claimed Officer A. was a "typical power hungry bully". Mrs. Carver stated Officer A. conveyed he did not believe her. Mrs. Carver complained Officer A. told her she was "pretty smart mouthed" when she complained Officer A. was not following the conversation. Mrs. Carver claimed Officer A. rolled his eyes and took the attitude she was "a poor little high girl", but agreed Officer A. never said anything like that.

The lapel video showed Officer A. was professional with all individuals. The lapel video showed Officer A. never accused Mrs. Carver of being "smart mouthed". The lapel video showed Mrs. Carver criticized the officer for not following the conversation, but what she was saying she had not said before. There is no visual of Officer A.'s face, but his tone did not indicate anything.

The CPOA finds Officer A.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did not occur.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer A.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the

Mr. Antonio Garcia
[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87108

Re: CPC #204-14

Dear Mr. Garcia:

The complaint you filed against Officer B. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on October 29, 2014, for three incidents which had occurred in the past. The first incident that you complained of happened in 2008. The second incident that you complained of happened on May 19, 2012. The third incident you complained of happened on October 25, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Baca stated in his complaint that in 2008, Officer B. was engaged to a woman with whom Officer B. had a child. The woman was found dead in Officer B.'s home with a gunshot wound to the stomach. The weapon that was used in the shooting was Officer B.'s department-issued handgun. Mr. Garcia complained that Officer B. was never charged with any crime related to the shooting death.

Sometime after that incident, Officer B. became engaged to Mr. Garcia's ex-wife. Mr. Garcia alleged that in May of 2012, while attending a soccer game at a local park where he was watching his son receive some soccer awards, Mr. Garcia and Officer B., who was off duty, were involved in a verbal altercation. Mr. Garcia alleged that during that incident Officer B. was holding a large beach umbrella that had a large steel spike on the end of it. Mr. Garcia alleged that Officer B. repeatedly jabbed this large steel spike into his son's back. When Mr. Garcia intervened and told Officer B. to never touch his son in that matter again, the verbal altercation ensued. Officer B. allegedly balled up his fists and closed the distance between Mr. Garcia and Officer B. Mr. Garcia feared that he would be hit by Officer B., so he left and reported the incident to the police. Mr. Garcia complained that no charges were ever filed on Officer B. for the events that occurred on that day. Mr. Garcia did obtain an Order of Protection against Officer B. on behalf of Mr. Garcia's minor son, based on what occurred during that altercation.

Letter to Mr. Garcia

Mr. Garcia further wrote in his complaint that on October 25, 2014, after dropping off his child at a neutral location for child custody exchanges, he inadvertently found himself driving behind Officer B., Mr. Garcia's ex-wife, and their minor children. Mr. Garcia alleged that Officer B., who was off duty, suddenly and without warning, slammed on his brakes causing Mr. Garcia to almost hit Officer B.'s vehicle. Mr. Garcia immediately grabbed his cell phone camera and took a picture of Officer B.'s license plate. Mr. Garcia alleged that Officer B. then backed up and got on the right side of Mr. Garcia's vehicle. Mr. Garcia could see his son in the back seat crying and screaming for Mr. Garcia to help him. Mr. Garcia yelled at Officer B., called him a maniac, and told him that he was going to kill somebody with the way Officer B. was driving. Mr. Garcia alleged that Officer B. responded by saying that he didn't care. Officer B. then allegedly reversed his vehicle again, narrowly missing Mr. Garcia's vehicle. Mr. Garcia then left the area and phoned the police.

Mr. Garcia went on to allege that Sergeant C. responded to his home to take a report on the incident. Mr. Garcia wrote that he asked Sergeant C. if he knew Officer B. before he reported what happened during the incident to Sergeant C. Sergeant C. assured Mr. Garcia that he did not know Officer B. When Sergeant C. got ready to leave after taking the report, he handed Mr. Garcia a business card that indicated that Sergeant C. worked out of the same substation that Officer B. worked out of. Mr. Garcia alleged that Sergeant C. lied about knowing Officer B. and that Sergeant C. displayed a lack of integrity when he told Mr. Garcia that he did not know Officer B.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER B.'S CONDUCT

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, interviews with the Complainant, Officer B., Sergeant C., and Sergeant H. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed past and current police reports and past Internal Affairs files. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed a surveillance video that captured most of the October 25, 2014, incident. The CPOA Investigator reviewed a cell phone video made by Officer B. during the October 25th incident. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed the 911 calls made to dispatch by Officer B.'s wife during the October 25th incident. The CPOA Investigator reviewed the calls made by Antonio Garcia to APD on October 25, 2014. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed a recording that was made in Court when the Temporary Restraining Order against Officer B. was lifted. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed Sergeant C.'s lapel camera videos of Sergeant C.'s contact with Mr. Garcia.

A review of the 2008 incident complained of by Mr. Garcia showed that there was both a criminal investigation and an internal affairs investigation into the matter. The criminal investigation was conducted by the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Department. The Bernalillo County Sheriff's Department investigation determined that the 2008 incident was a suicide and that Officer B. had no criminal responsibility. The internal affairs investigation that was conducted by the Albuquerque Police Department at the time found that Officer B. had violated policy. Officer B. was disciplined in the matter. Because there were already a criminal investigation and an internal investigation into the matter, and because Officer B. was disciplined in the matter, no action was taken by the CPOA Investigator with regards to any further investigation, other than the review, into the 2008 incident.

(A) With regard to the May 19, 2012, allegation of misconduct, I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

The evidence that related to the 2012 incident at the soccer park was reviewed. That evidence included a review of the police report that was filed in the case, an interview with Mr. Garcia, an interview with Officer B., and an interview with Sergeant H., who investigated the case at the time. The Temporary Restraining Order that was filed in that case was also reviewed.

Mr. Garcia had complained in his written complaint and his interview that Officer B., who was off duty at the time, had taunted Mr. Garcia's son with a large beach umbrella that had a large steel point on the end of it. The 2012 police report taken by Sergeant H., as well as a review of the Temporary Restraining Order that had been filed in that case showed that, in fact, it was not a large beach umbrella with a large steel point as Mr. Garcia had alleged in his complaint to the CPOA, but was instead a lawn chair. The report made by Sergeant H. in 2012 said that it was Mr. Garcia who knocked the lawn chair from Officer B.'s hand. Mr. Garcia admitted doing that and said that he did so because Officer B. was taunting his son with the chair.

Mr. Garcia also alleged that Officer B. bad-mouthed him, saying he was not a good father and he also called Mr. Garcia a drug dealer. Mr. Garcia never told Sergeant H. that he was in fear of being battered by Officer B. Officer B. told Sergeant H. that he was playing with the boy and Mr. Garcia got offended and hit the chair from Officer B.'s hand. Officer B. told Sergeant H. that Mr. Garcia had a long criminal history and was a drug user. Mr. Garcia's father was interviewed and he told Sergeant H. that both his son, Mr. Garcia, and Officer B., could have handled the incident better than what they did. Mr. Garcia's father witnessed Mr. Garcia push the chair from Officer B.'s hand. Mr. Garcia's father said that Officer B. did say that Antonio Garcia was not a good father, and that Antonio Garcia was a drug dealer. Sergeant H. also interviewed Ashley Romero, Mr. Garcia's ex-wife. Sergeant H. was interviewed by the CPOA Investigator. Sergeant H. said that based on her investigation at the time, Mr. Garcia did not commit any intentional crime by slapping the chair from Officer B.'s hand, even though Ms. Romero said that she was hurt by the chair. Sergeant H. said that she contacted Officer B.'s immediate supervisor at the time and they discussed Officer B.'s actions. While they both felt that Officer B. could have handled the situation better, neither she, nor Officer B.'s supervisor, felt that Officer B.'s actions constituted a violation of Standard Operating Procedure and, therefore, no Internal Investigation into the matter was conducted. Mr. Garcia never filed a Citizen Police Complaint on that incident.

Mr. Garcia's complaint against Officer B. in the 2012 case contained false allegations. The incident did not occur as Mr. Garcia described in his complaint to the CPOA, and for unknown reasons Mr. Garcia changed the lawn chair to a "huge beach umbrella" with a "large steel spike at the end." None of that is true. Furthermore, a review of the police report and the interview conducted with Sergeant H. showed that the 2012 incident was investigated fully and that there was no SOP violation committed by Officer B.

I find Officer B.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(B) With regard to the October 25, 2014, allegation of misconduct, I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer B.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

The evidence that was available regarding the October 25, 2014, incident was reviewed. That evidence included the police report, a review of the 911 calls that Ms. Romero made to 911 concerning Mr. Garcia's actions on that date, a review of all the phone calls that Mr. Garcia made to APD on that date, a review of video that Officer B. made on his cell phone, a review of Sergeant C.'s lapel videos, and a review of the recorded Domestic Violence Restraining Order Hearing wherein the Restraining Order against Officer B. was lifted. A surveillance video that captured most of the incident was also reviewed. Mr. Garcia was interviewed, Officer B. was interviewed, and Sergeant C. was interviewed.

The surveillance video was most telling in that it showed that Officer B. was not driving dangerously. The video showed it was Mr. Garcia who was tailgating Officer B.'s vehicle. Mr. Garcia was only about a car length behind Officer B. in a 30 MPH zone. The video showed that Officer B. did not brake abruptly. In fact, Officer B. simply pulled over into an available turn lane. Mr. Garcia's van did not almost slide sideways while allegedly trying to avoid hitting Officer B. The video showed that it was Mr. Garcia who pulled alongside Officer B.'s vehicle, on the right side of Officer B.'s vehicle, and that Mr. Garcia made a U-turn in front of Officer B. Officer B. never backed up as Mr. Garcia alleged, and Officer B.

M006762

Letter to Mr. Garcia

never was on the right side of Mr. Garcia's vehicle as Mr. Garcia alleged. The video showed that the encounter was over and done when Mr. Garcia made a U-turn and headed West on Lomas. Yet Mr. Garcia, as the video showed, chose to turn around and follow Officer B., Officer B.'s wife, and their children.

The 911 call made by Ms. Romero to APD to report Mr. Garcia for following and harassing them showed that the children in the car were not screaming as Mr. Garcia alleged. Furthermore, those recordings showed that Officer B. never said anything to Mr. Garcia during the encounter as Mr. Garcia had alleged in his complaint.

The Domestic Violence Restraining Order Hearing Officer found Mr. Garcia's allegations as to what had occurred on that date as not believable. The Restraining Order was dismissed.

Mr. Garcia's complaint against Officer B. for the 2014 incident also contained false allegations. The evidence referenced above showed that it was Mr. Garcia who was driving aggressively, as he was tailgating Officer B. The video showed that Officer B. did not brake abruptly. Mr. Garcia said in his complaint that he "fishtailed" in his van when he had to avoid hitting Officer B.'s vehicle. The video proved that did not happen. Mr. Garcia alleged in his complaint that Officer B. reversed his vehicle right after that and that Officer B. "slammed the accelerator" coming towards his van and that Officer B. narrowly missed striking his van. Mr. Garcia alleged that Officer B. then got on the right side of Mr. Garcia's van and he could see his son in the back seat of Officer B.'s vehicle screaming for Mr. Garcia to help him. Mr. Garcia alleged that Officer B., when confronted, told Mr. Garcia that he did not care and that Officer B. continued in reverse and placed his vehicle behind Mr. Garcia's vehicle. The surveillance video, the 911 call placed by Ms. Romero, and the cell phone video made by Officer B. all prove that Mr. Garcia's allegations made in the written complaint are false. The incident did not happen as Mr. Garcia alleged.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer B. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING SERGEANT C.'S CONDUCT

With regard to the October 25, 2014, allegation of misconduct, I, as Acting Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Sergeant C.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

Mr. Garcia complained specifically that Sergeant C. lied to him when Sergeant C. said that he did not know Officer B. Mr. Garcia alleged that Sergeant C. displayed a lack of integrity when he told Mr. Garcia that he did not know Officer B. Mr. Garcia said that since both Sergeant C. and Officer B. work out of the same substation, they must have known each other.

Letter to Mr. Garcia

The CPOA Investigator determined that there are 96 officers working three different shifts assigned to the Southeast Substation. Sergeant C. and Officer B. work different shifts. Sergeant C., at the time of this incident, only knew Officer B. by face and not by name. Sergeant C.'s lapel video recording of his interaction with Mr. Garcia confirmed that Sergeant C. did not know who Officer B. was. In fact, on the video, Sergeant C. had to ask Mr. Garcia if he was sure that Officer B. was an Albuquerque Police Officer. Also, the video showed that Mr. Garcia did not ask Sergeant C. if he knew Officer B. before telling Sergeant C. what happened during the incident, as Mr. Garcia had alleged in his written complaint and interview. The lapel camera video showed that Mr. Garcia only questioned Sergeant C. about knowing Officer B. at the end of the encounter, after Sergeant C. told Mr. Garcia that Sergeant C. worked out of the Southeast Substation.

The lapel video recording showed that Sergeant C. conducted a proper investigation into the allegations that were made against Officer B. by Mr. Garcia. Sergeant C. wrote a report on the incident as requested by Mr. Garcia. Even after Mr. Garcia returned to the police substation with a Restraining Order, it was Sergeant C. who lawfully and properly served the Restraining Order on Officer B.

The evidence referenced above showed that Sergeant C. did say that he did not know Officer B. even though he knew Officer B. by face. That conduct did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

I find Sergeant C.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer B.'s and Sergeant C.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Re: CPC #207-14

Dear Mr. Pollard:

The complaint you filed against Officer M. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on November 6, 2014, for two incidents which occurred in the past. The first incident you complained of happened in 2008. The second incident you complained of happened on or about July 27, 2014 and the second incident you complained about occurred on November 4, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Tremayne Pollard, who is a Security Supervisor at Macy's in Coronado Mall, wrote in his complaint that on November 4, 2014 they had a shoplifting incident that involved an unknown Hispanic male, a former associate, and a current associate. The unknown Hispanic male tried to steal a leather jacket, but was unsuccessful in doing so because he was stopped at the store entrance by two loss prevention associates, Zac Courtois and Nicole Rael. The Hispanic male resisted the loss prevention associates who attempted to detain him. The Hispanic male fled the scene in a car that was being driven by a former associate.

M006766

Letter to Mr. Pollard
April 10, 2015

Mr. Pollard complained that when Officer M. arrived to answer the store's call for assistance, Officer M. displayed unprofessional behavior. Mr. Pollard specifically complained that Officer M. did not take the incident seriously. Allegedly, Officer M. also made several comments to the Loss Prevention employee, Zac Courtois, that were inappropriate. Mr. Courtois felt as if Officer M. was belittling him. Officer M. allegedly asked Mr. Courtois, "What would you like me to do about this incident? There is no report number, why would I make a report? It's just a bunch of paper pushing."

Officer M. left the office without providing Mr. Courtois a report number. Mr. Pollard said that store policy required that all incidents like these must be reported and documented by the police. Mr. Pollard also complained that Officer M. had made demeaning comments to Mr. Courtois months earlier, around July 27, 2014. During that incident Officer M. allegedly commented that Zac Courtois had poor report writing skills.

Mr. Pollard wrote that he was not present for the November 4, 2014 incident, but that he filed the complaint based on what his employees, Zac Courtois and Nicole Rael, had told him about the incident. Mr. Pollard stated that he was present for the July 27, 2014 incident. Mr. Pollard stated that that Officer M. comments about Mr. Courtois's report writing skills at that time.

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER M.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, interviews with the Complainant, Zac Courtois, Nicole Rael, Officer M., and Officer D.. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed the CADS report on the incident as well as the police officer's lapel video recordings of the incident.

A) With regard to the July 27, 2014 allegation of misconduct by Officer M., the CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1 (F) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

Mr. Pollard complained that in July of 2014, Officer M. had responded to a felony shoplifting involving multiple suspects. Officer M. allegedly returned the following day to pick up a statement from a Loss Prevention person at the Macy's store. Mr. Pollard said that when Officer M. picked up that statement, Officer M. said that the Loss Prevention employee, Mr. Courtois really needed to work on being more timely with the statement and that the Loss Prevention person needed to work on his report writing skills.

Mr. Pollard said that Officer M. made that comment directly to Mr. Pollard. The Loss Prevention person, Zac Courtois, who wrote out the written statement regarding the felony shoplifting, said that Officer M. made the statement to a mall security guard, who in turn told Mr. Pollard. Officer M. denied he ever made such a comment.

Letter to Mr. Pollard

There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove that Officer M. was discourteous or unprofessional toward anyone, regarding alleged comments about Mr. Courtois's work product.

The CPOA finds Officer M.'s conduct to be NOT SUSTAINED, which means there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

B) With regard to the November 4, 2014 allegation of misconduct by Officer M., the CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1 (F) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

Mr. Pollard complained that on November 4, 2014, that Officer M. conducted himself unprofessionally and that Officer M. made several comments to Mr. Courtois that were "inappropriate." Those comments Officer M. allegedly made, gave Mr. Courtois the impression that Officer M. was belittling him. Mr. Pollard alleged that this was the second time that Officer M. had made demeaning comments towards Mr. Courtois.

The information obtained in the investigation showed that Officer M. was polite and professional throughout the encounter. The lapel videos showed that Officer M. never made any demeaning comments towards Zac Courtois. This was confirmed by a statement from Mr. Courtois's co-worker, Nicole Rael.

The videos showed that Officer M. appeared to be somewhat confused by the story at the beginning of the incident until the story was explained in better detail. The entire contact with Mr. Courtois and Ms. Rael was recorded on video. The videos showed that Officer M. behaved professionally throughout the encounter.

The CPOA finds this allegation of Officer M.'s alleged misconduct to be UNFOUNDED, which means that the investigation showed by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-4 O regarding Officer M.'s conduct which states in part:

In the performance of their duties, personnel shall maintain a neutral and detached attitude without indication disinterest or that a matter is petty or insignificant.

Mr. Pollard complained that Officer M. did not take the November 2014 incident seriously. As evidence to support that allegation, Mr. Pollard said that Officer M. made comments like,

Letter to Mr. Pollard
April 10, 2015

“What do you want me to do about this incident?” and “There is no report number, why would we make a report? It’s just a bunch of paper pushing.”

The lapel videos showed that those allegations were untrue. When Officer M. arrived on scene, he asked Mr. Courtois, “What happened?” The lapel video showed that Officer M. had a genuine interest as to what had occurred during the shoplifting. Officer M. asked numerous investigative questions concerning the shoplifting. Officer M. reviewed the store’s surveillance video, and he read the written statement that Zac Courtois had prepared on the incident. Officer M. offered to interview the one associate who still worked for the store. Officer M. also told Zac Courtois that he could pull up a picture of the registered owner of the license plate that Mr. Courtois had regarding the suspect in the shoplifting to see if the picture matched the suspect. Officer D., who was with Officer M., suggested that the store submit the video of the shoplifting to the Albuquerque Retail Assets Protection Association website to see if the offender could be identified by other merchants participating in the program. Those documented actions are not those of an officer who felt that the matter was petty or insignificant.

The lapel video evidence proved that Officer M. did not ask, “What do you want me to do about this incident?” Officer M. also did not say that there was no report number. Officer M. did not ask, “Why would we do a report?” It was Officer D. who made the “paper pushing” comment.

The CPOA finds this allegation of Officer M’s alleged misconduct to be UNFOUNDED, which means that the investigation showed by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

D) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-05-6 D regarding Officer M.’s conduct which states in part:

Personnel will write reports on any incident where a citizen/victim requests a report.

The lapel video evidence showed that Zac Courtois did ask for a report to be made on the November 2014 incident. Officer M. asked, “So do you need a report for your records?” Mr. Courtois answered, “Yes.” Later Officer M. asked again, “So you just want a report?” Mr. Courtois answered, “Yes.” Officer D. spoke up at that point and talked Mr. Courtois out of having the report written at that time. Officer M., even after that said that he would not mind writing a report for Mr. Courtois. Officer M. never report on the matter.

It was clear from the videos that Officer M. was certainly willing to write a report on the matter. However, the written report never materialized. Mr. Courtois asked for a report and Officer M. was required under SOP to write one. He failed to do so.

The CPOA finds this allegation of Officer M’s conduct to be SUSTAINED, which means by a preponderance of the evidence the alleged misconduct of not writing a report when requested did occur.

M006769

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER D.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1 (F) regarding Officer D.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

The investigation revealed that Mr. Courtois called the APD for assistance in trying to identify a person who had tried to steal a jacket from the Macy's store. Mr. Courtois had done some extensive work to try to identify the suspect and Mr. Courtois believed that the suspect, a former store employee, and a current store employee were all involved in the matter. Mr. Courtois also wanted a report made by APD to document what had occurred.

The lapel video evidence showed that Officer M. was willing to write a report on the incident until Officer D. stepped in and said that APD doesn't usually write reports where the victim doesn't know who the suspect is and where there are no charges to file. Officer D. said "That's just like paper pushing, you know, for no reason."

Whether a written report would have had any effect on the outcome of the shoplifting is unknown. Mr. Courtois called the APD for help in identifying a possible suspect and to get a police report on the matter and Officer D.'s actions resulted in none of that happening.

The CPOA finds this allegation of Officer D.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED, which means that a preponderance of the evidence showed that the alleged misconduct did occur.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-4 (O) regarding Officer D.'s conduct, which states in part:

In the performance of their duties, personnel shall maintain a neutral and detached attitude without indication disinterest or that a matter is petty or insignificant.

The lapel videos showed that Officer D. and Officer M. showed a genuine interest in the shoplifting as it was being reported to them. Officer D. and Officer M. asked numerous investigative questions concerning the shoplifting. Store surveillance video was reviewed as well as the written statement that Zac Courtois had prepared on the incident. Officer M. offered to interview the one associate who still worked for the store. Officer M. also told Zac Courtois that he could pull up a picture of the registered owner of the license plate that Mr. Courtois had regarding the suspect in the shoplifting to see if the picture matched the suspect. Officer D. suggested that the store enter the video of the shoplifting to the ARAPA website to see if the offender could be identified by other merchants participating in the program. Those documented actions are not those of an officer who felt that the matter was petty or insignificant.

Letter to Mr. Pollard

The CPOA finds this allegation of Officer D's alleged misconduct to be UNFOUNDED, which means that the investigation showed by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

- C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-05-6 (D) regarding Officer D.'s conduct, which states in part:

Personnel will write reports on any incident where a citizen/victim requests a report.

Even though Officer D. was a secondary or back up officer in this case, he took on an active and convincing role as to whether or not a police report would be written on the matter. Officer D. said that the report would just be a lot of paper pushing for no reason.

Mr. Courtois asked for a police report on the matter. Officer D. gave a number of reasons as to why the police would not do a report on such a matter. He should not have done that and a report should have been written.

The CPOA finds this allegation of Officer D.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED, which means by a preponderance of the evidence the alleged misconduct of not writing a report when requested did occur.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer M.'s and Officer D.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

[REDACTED]
Albuquerque, NM 87109

Re: CPC #210-14

Dear Ms. Bradford:

The complaint you filed against Officer S. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on November 17, 2014, for an incident that occurred on that same day. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. I, as Acting Executive Director, made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Marie Bradford, an African American, complained that on November 17, 2014, while on her way to pick up her child from school, she was followed from her sister's home by Officer S. When she arrived at the school, she was approached by Officer S. who questioned her about why she was coming from the area that she was. When Ms. Bradford told Officer S. that she was coming from her sister's house where she had been visiting, Officer S. asked for the specific address that Ms. Bradford was coming from. Officer S. told Ms. Bradford that she fit the description of someone who was suspected of violating the law. The officer refused to tell Ms. Bradford what law that offender was suspected of violating. Ms. Bradford alleged that the entire incident was a case of racial profiling. Ms. Bradford said that African Americans

Letter to Ms. Bradford

are not prohibited from visiting any neighborhoods in Albuquerque. Ms. Bradford later found out that her nephew, who is also African American, had been stopped by other police officers in the same area asking the same questions.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER S.' CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, interviews with the Complainant and Officer S. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed the CADS report on the incident as well as the police officer's lapel video recording of the contact with Ms. Bradford.

I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-03-2(A) regarding Officer S.' conduct, which states:

Biased-based policing / profiling by any member of this Department is prohibited. Investigative detentions, field contacts, traffic stops, arrests, searches, property seizures and forfeiture efforts will be based on a standard of reasonable suspicion or probable cause in accordance with the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Ms. Bradford complained that she was stopped by Officer S. without reasonable suspicion. Ms. Bradford felt that she was racially profiled by Officer S.

The investigation revealed that on the date and time that this incident took place, an Armed Robbery had occurred at the 7-11 store at Carlisle and Montgomery. The offender got away with a bag containing several thousand dollars. The offender was described as a black male wearing a ski mask and a blue hoodie. The offender left on foot headed towards some apartments near the store. Officer S. had been dispatched on the call as a backup officer and she drove around the other side of the apartments to see if she could locate the offender. As Officer S. drove onto Douglas MacArthur Street, the street on which the apartments are located, she noticed a vehicle back out of a driveway rather rapidly. The vehicle passed her going in the opposite direction. Officer S. noticed that the car was being driven by a black male wearing a hoodie, but Officer S. couldn't see the color of the hoodie. Officer S. turned around to follow the vehicle, and as she was doing so, she was trying to get more information on the offender.

The armed robbery was reported to the police at 2:41 p.m. Officer S. spotted the car on Douglas MacArthur 11-12 minutes after the call came in to APD. Officer S. followed the car to Bel-Air Elementary School where the car pulled in and stopped. The investigation revealed that the car was being driven by Ms. Bradford's brother and Ms. Bradford was a passenger in the car. Officer S. contacted Ms. Bradford and her brother at 2:57 p.m., just 16 minutes after the armed robbery. The lapel video showed, and Officer S. confirmed, that Ms. Bradford's brother was a black male wearing blue jeans, but the hoodie was grey in color and not blue. As soon as Officer S. saw that, she knew that Ms. Bradford and her brother were not involved in the armed robbery and told them that they were free to go. The contact was brief; less than three minutes. Neither Ms. Bradford nor her brother were asked to produce identification. They were questioned as to where they were coming from, told that there had been an incident in the area, and that Ms. Bradford's brother kind of matched the description of the offender. The video showed that Officer S. within just a minute or so into the contact told Ms. Bradford and her brother that they were obviously not involved in the incident and they were free to go.

Letter to Ms. Bradford

While Officer S. did not tell Ms. Bradford the nature of the incident, that it was an armed robbery, Officer S. did provide Ms. Bradford with sufficient detail to justify why they were being followed and contacted.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer S. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer S.' Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC #213-14

Dear Mr. Packingham:

The complaint you filed against Officer M., of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on November 24, 2014 regarding an incident that occurred on August 24, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Don Packingham wrote in his complaint that on August 24, 2015 his vehicle was burglarized in the parking lot of 3501 Atrisco Drive NW. An officer came out and took a report. Later that day, Mr. Packingham was approached by a female who told him that she saw who may have committed the burglary. She witnessed and man and a woman trying to get into cars by pulling on door handles at about 4:30 AM that morning. When Mr. Packingham asked the female if she called the police, the woman told him that she did but no one ever showed up. The woman said that she watched the man and woman get into Mr. Packingham's truck and remove items and she called the police back at that time to report what she saw and where the offenders went. The woman said that the police arrived about 30 minutes after the first call. She said that she talked to the police officer who arrived but that he was a jerk and wouldn't write anything down and that he didn't even get out of his carto investigate. The officer, later identified as Officer M., allegedly just drove through the parking lot and said everything looked fine and he left. The female gave Mr. Packingham the license plate to the suspect's vehicle and told Mr. Packingham what apartment the offenders had gone into. Mr. Packingham called the officer who took the report and the officer told him that he would call the Northwest Impact Team Sergeant and relay the new information to him, but that because it was a Sunday, the Impact Detectives probably would not come out to handle the case. Mr. Packingham met with the reporting officer, Detective L., and gave Detective L. a written statement as to what the unidentified female told him. It wasn't until September 2, 2014 that another APD Detective followed up on the case and got a Search Warrant for the apartment where the offenders resided. Only a camera belonging to Mr. Packingham was recovered. His guns, stolen in the burglary, never were recovered. Mr. Packingham complained that the original officer should have conducted a better investigation and that APD should have responded immediately to the information provided and obtained a Search Warrant for the offender's apartment immediately, rather than waiting long as they did.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE S.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Reports in the case, The Computer Assisted Dispatch (CADS) Reports, an interview with Mr. Packingham, and interviews with Officer M., and Detective L.. There was no lapel video available because MR. Packingham did not file his complaint until 92 days after the incident. By the time the investigation into the complaint was started, the lapel video had been deleted.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-24-3 A (1) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Field Services officers will conduct preliminary investigations on all felony and misdemeanor crimes and any other incidents of a suspicious nature.

Mr. Packingham complained that Officer M. had an inadequate response to and conducted an insufficient preliminary investigation into an anonymous call for service that vehicles were being broken into in an apartment complex where his truck was parked. Mr. Packingham believed, based on what he was told by an anonymous witness, that the police officers did not respond to an initial call for service and when they did come out after the second call, 20-30 minutes later, the officers didn't even get out of their patrol cars. He believed that the officers who responded to the call just drove through the parking lot, indicated that everything was fine and then left. Mr. Packingham discovered his truck had been broken into and items were stolen.

The investigation showed that Officer M. was the primary officer on the call for service. The CADS report on the original call was numbered 142360278. It showed that at 4:22 AM, a caller advised that she saw a male outside in the parking lot of the apartments pulling on door handles and looking into vehicles. According to the caller, the man had not broken into any vehicles at that time. The caller advised that the suspect possibly had some kind of badge pinned onto his shirt. The caller reported that she could not see the man very well but that she would call back if the situation changed. The call was coded a priority two call. Officer M. and another APD Officer were dispatched to the call at 4:32 AM. At 4:34 AM, the woman caller called back and advised that the people she originally reported were now getting into vehicles in the parking lot. The caller was whispering and it was very hard to understand the caller. Officer M. arrived at 5:06 AM. At 5:17 AM, Officer M. ran a license plate on a vehicle. That license plate was the license plate on Mr. Packingham's vehicle. Officer M. noted in the CADS at 5:21 AM, that he made contact with the anonymous caller. The caller gave vague information about the vehicles and the subjects. Officer M. wrote, "At this time negative vehicles were located that appeared to be burglarized. Everything appears to be 10-4 at this time." Officer M. cleared the call at 5:40 AM, meaning he left the scene 24 minutes after arriving.

Letter to Mr. Packingham

The investigation revealed that when Officer M. arrived on scene they were flagged down by the female who wished to remain anonymous. The female was sitting in a car in the parking lot. Officer M. spoke to the female. The female told him that she had called and that it was "that vehicle over there." The female only motioned with her head as to which vehicle she was pointing to. She told Officer M. that the blue truck she had called about was "over there." The female refused to give Officer M. any further information and she drove away from the parking lot. The female did not offer any additional suspect information. Officer M. walked around the parking lot and checked all of the vehicles and he did not see any vehicles or trucks that appeared to have been burglarized. He saw no broken windows, no shattered glass, or anything like that. There was a single truck that looked like it might have been burglarized. The truck appeared to be a contractor type vehicle. The truck had papers throughout the cab but it could have just been messy and not burglarized. There were no signs of forced entry on any of the vehicles that the officer checked. Officer M. did run a plate through dispatch and it ended up that the plate that he ran did belong to the victim/complainant but the plate returned to a business and not to anyone living in the complex. The doors were locked on that truck and it did not appear that the truck had been burglarized. It was clear from the evidence that Officer M. conducted a sufficient preliminary investigation into the call for service.

Detective L. was interviewed. He took the original police report. The police report in this case is numbered 14-77389. The report indicated that Mr. Packingham discovered his burglarized truck at around 6:00 AM. The offenders had gained entry to the truck by prying the back sliding glass open. Detective L. processed the vehicle for latent prints but none were found. At 9:30 AM that same date, Detective L. was contacted by Mr. Packingham. Mr. Packingham told Detective L. that he had possible offender information that Mr. Packingham had obtained from a female who wished to remain anonymous. The female told Packingham that she had observed a female subject entering and exiting Mr. Packingham's vehicle through the rear sliding window with items in hand and that there was a male with the female. The anonymous witness said the female offender drives a four door Lincoln and that the female parks in the complex on a routine basis. The report was forwarded to NW Impact for review and follow up. A witness statement was obtained from Mr. Packingham.

M006778

Letter to Mr. Packerham

The witness statement written by Mr. Packerham indicated that Mr. Packerham was flagged down by another resident of the apartment complex. That resident, a female, told Mr. Packerham that she saw a female climb into his truck through the rear window and she saw the female steal items from Packerham's truck. There was a male subject standing by the dumpsters while the female was burglarizing his truck. The witness told Mr. Packerham that he had seen the man and the woman go into Apartment 1009 with the stolen items. The witness also provided Mr. Packerham with a license plate to a vehicle that the witness has seen the offender driving. The statement was obtained some 6 hours after the incident was originally reported to the police.

Mr. Packerham never provided the police with any specific information that would have lead the police to be able to speak with the female witness. Mr. Packerham never provided the police with a name or phone number for the witness or any way to contact the witness. Mr. Packerham never told the police that the witness was available or willing to talk to the police and in fact, Mr. Packerham made it clear that the female wanted to remain anonymous.

The limited information that Mr. Packerham did provide was passed on to the Northwest Impact Sergeant, Sergeant T.. Sergeant T. was made aware that there was a female witness who wished to remain anonymous and that the female had witnessed the burglary. Sergeant T. directed Detective L. to send uniformed police officers to the apartment where the offenders and stolen property might be located if they could identify any of the people who lived in that apartment. Sergeant T. also asked Detective L. to get a witness statement form from the victim. Sergeant T. said that he would assign the case to one of his Detectives to follow up on.

Detective L. called police dispatch and had them set up a call for Field Services officers to go to apartment 1009 of the complex to see if they could make contact with anyone in the apartment. That request for that call for service was at 11:02 AM, six hours or so after the burglary occurred. An Officer was dispatched to the apartment complex at 11:28 AM. Officer R. was the officer on that call. The comments directed Officer R. to do a knock and talk to try to ID the people in 1009. Officer R. arrived on scene at 11:55 AM and he made contact with the victim at 12:17. At 12:34 Officer R. indicated in his comments that he made contact with the victim of the burglary, Mr. Packerham, who provided to Officer R. the offender vehicle information. Officer R. indicated in his comments that he was unable to make contact with anyone in the apartment.

The Albuquerque Police Department had no way, at the time, to corroborate the information that was provided to Mr. Packerham by the anonymous female. Furthermore, by the time the last officer went to the suspected offender's apartment, 8 hours had passed since the burglary occurred. There was no way to obtain a search warrant on uncorroborated information when 8 hours had passed since the burglary.

The investigation revealed that the preliminary investigation into the burglary of Mr. Packerham's truck was sufficient.

Re: CPC # 215-14

Dear Ms. Jiron:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on November 30, 2014, for an incident which occurred on November 20, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Jiron's complaint is based on Officer G.'s actions during a situation that occurred at her sons' school. Officer G. and Officer N. are the School Resource Officers at Ms. Jiron's sons' school. Ms. Jiron wrote Officer G. refused to take a statement from her sons. She wrote Officer G. suspended her sons based on false information. Ms. Jiron wrote Officer G. and Officer N. verbally abused her sons on a daily basis. Neither Ms. Jiron nor her sons participated in the investigative process for further elaboration or clarification.

The CPOA Investigator attempted to interview Ms. Jiron. Ms. Jiron had set an appointment for her and her sons. Ms. Jiron cancelled the first appointment and rescheduled. Ms. Jiron failed to show up to the appointment and did not respond to subsequent attempts to contact her. The investigation was based on her limited written complaint.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER G.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report, Albuquerque Police Report, and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Officer G. and Officer N..

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-24-3(F)(2) and (5) regarding Officer G.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations: 2. Locate, identify, and interview witnesses, victims and suspects 5. Report the incident fully and accurately.

Ms. Jiron wrote that Officer G. refused to take a statement from her sons. Ms. Jiron wrote that Officer G. suspended her sons for five days based on false information.

Officer G. interviewed the victims in the case. According to the police report, when Officer G. escorted Mr. A. Jiron to his office, Mr. A. Jiron spit on the floor. Officer G. told Mr. A. Jiron to clean it up. Mr. A. Jiron dragged his foot through the spit and then spit again. Both brothers acted very nonchalant and superior about the whole situation. The brothers used profanity and never wanted to provide their side of what happened. Officer G. documented the incident as well as the lead up from the days prior. Suspension was decided upon by the school not the APD officers.

Ms. Jiron and her sons refused to participate in the investigative process so there was no clarification as to how Officer G. allegedly refused to talk to her sons or what information was allegedly false. Based on the police report written at the time of the incident it was clear neither of Ms. Jiron's sons wished to provide a statement. The report detailed out the incident and the lead up from the days prior. Suspensions are the purview of the school. Officer G. could have arrested Ms. Jiron's sons, but chose to allow things to be handled by APS.

I find Officer G.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did occur, but did not violate APD policies.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer G.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Letter to Ms. Jiron

Ms. Jiron wrote Officer G. verbally abused her sons on a daily basis. Ms. Jiron's sons had extensive disciplinary histories with the school. In general, Officer G. tried to let APS deal with the boys as their mother has a history of filing complaints against officers. Officer G. did not have daily interaction with the boys.

Ms. Jiron offered no information about Officer G.'s behavior. Ms. Jiron had no first-hand knowledge of the situation. Ms. Jiron refused to participate in the investigative process. She provided no evidence to support the allegation, but there was not clear and convincing evidence it did not occur. There was no lapel from the specific date in question.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer G. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means the investigation was unable to determine whether the alleged misconduct occurred.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-39-2(B) regarding Officer G.'s conduct, which states:

All sworn department personnel will record each and every contact with a citizen during their shift that is the result of a dispatched call for service, arrest warrant, search warrant service or traffic stop. . Personnel will activate the recorder prior to arriving at the call or prior to citizen contact on non-dispatched events (within the safety parameters of 1-39-1B) and will record the entirety of citizen contact. Uniformed civilian personnel issued digital recorders will also comply with this section. The recordings will be saved for no less than 120 days.

Officer G. wrote in his police report he initiated his camera at first contact. Officer G. attempted to download and wrote his lapel camera did not record the incident. Officer G. was assigned the Scorpion model of camera, which has been well documented to have problems. It is unknown if Officer G. recorded the incident in its entirety and the lack of video was due to equipment failure.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer G. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means the investigation was unable to determine if the alleged misconduct occurred.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER N.'S CONDUCT

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer N.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Letter to Ms. Jiron

Ms. Jiron wrote Officer N. verbally abused her sons on a daily basis. Ms. Jiron's sons have extensive disciplinary histories with the school. Officer N. also tried to APS address issues with the both boys. Officer N. did not have daily interaction with the boys.

Ms. Jiron offered no information about Officer N.'s behavior. Ms. Jiron had no first-hand knowledge of the situation. Ms. Jiron refused to participate in the investigative process. She provided no evidence to support the allegation, but there was not clear and convincing evidence it did not occur.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer N. was NOT SUSTAINED, which means the investigation was unable to determine if the alleged misconduct occurred.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer G.'s and Officer N.'s Internal Affairs personnel files.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Mr. Jerome Montoya

Albuquerque, NM 87106

Re: CPC #216-14

Dear Mr. Montoya:

The complaint you filed against Detective H. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 3, 2014, for an incident that occurred on October 5, 2012. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Jerome Montoya wrote in his complaint that on October 5, 2012, his son's school books were taken from him and never returned. Mr. Montoya's son and another young man had been arrested by the Gang Unit for Graffiti, Possession of Marijuana, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. Mr. Montoya said that the boys were caught "red handed." Mr. Montoya said that a Gang Unit Detective, Detective H., told Mr. Montoya that the books had been placed in evidence to support the prosecution of the case. Mr. Montoya objected to the taking of the books and wrote that by doing so, the Gang Unit Detective denied his child the tools necessary to live without resorting to crime. Mr. Montoya complained that the taking of the books was a form of child abuse and child neglect. Mr. Montoya alleged that the taking of the school books was unnecessary and that the Gang Unit Detective, Detective H., was just being vindictive in doing so.

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE H.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Complaint, interviews with the Mr. Montoya and Detective H. The CPOA Investigator also reviewed the CADS report, the police report, and evidence logs from the APD Evidence Division.

The Acting Executive Director reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Detective H.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

Mr. Montoya complained in his written complaint and in his interview that on October 5, 2012, his son's school books were taken from him and never returned. Mr. Montoya objected to the taking of the books and said that by doing so, Detective H. denied his child the tools necessary to live without resorting to crime. Mr. Montoya believed that taking of the books was a form of child abuse, child neglect, and that it was a larceny. Mr. Montoya alleged that the act of taking the school books and placing them in evidence was a vindictive move by Detective H. Mr. Montoya was interviewed and he said that the school books belonged to the Albuquerque Public Schools and not to his son. Mr. Montoya said that the value of all the items seized was less than $500.

Detective H. said that the books were seized as evidence because the books had been defaced with graffiti. The graffiti that was in the books was done in the same style and manner that was spray painted on the wall where Mr. Montoya's son was caught spray painting. The books were seized because they supported Detective H.'s probable cause to charge Mr. Montoya's son with the charges that were filed against him.

Mr. Montoya's son was arrested on Friday, October 5, 2012. The following Wednesday, October 10, 2012, at 1:11 p.m., Detective H. authorized the APD Evidence Division to release all items that were taken as evidence to [REDACTED] Montoya, Mr. Montoya's son. The APD Evidence log showed that all of the evidence that could be released in the case was released to [REDACTED] Montoya on October 12, 2012, at 11:00 a.m. Mr. [REDACTED] Montoya presented his Del Norte High School Identification to Evidence when the property was released. The CPOA Investigator obtained copies of the Evidence Log and of the ID that was presented when the evidence was released.

The books and other items that were seized by Detective H. were lawfully seized pursuant to an arrest. The books contained graffiti that matched the graffiti that Mr. Martinez's son had spray painted on a public wall. The books were evidence that support the criminal case against Mr. Martinez's son. According to all of the evidence obtained by the CPOA

Letter to Mr. Montoya

Investigator, Mr. Martinez's son picked up all of the evidence seven days after his arrest. There is no evidence to support the allegation that the books were seized by Detective Hernandez out of malice.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Detective H. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Detective H.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC # 218-13

Dear Ms. Torrez:

The complaint you filed against an unknown Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on October 22, 2013 regarding an incident that occurred on October 19, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator, along with a contract independent investigator, were assigned to investigate your Complaint.

Ms. Torrez complained about an unidentified female APD police officer's treatment toward her during a traffic stop on October 19, 2013. The assigned contract investigator spoke with Ms. Torrez and obtained Ms. Torrez's license plate number. The contract investigator reviewed APD's Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) reports for the date and time described, as well as APD police report records. There were no records of the encounter between Ms. Cole and any APD officers at the time, date, and location described. In addition, the contract investigator interviewed a female officer assigned to the Northeast Heights on the day and time described. The female officer did not recall any encounter with Ms. Torres. The female officer also stated that she always calls out her traffic stops over the radio. The lack of records precludes the CPOA from identifying the officer involved and investigating the complaint any further.

This matter will be administratively closed due to the lack of evidence. Thank you for your time to alert the Civilian Police Oversight Agency with your concerns.

Re: CPC # 218-14

Dear Ms. Jaramillo:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 5, 2014, for an incident which occurred on October 15, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Jaramillo wrote Officer M. arrived at her house in response to her son's call to police. Ms. Jaramillo wrote a man that she knew went by the name "Speedy" showed up to her house with a gun on his hip. Speedy was at her house to collect a bag of clothes for a friend. The bag had been left there by the boyfriend of her friend, Natalie Gutierrez. The boyfriend had left because he and Ms. Gutierrez got into an argument, but forgot to take his clothes.

Ms. Jaramillo claimed Officer M. should not have accused Ms. Jaramillo of doing drugs. Ms. Jaramillo claimed Officer M. accused her of buying drugs from Speedy, which was not true. Ms. Jaramillo state that she and Officer M. got into an argument because Officer M. made false accusations against her. Ms. Jaramillo wrote Officer M. called CYFD on her and provided CYFD with false information of her buying and using drugs.

Letter to Ms. Jaramillo

Ms. Jaramillo stated that Officer M. went to her aunt's house, Antoinette Montoya. Ms. Jaramillo wrote Officer M. told Ms. Montoya to open the door when he went to her house. Officer M. told Ms. Montoya that Ms. Jaramillo did not have a warrant and that he just wanted to speak to her. Ms. Montoya told Ms. Jaramillo this information, but Ms. Jaramillo claimed Officer M. was lying because Ms. Jaramillo did have a warrant and Officer M. just wanted to arrest her because of their argument.

Ms. Jaramillo wrote she was filing the complaint in order to get her children back from CYFD. Ms. Jaramillo complained she has taken drug tests because of Officer M.'s false information. Ms. Jaramillo wrote she does not do drugs around her children.

The CPOA Investigator attempted to interview Ms. Jaramillo. Ms. Jaramillo provided a phone number, but the phone message on the number provided said there was no voice mail and therefore could not leave a message. A certified letter was sent to Ms. Jaramillo asking for her participation, but Ms. Jaramillo never picked up the letter. The investigation was completed based upon her written complaint.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER M.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Reports, Albuquerque Police Reports, Officer M.'s lapel video, Officer D.'s lapel video, Officer S.'s lapel video and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Officer M. and Officer D.

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off-duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Ms. Jaramillo claimed Officer M. accused her of doing drugs. Ms. Jaramillo stated that she and Officer M. got into an argument because Officer M. made false accusations against her. Ms. Jaramillo wrote Officer M. lied to her aunt about her not having a warrant when she did because Officer M. wanted to arrest her. Ms. Jaramillo wrote she did not do drugs around her children and deserved her children back.

The lapel videos showed Ms. Jaramillo opened and then shut the door when officers responded to her call for help. The lapel videos showed Ms. Jaramillo was very intoxicated. Ms. Jaramillo told Officer M. men showed up and threatened her and her family with guns. Officer M.'s video showed Ms. Jaramillo knew all of the men who showed up at her house were into heroin; one was a drug dealer and the men were expecting drugs from Arizona. Ms. Jaramillo made some other statements about drugs, but she was very difficult to understand because she was crying and her words were slurred. Officer D.'s video and Officer S.' video both showed Ms. Jaramillo reacted angrily when they asked her why she shut the door on officers. Officer D.'s lapel video showed Ms. Jaramillo swore at him, became sarcastic, confrontational with Officer D.. Officer S.' video showed Ms. Jaramillo was very crass and talked about officers getting killed. Both videos showed neither Officer D. nor Officer S. had done anything to provoke Ms. Jaramillo's reaction. Officer M.'s video showed Officer M. told Ms. Jaramillo he would return. When Officer D. returned, Ms. Jaramillo had left the house before officers completed their investigation.

Officer M.'s video from the following day with CYFD showed the CYFD caseworker advised officers that Ms. Jaramillo had an open CYFD case with another caseworker involving drugs and lack of proper care. Officer M.'s video showed individuals were home, but refused to come to the door to talk to officers or CYFD so the children were placed on a 48 hour hold. Officer M.'s video showed when he talked to Ms. Jaramillo's aunt that Ms. Jaramillo's aunt said Ms. Jaramillo would not open the door because she feared arrest. Officer M.'s video showed he told Ms. Jaramillo and Ms. Jaramillo's aunt he was unaware of a warrant and did not care about that; he was focused on her resolving the issues with CYFD for her children's sake.

Ms. Jaramillo did not participate in the investigative process so the finding was based upon a review the lapel videos and interviews with the officers involved. The lapel videos showed that by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

The CPOA finds Officer M.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did not occur.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer M.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC # 221-14

Dear Ms. Keeton:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 10, 2014, for an incident which occurred on August 8, 2012. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Keeton's written complaint alleged that the swat team illegally searched the residence around midnight on August 8, 2012. Ms. Keeton alleged that officers entered the address without permission or cause. Ms. Keeton claimed that the officers did not notify the occupant of the search or entry. She stated when the officers were questioned, the officers stated they had a warrant issued by the Downers Grove Police Department, but they did not have a warrant number or copy of the warrant.

The CPOA Investigator attempted to interview Ms. Keeton. Ms. Keeton refused to respond to the CPOA Investigator's phone messages or email. The CPOA Investigator interviewed Cody Hess, who Ms. Keeton stated was a witness. Mr. Hess stated he did not remember exact dates because the incident was so long ago. Mr. Hess stated that officers came twice the same day. The first time officers came in the afternoon looking for John Provenzano. Mr. Hess stated he was home alone and Ms. Keeton was out of town. The officers knocked on the door and Mr. Hess originally was not going to let officers in because Mr. Hess was in possession of marijuana. Mr. Hess stated that he went into the backyard to smoke a cigarette and the next thing he knew officers came through the front door. Mr. Hess stated that the officers let themselves into the house because the door was unlocked. Mr. Hess claimed there were about seven or eight officers and none of them had a warrant.

Mr. Hess stated that once the officers were in the house, they started looking through things such as dresser drawers. The officers were looking through all the closets. The officers said they were looking for stolen merchandise and John Provenzano. Mr. Hess claimed after about 20 minutes into their searching, the officers told him he could leave the house. Mr. Hess stated he left the house while the officers were still present. Mr. Hess believed the officers remained for another 30 to 45 minutes.

At some point after he had left, Mr. Hess claimed that a dog had been kicked. Mr. Hess knew this occurred because when Mr. Hess returned, there was blood everywhere and one of the dogs was bleeding from its nose. Mr. Hess did not see it happen and did not know who did it. Mr. Hess stated that the officers did not let Ms. Keeton know that they were there. Mr. Hess stated that Ms. Keeton only knew because he called her from the phone at the bus stop.

When officers returned later that night there were only two officers. He estimated it was 8:00 or 9:00 at night when the two officers returned. Those officers asked if Mr. Provenzano was home and Mr. Hess told the officers that Mr. Provenzano was not home. Mr. Hess claimed the officers again just let themselves in, since Mr. Hess had been leaving the door unlocked. Mr. Hess did not have a key and was leaving the house unlocked while he took care of the place while Ms. Keeton was gone. The officers searched the house again for property and for Mr. Provenzano. Mr. Hess stated that neither officer had a piece of paper to indicate they had a warrant. No one gave him any information to justify their presence. Mr. Hess stated the witness Ms. Keeton mentioned in her complaint, Krista Mathison, was not actually present.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER S.' CONDUCT

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Cody Hess, Officer S. and Officer D.

(A) The Acting Executive Director reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Officer S.' conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall: 2. Make only those arrests, searches, and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Ms. Keeton's written complaint from an incident in 2012 stated that a large group of officers came at midnight. Ms. Keeton wrote nothing about a second officer encounter. Mr. Hess, a witness Ms. Keeton listed on her complaint, stated he was the only one present and that Ms. Keeton was out of town. Mr. Hess stated that a large group of officers came in the afternoon and only two officers came in the evening. Mr. Hess stated that both times officers came they entered the apartment without permission and thoroughly searched the premises for Mr. Provenzano and stolen property. Mr. Hess claimed he was not at the front door when the officers walked in on their own because the door was unlocked. Mr. Hess stated the officers never had a warrant with them.

Officer S. was dispatched to Ms. Keeton's residence in the afternoon. The call was based on information from an Illinois police agency that a fugitive, Mr. Provenzano from Illinois, was hiding out at the address provided. According to Officer S., Mr. Hess opened the door and invited them in, and informed Officer S. that Mr. Provenzano fled out the back window. The only CAD that could be located for this address was the call in the afternoon where Officer S. was dispatched. The CAD showed the basic warrant information in the notes. The CAD showed Officer S. was not at the apartment for over an hour as Mr. Hess claimed. The total length of the call was about an hour and twenty minutes, which consisted of identifying which apartment, going to the apartment and searching the surrounding area for Mr. Provenzano. The information received from Mr. Hess and Ms. Keeton's written complaint does not match the evidence available. Mr. Hess admitted he was in possession of marijuana, which likely explained Officer S.' observation that Mr. Hess was under the influence of a substance. The documentation from Illinois showed there was an extraditable valid warrant for Mr. Provenzano. The documentation from Illinois showed Ms. Keeton's address was the likely location to find Mr. Provenzano. There is no verifiable documentation to support the citizens' version of events. The citizens' versions were contradictory.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer S. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

(B) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer S.' conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Hess claimed the group of officers that came in the afternoon kicked the dog in the face, causing it to bleed. Mr. Hess claimed this occurred when he was told to leave the house. Ms. Keeton's complaint said nothing about her dog being kicked and injured.

Letter to Ms. Keeton

There is no evidence to support that a group of officers went to the apartment in the afternoon, as only two went. There is no evidence to support that a dog was kicked and injured by officers.

I find Officer S.' conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER D.'s CONDUCT

(A) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Officer D.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall: 2. Make only those arrests, searches, and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Ms. Keeton's written complaint from an incident in 2012 claimed that a large group of officers came at midnight. Ms. Keeton wrote nothing about a second officer encounter. Mr. Hess, a witness Ms. Keeton listed on her complaint, stated he was the only one present and that Ms. Keeton was out of town. Mr. Hess stated that a large group of officers came in the afternoon and only two officers came in the evening. Mr. Hess stated that both times officers came they entered the apartment without permission and thoroughly searched the premises for Mr. Provenzano and stolen property. Mr. Hess claimed he was not at the front door when the officers walked in on their own because the door was unlocked. Mr. Hess stated the officers never had a warrant with them.

Officer D. only recalled being dispatched to the area with Officer S. in the afternoon. The call was based on information from an Illinois police agency that a fugitive, Mr. Provenzano from Illinois, was hiding out at the address provided. Officer D. did not remember going to the apartment at all. The only CAD that could be located for this address was the call in the afternoon where Officer D. was dispatched. The CAD showed the basic warrant information in the notes. The CAD showed Officer D. was likely at the apartment, but not for over an hour as Mr. Hess claimed. The complaint was filed about two-and-a-half years after the incident and Officer D. served in a backup capacity, so Officer D. having less memory of the events is reasonable. The total length of the call was about an hour and twenty minutes, which consisted of identifying which apartment, going to the apartment and searching the surrounding area for Mr. Provenzano. The information received from Mr. Hess and Ms. Keeton's written complaint does not match the evidence available. Mr. Hess admitted he was in possession of marijuana, which likely explained Officer S.' observation. Documentation from Illinois showed there was an extraditable valid warrant for Mr. Provenzano. The documentation from Illinois showed Ms. Keeton's address was the likely location to find Mr. Provenzano. If Mr. Provenzano had been located, a NCIC verification of the warrant would have occurred, as officers generally do not carry paper warrants with them. There is no verifiable documentation to support the citizens' version of events. The citizens' versions were contradictory.

Letter to Ms. Keeton

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer D. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

(B) The Acting Executive Director reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1(F) regarding Officer D.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Hess claimed the group of officers that came in the afternoon kicked the dog in the face, causing it to bleed. Mr. Hess claimed this occurred when he was told to leave the house. Ms. Keeton's complaint said nothing about her dog being kicked and injured.

There is no evidence to support that a group of officers went to the apartment in the afternoon, as only two went. There is no evidence to support that a dog was kicked and injured by officers.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer D. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer S.' and Officer D.'s Internal Affairs personnel files.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Re: CPC # 222-14

Dear Ms. Smith:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 15, 2014, for an incident which occurred on October 8, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ms. Smith wrote she was sleeping when Officers M. and T. entered her apartment. Ms. Smith wrote nothing had been going on and she was fine. Ms. Smith wrote she staggered into Officer M. accidentally. Ms. Smith wrote the next thing she knew was that she was face down on the floor in handcuffs. Ms. Smith stated she was bleeding from her face. Ms. Smith wrote she was in and out of consciousness and could have bled to death because she is "anemic".

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Ms. Smith. Ms. Smith repeated that nothing had been going on and the officers entered without invitation. Ms. Smith denied calling to the officers. Ms. Smith denied an altercation occurred between her and Ms. Tanori. Ms. Smith denied she wanted officers to make Ms. Tanori leave. Ms. Smith denied she said a different name than her own. Ms. Smith denied she confronted Officer M. or shoved him. The next thing she knew she was face down in blood.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER M.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report, Albuquerque Police Report, The Use of Force Investigation conducted by APD, the field investigator photos, Officer M.'s lapel videos, Officer T.'s lapel videos, Sergeant Y.'s lapel videos and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Marcellia Smith, Dena Tanori, Officer M. and Officer T..

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedural Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall: 2. Make only those arrests, searches, and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Ms. Smith claimed she did not ask for assistance or ask that the officers enter the apartment. Ms. Smith claimed she was sleeping when officers entered her bedroom. Ms. Smith also denied she made allegations against Ms. Tanori or that she wanted Ms. Tanori kicked out of the apartment. Ms. Smith denied she used an incorrect name when the officers asked. Ms. Tanori claimed the officers walked in without permission. Ms. Tanori agreed she may have told officers there had been an altercation where she had been struck by Ms. Smith. Both Ms. Smith and Ms. Tanori admitted they were intoxicated.

Officer T.'s video showed there was shouting and loud music coming from the apartment. Officer M.'s video showed neighbors said there was a lady screaming and indicated Ms. Smith's apartment. Both videos showed that Officer T. knocked on the door and it swung open, but neither officer entered initially. The videos showed Ms. Tanori denied officers entry into the apartment. However, once the music was turned down Ms. Smith's voice could be heard and she pleaded for officers to come in. Based on Ms. Smith's request for help, officers had a right to enter. The various charges were up to Officer T., but Ms. Smith later pushed Officer M. which explained the Battery on an Police Officer charge. Both Ms. Smith and Ms. Tanori were intoxicated and their memory could have been affected.

The CPOA finds Officer M.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did not violate APD policies, procedures or training.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedural Order 2-52-3(A) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Officers may use force when objectively reasonable based on a totality of the circumstances. The objectives for which force may be appropriate include: To gain control of a combative prisoner and to defend an officer or member of the public from the physical acts of another.

Ms. Smith claimed she must have gotten up too fast and accidentally staggered into Officer M.. Ms. Smith claimed when she touched Officer M. he misread the situation, which caused Officer M. to overreact. Ms. Tanori identified the wrong officer as the one having used force against Ms. Smith. Ms. Tanori claimed Ms. Smith must have stumbled into the officer because she saw no hand movement on the part of Ms. Smith. Ms. Tanori stated the officer overreacted.

The video showed the use of the takedown maneuver was reasonable to prevent imminent bodily harm to Officer M. and possibly others. Per policy when a confrontation escalates suddenly, an officer may use any means or device necessary to defend himself as long as the force was reasonable. Ms. Smith shoved Officer M. without provocation. Officer M. used no additional force on Ms. Smith. A full administrative review and use of force reporting form was completed by the supervisor.

The CPOA finds Officer M.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did not violate APD policies, procedures or training.

(C) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedural Order 2-52-6(D)(2)(b) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

In situations where the combative subject is forced into a face-down position, when safe to do so officers are expected to: Position the subject on their side or sit them up as circumstances allow so as not to induce reduced airflow or diaphragm function.

Ms. Smith believed she lost consciousness and was face down in a pool of blood. Ms. Tanori stated Ms. Smith had a medical condition that made Ms. Smith bleeding even more serious. Ms. Tanori said the officers took a long time to pick Ms. Smith up from the floor.

The videos showed once Ms. Smith was restrained the officers left her on the floor face down. The videos showed officers did not administer first aid. Occasionally one of the officers would shake her to see if she would respond. The videos showed Ms. Smith was uncooperative with paramedics when they arrived. Officer M. at a minimum should have rolled her to the side and been more attentive to her condition.

The CPOA finds Officer M.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did occur.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER T.'S CONDUCT

(A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedural Order 1-02-2(B)(2) regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall: 2. Make only those arrests, searches, and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Ms. Smith claimed she did not ask for assistance or ask that the officers enter the apartment. Ms. Smith claimed she was sleeping when officers entered her bedroom. Ms. Smith also denied she made allegations against Ms. Tanori or that she wanted Ms. Tanori kicked out of the apartment. Ms. Smith denied she used an incorrect name when the officers asked. Ms. Tanori claimed the officers walked in without permission. Ms. Tanori agreed she may have told officers there had been an altercation where she had been struck by Ms. Smith. Both videos showed that Officer T. knocked on the door and it swung open, but neither officer entered. The videos showed Ms. Tanori denied officers entry into the apartment. However, once the music was turned down Ms. Smith's voice could be heard and she was pleading for officers to come in. Based on Ms. Smith's request for help officers had a right to enter. Officer T.'s video showed Ms. Smith gave two different first names when asked. Officer T.'s video showed Ms. Smith claimed Ms. Tanori was abusive, but provided no specifics. The videos showed Ms. Tanori accused Ms. Smith specifically hitting her on the side of the head. Officer T. saw evidence of injury on Ms. Tanori. Both Ms. Smith and Ms. Tanori were intoxicated and their memory could have been affected.

The CPOA finds Officer T.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged conduct did not violate APD policies, procedures or training.

(B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedural Order 2-52-6(D)(2)(b) regarding Officer T.'s conduct, which states:

Officer M. shook her one time to see if she would respond. Officer M. bent down another time to look at her. The videos showed Ms. Smith was uncooperative with paramedics when they arrived. Officer T. did not roll her to the side as he thought he had. Officer T. at a minimum should have rolled her to the side and been more attentive to her condition.

The CPOA Officer T.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the alleged misconduct did occur.

Re: CPC #223-14

Dear Mrs. DeAgüero:

The complaint you filed against Officer G., Officer L., and Sergeant G. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 16, 2014 for an incident which occurred on November 22, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ashley DeAgüero wrote that on November 22, 2014 at about 11:08 AM at the intersection of Wyoming and Osuna she and her family were stopped at a red light when they were rear ended by APD Officer G.. Officer G. allegedly called for other officers to respond before calling for an ambulance. The responding officer, Officer L., was from the same substation that Officer G. is from. Albuquerque Police Department Sergeant G. also responded to the scene. A witness to the accident named Robert Ruiz was also there. Ms. DeAgüero and her husband were concerned about APD investigating the crash and felt that it was a conflict of interest for APD to do so.

Ms. DeAgüero complained that Officer L. never got an official statement from Mr. Ruiz or her husband who was driving the car at the time of the crash. She also complained that Officer L. put into his report several inaccurate statements. Ms. DeAguero alleged the first inaccurate statement was that the DeAguero's refused medical treatment. Ms. DeAguero said that they never refused treatment but chose to transport their child to the hospital on their own. She complained that Officer L. wrote in the report that her husband stated that he never saw the police car until it struck them from behind. She said that statement was false and that her husband explained to Officer L. that he saw Officer G. driving erratically prior to the crash. She also complained that Officer L. never documented in the report what the witness, Mr. Ruiz, had to say about the incident. Ms. DeAguero also complained that Officer G. wrote out a statement about the accident stating that he slammed on his brakes prior to the crash and if that were true, she and her husband would have heard squealing brakes prior to the crash.

Ms. DeAguero complained that Sergeant G. was unprofessional and argumentative in his behavior with her husband and the Sergeant allegedly told them not to worry about anything because the City has "deep pockets."

Ms. DeAguero summed up her complaint by stating that she felt that the police report did not paint an accurate picture of the accident scene. She was very disappointed in how the accident was handled and at how they were treated. She felt that an outside agency should have been called to investigate the matter and she wants the officers disciplined for trying to cover up certain facts.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER G.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Citizen Police Complaint, the original police report filed by Officer L., a review of Sergeant G.'s lapel video, a review of the recorded radio traffic from the call, interviews with the Complainant and her husband, and interviews with Officer G., Officer L., and Sergeant G..

- A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-19-10 (C) regarding Officer G.'s conduct, which states:

All employees assigned an APD vehicle will exercise good judgment in utilizing it, and will not drive or use the vehicle so as to cause unfavorable comment, or reflect discredit on the Department. When practical all employees will not use their radio or MDT while operating an APD vehicle. Officers will pull over before using an MDT except in emergency situations.

Mr. DeAguero and a witness stated that they saw Officer G. weaving in and out of traffic at a higher than normal rate of speed just prior to the crash. Officer G. stated that he was on his way to the Northeast Substation located at Osuna and Wyoming to assist a female officer who had called out for assistance with an unruly prisoner. Officer G. said that he accelerated, but not to the point of exceeding the speed limit, to get in front of traffic and to change lanes so he could make the turn onto Osuna from Wyoming. He said that he looked toward the substation, then glanced down at his computer to check the status of the assistance call. When he looked back up, the traffic in front of him had come to a stop at the light but it was too late to avoid a collision with the DeAguero family. Officer G. said that the anti-lock brake system activated in his car before the crash and that was why there were no skid marks or squealing tires that Ms. DeAguero had complained of. Officer G. admitted fault in the accident.

Mr. DeAguero complained that Officer G. allegedly called for other officers to respond before calling for an ambulance. The recorded radio transmissions showed that allegation is not true. Officer G. called out that he had been involved in an accident and he requested Rescue to respond to the scene not because there were any reported injuries but because of the DeAguero baby that was in the back seat of the car that he rear ended. The radio transmissions showed that Officer G. did not call for Officer L. to respond to the scene but that Officer L. was dispatched to the scene.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Ms. DeAguero about Officer G's driving conduct, that the allegation was SUSTAINED. A preponderance of the evidence showed that the alleged misconduct did occur.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER L.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-23-4 (F) regarding Officer L.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations:

- 2) Locate, identify, and interview witnesses...
- 5) Report the incident fully and accurately.

Ms. DeAguero complained that Officer L. never got an official statement from the witness, Mr. Ruiz, or her husband who was driving the car at the time of the crash. She also complained that Officer L. wrote several inaccurate statements into the report. The first inaccurate statement was that the DeAguero's refused medical treatment. She said that they never refused treatment but chose to transport their child to the hospital on their own. She complained that Officer L. wrote in the report that her husband stated that he never saw the police car until it struck them from behind. She said that statement was false and that her husband explained to Officer L. that he saw Officer G. prior to the crash driving erratically. She also complained that Officer L. never documented in the report what the witness, Mr. Ruiz, had to say about the incident. Ms. DeAguero stated that she felt that the police report did not paint an accurate picture of the accident scene and that APD should not have investigated the crash because it was a conflict of interest for them to do so.

It was unclear what Ms. DeAguero meant by and "official statement" but written statements from people involved in minor traffic accidents are not required under Albuquerque Police Department Standard Operating Procedures. Officer L. did speak with both drivers and each driver gave to him their version of how the accident occurred. Officer L. also interviewed Mr.

Letter to Ms. DeAguero

Ruiz who told Officer L. that he believed that Officer G. was speeding and changing lanes prior to the crash. Officer L. said that he wrote his report just after clearing the scene of the accident and he wrote the report from his memory of what both drivers had told him. He said that since the accident investigation was fresh in his mind at the time of the writing of the report that he believes that statement that he attributed to Mr. DeAguero was correct. Officer L. said that he inadvertently left out what Mr. Ruiz had told him, but he listed Mr. Ruiz's contact information so that the insurance companies or the City of Albuquerque could follow up with all parties to get recorded statements from all parties involved. Officer L. said that Mr. Ruiz only confirmed what the physical evidence at the scene showed which was Officer G. was at fault in the accident and the DeAguero family was hit from behind. The lack of entering what Mr. Ruiz said into the report, did not change those facts.

Officer L. said, and Ms. DeAguero admitted, that at the scene of the accident she signed a form from the rescue personnel on scene that stated that they did not want to be transported to the hospital for treatment by the Ambulance. That form is a Patient Refusal Form and it usually advises people to seek treatment on their own even though they had been evaluated at the scene by EMS personnel. The refusal was a signed document that stated that the patient refused to be transported for further medical care. Officer L. said that when a person signs that refusal form, it usually means that they do not want any further treatment at the scene, nor do they desire to be transported for further medical treatment. That was why he wrote in his report that the DeAguero family refused medical treatment.

The written police report was reviewed by the CPOA Investigator and by Sergeant G. who was actually at the scene of the crash. The police report was compared to the lapel video submitted by Sergeant G. and the report accurately fully and accurately reflected the accident investigation that was conducted by Officer L..

There is no APD policy that requires that an outside agency be called in to investigate a minor crash involving an APD vehicle. The only time an outside agency would be called out is if the police vehicle accident results in death or great bodily harm.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Ms. DeAguero about Officer L.'s conduct that the allegation was EXONERATED. The investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but it did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

IV. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING SERGEANT G.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-1 (F) regarding Sergeant G.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the Department.

M006807

Ms. DeAguero complained that Sergeant G. was unprofessional and argumentative in his behavior with her husband and the Sergeant allegedly told them not to worry about anything because the City has "deep pockets." Mr. and Mrs. DeAguero found that statement to be offensive. Ms. DeAguero also said that the Sergeant argued over the definition of reckless driving. Lastly, she complained that Sergeant G. wrote his name and a 242-COPS number on a piece of paper instead of the number for the substation the Sergeant works out of. She felt that action was deceptive.

There was a lapel video recording of Sergeant G. and his interactions with Mr. DeAguero and the witness, Mr. Ruiz. That lapel video recording showed that Sergeant G. acted professionally throughout the recording. He did not appear to be argumentative and was respectful when dealing with the witness and with Mr. DeAguero. The video showed that Sergeant G. was empathetic and he kept reassuring Mr. DeAguero and the witness that the City of Albuquerque would take care of the damages and that nothing would be covered up. While Ms. DeAguero and her husband felt that the "deep pockets" comment was not professional, it was clear from the recording that Sergeant G. was just trying to reassure Mr. DeAguero that everything would be taken care of.

Sergeant G. denied that he argued with Mr. DeAguero as to the definition of reckless driving. He said that he was not argumentative. He said that he was asked about reckless or careless driving and he explained to Mr. DeAguero the elements of the law that are required to charge a person with careless driving. Sergeant G. felt those elements were not present based on the evidence at the scene of the crash.

Sergeant G. also denied that he was being deceptive by his not providing the substation number to Mr. DeAguero. Sergeant G. said that he did not have any business cards with him at the time of the accident but that he did give Mr. DeAguero a piece of paper with his name and the 242-COPS number when he was asked to provide it. Sergeant G. provided the 242-COPS number instead of the substation number because Sergeant G. has odd days off and has often not received messages at the substation. By calling 242-COPS a message can be sent by the telephone operator to Sergeant G. over his in car computer which he will be sure to receive.

Sergeant G. reviewed and approved the accident report. He found the accident report to be sufficient in detail and said that it accurately reflected what occurred at the scene. There was no evidence found during the CPOA Investigation of this complaint that any of the APD officers at the scene covered up any of the facts of the incident.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Ms. DeAguero about Sergeant G.'s conduct that the allegation was EXONERATED. The investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but it did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Re: CPC #225-14

Dear Mr. Kristek:

The complaint you filed against Officer M. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 17, 2014 for an incident which occurred on December 10, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Michael Kristek wrote in his complaint that on December 9, 2014 one of his apartment managers, Taylor Caudillo, placed $6,639.00 in cash in a safe at ██████████, ██████████. The money was from collected rent from his renters. ██████████ was used by Mr. Kristek's other apartment manager, Sean Paton. Mr. Paton witnessed the money being put into the safe. On December 10, 2014 at about 7:30 am, Mr. Kristek went to ██████████ to collect the cash that was in the safe. Both apartment managers were not present when Mr. Kristek opened the safe. When Mr. Kristek opened the safe, there was no money in it. Mr. Kristek called both managers back to the apartment. When Mr. Kristek asked Sean Paton where the money was, Sean got very angry, so much so that Mr. Caudillo convinced Mr. Kristek to go with Mr. Caudillo to another property so Sean could cool down.

Sean called the police in the meantime. Officer M. responded to the call and he contacted Mr. Kristek by phone and asked him to come back to the property. Mr. Kristek couldn't understand why Officer M. wanted him to go back to the scene when he and Taylor were handling the situation.

Mr. Kristek complained that Officer M. asked him if he took the money. When Mr. Kristek wrote that he denied that he took the money, and Officer M. did not believe him. Mr. Kristek complained that Officer M. never took a written statement from him nor did he take any notes during the investigation. Mr. Kristek said that he fired Sean on the spot in front of the officer and gave Sean 24 hours to vacate his apartment. Officer M. told Mr. Kristek that he could not force Sean to vacate unless he followed the tenant eviction process. Mr. Kristek said that he asked Officer M. to have the theft investigated further by having the safe processed for fingerprints to see who may have accessed the safe. Officer M. refused to do that. When he asked Officer M. to search Sean's apartment for the money Officer M. refused to do that also and he also refused to write out paperwork to get a search warrant.

Mr. Kristek complained that Officer M. was not interested in anything that Mr. Kristek had to say and had concluded that Sean was innocent. Officer M. allegedly refused to allow Mr. Kristek to remove items from Sean's apartment because the Officer believed that Sean's apartment was a residence and not an office.

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER M.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Citizen Police Complaint, the original police report filed by Officer M., a review of Officer M.'s lapel video recording, a review of the Computer Assisted Dispatch (CAD) report, an interview with the Complainant, and interviews with Officer M. and Mr. Caudillo.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-4(O) regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

In the performance of their duties, personnel shall maintain a neutral and detached attitude without indicating that a matter is petty or insignificant.

Mr. Kristek complained that Officer M. was not interested in anything that Mr. Kristek had to say and that Officer M. had concluded that Mr. Kristek's apartment manager was innocent before Officer M. even investigated the theft. As evidence of that allegation, Mr. Kristek said that Officer M. never took his statement and Officer M. just seemed like he did not care about the incident.

Officer M. recorded the entire incident on lapel camera video. That video was reviewed and it showed that Officer M. was very concerned about the theft. The video showed that Officer M. spoke solely and directly with Mr. Kristek for a little over 15 minutes. Officer M. appeared to be very interested in Mr. Kristek's story and he listened to everything Mr. Kristek

Letter to Mr. Kristek

had to say. A written statement was not required by Standard Operating Procedure and Mr. Kristek's verbal statement was recorded in its entirety on video.

The Computer Assisted Dispatch (CAD) report showed that Officer M. was on scene from 9:39 AM to 11:48 AM. The lapel video showed that Officer M. was conducting his investigation into the theft almost that entire time. Officer M.'s police report also was very detailed as to whom he spoke with, what they told him, and his observations of the evidence.

Though Mr. Kristek's and Officer M.'s views differed on what could have happened to the missing money, all of the evidence gathered during the CPOA investigation showed that Officer M. acted professionally and responsibly throughout the incident.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Mr. Kristek about Officer M.'s conduct that the allegation was EXONERATED. The investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but it did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-24-3 (F) 3 regarding Officer M.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations:

3. Protect the crime scene and the evidence. Ensure that necessary evidence is collected.

Mr. Kristek complained that Officer M. failed to conduct a proper preliminary investigation. Specifically he complained that Officer M. refused to have the theft investigated further by having the safe processed for fingerprints to see who may have accessed the safe. Officer M. also refused to search the apartment manager's apartment for the money. Officer M. also refused to write out paperwork to get a search warrant.

The lapel video in this case, and the report, as well as statements taken from everyone involved, showed that the money was placed in the safe the night before by Mr. Kristek's two apartment managers. The money drop was witnessed by one of Mr. Kristek's apartment manager's teenage child. Several other people including the apartment manager's girlfriend, a female friend, another male roommate, as well as other people, including Mr. Kristek, had access to the apartment where the safe was. Any one of those people could have left fingerprints on the safe and the presence of those fingerprints would not have proved who took the missing money. Furthermore, only Mr. Kristek had the combination to the safe. There were no signs of forced entry to the apartment and there were no signs of forced entry or tampering with the safe. Mr. Kristek went into the safe and discovered the money was missing. Instead of staying at the apartment and calling the police, Mr. Kristek left before the arrival of the police and so did the other apartment manager. If either Mr. Kristek or the other apartment manager had the money in their possession when they left the residence, the probable cause necessary to obtain a search warrant for the apartment ended when they left the property. Information from both apartment managers indicated that it was likely that Mr. Kristek took the money and then claimed that it was missing so that Mr. Kristek could terminate the apartment manager that he had been having problems with.

There was insufficient probable cause available to Officer M. to obtain a Search Warrant for the apartment to see if the money was there.

The lapel video showed that Officer M. interviewed all parties at the scene, not just the managers and Mr. Kristek as Mr. Kristek alleged. Officer M. conducted a thorough and sufficient preliminary investigation into the theft of the money.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Mr. Kristek about Officer M.'s conduct that the allegation was EXONERATED. The investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but it did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer M.'s Internal Affairs record.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC #228-14

Dear Ms. Furst:

The complaint you filed against Officer W. and Officer L. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 23, 2014 for an incident which occurred on July 24, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Ariana Furst wrote that when she was arrested on July 24, 2014 she was injured while being handcuffed, and was invasively and improperly searched.

Ms. Furst wrote that when Officer W. handcuffed her, her hands were broken and her hands immediately became visibly bruised and swollen. Ms. Furst also wrote that when a female officer, Officer L. searched her, she was sexually assaulted by the officer. The sexual assault that allegedly occurred consisted of the female officer touching Ms. Furst in her genital area; wiping her hand vigorously and roughly around Ms. Furst's vaginal area. It was also alleged that the female officer's hands went inside of Ms. Furst's shirt and bra and that Ms. Furst's breasts were touched and grasped by the female officer. Ms. Furst considered her treatment by the APD officers as torture.

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER W.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable SOPs, the Citizen Police Complaint, the original police report filed by Officer W., a review of the Computer Assisted Dispatch (CAD) report, a review of Ms. Furst's Metropolitan Detention Center records, and interviews with Officer W., Officer C., Officer L., and Officer Z.. Ms. Furst did not provide a telephone contact number on her complaint. Ms. Furst provided a mailing address in Ilfeld, NM. She also provided an e-mail address where she could be reached. Ms. Furst did not respond to the CPOA Investigator's requests for an interview. The investigation was conducted based on the allegations contained in Ms. Furst's written complaint.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-19-3 B (2) regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

B. Handcuffing of Prisoners

2. Handcuffs and leg shackles will be double locked when in use.

Ms. Furst complained about her arrest five months after it occurred. Ms. Furst complained that as soon as she was handcuffed by Officer W. that her hands were broken. Ms. Furst claimed that her hands were quickly and visibly bruised and that the handcuffs cut into her wrists leaving bruises. Ms. Furst claimed that it took her broken hands about a month to recover.

The police report indicated that when Officer W. handcuffed Ms. Furst, he made sure that the handcuffs were double locked and properly spaced. Officer W. told the CPOA Investigator that he made sure that the handcuffs were not put on too tight; that the handcuffs were properly spaced and double locked to prevent them from getting tighter. All four officers who participated in this case were interviewed and none of the officers recalled Ms. Furst complaining about the handcuffs.

Officer C., who assisted in the arrest, saw Ms. Furst handcuffed and he said that she was properly handcuffed. Officer C. saw no injuries to Ms. Furst's hands and Ms. Furst never complained at the scene or anytime thereafter about the handcuffs being too tight or that Ms. Furst's wrists had been injured by the handcuffs. Officer L. said that she conducted the searches of Ms. Furst and she did not see any injuries on Ms. Furst's wrists, nor did Ms. Furst ever complain to her or any of the other officers that her wrists were injured. Officer Z. who was also at the scene of the arrest said that he never heard Ms. Furst complain that her wrists were hurting, that the handcuffs were too tight, or that she was injured in any way.

The Bernalillo County Metropolitan Detention Center was contacted about Ms. Furst. The records there showed that Ms. Furst spent about three weeks in detention in MDC after being arrested on the outstanding misdemeanor warrant. During the approximately three weeks that

Ms. Furst was in jail, she never complained to the medical staff that her hands were broken and she was never seen or treated for any injuries to her wrists. The only thing Ms. Furst was seen for by the medical staff at MDC was a Mental Health Evaluation.

There is credible no evidence to support Ms. Furst's allegation that she was injured when she was handcuffed.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Ms. Furst about Officer W.'s conduct that the allegation was UNFOUNDED, which means that the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

- B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-39-2(A) regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

All recordings listed above and/or where an arrest was made will be tagged into evidence, and will be listed on the report as being tagged.

Officer W. was required by SOP to tag his lapel video of his contact and arrest with Ms. Furst into evidence. Officer W. failed to do that and because he failed to do that the lapel video recording of the encounter was eventually deleted. The lapel video that was recorded was deleted 120 days after the arrest.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Ms. Furst about Officer W.'s conduct that the allegation was SUSTAINED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged misconduct did occur.

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER L.'S CONDUCT

- A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-02-2 B (2) regarding Officer W.'s conduct, which states:

B. Officers shall familiarize themselves with and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall:

2. Make only those arrests, searches, and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

Ms. Furst complained that when female Officer L. searched her, Officer L. sexually assaulted Ms. Furst. The sexual assault that allegedly occurred consisted of Officer L. touching Ms. Furst in her genital area. Officer L. allegedly wiped her hand vigorously and roughly around Ms. Furst's vaginal area. Ms. Furst further alleged that Officer L.'s hands went inside of Ms. Furst's shirt and bra and that Ms. Furst's breasts were touched and grasped by Officer L..

M006817

The investigation showed that Officer L. conducted two searches of Ms. Furst incident to the lawful arrest. Officer W. witnessed both searches.

The initial search of Ms. Furst occurred in the back seat of the police car. Officer L. had been requested to assist at the scene of the arrest because Ms. Furst refused to be searched by a male police officer. All of the officers interviewed described Ms. Furst as being angry and agitated. Officer W. and Officer C. noted that Ms. Furst's behavior was unusual as Ms. Furst was described as being agitated but also speaking in ramblings with broken thought patterns. Officer C. and Officer W. as well as the Manager of the Dollar Tree store where the incident occurred all suspected that Ms. Furst was under the influence of some type of stimulant or drug at the time of the incident.

Officer L. and Officer W. said that because of Ms. Furst's agitated state that the initial search was conducted while Ms. Furst was seated in the back seat of the police car. However, based on how Ms. Furst was seated, the initial search was not thorough enough to determine if Ms. Furst was armed or carrying any contraband.

Officer L. said that the initial search consisted of a pat down of the outer garments of the upper torso down to the waist area. Officer L. said that she ran her fingers around the top of Ms. Furst's underwear line as in the past Officer L. has found needles and drugs concealed in the top of the underwear. The waist band of the underwear can easily be folded over to conceal drugs and drug paraphernalia. Officer L. and Officer W. said that Officer L. never reached under Ms. Furst's shirt as Ms. Furst alleged.

The second search of Ms. Furst occurred outside the car. Officer L. said that she searched Ms. Furst as she had been taught in the police academy. She checked the outside of the garments, and then grabbing the middle part of the bra, over the clothes she pulled the bra forward and shook it. No contraband fell out. Officer L. then ran her hands under the cup area of the bra, outside the shirt, then along the side straps of the bra, and then over the shoulder straps.

Officer L. ran her hands down the outside and the inside of the pant legs on each leg. She said that she used the side of her hand to feel between the leg line and the genital area, all areas where weapons and narcotics have been discovered in the past. Officer L. said that for some people, being searched in that manner is uncomfortable and seen as invasive, but the search is designed to detect weapons or contraband that may be hidden in discreet places that officers may be disinclined to touch.

Officer L. denied that she sexually assaulted Ms. Furst. Officer L. said that she never grasped Ms. Furst's breasts, that she did not wipe her hand vigorously back and forth against Ms. Furst's vagina, and that she did not place her hands under Ms. Furst's shirt as Ms. Furst had alleged. Officer L. said that she searched Ms. Furst in compliance with her training and that there was nothing sexual about it.

Letter to Ms. Furst

Officer W. said that he witnessed both searches and the searches were conducted in a "textbook" manner. They were conducted the way that officers are trained to conduct such searches. Officer W. also said that there was nothing sexual about the searches. Officer L. did not grasp Ms. Furst's breasts under Ms. Furst's shirt. Officer W. said that Officer L. did not rub her hand back and forth vigorously against Ms. Furst's vaginal area.

The CPOA finds with regards to the allegation made by Ms. Furst about Officer L.'s conduct that the allegation was EXONERATED, which means that the investigation showed by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but it did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer W.'s and Officer L.'s Internal Affairs records.

Re: CPC # 229-14

Dear Ms. Sims:

The Complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received by our office on December 23, 2014, for an incident which occurred on September 29, 2014. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The Acting Executive Director made findings of whether the officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Darisha Sims' complaint is based on Officer H.'s actions during the accident investigation on September 29, 2014. Officer H. was dispatched to an accident with injuries involving three cars. Officer H. spoke to all parties and Ms. Sims had no complaints about Officer H.'s conduct at the scene. However, Ms. Sims was upset about the accident investigation and statements in the police report once she received it.

Ms. Sims alleged that Officer H. did not investigate the accident because he attributed driver inattention only to her. Ms. Sims alleged that Officer H. was inaccurate when he characterized her injuries as scratches. Ms. Sims wrote that she had chemical burns from the airbag. Officer H. should have known chemical burns were a typical type of injury from airbags. Ms. Sims stated that Officer H. told her that he documented driver inattention on her part because she was dazed from the airbag striking her. Ms. Sims complained that Officer H. did not do any sobriety tests, yet conclusively said in the report that no alcohol was involved. Ms. Sims also alleged that Officer H.'s description of the directions each car was traveling was inaccurate. Ms. Sims complained that Officer H. did not perform an adequate investigation.

The CPOA Investigator interviewed Ms. Sims. Ms. Sims repeated many of the same complaints in her interview. Ms. Sims agreed she told Officer H. all she knew was that she went through the intersection and the airbag went off in her face. Ms. Sims stated she did not know how severely the other individuals were injured. Ms. Sims stated she was bleeding from her face, even hours later. Ms. Sims stated that Officer H. downplayed the severity of her injury in the report. Ms. Sims stated that Officer H. treated her differently because in the narrative portion her statement was so short in comparison to the other drivers. Ms. Sims complained about the imprecision of language on the report when Officer H. wrote about alcohol use and direction of travel. Ms. Sims stated the various wordings she had complaint over were not just semantics, but deliberate. She felt she was treated differently.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER S.' CONDUCT

I reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included review of the Complaint, SOPs, Computer-Aided Dispatch Report, Albuquerque Police Report, Albuquerque Fire Department Medical Report, Officer H.'s lapel video, and the CPOA Investigator's interviews of Darisha Sims and Officer H.

(A) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 2-24-3(F)(1) and (5) regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Steps to be followed in conducting preliminary investigations: 1. Observe all conditions, events, and remarks. 5. Report the incident fully and accurately.

Ms. Sims alleged that Officer H. did not do a proper investigation because he attributed driver inattention to her and no contributing factor to the other driver. Ms. Sims believed the other driver had a responsibility to look for traffic as well. The other driver acknowledged seeing her car and hit her anyway. Ms. Sims talked to Officer H. later and she believed Officer H. told her the notation of driver inattention was because she was dazed after being hit with the airbag. Ms. Sims stated there were several inaccuracies and imprecise language used on the report. Ms. Sims stated she and the other driver were traveling perpendicular directions, not going straight from opposite directions. Ms. Sims said it was not accurate to say definitively alcohol had not been used when Officer H. did not do any sobriety tests. Ms. Sims also said Officer H. did not document her injuries correctly by calling them scratches when she had chemical burns. Ms. Sims said she was bleeding a significant amount from her injuries.

The lapel video showed Officer H. asked all parties what happened. Each told their version of events. The lapel video showed Ms. Sims said she was traveling north and the next thing she knew, the airbag went off in her face. The lapel video showed the male driver described how he tried to avoid Ms. Sims. The other driver had the right-of-way and Ms. Sims had the traffic control device. The lapel video showed Ms. Sims was not bleeding profusely with gauze on her face as she stated in her interview. The AFD medical report showed no treatment was required and mentioned no injuries. The various areas on the report Ms. Sims criticized for wording are outside of the officer's control because they are drop down or check box selections and the officer chooses the closest applicable option. The report was accurate to the information presented to the officer at the time.

I find Officer H.'s conduct to be EXONERATED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means the incident that occurred was lawful or proper.

(B) I, as Acting Executive Director, reviewed Standard Operating Procedure Order 1-04-4(N) regarding Officer H.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel will not act officiously or permit personal feelings, animosities or friendship to influence their decisions.

Ms. Sims felt the issues she had with Officer H.'s report were more than semantics, but deliberate different treatment. Ms. Sims claimed calling her injury a scratch diminished her injury versus calling the other driver's injury an abrasion. Ms. Sims complained that Officer H. only documented two sentences for her in the narrative, but put three or four for the other driver. Ms. Sims thought the entire situation was odd and biased against her.

The video showed Officer H. treated all three drivers in the same manner. The video showed Ms. Sims said very little about the accident. All Ms. Sims remembered was driving and then the airbag striking her. The video showed the other driver said more than Ms. Sims. The video showed there was no indication of a bias or personal feeling that influenced how the situation was handled.

I find the allegation of a violation of this SOP against Officer H. was UNFOUNDED, which means the allegation is false or not based on valid facts.

Your complaint and these findings will be placed in Officer H.'s Internal Affairs personnel file.

You have the right to appeal this decision. Section 9-4-1-9(A) of the Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of the respective letters. Please promptly communicate your desire to appeal in a signed writing to the undersigned. Include your CPC number.

Re: CPC #249-13

Dear Mrs. Jiron:

The complaint you filed against Officer N. of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on December 17, 2103 regarding an incident that occurred on December 16, 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and an independent contract investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officer involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Kristie Jiron wrote in her complaint that on December 16, 2013, her son was detained at Valley High School by Officer N.. During this detention Officer N. pulled his baton for no reason. Jiron also alleged that Officer N. used profane language and called her son a "pussy" and told her son "Do something so I can lay you out in 2 hits." Jiron also alleged that Neal referred to her as a "whore" when her son had asked that his mother be called to the scene.

M006824

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING DETECTIVE O.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Report in the case, a review of a recorded interview with Officer N., and a telephonic interview with Kristy Jiron.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1 (F) regarding Officer N.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mrs. Jiron alleged that Officer N. pulled his baton out for no reason and threatened to strike her son. In addition the complaint alleged that Officer N. referred to [REDACTED] Jiron's mother as a "whore" and directly called [REDACTED] Jiron a "pussy."

The investigation revealed that although Officer N. pulled his baton the pulling of that baton was well within reason based on the actions of [REDACTED] Jiron at the time of the incident. [REDACTED] Jiron was loud, abusive and used curse language towards an unarmed Albuquerque Public Schools CSA. In addition, [REDACTED] closed distance on the CSA leading Officer N. and the CSA to believe that she was in immediate peril of being struck by [REDACTED] Jiron. [REDACTED] Jiron told the officer "Fucking cop, if you didn't have that badge I would pop you in the face."

The CPOA finds the allegation to be UNFOUNDED regarding Officer N.'s conduct and allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means that the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-4 (P) regarding Officer N.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel shall not use coarse, violent, profane, or insolent language or gestures.

Mrs. Jiron alleged that Officer N. pulled his baton out for no reason and threatened to strike her son. In addition the complaint alleges that Officer N. referred to [REDACTED] Jiron's mother as a whore and directly called [REDACTED] Jiron a "pussy."

Although there was no evidence to support the allegation that Officer N. used the term "pussy" or referred to Mrs. Jiron as a whore, there is evidence that Officer N. told [REDACTED] Jiron to "shut the fuck up." Officer N. documented this in his report.

The CPOA find Officer N.'s conduct to be SUSTAINED regarding the allegation of a violation of this SOP, which means that the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did occur.

Dear Mr. Encinias:

The complaint you filed against the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on January 2, 2014 regarding alleged incidents that occurred since September 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA attempted to investigate your complaint. The CPOA made a finding, based on limited information you provided, of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Adonus Encinias wrote in his complaint that in September of 2013 he was a witness to a violent crime. Mr. Encinias wrote that since that time the Albuquerque Police Department has been harassing him and his family.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING APD'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS) and the Citizen Police Complaint.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 1-04-1 (F) regarding the Albuquerque Police Departments conduct, which states:

Letter to Mr. Encinias

Personnel shall conduct themselves both on and off duty in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

Mr. Encinias wrote that he was a witness to a violent crime in September of 2013. Mr. Encinias wrote that he and his family have been harassed since that time by the Albuquerque Police Department.

Mr. Encinias had been contacted on numerous occasions by the CPOA Investigator via email and phone without success in obtaining further information. Mr. Encinias scheduled an in person interview with the Civilian Police Oversight Investigator, however Mr. Encinias did not call to cancel nor did he show up for the scheduled appointment. Without Mr. Encinias's input to provide further information regarding the specifics of times, dates, officers involved etc., this case could not be further investigated.

The CPOA has made the decision to ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSE your complaint, which means, the investigation cannot be conducted because of the lack of information in the complaint.

Administratively closed complaints may be re-opened if additional information becomes available. Please contact the CPOA in regards to your Civilian Police Complaint if you can provide further details and wish to have the complaint re-opened.

Re: CPC #255-13

Dear Mr. Chavez:

The complaint you filed against Officer N., Officer V., Officer L., and Officer W., of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on December 30, 2013 regarding incidents that occurred on October 24, October 25, November 11, and November 13, 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator was assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

James A. Chavez, an Attorney representing the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park filed his complaint alleging that on October 24, 2013, October 25, 2013, November 11, 2013, and November 21, 2013, different tenants of the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park were attempting to move their mobile homes out of the park, but the tenants had not paid a $1500.00 "move out deposit" required by the Mobile Home Park Owners. Mr. Chavez alleged that on each occasion, an APD police officer, or officers responded to a call for service and each of the officers took action that allowed the tenants to remove the homes from the mobile home park without paying the move-out deposit. Mr. Chavez alleged that each situation was a civil matter taking place on private property and that the police have no right to interfere with the mobile home park's procedures governing the removal of the resident's homes.

Letter to Mr. Chavez

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER N.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator, which included a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Reports in the case, The Computer Assisted Dispatch (CADS) Reports, lapel camera video, an interview with Mr. Chavez, interviews with Officer N., Officer V., Officer L., and Officer W.. Applicable State Statutes, as well as a court ruling by a Metropolitan Court Judge was also reviewed.

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 3-14-2 regarding Officer N.'s conduct, which states:

Officers shall familiarize themselves and have working knowledge of all laws of the State of New Mexico and the Ordinances of the City of Albuquerque which they are required to enforce. Officers shall make only those arrests, searches, and seizures which they know or should know are legal and in accordance with departmental procedures.

It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department to respond to calls involving civil disputes primarily for the purpose of restoring order. DISPUTES INVOLVING LIENS: The officer should not attempt to take personal property away from one party and give it to another if there is a dispute of ownership of the property involved.

James Chavez, attorney for Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park, stated that officers out of the Phil Chacon substation have taken it upon themselves to interfere in civil matters within private property, namely the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park. Mr. Chavez stated that Officer N. was present on November 31, 2013. Mr. Chavez alleged that the Officer N. acted to the detriment of his client's private property rights. Mr. Chavez said that owners must pay a $1500 moving fee deposit before their mobile home could leave the property. Mr. Chavez claimed that Officer N. either ordered or allowed the mobile homes to be removed from the park without the consent of park management. Mr. Chavez stated that these incidents are civil matters and the police have no business being involved in civil matters.

Officer N. was dispatched to the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park on November 21, 2013, because a Spanish-speaking officer was needed. The park management had refused to allow a mobile home to be moved from the park until a $1500 moving fee was paid. The owner of the mobile home had all the proper paperwork and was not in arrears on her rent. The tow truck driver offered his paperwork to management, but they refused to take it. The park management could not produce paperwork to support that the home owner must pay $1500 moving fee before moving the mobile home out of the lot. The park management refused to provide Officer N. with any paperwork regarding the moving fee policy. The Officers were there to make sure that problems did not arise during the incident. Without any paperwork shown by the management to the officer that the mobile home did in fact have a lien on it, there was no way that Officer N. could prevent the owner from moving the mobile home. Officer N.'s lapel video recording showed that the park management personnel were rude, stating that they would file a lawsuit and file a complaint against the officers. The video also showed that Park management became irate and told Officer N. not to come back to the property.

There was a court finding in one of the cases and the Judge hearing the case ruled that charging a move out deposit does not appear to be illegal but because the move out deposit was not identified before the move in and because it was not part of any lease agreement, the move out deposit, demanded on the day a tenant is moving their home from the park, is inappropriate and it breaches the duty of good faith that is a requirement of the law. Absent any proof that there is a lien on the mobile home to prevent it from being moved, the officer acted appropriately.

Mr. Chavez alleged that the Police had no business getting involved in this matter in the first place. Police Officers will always respond to calls for service from citizens who believe they are being wronged, whether or not it is on private or public property. Our review of the evidence and of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case show that Officer N. acted appropriately and within policy.

The CPOA finds Officer N.'s conduct to be EXONERATED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate any APD policies, procedures, or training.

III. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER V.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 3-14-2 regarding Officer V.'s conduct, which states:

*It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department to respond to calls involving civil disputes primarily for the purpose of restoring order. DISPUTES INVOLVING LIENS: The officer should not attempt to take personal property away from one party and give it to another if there is a dispute of ownership of the property involved.

James Chavez, attorney for Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park, stated that officers out of the Phil Chacon substation have taken it upon themselves to interfere in civil matters within private property, namely the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park. Mr. Chavez stated that Officer Volzer was present on October 24, and October 25, 2013. Mr. Chavez alleged that the Officer Volzer acted to the detriment of his client's private property rights. Mr. Chavez said that owners must pay a $1500 moving fee deposit before their mobile home could leave the property. Mr. Chavez claimed that Officer Volzer ordered or allowed the mobile homes to be removed from the park without the consent of park management. Mr. Chavez stated that these incidents are civil matters and the police have no business being involved in civil matters.

Officer V. was dispatched to the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park on October 24 and October 25, 2013, and he has been dispatched to the park several times. On October 24, he observed that a park management truck was blocking a mobile home from being moved from the park. The park management personnel told Officer V. that the mobile home could not leave the park until a $1500 moving fee and lien was paid. The owner of the mobile home claimed to have no idea about the moving fee. The weather was very windy, and the mobile home could not safely be moved at that time. Officer V. left the scene. The mobile home was apparently moved sometime later in the day, but Officer V. was not present.

On October 25, Officer V. was dispatched to the park. A park management truck was blocking a mobile home from being moved out of the park. Officer V. spoke to the park management personnel about the situation, but stated that he never gave a direct lawful order that the mobile home would be moved from the park. Mr. Chavez alleged that a Sergeant arrived on scene and the Sergeant told Officer V. this was a civil matter. Officer V. stated that at no time did he request a Sergeant to respond to the scene. Even though this was a civil matter, Officer V. was there only to keep the peace. Shortly thereafter, the tow truck driver did remove the mobile home from the park.

There was a court finding in one of the cases and the Judge hearing the case ruled that charging a move out deposit does not appear to be illegal but because the move out deposit was not identified before the move in and because it was not part of any lease agreement, the move out deposit, demanded on the day a tenant is moving their home from the park, is inappropriate and it breaches the duty of good faith that is a requirement of the law. Absent any proof that there is a lien on the mobile home to prevent it from being moved, the officer acted appropriately. Mr. Chavez alleged that the Police had no business getting involved in this matter in the first place. Police Officers will always respond to calls for service from citizens who believe they are being wronged, whether or not it is on private or public property. Our review of the evidence and of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case show that Officer V. acted appropriately and within policy.

The CPOA finds Officer V.'s conduct to be EXONERATED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate any APD policies, procedures, or training.

IV. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER L.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 3-14-2 regarding Officer L.'s conduct, which states:

Letter to Mr. Chavez

It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department to respond to calls involving civil disputes primarily for the purpose of restoring order. DISPUTES INVOLVING LIENS: The officer should not attempt to take personal property away from one party and give it to another if there is a dispute of ownership of the property involved.

James Chavez, attorney for Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park, stated that officers out of the Phil Chacon substation have taken it upon themselves to interfere in civil matters within private property, namely the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park. Mr. Chavez stated that Officers W. and Officer L. were present on November 11, 2013 (actual date determined to be 11-8-13). Mr. Chavez alleged that the Officers W. and Officer L. acted to the detriment of his client's private property rights. Mr. Chavez said that owners must pay a $1500 moving fee deposit before their mobile home could leave the property. Mr. Chavez claimed that Officer W. and Officer L. ordered or allowed the mobile homes to be removed from the park without the consent of park management. Mr. Chavez stated that these incidents are civil matters and the police have no business being involved in civil matters.

The investigation revealed that the actual date of the incident was November 8, 2013. Officer W. had requested Officer L., who was acting sergeant at the time, to respond to the mobile home park at the request of park management. Upon arrival, she noted that a park management truck was blocking a mobile home which had been towed into the street. The truck was blocking access to the roadway. For safety reasons, Officer W. informed park management that their truck had to be moved because it was blocking the roadway. Management refused to remove their vehicle from the street. Officer W. informed park management that the vehicle would be towed. Park management then agreed to move the truck. Officer W. was informed that park management was trying to charge a $1500 moving fee to the owner of the mobile home, but management had no paperwork to that effect. The mobile home owner did have all their paperwork in order. The mobile home had been moved into the street, and the tow truck then moved the mobile home from the park property. Officer L. was subpoenaed to a court hearing before Metro Court Judge Sedillo, but was not allowed to testify. Judge Sedillo ruled that the park was engaging in Unfair Practices and must return the moving fee that they had charged.

There was a court finding in one of the cases and the Judge hearing the case ruled that charging a move out deposit does not appear to be illegal but because the move out deposit was not identified before the move in and because it was not part of any lease agreement, the move out deposit, demanded on the day a tenant is moving their home from the park, is inappropriate and it breaches the duty of good faith that is a requirement of the law. Absent any proof that there is a lien on the mobile home to prevent it from being moved, the officers acted appropriately. Mr. Chavez alleged that the Police had no business getting involved in this matter in the first place. Police Officers will always respond to calls for service from citizens who believe they are being wronged, whether or not it is on private or public property. Our review of the evidence and of the facts and circumstances surrounding the case show that Officer L. acted appropriately and within policy.

V. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER W.'S CONDUCT

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 3-14-2 regarding Officer L.'s conduct, which states:

It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department to respond to calls involving civil disputes primarily for the purpose of restoring order. DISPUTES INVOLVING LIENS: The officer should not attempt to take personal property away from one party and give it to another if there is a dispute of ownership of the property involved.

James Chavez, attorney for Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park, stated that officers out of the Phil Chacon substation have taken it upon themselves to interfere in civil matters within private property, namely the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park. Mr. Chavez stated that Officers Jacob W. and Officer L. were present on November 11, 2013 (actual date determined to be 11-8-13). Mr. Chavez alleged that the Officers W. and Officer L. acted to the detriment of his client's private property rights. Mr. Chavez said that owners must pay a $1500 moving fee deposit before their mobile home could leave the property. Mr. Chavez claimed that Officer W. and Officer L. ordered or allowed the mobile homes to be removed from the park without the consent of park management. Mr. Chavez stated that these incidents are civil matters and the police have no business being involved in civil matters.

The investigation revealed that the actual date of the incident was November 8, 2013. Officer W. was dispatched to the Wyoming Terrace Mobile Home Park regarding a truck that was blocking a mobile home from being moved from the park. There have been several incidents of this nature at the park. The mobile home had already been moved into the street before two park management trucks blocked it from moving any further. The trucks were blocking access to the street. Officer W. informed the park management that their vehicles had to be moved because it was a safety concern for emergency vehicles. Park management told Officer W. this was a civil matter, and their policy allowed them to collect a $1500 moving fee before any mobile home was moved from the property. Officer W. informed park management that their vehicles would be towed because they were illegally blocking the roadway. Management at first refused to move the vehicles, but before the tow truck was called, management agreed to move the vehicles. The towing company and the mobile home owner had the proper paperwork. The mobile home had already been moved into the street, and the tow truck moved the mobile home off the property.

There was a court finding in one of the cases and the Judge hearing the case ruled that charging a move out deposit does not appear to be illegal but because the move out deposit was not identified before the move in and because it was not part of any lease agreement, the

Dear Mr. Arellanes:

The complaint you filed against Officer J., and of the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) was received in our office on January 2, 2014 regarding an incident that occurred on December 25, 2013. A Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator and a contract independent investigator were assigned to investigate your Complaint. The Administrative Office of the CPOA thoroughly and impartially investigated your complaint. The CPOA made findings of whether the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) Officers involved violated Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) based on a preponderance of the evidence. A preponderance of the evidence means that one side has a greater weight of evidence that is more credible and convincing than the other side. Another way of saying it is more than 50% of the credible evidence. If the credible evidence is 50-50, the proper finding is Not Sustained.

Because officers are compelled to cooperate in the investigation, the Albuquerque Police Officers' Association's (APOA) Contract with the City of Albuquerque mandates that officers' statements not be made public. Below is a summary of the complaint, the CPOA's investigation and findings.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Mike Arellanes alleged that complaint that on December 25, 2013, Officer J. illegally forced his way into Mr. Arellanes' friend's yard and damaged the gate.

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS REGARDING APPLICABLE STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES REGARDING OFFICER J.'S CONDUCT

The Acting Executive Director of the CPOA reviewed the investigation conducted by the CPOA Investigator and the independent contract investigator, which included an interview with Mr. Arellanes, a letter from Stan and Margaret Allen, a review of the applicable Standard Operating Procedures (SOPS), the Citizen Police Complaint, the Albuquerque Police Department Report in the case, The Computer Assisted Dispatch (CADS) Reports, and interviews with Officer J., and Sergeant J..

M006836

A) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure regarding Officer J.'s conduct, which states:

Officers may conduct warrantless searches in order to uphold individual civil rights, protect officers and others.

The police report states that Officer J. was dispatched to [REDACTED] for a welfare check on the caller's 13 year old grandson. The grandmother believed that the 13 year old's father, Mr. Arellanes, was possibly driving and had the 13 year old drive Mr. Arellanes. Officer J. arrived at the address and noticed a chain-link fence surrounding the residence. Officer J. pushed open the gate without damaging the gate. Mr. Arellanes came to the door and told Officer J. that his 13 year old son was with his mother and not at the residence. A female resident of the home, who did not wish to be identified, was upset that Officer J. had knocked on her door and accused Officer J. of damaging her gate.

Officer J. called his Sergeant, Sergeant J. to the scene to inspect the gate and to speak with the woman. Sergeant J. did not observe any damage to the fence or gate.

Officer J. was lawfully on the property, conducting a welfare check on a minor child.

The CPOA finds Officer J.'s conduct to be EXONERATED, as the investigation determined by a preponderance of the evidence that the alleged conduct did occur but did not violate APD policies, procedures, or training.

B) The CPOA reviewed Standard Operating Procedure 2-02-1, Damage to Civilian Property, regarding Officer J.'s conduct, which states:

Personnel will complete an offense/incident report detailing the exact damage and forward a copy of the report to Risk Management..

A female resident of the home, who did not wish to be identified, was upset that Officer J. had knocked on her door and accused Officer J. of damaging her gate. Once the woman accused Officer J. of damaging her fence and gate, Officer J. called his Sergeant to the scene. Sergeant J. inspected the gate and to spoke with the woman. Sergeant J. did not observe any damage to the fence or gate.

The CPOA finds Officer J.'s conduct to be UNFOUNDED, as the investigation determined by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged misconduct did not occur.

Your complaint and these findings are made part of Officer J.'s Internal Affairs records.

You have the right to appeal this decision. The Police Oversight Ordinance allows any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the CPOA or the Chief to appeal that decision within 30 days of receipt of their respective letters. Please

Re:    CPC # 207-15

Dear Ms. Brown:

Your complaint against unknown Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office (BCSO) Deputies was received in our office on October 24, 2015. Your complaint was assigned to a Civilian Police Oversight Agency (CPOA) Investigator for review on October 30, 2015.

I. THE COMPLAINT

Your complaint alleged misconduct on the part of unknown BCSO Deputies and did not contain any allegations of misconduct by any Albuquerque Police Department (APD) officer or APD employee.

II. THE INVESTIGATION

Our office has no jurisdiction to investigate the actions of the BCSO. You need to file your complaint with the BCSO. The address is:

Hi, Leonard.

Here are the two documents Ms. Ngoran has provided as pre-work for our Sept. 3rd training. Will you please make sure all board members receive these documents. She has asked that the appropriate pieces ("inventory") be returned to her by 8/29.

Thank you. I'm excited about the work here; I think it will be a useful and meaningful part of our continuing work together. We'll certainly have the potential to be a very well-oiled machine when all is said and done!

Welcome POB Members:

I'm Sofiah Ngoran, the Diversity Instructor for the upcoming training session on September 3, 2015 from 5:30-8:00. I'm pleased to have the opportunity to work with you on this very important and timely topic.

Due to our limited time together, the amount of information needed to adequately cover the subject, and the importance of the topic in your leadership role as a Police Oversight Board Member, I have provided pre-class work. It is my hope that you find this work as I did – thought provoking and inspiring!

I've provided questions and comments in each Section One-Ted Talks. Please take notes and come prepared to discuss them and all other points of interest and importance.

In Section two you will listen to a 5-minute audio case study and take a test for Bias embedded in the written transcript.

When you have completed Sections One and Two then move onto Section Three which is the Diversity + Conflict Inventory. It is in a separate file and should be sent back to me directly.

Please bring a binder and all pre-work to class, including scores from the Test.

If you have questions or comments, you are free to contact me.

I look forward to meeting all of you.

Section one: Ted Talks

Instructions: Listen to the following 4 Ted Talks. Talks range from 12 to 15 minutes.

Ted Talk Topic 1: What does it take to be a great leader of the 21st Century?

http://www.ted.com/talks/roselinde\_torres\_what\_it\_takes\_to\_be\_a\_great\_leader

1. What qualities and attitudes are necessary to be an effective leader on the POB?
2. How diverse is the POB board, your network, those you serve?

Ted Talk Topic 2: Why good leaders make you feel safe

http://www.ted.com/talks/simon\_sinek\_why\_good\_leaders\_make\_you\_feel\_safe

Trust and cooperation are not something you learn from instruction. It's a feeling.

1. How do you develop trust and cooperation among your board members and the public you serve?

Ted Talk Topic 3: Dare to disagree

http://www.ted.com/talks/margaret\_heffernan\_dare\_to\_disagree

1. What skills/abilities are needed to effectively disagree?
2. What do you think about Ms. Heffernan's idea of Conflict as Thinking?

Ted Talk Topic 4: Diversity is Necessary for Human Evolution

<http://tedxtalks.ted.com/video/Diversity-is-Necessary-for-Huma;search%3Atag%3A%22tedxabq%22>

1. Have you ever felt different from others?
2. Everyone has unconscious bias. Which Biases serve you and which don't?
  - Unconscious bias drives behavior. Bad motives can hide under good intentions
  - Everyone has good intentions but they are not enough.
  - We must get along and communicate effectively. Remember the 5 C's.
    - Commitment to take others point of view seriously
    - Consciousness
    - Compassion
    - Curiosity
    - Courage

Section two: Short Case study+ test for bias

Instructions: 1) Listen to the 5-minute Audio clip with written transcript - "Can Health care be cured?" 2) Take the Test for Bias. The test link is embedded in the transcript about half way down. Click on implicit association test, a series of timed computer tests that measure unconscious attitudes around race, gender, age, weight and other categories. The results from this test are confidential. No one has access to the results but you and Project Implicit. You will not be required to discuss your biases with other members of the Board. We will, however, discuss general questions around unconscious bias, how it reveals itself, and our thoughts about the efficacy of the test.

Be sure to read all instructions and information provided before taking the test

<http://kanw.com/post/can-health-care-be-cured-racial-bias>

NOTE: There are 14 different IATs to choose from. For class, take the following 3 tests ONLY - Age, Race, Gender-Career. Each test is about 10 minutes. You can take any others you like but bring the results from these three tests to class.

Instructions: Please complete the Diversity Conflict Resolution Inventory Tables below. The Diversity Inventory is based upon the areas mentioned in the Implicit Association Test. See descriptions from that link.

Please send this section directly back to sofiahngoran@ gmail.com by August 29.

Dear Board Members,

I moved to Albuquerque from Seattle almost two years ago and while I love my new hometown very much, I am absolutely STUNNED by relative lawlessness of Albuquerque drivers on the freeways. In Seattle, it is rare to see serious traffic violations at all and you almost cannot get on the freeway at any time of the day or night without seeing someone pulled over for a minor violation. These two things are directly connected. By contrast, in the past two years in Albuquerque, I have yet to witness ANYONE pulled over for any reason on I-25 or I-40, and the extremely dangerous way that people drive reflects the fact that they know that highway laws are either not being enforced seriously or perhaps even at all (I've certainly never seen anyone pulled over, although I see moderate violations almost every time I get on the freeway and really serious and dangerous violations several times a month, things like: people cutting across several lanes of traffic just inches from bumpers at a high rate of speed without signaling (happened to me this afternoon), cutting across traffic medians (extremely dangerous for road crews), passing on the shoulder at high rates of speed, tailgating, drunk driving and much more). The nearly daily occurrence of traffic accidents and fatalities definitely reflects the sad, reactive state of highway law enforcement.

I know it is perceived that the APD has bigger fish to fry with so much violent crime going on and I do agree that it takes priority if there are no resources that could even be hired, but I think it could be quite short sighted to give up entirely on highway law enforcement, because it could have some great benefits to the community at marginal cost (through increased ticketing revenues):

- Fewer highway accidents, delays, injuries and deaths (which have terrible and lasting impact on NM families)
- Lower overall crime rates, including violent crime (the success of NYC's "broken window" theory suggests that enforcement of basic laws does indeed prevent more serious crime)

Thanks for your time and attention,

Jonathan Locke

Good afternoon POB:

Annabelle

Your response to my July 29 NM IPRA request is due this Thursday 8/13 and is available now and clearly also releasable public information.

I understand Phase 2 was very short and now completed. Therefore IAW the NM IPRA request the names of the attendees at the Phase 2 effort within the prescribed 15 days from today-NLT 8/26 and a copy of its report when published/posted on line.

All want believe that the money to UNM and to your office was well spent but understand most are skeptical believing it is just a PR distraction stunt and wished to be proved wrong.

We still haven't seen the results of UNM's study of how best APD could utilize their body recorders-something that could have been more credible if APD researched and adopted the successful SOPs/policies of other police forces such as that used by Rialto, California's PD.

Please manage this effort not only as a city employee but as a taxpayer as well.

Thank you

Annabelle

Info also to the media, UNM Regents and others-sent to them Bcc

This Phase 1 effort was worst than a "dog and pony show"-as Nora described it while the referenced Phase 1 report prepared by UNM and those reports that will follow appear to be a waste of $150,000 of our tax dollars. You avoided answering many of my questions in my July 26 e-mail below but merely sent the website reference to the UNM Phase 1 report.

M006884

I had asked for minutes of the meetings that would include the names of those attendees but these were never provided. I guess you now need a NM IPRA request to comply.

Therefore IAW the NM IPRA,

1. Request the opportunity to review or provide me with copies of the sign in sheets showing the attendees at these UNM conducted 22 "dialogues" and the names of those others aside from the four UNM folks who also participated in them.
2. Request the opportunity to review the resumes/qualifications of Dr. Guerin and his three likely graduate students, Tonnigan, Minssen and Torres to determine their qualifications to execute these Collaboratives.

I think UNM's Dr. Guerin was also given a contract to study APD's use of body recorders.

I would have thought rather than tasking UNM's Institute for Social Research, those from the Law School would have been more appropriate/knowledgeable in this reform area.

Preferably, honest retired APD officers like those four I mentioned and others who can make this more than just a data gathering effort resulting in no real changes to APD should have been hired as consultant to do this work. Those good cops if employed by us taxpayers would have had the prerequisite expertise to make this a meaningful outreach effort.

I'm sure you are aware of the tax dollars and the time of good volunteers that were wasted on the 2013 police oversight task force whose most critical January recommendations/reform of the citizens' police oversight process were ignored by both Cincinnati consultant Scott Greenwood, the Council but also the DOJ.

UNM's Dr. Bruce Perlman who was never mentioned in the Council's ordinance creating this oversight task force was nevertheless give the bulk of our tax dollars to manage the effort behind the scenes.

I guess some of us who have been on the front lines writing to and meeting with the DOJ, Council and other city leaders and were the ones who ultimately were the ones (along with the national media) who ultimately brought the DOJ here were somehow not deemed to be the "safe" stakeholders.

I note the name of one of your chosen gatekeepers who authored the July 25 e-mail to fellow activist Isle Biel below extended her the invite to participate in this Phase 2 "Collaborative." I guess not inviting me and likely others known to be active in this long APD reform struggle was just an oversight. Informed people are apparently not welcomed.

Understand my issue is not with the good people at UNM given this task but with those in the Mayor's office and the leadership of APD who are perpetuating this charade trying to convince APD really cares what comes out of this effort.

As I said before, they did these Collaboratives in Cincinnati and reform there took seven long years because the collaborative were also likely just a PR effort with resulting recommendations that their police department, assigned DOJ monitor and DOJ investigators ignored.

Those in the media particularly the ones who attended the dialogues have a responsibility to also question this research effort given to UNM. I can recall them only covering one of these "dialogues." Maybe they thought they were also PR efforts by those in the Mayor's office.

They likely saw how the improper no bid contract by Schultz to employer TASER Inc. was covered up in the amended Internal Auditor's report because the Mayor was also involved by "greasing" this $1.9 million contract for Schultz. As I said in previous e-mails, there is NO room for integrity in this Berry administration.

Meanwhile our Mayor remains in hiding, coming out of his cave on the 11th floor only to travel out of the city or to cut ribbons or do other meaningless PR tasks.

I await your reply to my IPRA request

Regards

Silvio

I did a cursory review of the lengthy UNM document posted on the website regarding Phase I effort that allegedly began on October 27, 2014 and lasted until June 6, 2015. This Collaborative study directed by the City Council (who unfortunately thus far has shown no real interest in real reform and involvement in the negotiation process with the DOJ), was seemingly assigned/contracted to the wrong people-your office and to UNM. Much like tasking some unqualified but apparently needing work researchers at UNM to do a study on proper use of APD recorders that apparently has not yet been completed, it is questionable now that the good folks at UNM's Institute of Social Research had any more competence in evaluating just what were the key priorities in police reform are here. Note in the charts in this Phase I report that that police accountability 3.4%, administrative /leadership changes-4.5% and transparency-3.1% were given low priorities although these are the key elements in any police reform. It demonstrates the UNM facilitators lack of knowledge.

A lot of taxpayers' dollars could have been saved on the APD recorder study by merely adopting the policies in Rialto, California or in an another US city where SOPs were in place and there was zero tolerance on rogue officers like killer cop Jeremy Dear and his partner Tanner Tixier who don't record. UNM has never been involved in offering reform remedies, thus, as this Phase I study document shows, those from UNM running it clearly lacked the expertise in evaluating what's are the real problems and solutions. We who have been deeply involved since the APD bloodbath that began in earnest under our still in hiding-MIA Mayor Berry and Chief Schultz know the tough decisions that have to be made to clean up the cesspool in APD. Chief Eden has no clue or is unwilling to do any reform. As asked for no names of participants during the Phase I effort are listed in the report. It appears that much like the earlier APD recorder study given to UNM, this $150,000 one was just a reward for UNM's support of the Mayor's "Innovate ABQ" and did not seek the most qualified people to do this community outreach effort.

UNM recently embarrassed itself when first firing outspoken APS Board member Kathy Korte for daring to criticize-call a well connected NM legislator a traitor for betraying his and her constituents and her criticism of the Governor's seemingly questionable APS testing policy.

M006887

Kathy had to be shut up and every effort done to make sure she was not re-elected. The power brokers succeeded. Further the UNM Law School's acceptance of an APD (screw around on his wife) fired APD cop with a checkered past that included escaping a murder charge of his wife and his alleged false claims of a his stolen truck found in Mexico with his keys also showed where UNM's leadership lies and it's not with the people. This was also disappointing to all. We citizens would have been better served if honest retired APD officers like Dan Klein, Tom Grover, Paul Heh, Sam Costales and others were contracted to conduct these 22 sparsely attended "dialogues" many scheduled during working hours. They knew where the skeletons in APD were. This outreach effort was modeled after those done in Cincinnati where it took seven long years after the DOJ's investigation of their police department to accomplish any meaningful reform. Why would anyone except the naive volunteer to serve on this next Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations Phase 2 Event 2 Action Planning effort? A reading of your referenced Phase One Report seems to confirm that nothing meaningful will come from their efforts. Sorry for my skepticism. I won't be part of this charade!

My comments to it are highlighted below. Among the info I asked for below is just who were those involved in these "22 dialogues" that you mentioned in your invite below? You should have a record of them and when they occurred

"Residents spearhead ???change in APD Community policing councils

provide new suggestions-updated 7:12 AM MDT Jul 27, 2015

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. —A major overhaul is in full swing for Albuquerque police. Last year, the Department of Justice found APD had a pattern of deadly force and ordered several changes, including a push for APD to be more community-oriented. To Michael Mora, that means, "doing more within the neighborhood." APD agreed, so it created what's called "community policing councils" across the city to find out what people think the department needs to change. Police said residents have already come up with some pretty interesting ideas." Just "interesting"? How about more than just interesting ideas like APD not editing and releasing full recordings of officers acts of excessive force including shootings rather than stonewalling NM IPRA requests? How about holding the far too many bad cops and their bad leadership accountable by charging and firing them? How about giving the citizens' Police Oversight Board real power? How about putting meaningful information into the current meaningless reports issued by Robin Hammer for the new Police Oversight Agency? Today's Journal article documenting the $13k taxpayers spent to send not one-but four Cultural Services employees to an April Jazz Fest in New Orleans while running up lavish expenditures there that was first reported in a April or May KRQE story-a trip the four failed to report. Today's article also mentions two trips by Councilor Benton to attend conferences on civilian oversight-I assume the meetings were hosted by NACOLE. Apparently no changes to our weak oversight process resulted from those conferences after he came back. How about putting dash-cams back in APD vehicles. Mayor Chavez had them removed after they captured too much incriminating information shown on the "COPS" TV show that he also banned? How about clarifying the limitations of "privileged immunity" for officers really means? How about clarifying the limited protections offered officers by the 1967 "Garrity vs. Supreme Court" ruling as the DOJ did following their investigation of the Seattle PD. See page 1 of their letter attached. How about implementing the changes proposed by APD Forward in the Amicus Curiae sent to Judge Brack on 1/14/15 that Brack ignored? See page 1 attached "First, people said they thought the tint on some APD patrol cars was too dark. "You can't see the police officer inside," said Albuquerque resident Robert Page. He said when you can't see the officer inside, it's hard to get to know who is patrolling the neighborhood." "You know, you can't wave or smile at them, you have no idea and you miss that chance to interact," said APD spokesperson Celina Espinoza." APD officer Celina Espinoza who was interviewed has thus far been an embarrassing spokesperson for APD as has Tanner Tixier-the former partner/accomplice of trigger happy and never make recordings cop Jeremy Dear in the murder of Mary Hawkes. We are getting tired of hearing from both. "So APD measured the tints on all their car windows. It actually found some were too dark, so those windows are being fixed at the officers' expense. Why were the window tinted by the officers in the first place-something known by their leadership? "Another suggestion had to do with the department motto on the cars. Instead of "In Step With Our Community," residents requested "To Protect and Serve. APD officials said they think that's a "pretty good idea" too so the motto will change on the vehicles next year." Why wait until next year? I suggested this change numerous times to APD beginning in 2011. Previously all APD vehicles had "To Protect and Serve" on them but this was changed. Many believe because of their oppressive blue code of silence that punishes honest officers, the only "Community" APD has been in step with has been their own-the reason for the DOJ investigation. Further the new almost black $40K Dodge Charger low reliability muscle cars don't even have a slogan on them. Any slogan means nothing if only there for PR purposes if APD ignores it-doesn't walk the talk. I also recommended why did APD not keep all of the APD cars white as were those earlier vehicles bought? At a Council meeting SW Mesa leader Louie Tafoya was also openly critical of the change to the black color but like me was ignored. Was the old white color not deemed intimidating enough by then Chief Schulz? "So while the top brass make a lot of huge reforms," What "huge reforms"? "the department wants you to know the little things matter, too." "We can't transform the community ourselves," said Espinoza. APD'S job is not to transform the community but to transform themselves and now serve and protect the community.

Annabelle

Some added comments-questions.

It seems kind of late to invite we-the people to now "collaborate" after the words of the DOJ agreement defining its limitations and the limitations of the monitoring team have already been put in concrete. Not stated by you are the specific goals, what is the agenda and just what powers this "action planning session" of the Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations really has.

You mention 22 community dialogues already held. I'm not aware of any of them but only one public meeting hosted by Dr. James Ginger. Shouldn't the city website post the minutes of these 22 dialogues? Just what is to be determined during these Community Education, APD/Community Communication & Collaboration sessions? More importantly, to what extent with this third group have any real influence over any "improvements to APD" since it was made quite clear to all including our City Councilors that the monitoring team PMR Inc. work for only those in the DOJ and Federal Judge Brack and have no obligation to listen to the Councilors or we-the people who they are supposed to represent. The Councilors have been willing bystanders in the whole reform process thus far and have essentially ignored what changes to APD we have demanded. Nor is consultant Scott Greenwood-and if still involved, his partner Tom Streicher obligated to comply with our demands but only to the wishes of the Mayor who contracted for their work over our objections. Further, will local NAACP boss-now another of the Mayor's consultants- Harold Bailey be involved and if so, how? It begs a question of skeptics like me whether this is just another Mayor Berry public relations ploy to give the illusion of real citizen involvement in the reform. As the saying goes-fool me once-shame on you. Fool me twice-shame on me. More specifics/details are needed Annabelle. I'm sure you have them to prove we will not be wasting our time if we choose to volunteer.

Thank you

Subject: INVITATION to the Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations Phase 2 Event 2 Action Planning

Attached is an invitation to participate in an action planning session of the Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations. The outcome of the 22 community dialogues conducted in the past year resulted in recommendations that fell into three major categories, Community Education, APD/Community Communication & Collaboration, and Improvements to APD. If you wish to participate in and work on the action planning of the category of your choice as referenced you must register on line at <http://www.cabq.gov/mayor/police-outreach/community-outreach-meetings-application>. The courtesy of a response is required no later than Monday, August 3, 2015 to ensure enough food is ordered for everyone. RSVP by responding to this email or calling 505-768-4712. For more information or if you are a person with a disability and require a reasonable accommodation to observe or participate in this meeting, please contact Ms. Shannon Triplett as soon as possible at 505-768-4712 or email at odhr@cabq.gov.

All: I propose the following interview order, Mr. Harness first, because he has a flight back to catch and needs to go first; the others in Alpha order by last name. Those of you for whom I am making materials, they will be in this order. Others, if you'd like to order your materials thusly, it will be less confusing.

If someone wants to propose some other order in the public meeting, that's fine, as long as Mr. Harness can go first.
Thanks, -B

CPOA Executive Director Candidates – In order of interview:

- 1 - Edward Harness
- 2 - D. L. (Duncan) Bradley
- 3 - John Grubestic
- 4 - Robin Dozier Otten
- 5 - Jay Rowland
- 6 - Edna Frances Sprague

All: Please email me your proposed interview questions right away, these will be put together by the personnel subcommittee in the July 24th meeting; if you're coming to that meeting, you can propose them live and in-person.

Lawyers: If you'd like to propose a hypothetical legal questions, I'd appreciate it. Otherwise, I'll be left to my own devices, and will come up with some impossible legal conundrum that will leave applicants banging their head on the podium. Seriously though, any legal hypothetical that would shed light on the applicants understanding of issues like search and seizure, excessive force or false arrest. Any legal hypothetical need to be something that a person could simply discuss, without having to write a brief or cite case law; but it's important to have a sense of how this person will judge cases.

Call with any questions. -B

John Grubestic: Senator Richardson. Seriously.

Senator Richardson.

Say it slowly, try not to throw up and give it a chance to sink in. It makes perfect sense. Come on folks, if I can say it so can you... SENATOR RICHARDSON.

Yes, that Richardson, Big Bill, Slick Guillermo, the flabby King.

Richardson (http://www.ballotpedia.com/wiki/index.php/Bill\_Richardson) is the only Democrat that merits consideration. Balderas, the two Martins, that Diane lady (http://www.ballotpedia.com/wiki/index.php/Diane\_Denish) who even the President couldn't remember (<http://www.ihatethemedia.com/barack-obama-cannot-pronounce-diane-denish>) , Patsy Madrid (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Patricia\_A.\_Madrid) (who last time I checked couldn't even remember who she was), Benito Lujan (http://www.ballotpedia.com/wiki/index.php/Ben\_Ray\_Lujan) ? One more time, together... Senator Richardson!

John Grubestic

John Grubestic

John Grubestic

Getting easier right? It should be. Especially for all you Democrats that have almost managed to wash the taste of his butt off of your lips. Pucker up, assume the position and get him elected!

We are not sending someone to Washington to make friends, play by a mythical set of rules and sit around waiting for the

M006898

Labs to shut down, see Kirtland relegated to Nerf warfare and watch as any available money goes elsewhere; the current Congressional delegation has it covered.

Don't take a knife to a gun fight; don't send a man wearing a suit made of salmon into a den of grizzlies or a Girl Scout to a crack house. We need to send the most successful hood (I mean this in the best sense as in ...Robin) New Mexico has ever produced to represent our interests in a city that has more unindicted felons roaming the streets than anywhere else in the world.

New Mexico needs a senator with the morals of a tapeworm, the energy of a drug-addled mongoose and the cajones of a rutting moose. Somebody who can down a gallon of vodka, bed an intern and finagle funding out of an economy that is sputtering like an accountant with a speech impediment at an IRS audit.

New Mexico doesn't need a dedicated family man/woman, a loving husband/wife or the mother/father of the year or somebody that tells us they are. They might show up at church, but nine times out of ten they have bones buried in their basement and spend too much time trying to hide the evidence instead of doing their jobs.

No one in Congress comes close to being the image they created, they just haven't been caught. The truly successful politicians don't care. Slick Willy, John, Bobby, Ted, Lyndon, Newt, tricky Dick, each had their own set of demons, but they all had the ability to consistently sell us a bucket of horse shit and get the job done.

New Mexico needs someone who can gut his own mother and eat her liver, chase it with a bottle of '82 Chateau Lafite and still have an appetite for a bucket of Häagen Dazs.

We need to stop electing our public servants based on the myths manufactured by the media. Better to elect the devil we know than the milquetoast we don't. Richardson is calculating, competitive and ruthless. He has every attribute and a resumé, which New Mexico has paid for, that would make him our finest senator.

Richardson is electable. Bill and his buddies can raise or steal all the money he needs to match Heather's junta of henchmen. Money changes political reality; Richardson is the keeper of the keys to the bank.

We don't need a camp counselor named Heinrich (http://www.ballotpedia.com/wiki/index.php/Martin\_Heinrich) as senator — maybe a Field Marshall or a Reich Fuhrer — but not a senator. Marty #2 (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Martin\_Ch%C3%A1vez) got stomped state wide. Besides, I think we need a sign that says "You must be this tall to get on this ride" before we send anyone to Washington. That would probably toss Benito out and his daddy (they are a package deal) and maybe Denish, Madrid and definitely Luján-Grisham (<http://michellelujangrigham.net/>).

Sorry Hector (<http://www.saonm.org/about-hector-balderas>), bald guys don't get elected to prominent positions in the United States. Grow a goatee and you might have a shot in the Balkans.

Richardson has credentials. He is the best man money can buy. Realistically, there is not one member of Congress or politics in general who hasn't sold something at some time to get where they are.

Politics is not pretty; it is not clean and there is nothing ethical about it. The profession is as noble and virtuous as convention for pedophiles at Disney World.

Richardson knows the game. He can cut throats better than Jack the Ripper and could charm the pants off Mother Teresa.

And not get caught! With the string of has-beens and never-will-bes that Democrats are lining up, he is our only hope.

The only senator from New Mexico who clearly understood his role was Domenici (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pete\_Domenici).

Saint Pete was no saint. He brought money to New Mexico. That is the one and only job a senator has — bring home the pork. You get the pork by being tougher, meaner and more ruthless than the scumbags who surround you. Bill is our greatest scumbag. Give him a shot, folks.

One more time, slowly ... Senator Richardson.

John Grubseic is a former New Mexico legislator, who served as state senator from 2004-2008, representing Santa Fe. He now practices criminal law in Albuquerque.

ALL-Bcc

Today's Journal opinion piece by Leonard Pitts shown below is something that other brave people in our reform movement and I have been preaching for a long time. But we have only been met with threats, censorship and deaf ears from APD and our City leaders. One, attorney Mary Han was likely murdered because she was far too much of a threat to APD.

MORE FORMER COPS SELECTED AS "JURORS" OF THEIR BAD BROTHER COPS

We see from the latest disgraceful powerless agreement negotiated by the DOJ with Berry and his mercenaries that $4.5+ million of our tax dollars is being wasted on retired cops/foxes guarding the hen house/ who are now asked to sit as jurors of their brothers-our criminal cops.

With the Berry/Perry hiring of Cincinnati's former disgraceful Police Chief Tom Streicher, yet another brother in blue "keep bad cops out of jail" family member had also joined this biased jury.

Now with the recent irresponsible appointment of an unqualified smooth and double talking former Milwaukee cop Ed Harness as Executive Director of the new Police Oversight agency, there now will be a total of four more ex cops added to the "keep cops unaccountable/out of jail" jury making the new Police Oversight Agency even more of a travesty than before-a sick joke played on citizens.

WHY I'M DISGUSTED ALONG WITH OTHERS

During most of my 22 years as an Air Force officer (one in 'Nam) and later for eight years as a manager of multi-million dollar projects/contracts for a large aerospace company, I held not only a Top Secret clearance but also was cleared for "special category intelligence" (SCI) information to allow me to do what is often called super secret "black work." There was absolutely no tolerance for anyone with a TS/SCI clearance and SCI access screwing around on your wife, beating up people, drunkenness or other substance abuse including DWIs, lying or any other egregious misconduct.

Any would be justification for having one's clearance and SCI access removed and being drummed out of the service or have any future promotion opportunities denied. In England where I commanded a squadron of over 400 TS/SCI cleared men and women, we even had travel restrictions limiting where we could travel. There was zero tolerance on people with a corrupt/weak character.

UNACCOUNTABLE PHONY HERO COPS HERE DISGRACING THIS CITY

But here in the US, the rules for our police officers are far different as these self-proclaimed heroes are allowed to do all of these unforgivable things and more-even murdering people without any fear of ever being held accountable.

Some disgraceful former cops (family members/their jurors) have even insulted us by demanding the passage of legislation calling for any killing of a NM police officer (a rare occurrence here) a hate crime claiming there is now a war on police.

See this attached that damns this blatant lying propaganda. See <http://www.truth-out.org/news/item/32828-as-james-blake-calls-for-james-frascatore-s-nypd-badge-hear-firsthand-account-of-cop-s-violent-past>

Are you paying attention (former cop-now my) NM Representative Bill Rehm and his fellow former cop brother Paul Pacheco?

With Eden's disgraceful appointee-urban warrior Jack Jones now heading the NM Police Academy we have the same problem that journalist Pitts talks about. Then there was the recent private "killology" training course endorsed by an APD Lieutenant also promoted by the vindictive father of State cop-James McGrane killed nine years ago. Only silence to this insulting private training from those downtown.

Also supporting this hero worship-no accountability for cops were the County Commissioners who refused to demand that BCSO Sheriff Manny Gonzalez equip his deputies with body cameras. Instead they recently approved $800,000 to build two additional memorials for cops even including those who killed themselves while driving recklessly. Merely wearing a police badge gives you hero status.

Instead of just two memorials at $400,000 each, many ask why not waste $2 million of our tax dollars and build one memorial in all five County districts? How many do we have for our military veterans-our real heroes? Will BERNCO Commissioner Wayne Johnson who supported this $800,000 waste of our tax dollars-one memorial in his district who many believe will run for Mayor be just another Berry? I hope not.

With media seeking hound Ken Sanchez's record as an enabler of all this in APD, it's amazing that he is even considering running. We also need more than just lip service from Dan Lewis-another possible candidate. See the latest by Joe Monahan on this and check out the upcoming ABQ Free Press.

PROTECTING BOYD'S MURDERERS PEREZ AND SANDY AND OTHER BAD COPS IN APD

With unethical cowards sitting in the Mayor's, Legal's, APD command staffs' and APOA/APD union's offices there is a new concentrated propaganda campaign by their agents in the Journal and elsewhere to free Perez and Sandy, the two APD murderers of homeless camper James Boyd-the only recorded APD murder the public ever saw. In addition to the fund raising campaign for the two by the APOA, there will be now a request to move the trial to Las Cruces by Sandy's attorney.

As screw-around lothario Levi Chavez Jr. (conduct excused by Schultz as just "nature at play") was kept on the city's payroll for over two years by Schultz with Berry's blessing before finally brought to trial, Keith Sandy too was kept on the payroll for many months and allowed to retire rather than be fired. Nice job boys!

Cover-ups were done by APD in Chavez's likely murder of his wife as well as with Perez's and Sandy's murderers of Boyd. See the attached two articles on Sandy and Perez-particularly the 2014 one discussing the cowardly Berry and Eden. Also see what honest retired cop Sam Costales said in March at a UNM hosted forum regarding Boyd's killing, the more bad apples than good in APD and the DOJ-copy attached.

Has anyone one forgotten about APD's cover up of the murder of attorney Mary Han who apparently knew too much. Former APD NM IPRA stonewaller Reynaldo Chavez finally spilled his guts in a lawsuit against APD alleging Berry's disgraceful personal attorney Jessica Hernandez's minion Kathryn Levy told him to withhold incriminating records of that Han murder. Has Hernandez spoken out lately about this? Coward!

Finally, see the latest Eye on Albuquerque posting attached on Berry's/Perry's/Eden's new disgraceful APD Major Jessica Evergerd-Tyler hired by Perry with Berry's blessing. This is the same Perry along with Hernandez who insulted the Council with his excuses for giving Eden's already overpaid command staff retention pay raises. Perry needs to be fired along with Eden and all of his senior command staff.

It's also time for the Berry and Martinez controlled Journal to get out of the protect the bad/killer cop defense business and maybe Publisher William P. Lang needs to clean his house there to make this happen.

Do those in the DOJ and on the City Council finally get it? Not yet-it seems

Disgusted,

Silvio
296 3241
For WE THE PEOPLE

P.S.

D'Val Westphal's UpFront article in the Journal today reported the many disgusted with Berry's blatant waste of our tax dollars on his newest white elephant-albatross, the unjustified ABQ Rapid Transit System that Councilors believe is a done deal. Maybe it's time for citizens, developers and merchants along Central to write directly to the Department of Transportation urging to reject the $80 million request for it. Apparently Bruce Rizzieri is now in hiding and sends his minion/propagandist Dayna Crawford out to lie for him. Don't confuse us with the facts she says.

It's time to hold police officers to a higher standard By Leonard Pitts / Syndicated

Columnist Friday, September 18th, 2015 at 12:02am

He was not a terrorist with a dirty bomb in his suitcase. He was not a stalker with a Glock in his fist. He was not even a mugger with a switchblade in his pocket. James Blake was not, in other words, an imminent danger of the sort that might have justified a police officer tackling him to the ground last week, as much of the world has now seen in a surveillance video. All Blake was – more accurately, all the police believed him to be – was a guy who had committed credit card fraud. And he wasn't even that. Rather, Blake is a retired tennis star who was waiting outside a Manhattan hotel for a car that was to take him to the U.S. Open when he was grabbed and thrown to the pavement by James Frascatore, an undercover NYPD cop. This was for – it bears repeating – credit card fraud. Working from a tip and from a photograph, Frascatore attacked the wrong man. Blake says that, during the assault, neither Frascatore nor his colleagues ever identified themselves as police. Sadly, Blake's account meshes seamlessly with other recent tales of thuggish policing of the type you never saw from Officer Pete Malloy on "Adam-12." In his book "The Divide," Matt Taibbi tells the story of a musician named Patrick who was assaulted by three cops at a subway station after they apparently mistook a roll-your-own cigarette for a marijuana joint. Patrick thought he was being robbed. Then he thought he was being kidnapped. "Call the cops!" he cried out to passersby. It did not occur to him that the people slamming his head against concrete were the cops. Not to put too fine a point on it, but something's very wrong when you can't tell the cops from the robbers. You should not be shocked to hear that Frascatore's colleagues apparently attempted to cover his backside; they failed to file required paperwork reporting the arrest. You should not be stunned to learn that his union stood up for him; union chief Patrick Lynch praised him for a "professional" takedown, and criticized as "premature and unwarranted" Frascatore's restriction to modified duty. Finally, you should not be surprised to find out Frascatore has a history of brutality complaints and is reported to be a defendant in two federal cases alleging excessive force. You should not be shocked, stunned or surprised because, let's face it: In America these days, a bad cop is more likely to win the lottery than be held accountable for his misbehavior. While we are apportioning blame for that sorry state of affairs, let's not forget the politicians and members of the punditocracy who pretend that questioning police is equivalent to hating them or that the person who is critical of law enforcement is the moral equivalent of the psycho who guns a cop down for fun. "Power," Britain's Lord Acton famously wrote, "tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely." What we accord police in the absence of accountability comes pretty close to absolute power. From McKinney, Texas, where a police officer pulled a gun and threw a 15-year-old in a bikini to the ground, to Ferguson, Mo., where police used the citizenry as a kind of municipal ATM, to New York City, where James Blake was tackled like an ISIS courier with a briefcase full of anthrax, we are seeing what that looks like and it isn't pretty. Blake has called for Frascatore to be fired, and that would be an excellent place to start. But we also need to talk about reform: better training, greater oversight and strategies to interdict the cop code of silence – the "stop snitching" mentality – that makes too many good cops unwitting conspirators with too many bad ones. At their best, police demand that crooks answer for what they do. It's high time we started demanding the same from them.

The trial for two Albuquerque police officers accused of second-degree murder in the shooting death of James Boyd in the Albuquerque foothills last year has been tentatively set for Aug. 15, 2016. The trial for Keith Sandy and Dominique Perez is expected to last for three weeks, including one week for jury selection. Prosecutors have said they will need four days to present their case; defense attorneys plan to use the rest of the time. At a scheduling conference in Albuquerque Monday, there was also discussion of possibly changing the venue for the trial to Las Cruces, as the case has received major attention in Albuquerque. However, no motion for a change-of-venue has been submitted at this time. Sandy's attorney, Sam Bregman, said the judge gave a December deadline to file a motion for a change of venue. Bregman said he plans to file the motion and hopes to have the trial in Las Cruces – outside the Albuquerque media market at the very least. An Albuquerque judge ruled on Aug. 18 the two men will stand trial for Boyd's death. They both face second-degree murder, voluntary manslaughter and battery charges. Neither Sandy or Perez were in court Monday, which Judge Alisa Hadfield brought up because neither filed a motion to recuse their appearance.

Updated: 09/30/2014 1:00 AM | Created: 09/28/2014 9:57 PM By: Chris Ramirez, KOB Eyewitness News 4

UPDATE (9/29, 10 p.m.): The Albuquerque Police Department maintains that instead of saying "For this f***ing lunatic? I'm going to shoot him in the penis with a shotgun here in a second," Officer Keith Sandy said, "For this f***ing lunatic? I'm going to shoot him with a Taser shotgun in a second." Repeated requests by KOB to talk to Mayor Richard Berry were denied Monday evening, but the Mayor's Office sent a security guard instead. When KOB asked to speak with APD Chief Gorden Eden, his spokesperson, Janet Blair, also stonewalled us:

Chris: We're just trying to figure out when we can get that interview with Chief Eden

Janet: Chief Eden is not doing any interviews on this.

Chris: Why is that?

Janet: I'm waiting to deliver something. I can't talk to you right now about this.

Chris: Well that's the problem. We've been asking to talk to Chief Eden and he's not talking and then we don't get a reason from you as to why he's not talking. I think this administration should be a little more transparent.

Janet, you ignoring us doesn't help the situation.

Janet: Chris the chief is not doing interviews today.

Chris: That's fine, but can you explain to us why

Janet: No, I can't

Chris: Why? Why can't you explain to us why Chief Eden won't sit down and talk about this very important issue.

In a prepared statement, the chief wrote that he could no comment because this material is evidence in a federal criminal investigation. But some Albuquerque city councilors gave limited comments about what they saw on KOB Sunday night. "As somebody who works in the community, and for the community, and as a public official, police officers shouldn't be saying those things," said city councilor Don Harris. "It's obviously shocking; it's very disturbing, and we're going to do better." "In the entire time that I've been serving on the Albuquerque City Council, the chief has never consulted me regarding any personnel issue," city councilor Ken Sanchez said. Meanwhile, Keith Sandy continues to collect a paycheck and carry a gun and a badge, and our mayor and police chief continue their silence on an issue weighing heavily on the heart of our community.

UPDATE (9/29, 5:25 p.m.): The Albuquerque Police Department questioned Monday whether Officer Sandy said he would shoot Boyd "in the penis with a shotgun," or if he would shoot him "with a Taser shotgun."

APD also released one single page from the ten-page New Mexico State Police report on the shooting, which details a follow-up interview with state police Sgt. Chris Ware, who said he "doesn't remember" what was said that day, but that he "believes" he said "Taser shotgun." APD did not provide KOB the complete report the statement was pulled from.

ORIGINAL (9/28, 10 p.m.): Two hours before Albuquerque Police Officer Keith Sandy shot and killed homeless camper James Boyd, he was recorded telling another officer that he would shoot Boyd in the penis with a shotgun. Sandy responded to the scene on March 16th where Boyd refused to come down from a makeshift campsite in the foothills near Tramway and Copper. At the scene, Sandy saw former colleague State Police Officer Chris Ware. Sandy didn't realize it, but Ware's dash cam was rolling and picked up their conversation.

Sandy: What do they have you guys doing here?

Ware: I don't know. The guy asked for state police.

Sandy: Who asked?

Ware: I don't know.

Sandy: For this f***ing lunatic? I'm going to shoot him in the penis with a shotgun here in a second.

Ware: You got uh less-lethal?

Sandy: I got...

Ware: The Taser shotgun?

Sandy: Yeah.

Ware: Oh, I thought you guys got rid of those?

Sandy: ROP's got one.. here's what we're thinking, because I don't know what's going on, nobody has briefed me...

Civil rights attorney Shannon Kennedy represents Boyd's family in a wrongful death suit against APD. Kennedy believes Sandy spelled out his intentions, then carried them out. "Two hours later he's escalating the situation so he can do just that," Kennedy said in an exclusive interview with 4 Investigates. "It's chilling evidence and stunning that he has not been criminally indicted. He says to a state police officer 'that f'ing lunatic, I'm going to shoot him in the penis. It's crystal clear and he says it with contempt in his voice.'" In April, APD internal investigators asked Sandy about what he meant by the "shooting in the penis" comment. In an internal investigation transcript, sandy is quoted saying, "Jokingly, just kind of locker room banter, just told him, you know, 'Don't worry. I'll shoot him in the pecker with this and call it good.'" But a few minutes later, the transcript shows that Sandy recanted his statement. The investigator asked, "Did you say anything to Chris Ware about shooting him in the pecker?" Sandy responded, "I don't...no, I don't think I did." In the transcript, Sandy gave the internal investigators a lengthy explanation how the officers working in the Albuquerque Police Repeat Offenders Program (ROP) often make cruel and crude jokes. In fact, Sandy described the hostility among his peers getting so bad that the officers adopted a "safe word." When officer use the safe word, CHINA, all jokes must stop. Sandy told investigators he was merely making a crude joke when he said he wanted to shoot Boyd in the penis. "Of course it's not a joke because he went forward and actually shot him," Kennedy said. "Clearly he has complete disregard for people suffering from mental disabilities. He calls him an expletive lunatic and then in the next breath says I'm going to shoot him in the penis. What is so mortifying about this shooting, and thank goodness we have a tape to show exactly what he did-- which is instead of shooting him in the penis, he shoots him in the lower back. So had James Boyd not turned around at that moment to set down his bags, he would have been shot in the penis." Sandy, according to an APD spokeswoman, is on administrative leave, but may still carry his gun and badge.

My Police Academy Teaches the 'War on Cops' Myth

In my rural red state police academy, instructors preach about 'officers dying left and right'—even though the numbers show this isn't happening. The trumpets of the thin blue line and right-wing news sources have been sounding, piping out warnings of a "War on Police." You may have heard it on talk radio, seen it on Fox News or even read it in the New York Post, but now the rhetoric of charlatans has reached me in class at my police academy in a Northern red state.

The War on Cops is a grossly inaccurate response to recent police killings which are on track for another year that will rival the safest on record. Gunfire deaths by police officers are down 27 percent this year, according to the Officer Down memorial page, and police killings in general are at a 20-year low, given current numbers for 2015. Police deaths in Barack Obama's presidency are lower than the past four administrations, going all the way back to Ronald Reagan's presidency. Not a single iota of evidence supports a War on Police, but it has become a battle cry among some in the academy.

Over 80 percent of police departments in the United States are facing issues with low recruitment numbers. As an Iraq War veteran I sought to solidify my chance of employment working in law enforcement by attending a local police academy. I enjoyed serving my country as military police and will do such now as a sworn police officer back home. What are they telling us in a post-Michael Brown academy? The culture of police brutality is infrequently addressed, but what is continually mentioned is the notion that there is a War on Police. By whom? Depends on whom you ask.

Some instructors blame the Obama administration, which has provided extra funding to police departments to hire Iraq War veterans such as myself. Others, citing news organizations and politicians, try to pin it on the Black Lives Matter movement. How are they attempting to substantiate this? By highlighting a few high-profile police killings in the past few months, especially the tragic, execution-style death of a Texas sheriff at a gas station. Many activists tried to tie the accused murderer, Shannon Miles, to the Black Lives Matter movement in the immediate aftermath as a motive. He had no ties to the movement. Miles, however, had been previously declared mentally incompetent.

"The Obama administration and Eric Holder are undermining the police. We have officers dying left and right and he's dicking off in Alaska," says one of my instructors, referring to the president's trip to Alaska last week. Our instructor is likely trying to warn us to take heed of the dangers of the job, and not expect to be thanked by politicians for doing it. But he has made the government and the people we're meant to serve out to be boogeymen in the process.

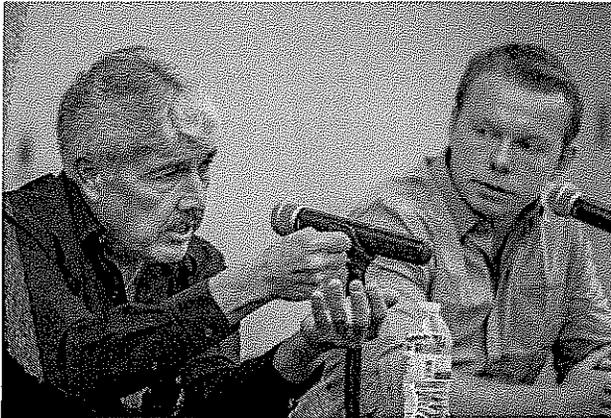

Bad guys have been shooting cops for years, but this is neither a new nor growing phenomenon. A whole generation has grown up knowing the phrase "fuck the police" as a song lyric, a response to the mass incarceration culture spawned from a War on Drugs that numbers show disproportionately and unfairly targets black Americans. I understand as a law enforcement professional—and as someone capable of fairly reading mountains of data—that the Drug War has been unfairly used as a tool of oppression against the black community. It is why the American public overall has shown they have less confidence in police in recent times.

But there is no War on Police. This Us vs. Them mentality still prevails even in fresh academy cadets. Perhaps some of these people will become future jackbooted, truncheon-wielding oppressors. Or perhaps they will encounter the reality that betrays the fear they are taught.

Ex-APD officer unmasking 'culture of aggression'

By Mike Bush / Journal Staff Writer PUBLISHED: Friday, March 6, 2015 at 12:05 am

Disgusted, the second officer threw the suspect into the back seat of a hot car.

A little later, back at the station, Costales gave the suspect, by then drenched with sweat, a Coke. As a result, officers teased him about the soft drink and chastised him for not shooting the man, "like it was an honor or something to kill them," he said.

Costales was responding to a question put to him by Jack Cox, a junior at the University of New Mexico who moderated a question-and-answer session with the retired officer Thursday.

About 70 people listened intently as Costales presented an insider's view of what the U.S. Department of Justice called a "culture of aggression" at the Albuquerque Police Department. It was that same culture that led to the department's investigation, which found an unconstitutional use of excessive nonlethal and fatal force in 20 police shootings between 2009 and 2013.

Before Costales' talk at UNM, the APD issued a brief statement: "We respect everyone's right to have an opinion and share it with others. Our hope is that those who are most critical of our department will roll up their sleeves to be a part of the solution, in a productive manner."

Costales was invited to UNM by American Studies professor David Correia for a class on police violence and social control. Correia was arrested last June after he and a dozen other activists briefly occupied Mayor Richard Berry's office to protest police brutality. The charges were later dropped.

The federal investigation of the APD didn't include the six people killed by police officers since January 2014, including the shooting death of homeless camper James Boyd in the Sandia foothills in March, before the report was released.

"I think I just witnessed a murder," Costales recalled saying when he saw the video of the Boyd shooting.

Costales has spoken out against the APD before, including this year in a pair of scathing reports in two national magazines, The New Yorker and Rolling Stone.

He also testified against two Bernalillo County sheriff's deputies who arrested Al Unser Sr. in 2006, an event Costales described in great detail Thursday. The deputies twisted Unser's arm and threw him to the ground before arresting him, none of which was necessary or justifiable, he said.

After his testimony, he said, the police union posted a statement on its website calling him a rat and advising officers that, if he showed up at a scene, they should chase him away.

Since the DOJ report, Costales said he hears all the time about "the few bad apples" that mar the department's reputation.

In fact, he said, "there are more bad apples than good." And those good apples are afraid to come forward to report police wrongdoing, he said. Since the federal report last year, the APD has been "putting on a show for the DOJ," Costales said. "It's all window dressing."

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

We at the EYE have been hearing for some time about the new Major at the A.P.D. Training Academy, Jessica Tyler (Eversgerd her maiden name). You may remember the last A.P.D. Academy Director, Mr. Wolf, was having an affair with a sworn A.P.D. Officer and resigned in customary APD disgrace. Our Eyes tell us that Major Evergerd-Tyler applied to A.P.D. in 1999 but was turned down because she failed the polygraph.

Well, you can guess what happened next. Evergerd-Tyler applied to The Bernalillo County Sheriff Department and was hired. As time went by Evergerd-Tyler was promoted to lieutenant under the nefarious Sheriff, Darren White. Evergerd-Tyler then became a captain was placed in charge of training for the Bernalillo County Sheriff Department. Evergerd-Tyler's husband is a retired Sandoval County Sheriff deputy and is now working for The Sandoval County Sheriff, Doug Wood, in a civilian position, we are told with their training department. The Sandoval County Sheriff Department is a small department so they pay A.P.D. or The Bernalillo County Sheriff Department to train their cadets.

Sandoval County had several new cadets to be trained; however neither APD nor Bernalillo County had an academy class going at the time. Now we have a new Bernalillo County Sheriff, Manny Gonzales, and it is discovered B.C.S.O. held an academy for the cadets who needed to get certified, mostly for Sandoval County. It is also discovered J. Evergerd-Tyler was paid "under the table" to host and conduct that academy class. An investigation was started and J. Evergerd-Tyler resigned. J. Evergerd-Tyler was then hired by A.P.D. given the rank of major and is now in charge of The A.P.D. Academy.

We know Berry and Eden's preferred job qualifications is someone who is unethical and controllable. Evergerd-Tyler exceeds both of these preferred qualifications.

Our Eyes tell us Rob Perry hired J. Evergerd-Tyler. Now let us not forget the nefarious Darren White is a reserve officer for Sandoval County and a close friend of Rob Perry. Our Eyes tell us Major Evergerd-Tyler Law Enforcement Certification has been sent to the Law Enforcement Board for de-certification. We know the administration has a good friend on the LE Board who commonly does the administration bidding. IF THIS IS TRUE, MAYOR BERRY SHOULD FIRE ROB PERRY AND J. EVERGERD-TYLER AT ONCE.

If this is true no wonder A.P.D. is in a free fall. If this is true, do you dare do this while under the eye of the D.O.J.? We at the Eye want to hear from you. We know the rank and file knows this story to be true. It is time; past time to get involved. Local Media investigate, push the issue we nobody's have the right to know. As for Manny Gonzales, Thank you for standing up and doing the right thing.

This city has been in a downward spiral since Berry took over and we have two councilors who should be replaced still running unopposed. Apathy at its worst and more of the same.

Friday Clippings From Our Newsroom Floor

The politicians would take credit if they could, but the reason behind the best economic news we've had around these parts lately is beyond their control.

It's the end of the drought--at least for now- as seen in living color in this pic sent in by friends in Edgewood who are enjoying one of their most intense rainy seasons in decades. Is that really NM?

On the east side of the state--where extreme conditions have prevailed--the drought is also over. A rancher describes the cattle grazing there as "fat and sassy." . . .

Those Republicans in control of the state House for the first time in over 60 years have been feeling their oats. And they like the feeling, so they are out on the campaign trail this summer raising money for the battle next year to keep the chamber under their wing.

NM House Speaker Don Tripp was feted at an ABQ fund-raiser Thursday night, with proceeds going to the Speaker's PAC. Among those co-hosting was former NM GOP Chairman and oilman Harvey Yates, 2010 GOP Guv hopeful Doug Turner, as well as members of the Bursum banking and ranch family in the Socorro area, the region represented by Tripp in the House. . .

ABQ City Hall Alligators are reporting that Betty Rivera, Mayor Berry's director of the Cultural Services Department, is out. That comes on the heels of the news that four department supervisors took an expensive junket to New Orleans that Chief Administrative Officer Rob Perry criticized. . . .

About That New ABQ Crime Paradigm: The Readers Take The Floor With Comment, Concern And Insight; Holster Up Your Smith And Wesson And Come On In

Sure, we know that the important political news is how Sen. Martin Heinrich has landed the sixth spot on "The Hill's 50 Most Beautiful List" but we'll save that for another time. (By the way, the hard news about Heinrich from our Potomac Alligators is that Steve Haro, Heinrich's longtime chief of staff, is soon departing for a slot at the Dept. of Commerce.) In any event--beauty contests notwithstanding--today we stay on the more serious side of the aisle and run a wide range of reader reaction we received to our Wednesday blog on ABQ's disturbing new crime paradigm. Vox Populi, take it away. . .

Dennis Gabaldon writes:

Joe, Hooray! Your article is spot on and hits the nail on the head. Finally a voice telling it like it is, and pointing the finger at Mayor Berry, Chief Administrative Officer Perry, the APD brass and the media. The Journal and the TV stations have been giving a pass to this administration and also to the Martinez administration, and where has it got us? No jobs, no teachers, violent crime, and all are brightest young people fleeing to Denver and Phoenix. Lower the corporate taxes and watch our infrastructure crumble, then try to make up for it with higher gross receipts tax. The Democrats are just as guilty, for sitting on their hands and not having the guts to stand up to all this travesty. We need all the media to open up

VOX POPULI CONTINUES

Melissa Ariel Romero shared our post on Facebook and writes:

This is an important read for everyone who calls or has called Albuquerque home. . . Albuquerque has been in a state of decline and decay for years, and I am not the only one who left, in whole or in part, because of crime and the wholesale lack of accountability of our law enforcement and leadership, who accept this status quo as inevitable and unavoidable, or even celebrate the glamorization of this trend on national television, despite the very real victims involved. Until there is real and genuine turnaround, the brain drain and value drain from New Mexico will continue unabated, and ridding ourselves of the tyranny of low standards would be a good start.

Anonymous writes:

A recent front page of the Journal contains a graphic example of the disconnect between aspirations and reality in our struggling city and state. A columnist reports on the results of a query he put to readers about "how to put Albuquerque on the map." At his invitation readers suggested ideas from a Sandia Skywalk to a Venice, Italy themed canal system off of the Rio Grande, to a water slide from the Sandias to the river, among others. All were well intentioned ideas but surrounding them on the front page were *the other headlines: "Murder suspects grandma goes to jail," "Suspect in carjacking makes major criminal leap," "Wrong man arrested in student's death," and the lead story, "NM's drug deaths highest ever." Keith Miller writes:

Simply, the people that are "ruining or running" the state are like professors at schools of "higher" education. They are vested, they get their salary, their retirements, they hang out with their cronies, pass around what little comes in and tell us we should be happy for their patronage and expertise. People are SICK of the BS and it is getting ready to hit the fan.

Melissa Williams posts:

Albuquerque needs help. The news broadcasts are so terrifying. . . Something has to be done to clean up the crime and image of this beautiful city. . . The criminal activity is frightening and it's frightening that that is all the news stations emphasize. People are leaving here in record numbers. Hello Mayor! Hello City Council! Hello Governor! Help this city pick and clean itself up. Where is law enforcement?

E.g. Boston writes;

Well said, Joe. After being a neighborhood association vice-president for about 9 years, I had observed much of what you have observed. Time for everyone to demand better of our influential citizens, politicians, and law enforcement departments. We need to take back our city!

Liz Bustamante writes:

You nailed it again, Mr. Monahan.

Thanks Liz and to all who took time to comment. This is it. . .

ABQ's New Crime Paradigm: City Soaked In Violence Prompts Run On Guns; Analysis, Commentary And Some Outrage

The very fabric of Albuquerque seems to be unraveling as a crime wave soaks the city provoking the kind of primal fear you would expect roaming the streets of Sarajevo--not New Mexico's largest city. The shocking news that citizens are flocking to gun stores to buy arms to protect themselves against an ever bolder class of local criminal reveals for all to see the breathtaking and systemic failure in leadership that has engulfed ABQ and threatens its future as a livable environment.

Like a wildfire, crime is now leaping boundaries that previously served as barriers. The cold-blooded killing of a 60 year old in his driveway by a mob of teens near the normally placid Lomas and Tramway neighborhood was the proverbial straw that broke the camel's back. It followed closely a series of other alarming crimes and gave us the run on guns and reawakened our instinct for vigilante justice. So how did we get here? It's about accountability. There is none. It's about apathy. There's too much.

Mayor Richard Berry and Chief Administrative Officer Rob Perry have lost control of events. They have stubbornly refused to implement the sweeping personnel and policy changes so desperately needed at APD to halt the decline in police response times and the collapse in the number of officers patrolling the streets. The criminals get the message. You get a Smith and Wesson for your bedside.

The city council has awakened from a deep slumber but is still napping. There is no passion or fire for the fight that is now so necessary if ABQ is to be rescued from the death spiral it is enduring.

In many ways we have become a community in retreat. In the face of the chaos two city council seats in the October city election go unopposed. The speculation about who might be the next leader of the city barely rises to a murmur. The historic crash in turnout in the 2013 city election now seems more predictive of the future and not a fluke.

Local journalism is failing. How in the name of Billy the Kid can you do a news story about citizens arming themselves out of fear and not interview the mayor, the police chief and the business leadership and ask them what they are doing about it? How? Why do we get sensational TV reports about "Boomerang Thugs" that fault the judiciary but exonerate the leadership of this city, state and APD whose duty it is to keep us safe? Why?

The business community continues to play ostrich and refuses to acknowledge that ABQ's reputation for violence and now racial division is killing us economically. We are the only Sunbelt city not thriving, yet even when the crime extends to the city's most affluent and heavily gated zip codes, the rationalization goes on. "Well, it's not as bad as Detroit or Baltimore." Does the Anglo business community that is Mayor Berry's political base still not see that by turning their heads away from confronting him that they are enabling the city's decline and the decline of their own economic fortunes?

Albuquerque is a city that has learned to live with lower expectations economically and in other ways in exchange for the unique way of life offered here. But that bargain does not include feeling terrified in your home no matter your neighborhood.

I'm older now and sometimes the outrage turns to sadness, even nostalgia. What would leaders like former Mayor Kinney have done? Or Senator Pete Domenici who led the city for a time in the 60's? Did the economic collapse and federal cuts make today's Albuquerque of callousness and indifference inevitable? Or does a passionate, competent leadership make all the difference to a city's fate? We still believe the latter. Albuquerque sorely misses the political ethic of the past. It yearns for leaders who will begin patching the fabric of a city so torn apart. And it waits.

JOE MONAHAN'S POSTINGS-A MUST READ

The following below are extracts from Joe Monahan's August 11 and 12 postings discussing our Republican machine-controlled state and city.

APS's new Superintendent Luis Valentino stepped on it big time first claiming his incriminating text message misspent to Don Moya instead of Hanna Skandera in Santa Fe and that Moya's earlier suspension was nobody's business since it was an APS "personnel matter." Really?

As all know from my e-mails to the City and APS and talks at Council meetings, while I first believed in Brad Winter as I did with the Berry deeming them good people, I later found out just who they really were and became more than disgusted of how naïve I was.

I have been critical of Brad (discussed in Joe's posting below concerning his successor) not only as a councilor but as first the deputy and then interim APS Superintendent.

I even wrote to APS's school board suggesting questions for the candidates applying for the Superintendent job and also asked for an appointment to meet with the eventual choice to discuss what changes were needed. But not surprisingly, APS's ??? leadership that included Brad and the School Board didn't want outsiders meddling in their little game.

I welcomed a minority Luis Valentino being named as the next superintendent believing it would be a welcomed change. But Luis proved to all that he was no different than the rest of those in the machine here. As the City-including APD, County and APS leaders do when asked for explanations of misconduct, the convenient answer to all is always that it's "a personnel matter"-something that they can't discuss.

As for Google's departure from the state that Joe also discusses, did in fact the State taxpayers really get back more all of its money given to Google and Titan as the Guv's spin doctor Jon Barela said when claiming NM "taxpayers are way ahead"? The 8/11 front page Journal article first quoting this "way ahead" assertion never looked into it actually what we taxpayers actually gave away but took Barela's word for it.

The Journal article only said that the State's investment "included $995,000 for infrastructure improvements. How much was taxpayers' real investment? The Journal reporter never asked.

Are we assume we gave Google only $5000 more just for us to break even? Is this being "way ahead"? Let's get full accounting of just what taxpayers actually gave them and compare it to the $1 million in claw back funds we received back. Jon Barela should have been on the deck of the Titanic to explain to all on board, "don't worry-all is well."

What an embarrassing spin doctor the Guv hired! But she has a legacy of bad hires there.

THE EMBARRASSING APD LEADERSHIP-ALSO SKILLED AT LYING AND COVERUPS

As Joe, the Eye on Albuquerque and ABQ Free Press among other reported, contrary to the claims of real APD reform going on here, its corrupt leadership that begins with Mayor Berry and Rob Perry-Chief Eden's boss right down to Eden and those cover-up artists like him don't really want reform to happen-just give the illusion of it. Our apathetic/MIA Councilors don't really care..

Appointed James Ginger hopes he will stay on the city's payroll "monitoring" APD for not only four years but possibly seven (or more) years as was the case with the monitor of Tom Streicher's former Cincinnati's PD.

On TV report last night APD's SWAT team was commended for not gunning down a wanted person but instead finally turning one of their vicious K-9 dogs loose on him who began tearing him to bits. The TV reporter tried to claim these bites that showed a large amount of blood through the person's shirt were only minor injuries. Really?

Does anyone have any doubt why James Boyd pulled out two small knives before being murdered by APD? It was to protect himself if another of Eden's furry vicious APD "officers" was turned loose on him. The K-9 handler turned the vicious dog loose while James Boyd was turning his back when shot and the dog began chewing on his dead body.

Had I been confronted with a K-9 or other vicious dog, I too would protect myself with anything I could get my hands on and kill the dog if I could. I was bitten by a Pit Bull recently as Ms. Bruin knows and it wasn't something I deemed minor.

Pete Dinelli's letter in today's Journal called for Berry to fire the Guv's unqualified and incompetent throwaway-APD Chief Gorden Eden something all of us have been repeatedly calling for. Eden has no self-respect and won't resign. He likes his big salary. Now we have another Martinez discard beholden to the machine and one Berry hired as our new City attorney. Is she really any better than the disgraceful Tourek?

If we could fire/recall Mayor Berry from office, that would also help. Berry's apparent instructions to Eden is to try not to shoot and kill anybody-at least for a while. But if you do, make sure there are no video recordings of it like the one incriminating helmet recording/likely inadvertently released of the Boyd murder by Sandy and Perez. See again the attached "Live Leak" report showing this was being done with other recordings to cover up the Boyd murder.

In the August 2 issue of the Journal once again we saw just the officers' version of what happened but no police recordings being released actually showing the killing by APD of Rafael Molina on July 31. They would have confirmed that he actually had a weapon and was aiming it at officers while fleeing. Nor were we told just who was this (likely fictitious) "APD witness" who saw Molina raising his gun.

If a business surveillance camera ever recorded an APD shooting, Berry likely also told Eden to also make sure you seize and destroy it. We saw another example of this. Finally now after SEVEN long months APD was forced by a KRQE NM IPRA request-likely threat of a lawsuit to release more details of the never fully explained shooting by Lt. Greg Brachle of fellow officer Jacob Grant during a minor drug bust on Central. APD never released any videos of the shooting that APD would try to excuse it away.

APD even seized the surveillance video made at the McDonald's and likely destroyed it. We will never get the real story about this shooting that APD tried to justify in their Journal article today but conveniently omitted APD's unwillingness to release any video recordings. Par for the course at the Journal.

THE NAÏVE AND OR APATHETIC

There are still some naive among us who believe former cop James Ginger and his crew of mainly former cops in PMR Inc will force real change.

We may be insulted again as the first choice to be the new Executive Director of the new Police Oversight Agency is a former police officer from Milwaukee who has no clue what the oversight job here is. Just a lot of doubletalk by him during his interview with the POB.

Apparently Jay Rowland the only qualified applicant interviewed for the ED job is much too competent and scary to Eden and his corrupt APD minions and was only relegated to be the second choice for the job.

These same people believe that the $15,000 citizen collaborative meetings run by UNM with alleged oversight by the "Office of Diversity and Human Rights" will really result in any real APD changes. The city's attorney is now helping stonewall my IPRA request for the names of those citizens who are participating in these seemingly PR only collaborative dialogues.

Transparency and accountability by APD were deemed by these participants in the "dialogues" to be unimportant but apparently removing tint from APD vehicle windows are. What a blatant waste of our tax dollars. Need I even mention Berry's latest fiscally irresponsible albatross-the ART down Central?

Is there any wonder why this State is among the worst in the US to retire in as reported in the Journal today?

Guv's Machine Gets New Friend; APS Super Goes All In But Botched Text Job Has Him Scurrying, Plus: More On The Google Move, Animus And Our Bottom Lines

Valentino

That was fast. The brand new superintendent of the ABQ Public Schools wasted no time embracing the Guv's political machine and by doing so sent an icy message to those Dems and teachers who have been opposing the administration for some five years. But Luis Valentino's bow to the Machine was anything but smooth. He sent out a text message to state education chief Hanna Skandera vowing to bust APS finance head Dan Moya, an open opponent of the Guv and Skandera. But instead of sending it to Hanna, he sends it to Moya. Looks like Super Valentino failed the text test. Not a good start to the school year for him. He has put Moya on paid leave as he looks to axe him. Why Valentino—who came into ABQ from San Francisco—is so quick to kow-tow to the Fourth and Fifth Floors is an open question but the meaning is crystal clear. One of the Alligators comments: Did you see the Don Moya firing text to Skandera? My question is how did the new APS super get so close to Skandera so fast to be texting her about "going after" people at APS? It tells me that this guy is tight with the Machine and that ought to send shivers up the spines of Dems and APS leaders. Did the APS School Board know this guy was going to be a hatchet man for Martinez/Skandera when they hired him?" Shivers up the spines of Dems?" Well, the critics would say detecting spine in the Dem camp has been their problem.

Reader Richard Flores has more analysis of this:

Speaking of the Animus problem, Edwina Gardner writes: Joe, as someone who grew up around mines, I put the blame squarely on the company that owned the mine tailings that spilled into the Animas River. New Mexico suffers deeply from a proliferation of uranium poisoned wells, powdery tailings that blow in the wind, and well contamination. Companies came in and looted our natural resources and then left the mess to poison our state. No one cares, until tragedies like the Animas River occur. Politicians scream jobs from oil and mining companies, but the legacy of the destruction to land, and most important to people, can never be truly repaired.

One more on Animus from John G.:

Joe, you're asleep at the switch. What, if anything, is our congressional delegation doing to assess and mitigate the economic impacts of the Animas river disaster?

Hey, John, we can't let our blogging pajamas go to waste, but we hear you on the DC delegation. Let's see.

Spin Check: Who Lost Google? Is Anyone Asking? Plus: More On The Tuesday Econ Beat; Export Numbers Debunked, Oil Price Check And Animosity Over Animas

You know the economic spin is out of control when the administration claims "New Mexico taxpayers are ahead" now that one of the most valuable companies on the planet has decided to get out of here. The bizarre statement came in reaction to Google repaying the state $1 million in economic development funds as it pulled its Titan Aerospace firm out of Moriarty. True, the state did recoup its money ???but it failed abysmally in its effort to keep Google in the state. While the Guv and administration spinners pat themselves on the back, they ought to be kicking one another in their posteriors. . .

But what else is new? We have seen Intel drift away and become a shadow of its former self without a peep from the state econ director who used to work for the semiconductor company's Rio Rancho plant. Reader Jason Lewis vents the exasperation that is spreading over the state's inability to get it right:

So what happened that caused Google to exit stage left? And how can the taxpayers be "ahead" when one of the most innovative, well-known and well liked companies decides to say adios! to the Land of Enchantment? I'd really like to know who screwed this up. Then there are those

Today 6:52 AM

Mrng Hanna.

This is Don not Hanna. Need her number?

I am going to go after Don Moya in d next couple of weeks. . My concern is that he has been allowed to ride roughshot over here and controls a lot of d financials. We are also trying to sell a bond. Our rating could be jeopardized. Any ideas?

I am astounded that the new APS superintendent would reach out to an unpopular state bureaucrat for advice on how to oust a Finance Director who has been with district for five years. . . What is even more disconcerting is that Valentino would launch an early campaign to disassemble what is already in place at APS so soon after starting his job. It's almost as if he was hired to "clean house" instead of bringing a new vision and leadership that promotes a positive work environment and educational reform. I understand that managing the district's finances is a critical part of the job, but the way this was done appears to open the district up to liability and does further damage to APS in both it's credibility and public image. This fiasco is not a good way to start and makes me wonder if the APS Board hired this guy to strengthen collusion with the state, and thereby, crush teacher, student and community opposition to the Martinez/Skandera agenda.

So jut how did Valentino become a Machine member in good standing? The strongest argument is that former interim APS Superintendent Brad Winter--who is an ABQ GOP city councilor and a member in good standing of the Machine--helped scout Valentino as his replacement and put him on the Machine-friendly path. APS is a billion dollar a year operation with scads of contracts, jobs etc. You can take it from there. . .

DON'T BLAME R'S

Not all were sympathetic to the blog argument Tuesday that the Governor and the economic development secretary should be put on the spot for the decision by Google to move its aerospace subsidiary in Moriarty to the San Francisco Bay area. A reader writes: Don't be so hard on the Republicans for Google leaving Moriarty. Don't think the Dems could have made any difference. It was a matter of logistics, or lack thereof that facilitated this move. They literally had to send out of state for every part they needed. Made sense that it should be moved closer to its suppliers.

This reader took the other side: Losing jobs in our state is worse than the Animas river having toxins in it. The governor made an appearance on news stations to say how awful this was and has a lawsuit. But where was she when Google left and jobs were lost? Probably reading a book to 3rd graders for a positive photo-op.

intermittent and mysterious announcements from Santa Fe that we are experiencing "record breaking exports" from NM. That would be nice but it turns out the spin on this one is also over the top. Dr. Chris Erickson of NMSU, a member of our list of "No BS Economists," does the fact check:

This is more of an issue of things being warehoused and resorted and reclassified [than] where they were originated. In other words, a jumble of numbers that don't reflect economic reality on the ground. But that's what seems to happen when you breathe the rarefied air of the City Different. (Remember, those tourist numbers they put out?)

PROOF - APD Covered Up Production of Videos of Shooting of James Boyd

On March 17th 2014 Albuquerque Police (APD) shot and killed a homeless and mentally ill man - whose only crime was a violation of a municipal ordinance against camping in an open space area in the Sandia foothills at the eastern edge of the city.

On March 17th, the day after the fatal shooting, KRQE made a public records request for the videos of that incident. On April 1st, APD unlawfully denied that request.

BUT ... Here is the REST of that Story.

To this day - not only have the Keith Sandy videos mysteriously disappeared - but when the APD finally produced videos claiming to be ALL the videos of the incident - many of the videos were missing INCLUDING almost all that actually show the SHOOTING - most NOTICEABLY - the very videos (from the other shooter - Dominique Perez) from which the now-famous shooting clip was taken and released by APD that week.

On April 2nd, one day after KRQE's request was unlawfully denied, an investigator with the APD interviewed Kevin Fuller, APD Video Unit Supervisor. According to the interview - included in this video - Fuller was instructed on FRIDAY March 21st - to obtain the videos and place them in a Drop Box account.

On Thursday, March 27th - he was instructed to coordinate with several other persons - and to look at all the videos, frame by frame, and identify those parts that the Chief might have an "interest" in BEFORE they were released to the media.

Although those videos have since been released (those that have) WITHOUT being identified by officer or time - Fuller and his team broke down each video by officer and began this work. He was, at this time, told to "take out" all videos in which the audio or video contained the actual shooting.

On Friday March 28th Fuller was instructed to place the videos on another hard drive and provide them to the FBI. BUT ... on Friday evening - Commander Montano on behalf of the Chief contacted Fuller and stated he had "concerns" allegedly about the Chain of Custody. He ordered Fuller to "cease and desist." He was later then told to give Montano the hard drive and to delete the videos from the drop box account.

It is unlawful for the APD to withhold, delay, or deny public records that have no exemption provided by law. The APD clearly DELAYED production in order to find those videos it might find embarrassing - or creating liability - with regard to the act of the shooting of Boyd. It then DENIED unlawfully the production of those videos.

Since then - it has produced videos it has CLAIMED were the complete set. BUT there are several known videos missing - not least being all the videos taken by the second shooter, Dominique Perez, from whose videos the famous clip released by APD initially came. Although several other officers' videos are MISSING from the set produced as well.

It is clear that the APD has and continues to knowingly and willfully withhold those videos. This interview contains proof, at minimum, that the APD had delayed production of the videos, contrary to the Public Records law, in order to try and identify those videos it considered problematic - this specifically was a reference to anything officers may have said to each other during the incident AND anything that revealed either audio or video of the actual shooting of Boyd.

Councilors

Others Bcc

Reference my e-mail yesterday "Please don't insult citizens again by choosing out of state uniformed and unqualified former cop Edward Harness to be next Executive Director of Police Oversight Agency-POA and earlier ones also discussing the Boyd murder by APD cops Sandy and Perez, Eden and postings in the ABQ Free Press."

Below is Joe Monahan's recent posting reporting things you will never read in the Journal or see on TV. It concerns the cover-ups of police departments saying If a cop on the street doesn't report he/she used force, it doesn't get counted. No technology or amount of "reform" will change this fact.

Even if you have technology such as body, helmet and other video and audio recorders, if they are told to be left turned off by the bad cops when they use excessive use of force or any recordings made destroyed (that seems to be the case here in APD with the Mayor's blessing) then it's always justified when officers lie to protect each other and fictitious-unnamed witnesses corroborate the cops' lies.

Note that this use of excessive force includes K-9 dogs sicced on those they encounter as if this was somehow a humane-not excessive force response. Boyd pulled out his knives to protect himself against the K-9 dog who was straining at the leash to get to him. Recently a dog was sicced on another uncooperative person and chewed him up causing excessive bleeding that APD said to the reporter that it was a humane response and not a serious wound.

In my last e-mail, I asked you not to perpetuate the past APD and Mayor controlled toothless citizen police oversight problem here by choosing a former (clueless of what's wrong here) Milwaukee cop to be the city's next Executive Director of the Police Oversight Agency instead of picking the only qualified candidate Jay Rowland. The first choice for the job by the POB confounded me.

I believe Jay was the IRO in 2004 mentioned in the posting by Joe below who APD apparently wanted out of the job. He wasn't willing to be the stooge for APD then and even now won't.

We have those here and also our county and state leaders including our NM legislators who think the judicial system is only to blame for the deplorable situation with APD here led by an incompetent APD Chief. This includes two legislators Bill Rehm and Paul Pacheco who were former cops and still seem to be more loyal to fellow cops-even the bad ones, than the people. It would have been nice if they also championed legislation calling for all cops to wear body cameras and turn them on-but don't hold your breath on that.

The arrogant BCSO Sheriff Manny Gonzalez pretends that he is doing a study to determine their need for his deputies but he really has no intent to equip his officers with body cameras even though APD likely still has its over 1000 "Scorpions" bought in 2010 and 2011 still sitting on the shelf unused after Mayor Berry "greased" a $1.9 million dollar no-bid contract for Schultz to buy his employer/Taser's AXONS.

The BERNCO Commissioners and County Manager apparently don't care what Manny does. No recordings-no accountability. Nice! Nor do they care about creating a police oversight agency to investigate citizen complaints.

Looks like APD who was successful in stopping former honest APD cop Dawn Roberto from ever doing future police work also recently shut down another good news source-the Eye on Albuquerque as their last posting was July 5.

M006927

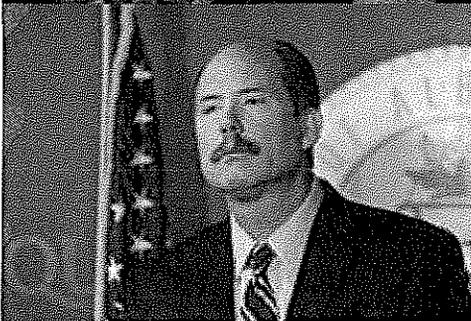

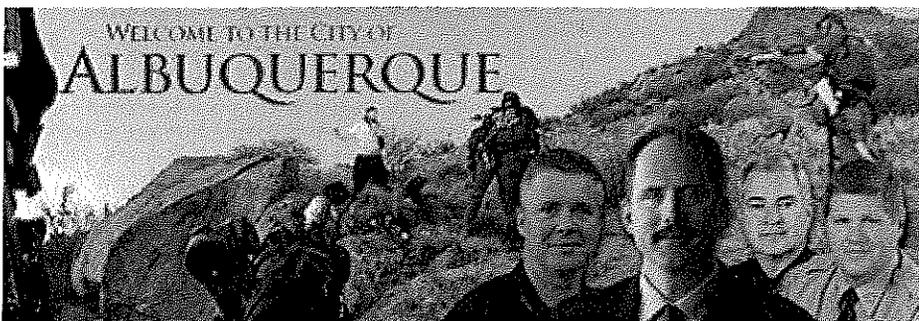

Now we have only Joe's columns and the ABQ Free Press and those other blogs and news outlets that honest cops and others will only share national and other news items with media sources they can trust..

More than disgusted-as you should be,

Silvio

THE MOST CORRUPT ADMINISTRATION AND DANGEROUS POLICE FORCE IN THIS CITY'S HISTORY

-http://www.joemonahansnewmexico.blogspot.com/

Friday, August 14, 2015 Wrapping The Week With A Visit To The Crime Beat We wrap the blogging week with a visit to the crime beat. . .

With ABQ's APD under a Department of Justice consent decree to reform, this NYT piece sent in by readers is of interest:

When the Justice Department surveyed police departments nationwide in 2013, officials included for the first time a series of questions about how often officers used force. . Obama and his top law enforcement officials have bemoaned the lack of clear answers to such questions.

Without them, the racially and politically charged debate quickly descends into the unknowable. The Justice Department survey had the potential to reveal whether officers were more likely to use force in diverse or homogeneous cities; in depressed areas or wealthy suburbs; and in cities or rural towns. Did the racial makeup of the police department matter? Did crime rates?

If a cop on the street doesn't report he/she used force, it doesn't get counted. No technology or amount of "reform" will change this fact. But when the data was issued last month. . . the figures turned out to be almost useless. Nearly all departments said they kept track of their shootings, but in accounting for all uses of force, the figures varied widely.

Reader Chris comes with a follow-up:

Back when ABQ had a decent Independent Review Officer (meaning [sorta] independent of APD), in 2004, he asked APD to release data on the number of times officers used any kind of force in the line of duty. They sent him a report, that revealed APD cops used force 551 times during the 2004 calendar year.

They tackled somebody to the ground nearly 200 times; they used mace or pepper spray nearly 150 times; they Tasered 85 suspects; they punched or kicked 63 people; they delivered 22 baton blows; they sicked dogs on 12 suspects; they killed three people. That's a lot of force. And it most definitely did not accurately reflect the actual number of times officers used force. If a cop on the street doesn't report he/she used force, it doesn't get counted.

Is the public court hearing being conducted this month to determine whether two ABQ police officers will stand trial on criminal charges in the fatal shooting of James Boyd going to become standard procedure? The news:

California this week became the first state to ban the use of secret grand juries when deciding whether to indict police officers in cases of deadly force. The bill, signed by Gov. Jerry Brown, was a response to the unrest that followed the grand jury decisions in Ferguson, Missouri, and in Staten Island, New York, not to indict the officers who killed Michael Brown and Eric Garner.

"The use of the criminal grand jury process, and the refusal to indict as occurred in Ferguson and other communities of color, has fostered an atmosphere of suspicion that threatens to compromise our justice system," state Sen. Holly Mitchell (D-Los Angeles), who authored the bill, said in a statement.

The new California law leaves it up to the prosecutor to decide whether to charge a police officer with using deadly force, a change that many hope will lead to more transparency and accountability.

JOURNAL NOT INDEPENDENT BUT ITS LEADERSHIP CLEARLY IS PART OF THE GUV MARTINEZ MACHINE

You also saw my criticism of the Journal editorials that repeatedly parrots the Teflon Berry/Perry partly line on every issue. This includes the most recent one today trying to justify pay raises for APD's corrupt overpaid command staff and citing the fiscally irresponsible Ken Sanchez as supporting it.

Contrary to what it claims, the Journal has NEVER been an independent newspaper as it claims, but only an independently owned one. I have compared its editor to Hitler's propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels—a description many agree with. In addition to being one of the Journal's biggest customers, the Mayor secretly hired the Editor's attorney brother Jerry to be part of the negotiations with the DOJ.

Ryan Boetel joined the Dominique Perez defense team with his recent fluff piece. The disgraceful APOA VP Shaun Willoughby whose 2013 memo to the rank and file reiterated that all should remember that "it's them against us" and APD Command staff and his union leadership won't tolerate those honest cops who break the blue code of silence. Like Boetel, he is also doing his part to brainwash a future jury to free both killer cops Perez and Sandy in his interview with KOB last night. See attached.

THE JOURNAL'S CENSORSHIP

While making sure the letters to the editor from me and others are never printed, the Journal gives free publicity to today's Elks Lodge fund raiser for the "survival training" for officers sponsored by the vindictive father of BCSO's deputy James McGrane's killed NINE years ago. The original name for it was "killology" training. I guess that was too accurate.

Many regret the demise of the Tribune but we have the ABQ Free Press and other news sources to keep us informed of the culture of corruption rampant in this city and state and the still police state we live in whose THUG can threaten and kill citizens and get away with it.

MY AND OTHER CITIZEN EXPERINCES WITH APD AND THIS CORRUPT ADMINISTRATION

As I have often told you, after I dared to ask using the NM IPRA for recordings of APD's murder of my neighbor Chris Hinz in June 2010, punk Chief Schultz warned me to "be careful."

Schultz likely also warned Mary Han before she was murdered and APD is now caught withholding incriminating recordings and other public information on that. Don't you think my wife worries every day that the cops will find a reason to kill me?

Then Schultz's "death squad"/SWAT Commander Bob Huntsman (now Eden's primary deputy) who lives less than 50 yards from my neighbor Chris Hinz's home likely during the almost two hours his two killers and a virtual army of police officers were on the scene, did nothing or likely urged his killers to shoot him twice while he was trying to surrender.

After their first shots by his SWAT killers Anthony Sedler and Eric Brown put Chris down on the driveway and gasping for his life, they shot again to make sure he was dead. They then cuffed his dead body and dragged it out to the street like a hunk of meat.

No APD crisis intervention team was intentionally ever called in. They wanted him dead. Withholding any recordings of the murder they made, Schultz's Internal Affairs would then lie to justify the murder as they typically do with all their others.

Two months later they almost killed another neighbor had I as the Neighborhood president not intervened. This was an unarmed mentally ill with PTSD Navy SEAL who had just returned from Iraq. A disgraceful female Schultz cop who debriefed me after the vet was taken to the hospital (at my insistence) would arrogantly tell me, "We could have killed that crazy guy if we wanted to."

Having seen what this SEAL likely went through while I served in Vietnam in 1969 and 1970, I chewed her ass out on my front porch as she like most in APD have no clue what our heroes face in a war. Her male partner told her to "shut up." I reported this but Shultz and Berry did nothing to that cop. Other threats by Schulz and APD were made against Ken Ellis whose son was murdered by APD.

APD also sent cars to the home of Sylvia Fuentes after she dared in March 2011 to demand answers to the Council to the murder of her son by APD officers. See attached. As I told you, Damon Martinez also sent his US Marshals to the home of Tony Pirard twice to threaten him to shut up-or else for daring to publicly criticize him, Judge Brack, Scott Greenwood and others-but again nobody downtown cared.

KILLING A POLICE OFFICER IS NOT A HATE CRIME

You saw my scathing e-mail about Schultz's former commander Conrad Candelaria now one of Damon Martinez's equally unaccountable US Marshals who claimed at a recent annual "heroes" luncheon for cops that any cop killing should be a hate crime. He apparently is jumping on the Police propaganda bandwagon claiming there is a war on our "hero" cops nationwide

The Berry Journal not surprisingly endorsed this. See <http://abqjournal.pressreader.com/bookmark/OQUTOR9IHDZ6/>. Now we see that Natasha

Neiberger, the wife of an APD officer tells KRQE the same thing with not surprisingly my NM Representative-a former cop Bill Rehm agreeing. See attached and <http://krqe.com/2015/09/11/wife-of-apd-officer-petitions-to-make-attacks-on-officers-a-hate-crime/>

Yet Rehm, another former cop legislator Paul Pacheco and others while in Santa Fe are not interested in sponsoring legislation demanding that each NM police officer wear body cameras. I suggest our new US AG do the same for all US Marshals but we know that won't happen.

I suggest that cop wife Natasha get a reality check-try to be the wife of a military member who doesn't enjoy the benefits of police officers and often goes off to war. These fellow vets are the ones who really serve and protect us. She should be embarrassed with her misguided appeal. All former and current military wives should be disgusted with her

See the attached Washington Post article below and attached <https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/the-watch/wp/2015/09/10/once-again-there-is-no-war-on-cops-and-those-who-claim-otherwise-are-playing-a-dangerous-game/>

THE NOW WE HAVE AN EVEN MORE DISGRACEFUL-PRO-BAD COP BIASED POLICE OVERSIGHT AGENCY

The Council's irresponsible selection of former cop Ed Harness Wednesday who is as unqualified for the new Executive Director's (ED) job as is Gorden Eden for the Chief's job shows just how bad things have become here. Harness' only managerial experience was his part time work as a quick shop manager. Ed's only mediation (not the job of the ED) work was with his local Better Business Bureau. His only police oversight work was in his local small village.

We read in today's Journal that Police Oversight Board Chairman, (a NAACP buddy of Berry's new disgraceful consultant-NAACP boss Harold Bailey) who never stayed to speak to the Council Wednesday claims that the Board is "Ready to go." Really? More excusals of police misconduct?

In one September e-mail to the Councilors, I said Dr. Moira Amado McCoy demonstrated to all that she was an elitist who would repeatedly talk down to them and the rest of us as if we were all idiots-not up to her perceived PhD intellect.

She would say that being an attorney was important for the ED although the POB already has an attorney. She incredulously deemed real police oversight experience here irrelevant but claimed Harness was instead a "transformational leader-a collaborator." She also questioned our allegedly "dichotomous thinking" saying police are not enemies of the people.

As my later September 11 e-mail to the Council and others stated, "Now with former cops Harness, two on the POB and Harness's investigator Paul Scottdopole, the Oversight Agency has lost all credibility with the people. Why even file a complaint against an APD officer as it would be a waste of time as the process has been corrupted? The situation we have now in the Agency is comparable to having the judge, the prosecutor and two members of the jury all family members of bad cops against whom charges by the people are filed-CPCs or other."

The reason that this City is the disgrace of the nation for its culture of corruption is because there is no demanded accountability for any of it by our city leaders and the Journal and some in the media are a big part of the problem.

Think about it!

The WatchOpinion

Once again: There is no 'war on cops.' And those who claim otherwise are playing a dangerous game.

Comments 693

By Radley Balko September 10

Here's Fox News earlier this week, shamelessly exploiting a tragedy to gin up outrage.

They certainly aren't the only ones. Here are some more examples of media outlets and politicians spreading the hysteria:

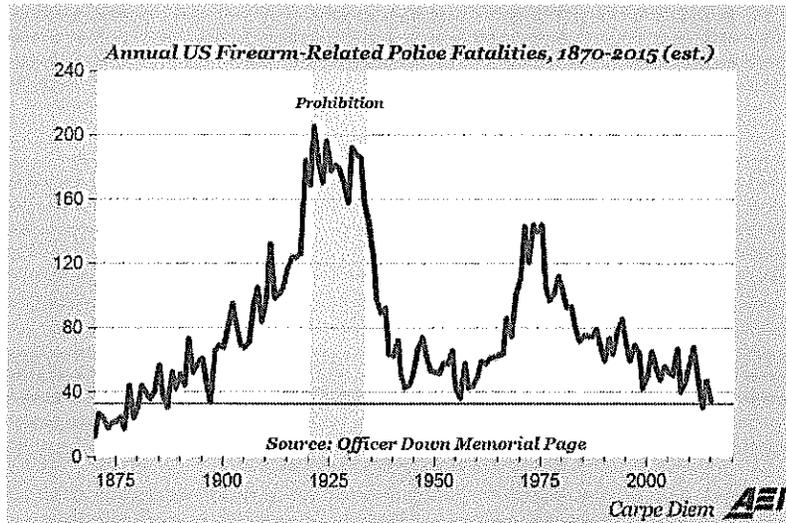

- "War On Police Sparks National Crime Wave"
- "Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick: There's A War On Cops And Media 'Are Not In Police Officers' Corner"
- "Police face recruiting shortage due to war on cops"
- "Do Cops' Lives Matter to Obama?"
- "[New York Police Chief] Bratton warns of tough times ahead due to 'war on cops'"

As I've noted here before, we're seeing similar rhetoric from politicians, particularly from GOP presidential hopefuls, including Donald Trump, Ted Cruz, and Scott Walker.

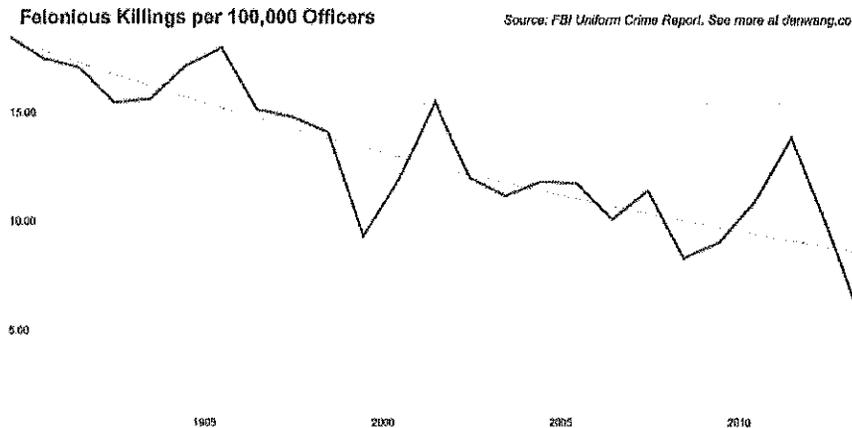

All of this fact-free fearmongering is having an effect. A Rasmussen poll taken last week found that 58 percent of respondents now believe there is now a "war on police." Just 27 percent disagreed.

So let's go through the numbers. Again. So far, 2015 is on pace to see 35 felonious killings of police officers. If that pace holds, this year would end with the second lowest number of murdered cops in decades. Here's a graph depicting annual killings of cops with firearms from Mark A. Perry at the American Enterprise Institute:

But these are just the raw numbers. If we look at the rate of killings of cops, the trend is more pronounced. There are two ways to examine the rate of police killings. The first is to look at the rate of killings of cops per 100K cops on the street. This figure is somewhat difficult to calculate because there are widely varying estimates of how many cops are on the street. It depends on how you define "police officer," who is doing the estimating, and various other factors. But if you use consistent sources, the number of police has generally gone up, while the number of officers killed has generally gone down. So your graph looks something like this one, from Dan Wang:

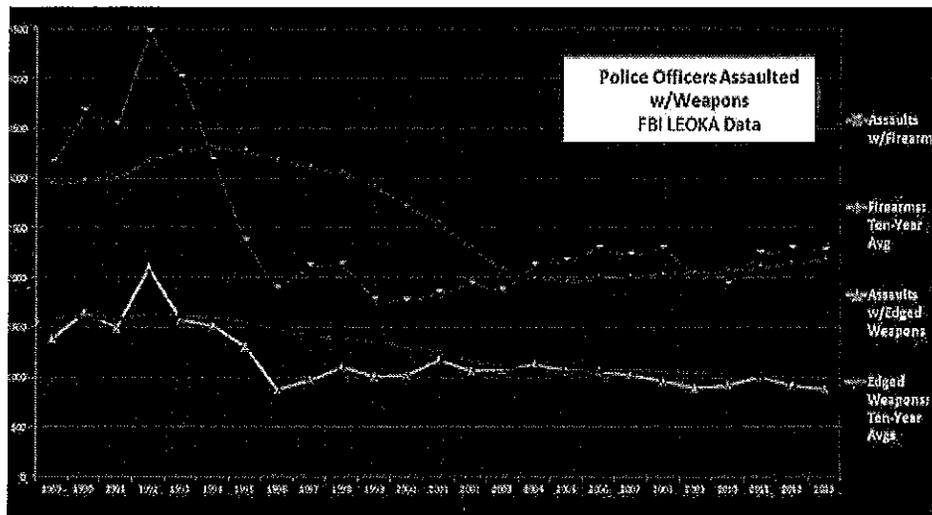

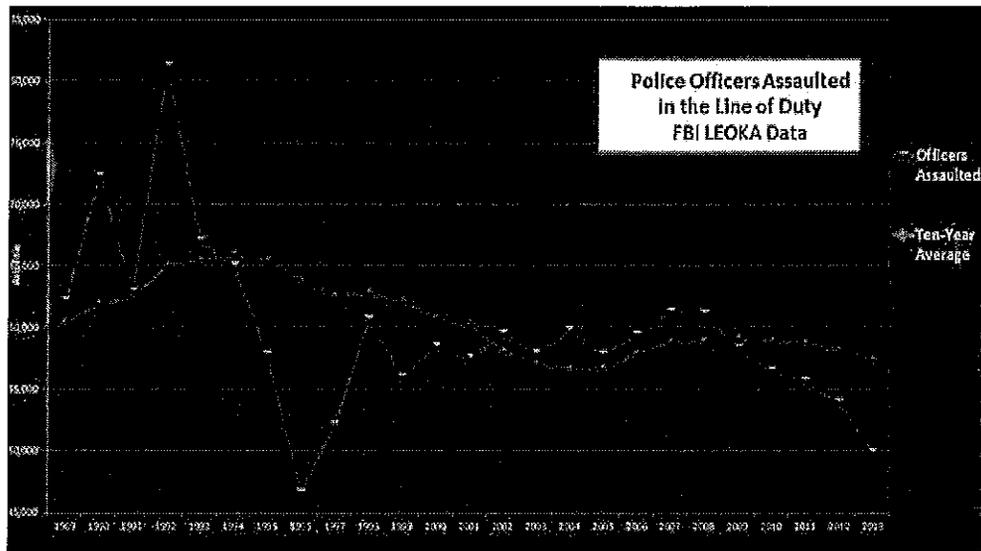

The other way you could measure the rate of killings of police officers is to look at the number with respect to the overall population. Here's another graph from Perry that plots those figures:

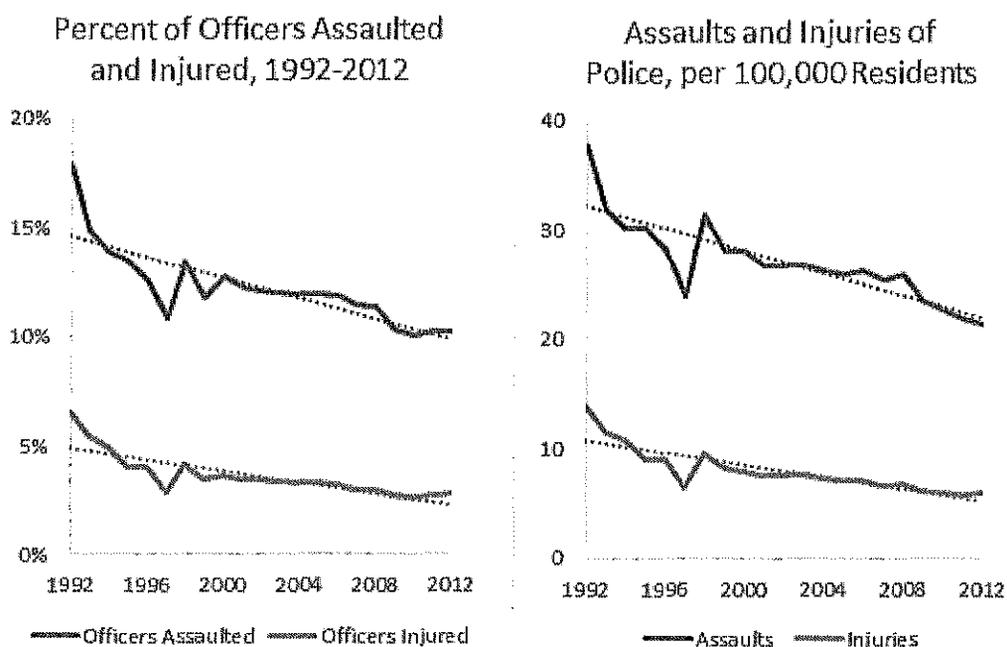

As you can see, by this measure 2015 is shaping up to be the second safest year for police ever, after 2013.

Speaking of which, it's important to note again here that 2013 was an abnormally and historically low year for police fatalities, as this graph from University of South Carolina law professor (and former police officer) Seth Stoughton shows.

So when police advocates say that 2014 saw an 80+ percent increase in homicides of cops over 2013, remember a few things: First, 2013 wasn't just an all-time low, it was an all-time low by a significant margin. Second, the 2013 figure was so low that even a small increase will look large when expressed as a percentage. Third, the figure for the following year, 2014, (51 officers killed) was essentially consistent with the average for the previous five years (50 killed), and still lower than any five-year average going back to 1960. (See this graph, also from Wang.) Fourth, again, 2015 is on pace (35 killings) to be lower than any year but 2013. Another common response from police organizations and their advocates is that the reduction in fatalities is due to better medical care and improvements in protective gear such as bulletproof vests. Both things are undoubtedly true. But assaults on police officers are in decline as well. That is, not only are fewer people killing police officers, fewer people are trying to harm them. These graphs from Stoughton show the raw numbers of assaults on police:

As you can see, at best you could argue that assaults on police with firearms are about even with where they've been for most of the last decade, save for a dip in 2009 and 2010. But these too are raw figures. When we look at the rate of assault on cops, from either the perspective of total cops or total population, the downward trend once again becomes more pronounced. From Daniel Bier, here are two graphs looking at the assault rates on police officers.

Source: FBI

Any murder of a police officer is a tragedy. (As is any murder of a non-police officer.) But media outlets, politicians, and police advocates do real damage when they push this false narrative about a rising threat to law enforcement. First, this sort of propaganda weights the public debate and discourse. When there's a fictional "war on cops" blaring in the background, it becomes much more difficult to have an honest discussion about police cameras, police militarization, use of lethal force policies, police discipline, police transparency, training, police accountability, and a host of other issues. Of course, that's precisely the point.

But there's also a much more pernicious effect of exaggerating the threats faced by law enforcement. When cops are constantly told that they're under constant fire, or that every interaction with a citizen could be their last, or that they're fortunate each time they come home from the job in one piece, it's absolute poison for police-community relations. That kind of reminder on a regular basis would put anyone on edge. We're putting police officers in a perpetually combative mindset that psychologically isolates them from the communities they serve. Incessantly telling cops that they're under fire can condition them to see the people with whom they interact not as citizens with rights, but as potential threats. That not only means more animosity, anger and confrontation, it can also be a barrier to building relationships with people in the community — the sorts of relationships that help police officers solve crimes and keep communities safe.

It also just makes for a miserable work life. If you've been trained to think your job is getting progressively more dangerous, and that a significant percentage of the people you encounter on a daily basis want to do you harm, you're going to be less tolerant of dissent. You're going to constantly be on-guard, on-edge, and jumpy. That isn't a state of mind that's conducive to de-escalation, that opts for persuasion over brute force, or seeks out peaceful conflict resolution. It's a state of mind ruled by the limbic system, not the frontal lobe. And yes, it's a state of mind that makes an officer more likely to reach for his gun. Again, this isn't a comment on cops. It's a comment on human beings in general.

An over-emphasis on and obsession with a "war on cops" would be dangerous and counterproductive even if it were true. But by every imaginable measure, it just isn't true. When this false narrative comes from police organizations and their supporters, it's at least somewhat understandable. When it comes from politicians, it's grandstanding and demagoguery. When it comes from media organizations, it's journalistic malpractice. And it's almost certainly getting people killed.

One last point: I've seen some police officials and their advocates respond to these statistics by pointing out that even if assaults and killings of cops are down, anti-police rhetoric is increasing. Therefore, they say, they're justified in proclaiming that there's a war on the police. This is nonsense. Police agencies are government agencies. They're government agencies in whom we entrust the power to detain, arrest, and kill. Yes, it's true that some people are demanding more of those agencies. It's true that personal technology is enabling people to create an independent video narrative of their interactions with police. It's true that those videos have sometimes revealed police misconduct and brutality, and that police officers, like all people, sometimes mis-remember, misstate, and outright lie when recounting contentious, traumatic, high-stakes incidents. And it's true that because of all of this, the public as a whole today finds police officers as a whole less trustworthy than in the past. It's also true that some activists, pundits, and politicians are demanding more accountability, transparency, and training for police.

None of these things are indicative of a “war.” On the contrary, all of this new skepticism, criticism, forced transparency, and mistrust of the police is — again — coming even as violence against police officers is reaching historic lows. This is how a democracy is supposed to work. It’s something worth celebrating.

Instead, police groups and their advocates are claiming that the mere act of criticizing a government entity is akin to declaring war on it, and that therefore, police critics are culpable every time a police officer is murdered. (And given the way they ignore and abuse statistics, those critics are also apparently culpable for a lot of murders that never happened.) They’re essentially saying that exercising constitutional rights and participating in democracy are in and of themselves acts of violence. And in many cases, this is coming from the very people that the government empowers to use actual violence.

That is something worth worrying about.

Wife of APD officer petitions to make attacks on officers a hate crime

By Candace Hopkins Published: September 11, 2015,

ALBUQUERQUE (KRQE) – The wife of an Albuquerque cop wants to make targeting a police officer a hate crime. She's launched an online petition to pressure state lawmakers to make it happen.

Hate crime laws aim to deter violence against people based on their race, religion or sexual orientation. Natasha Neiberger, wife of an APD officer, says it's time to include police in those laws.

"I believe it is a hate crime when you're targeting certain person just because of the uniform they wear," said Neiberger.

Neiberger says being a law enforcement family has always been hard, but recent ambushes on police officers make it even more difficult.

Neiberger said, "Every day, and it breaks my heart when my little girl, who's six, says goodbye daddy, love you, be safe, come home."

That's why she wants to see tougher penalties and she says hate crime laws are the way to do it. So far about 200 people have signed a petition she started, calling for the change. State Rep and Retired Deputy Bill Rehm is listening.

"I think that it is a law that is needed. We have seen a lot of increased violence towards the police recently," said Rehm. But the ACLU says the idea doesn't make sense.

"To categorize police officers as marginalized or oppressed really kind of misses the point, I mean, they're people with great power and authority in our society and are in fact sometimes used in the systems that oppress those vulnerable populations," said ACLU NM Communications Director Micah McCoy.

Representative Rehm says he'd be interested in sponsoring a bill, but says it should only be a hate crime if a police officer is simply targeted for being a police officer, not if an officer is hurt by a suspect who's trying to get away or doesn't want to go to prison.

A case that would fit the hate crime description would be the Christopher Chase shooting spree in Albuquerque a couple years ago. He shot and wounded officers because he had something against police. He was killed after a long chase.

Talk to City Council on March 3 2011 by Sylvia Fuentes

My name is Sylvia Fuentes. I am the mother of Len Eric Fuentes. "Human waste" #8 according to a Police Department detective on Facebook. Look at me, I am the mother of "human waste" #8.

Mr. Dell Angela, has been trying to tell you something over and over and over with letters, with e-mails, with phone calls but you are not listening. He is trying to tell you what kind of police officers we have in APD. Even now, after reading what the detective that shot the last victim said on Facebook, it does not phase you. 57 officers on Facebook are being looked into. It would be interesting to know how many of those officers took part in the shootings of the "human waste?" And if the officer that killed my son is also one of them.

The Police Department has lost its dignity and credibility. They are no longer in place to protect and to serve us; they are too busy protecting themselves. Their main job now is to protect themselves from those who are not on their side regardless of what they do, including killing and then lying about it to cover their crimes. These officers have developed a gang type mentality that tells us if you don't side with them, (the blue gang) then, you are on the side of the criminals.

I have not been here since November because of health issues and I am still not well, but I had to come today. The disposal machine killed human waste #10 out of 15. Last time I was warned that the police might send out thugs to harass me if I spoke out against them. Well they did even better than that, within 24 hours three of their vehicles were all within a stone's throw of my house. I sent all of you Council Members a picture of it by e-mail with the details and told you what happened and you did not even acknowledge me.

I wanted to take more pictures but I did not dare because the sun was out and my shiny camera might be considered a weapon and I might get shot to death. My son had no criminal record prior his incarceration, nor did he have one after his release. But like I said before, after they shoot them, the statement is always "they had a criminal record." Even if this record occurred years ago and they have paid their debt to society, it's as if it still justifies their death.

The Police Department wonders why so many cops are being attacked and they have to kill them? It is really a no brainer. They are the attackers, they are the aggressors. I have witnessed how they handle themselves with my own eyes. After they kill, all they have to say is that they were being attacked and they feared for their lives, and they get away with it. I bet they even practice saying it in their sleep.

We are told my son was wielding a knife and supposedly struggled with the police. If this is true why aren't there any bruises on his body except for the handcuffs that they placed on him after he had mortally wounded him and he fell to the ground? If he was so close to them why aren't there any powder burn marks on his clothes or body? The Chief of police says that struggled with my son. Well I say they killed my son in cold blood and I wasn't there, neither was the Police Chief. But there were people there that saw it and now I really know first-hand why they fear the police. The officer/officers that killed him know that they lied and the witnesses that saw them know that they lied but they will keep quiet because they are afraid so the police will always get away with it.

The investigation that followed my son's death was a laugh. They claimed that they interviewed me when I was told that my son had been killed and I was blubbering like a fool and that there would be no further interview. I was also told that I could not have my son's silver skull buckle when I went to get his belongings because it had been shattered by a bullet-and they lied about that. When I told the Detective that I knew it hadn't been shattered, she changed her story and said it was evidence. I have to wonder about that evidence. Evidence of what? That they aimed for the skull and hit it? God knows, they had enough time to aim very well.

I asked her how long it would be before they would release the buckle and she said many years down the road, maybe never. She was very rude, insensitive and inconsiderate to me and people like me, pay her wages. But then maybe she just considers me human waste also for having a son like my Len.

In conclusion, I would like to say that they don't have to send any more police cars to my house. I get the message, I know, that you can not only find a reason to kill me but you can justify it and you can also go on Facebook and boast about it and get away with it.

Union starts fundraising website for ex-APD officers charged with murder

Updated: 09/11/2015 10:10 PM | Created: 09/11/2015 9:19 PM By: Kasla Gregorczyk, KOB Eyewitness News 4

The Albuquerque Police Officers Association is standing behind former officers Keith Sandy and Dominique Perez as they head to trial. The union created a website where the public can make donations to the two ex-officers after inquiries of how to donate came pouring in DefendThisLine.com.

"These aren't just police officers, they're fathers. We've got one that's a distinguished veteran, (distinguished? and thus to be above the law?) we have Keith Sandy with a legacy (legacy?) of law enforcement in his family," said Shaun Willoughby, vice president of the Albuquerque Police Officers Association. DefendThisLine.com also details Perez and Sandy's stories and the case.

"It's an educational (propaganda) website, it will give you some pictures, some history," Willoughby said. The union vice president says the site was something people were asking for. "How do we help, how do we donate? (Really?)

There really wasn't a central location, so we're fortunate that this website gives us a central location," he said. This website has no goal or specific fundraising amount it is trying to reach.

"They spent over $100,000 each just to get through the preliminary hearing and they probably have $250,000-300,000 each going forward into trial," Willoughby said. The money being raised is also for their home lives. "Just because they wear a uniform doesn't mean they don't have families and that they don't need our help. So we are begging everybody to please help these officers through this time," Willoughby said.

The union is also putting a special call out to law enforcement. "If every officer in the nation were to donate just $1, it would dramatically impact their ability to defend themselves in their criminal trial," Willoughby said.

They also say that although DefendThisLine.com is currently up for Sandy and Perez, they plan to keep it running for any officers that may need assistance in the future.

ONCE A LIAR-ALWAYS A LIAR

"When I leave I will leave not asking for anything from anybody"-yet another lie told by Valentino. Once a liar-always a liar and yet it took three meetings for the embarrassing APS Board members to be shamed into finally saying no more. This disgraceful man deserved only what he had earned thus far-not $80K more.

WINTER WAS COMPLICIT

What's being ignored by the media is that another Governor Martinez's puppet- Brad Winter still was there during this transition period to Valentino and likely knew all of it and said nothing. This told all that he was no better than Valentino. Brad likely worked with his puppet-master Guv Martinez to have UNMH fire Kathy Korte and get the Guv to help defeat her in her re-election bid.

It was likely Brad who recommended yet another attempted cover-up of APS corruption and getting rid of Moya. Also that the Board President Don Duran's daughter be hired buy his support. Also, why was the women from the search firm who "found" Valentino even hired? Why doesn't the media ask Brad what he knew/did while there during this transition period? Is this PhD elitist just a Teflon sacred cow here?

What about the Guv's puppets on the Journal's Editorial Board who recommended that Martinez be kept on? They are part of the problem-embrace the culture of corruption here including APD's and Berry's.

TAX WASTING –UNJUSTIFIED SPECIAL SCHOOL ELECTIONS

All saw the low voting numbers by a letter writer in the Journal letter today. For years, I have advocated moving the unjustified (after women were given the right to vote in all elections 100 years ago) special tax wasting APS elections to the fall and held in conjunction with regular elections. There would be far better than the 4% turnouts. APS's leadership and the Board preferred these low turnouts-tax wastes.

Brooks ignored my repeated appeals as did Winter and Valentino. And yet Brad wants to be re-elected to the Council this fall. Are those in District 4 blind to all this in APS and his loyalty to Berry and Guv Martinez? Appears so.

APS superintendent resigns, will receive $80K settlement plus salary through Oct.

Updated: 08/31/2015 10:43 AM | Created: 08/27/2015 7:00 AM By: Elizabeth Reed, KOB.com

The Albuquerque Public Schools Board of Education voted to accept Superintendent Dr. Luis Valentino's voluntary resignation Monday. According to the voluntary resignation and settlement agreement signed by Valentino and the board, Valentino will receive a lump sum and sum-certain payment of $80,000 plus his full salary and benefits according to the terms stated in his contract through Oct. 1, 2015--around $120,000 in total. Valentino is solely responsible for the payment of all taxes owed on the settlement, if any.

View: Valentino Resignation and Settlement Agreement

"Given the parties' differing views of the current incidents and challenges in the district, and believing they have fundamental differences regarding the future of the district, an agreement has been reached which allows Dr. Valentino the ability to pursue other career interests and permits the board to hire another superintendent," school board member David Percy read the board's statement during the meeting.

The board announced Raquel Reedy will now serve as acting superintendent while the district searches for a new leader. Reedy currently serves as the associate superintendent for elementary education. Valentino started the job in July after an eight-month, nationwide search following the abrupt resignation of former Superintendent Winston Brooks last August. Valentino had a three-year, $240,000 contract.

Read: Luis Valentino's Contract "When I leave I will leave not asking for anything from anybody," Valentino said at a news conference in May. "I believe that my work will demonstrate that I'll deserve whatever I've gotten to that point."

VALENTINO CAUGHT UP IN HIRING CONTROVERSY

Thousands of Albuquerque residents signed a petition demanding the board fire Valentino following reports that he ignored warnings about his deputy superintendent from the district's own human resources department. Former deputy superintendent Jason Martinez faces six child sex abuse charges in Colorado and did not complete a required APS background check before his resignation on Aug. 20. He was arrested in Denver Wednesday for violating the terms of his release on bond. Valentino has insisted he didn't know about Martinez's charges. He also maintained that the district's human resources department did not warn him multiple times that Martinez had not completed his background check. Martinez was brought in by Valentino in June. He had previously worked for Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, a publishing house, as well as in an instruction and technology administrator capacity at Denver Public Schools. Martinez also got caught up in an exchange between Valentino and APS chief financial officer Don Moya over an RFP intended to assess the district's information technology systems that were offered to a disgraced former DPS employee he had previously worked with in Denver. Moya was placed on administrative leave Aug. 7 after he was accidentally sent a message by Valentino saying Valentino was "going to go after" Moya for having too much say in the district's finances. Moya filed a whistleblower lawsuit against Valentino, the APS School Board and Public Education Department Secretary Hanna Skandera last Monday, claiming they violated the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act and committed civil conspiracy.

APS SUPERINTENDENT WOES

Valentino's resignation marks the second APS superintendent in a year to leave following controversy. Last year, former Superintendent Winston Brooks received a $350,000 payout for leaving the district, and the reasons for his resignation still remain unclear. KOB and the Albuquerque Journal have both sued APS to access records connected to Brooks's resignation. Valentino told KOB last week he did not think he would lose his job and said he did not plan to resign.

GROUPS REACT TO RESIGNATION

The Albuquerque Teachers Federation released the following statement after the announcement of Valentino's resignation: "This has been a difficult time for APS. Public trust has been eroded. The Board of Education and Dr. Valentino have reached a mutual agreement on his voluntary resignation. APS employees are ready to move forward." "Serious issues remain that are affecting APS students and teachers. We expect Acting Superintendent Raquel Reedy to direct her attention to these issues without delay. We stand ready to meet with Acting Superintendent Reedy to formulate a plan to address these serious concerns, such as, superfluous District-mandated testing; unnecessary paperwork requirements; the dysfunctional high school schedule; and others. Acting Superintendent Reedy should lead the District out of the recent crisis by focusing on the classroom, and take immediate steps to support educators who do the real work with our students."

COUNCILORS

Bcc to others not shown

BLESSING HISTORICAL REVISIONISM BY GARDUNO AND HIS P.C. CROWD

It's sad but not surprising that you accepted the disingenuous apology made by your President last night who said when calling three councilors cowards that it wasn't his intent to offend these councilors. Really Rey? It was yet another lie told them like the one Rey told me saying that he would permit me to show the American flag that I served under for 22 years upside down as an approved sign of distress.

I guess Councilor Lewis felt it was politically expedient to cancel his well justified censor of Garduno allegedly in the interest of compromise. What is disturbing is that you nine now are willing to consider a revised version of his resolution and still proclaim a Indigenous Peoples Day knowing full well that our tribes are not indigenous as I and other letter writers pointed out. You saw the October 11 letter (again attached) saying rightly that this historical revisionist effort was driven by hate!

You saw today's letter in the Journal shown again below. Our American Indian tribes are NOT indigenous to this land and any future day honoring them should be American Indian Day and not on Columbus Day.

Native Indians not indigenous

IN THE Oct. 9 article about proclaiming the second Monday in October as Indigenous Peoples' Day ("Add Indigenous Peoples' Day to your calendar?"), the City Council is justifying it with a blind prejudiced eye. The design of the proclamation on Columbus Day is not by chance. It is to select a day celebrated by an explorer that opened genocide to the Native Americans, according to the article. The irony is that to recognize the Indians' persecution and genocide is to forget or ignore that there were many Indian tribes in north America that preyed upon other Indian tribes. Delaware, Shawnee and other Indian tribes fought both French and British armies, as well as other Indian tribes, during the French and Indian War. The most well-known Indians that attacked other Indian tribes and took slaves were collectively known as Apache. They were more nomadic and preyed on other Indian tribes before the white settler and soldier ever arrived. Additionally, there were tribes in northern U.S. and Canada that warred against other tribes. Indigenous is defined as originating in a region. I don't think there's anyone that believes that the American Indian grew out of the American soil. They were migrants from the Aleutian peninsula, the same migration that brought the white European settlers to this land. So my point is that, in order to recognize Indigenous Peoples' Day under the definitions of the City Council, it must exclude Native tribes that also participated in genocide and slavery. So do we only proclaim the day for the rest of the Indians? Columbus no more started genocide or Indian slavery any more than any other European explorer. And the Native Indian is no more "indigenous" to North America than the potato. DARRYL RICE Albuquerque

AVOIDING THE ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM-APD'S BLATANT DEFIANCE OF THE IPRA WITH YOUR BLESSING-WHY THERE WILL NEVER BE ANY REAL APD REFORM HERE

You saw my October 1 NM IPRA request to Chief Eden and repeated follow-ups for the videos of the latest APD shooting. During the Q&A you were again afraid to ask the Chief why he continues to not comply with my and IPRA requests of others as if this blatant non-compliance is irrelevant.

The fact is that the only video (likely inadvertently) released showing an actual shooting was the single helmet recording of Boyd's and Perez's murder of James Boyd. No videos before-and none since released by APD and you apparently don't care.

The ABQ Free Press, Eye on Albuquerque, Joe Monahan and other non Berry controlled news outlets spoke about the reform actions needed and the first starts with cleaning house in APD of its corrupt leadership.

Unlike any of you, I took the time to review the resumes of the over 40 other applicants from throughout the US for the Chief's job and many were eye-watering-had outstanding qualifications. But Berry didn't want anyone qualified but instead chose Eden who never met the City posted qualifications for the job but had a disgraceful record working for the Governor who was likely happy to get rid of him.

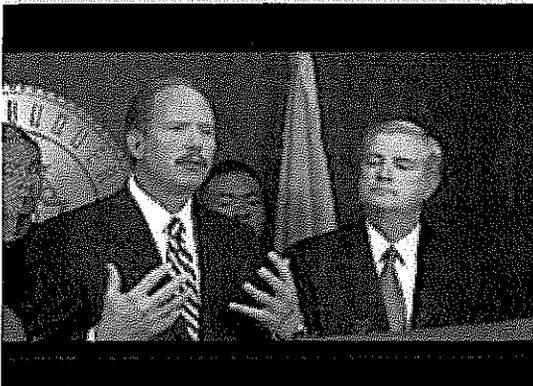

Then to do Eden's work for him Perry brought in Schultz's former SWAT/Death Squad Commander Bob Huntsman.

The low voter turnout in this past and the earlier elections is an indication that many here have given up on the elected and appointed leadership of this city realizing the culture of corruption will always be a way of life here. Joe Monahan today in his posting tells it like it is. He says rightly that you nine are part of the problem.

The Great Escape: Mayor Berry Goes Blameless As APD Problems Continue With No End In Sight: Officer Shortages, Low Response Times And Soaring Property Crimes; Our Silent City

Berry & Chief Eden

Imagine if someone put up half a million dollars in negative TV ads, calling ABQ Mayor Richard Berry to account for this collapse in the fight against crime. Do you think he would reach even 40% approval? Take a look:

The average response time to the most serious 911 calls has slowed from 8 minutes and 56 seconds in the 2010 fiscal year to 10 minutes and 43 seconds in the 2015 fiscal year, which ended in June. In that same time, the number of Priority 1 calls

Albuquerque police handled went from 53,000 to about 69,000, according to police records. In 2010, there were 30,663 violent and property crimes in Albuquerque. In 2014, there were 35,371, according to FBI statistics. While APD is losing officers and trying to recruit new ones, the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office is close to fully staffed.

And then there's the tens of millions of dollars in lawsuit settlements because of police misconduct. That's on top of the Dept. of Justice having to come in here and reform the APD at an additional cost of millions.

Folks, this is not a partisan position. This is an utter lack of accountability in which the City Council and the conservative citadels of power--the Chamber of Commerce, the Economic Forum, NAIQP and the newspaper--share the blame as well as the Republican Mayor who has been at the helm since December 2009 and who now fully owns this mess.

ABQ's unsafe climate and reputation for crime is killing business development and making increasing swaths of city acreage unattractive for everyday living.

The solutions are out there: Replace the APD command structure that has presided over this disaster, bring in a new first-class police chief from out of town, double or triple our cadet classes and if need be double or triple the budget to do it, pay our police officers among the best in the nation and demand the best cadet candidates and restore community policing in high crime areas.

We won't belabor the point but if this town faced the crime crisis it has today when Democrat Marty Chavez was Mayor they would have strung him up in Old Town Plaza and left him to swing in the wind. Until you hear cries of pain from Berry's office, what you see is what you get.

Speculation that Mayor Berry will seek the '18 GOP gubernatorial nomination in the face of his administration's failure in the public safety arena as demonstrated by the inarguable facts noted above is nothing short of incredulous. It's almost as incredible as the police chief telling us that the shortage of police officers will get even worse.

For whatever reasons, ABQ is demanding much less of its leadership and it's getting less. No wonder the gun shops here are doing land office business.

PHONY OUTREACH MEETINGS-MERE PR/DAMAGE CONTROL STUNTS

All we see now are these well controlled outreach-collaborative meetings claiming you nine and the others enablers downtown really care. The next PMR Inc. $4.5+ million monitoring team's "dog and pony" show will be sponsored by the good Dianne Gibson at Congregation Albert on November 5 at 6 PM for former cop Dr. James Ginger's to "hear from the community."

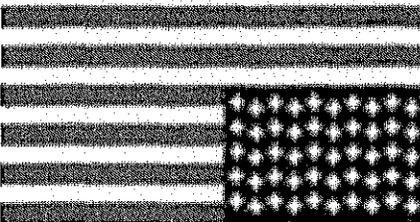

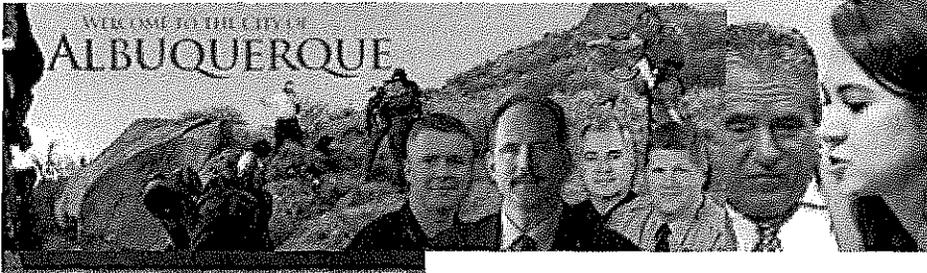

Apparently our community includes US attorney for NM Damon Martinez who sent his US Marshals out to threaten Tony Pirard the critic of the toothless reform agreement, the Mayor's personal attorney Jessica Hernandez, Chief Eden, Deputy Chief Huntsman and APOA President Stephanie Lopez all there to likely give their views-provide answers that Ginger can't come up with. This is because he really is uninterested if not clueless about the real reform solutions here.

Likely Eden and Perry the latter who has been compared to Al Capone will have some undercover APD officers there as well. Wouldn't it be nice if AG Loretta Lynch showed up from Washington D.C. but based on her last two public pronouncements, we know whose side she is on.

Attacks on Columbus driven by hate

By Jackie De La Porte / Albuquerque Resident Sunday, October 11th, 2015 at 12:02am

History is history and Christopher Columbus ushered in the European "Age of Discovery" in 1492. Although there may have been many forays by previous explorers, Asians, Vikings, etc., into what is now known as the Americas; it was following Christopher Columbus' exploration into the "New World" which, yes, was inhabited by what we call indigenous people, that expanded worldwide European civilization. Discovering the discovered is still discovery.

There has been a movement afoot for some time (since 1954) to eliminate Columbus Day (first celebrated in 1938) as a national holiday. It has become fashionable for some people, through ignorance of history and the influence of revisionists' historic propaganda to bash Christopher Columbus and his accomplishments. What this reveals, in fact, is a hidden agenda to express hatred of the Italian-American and/or Hispanic people in a socially acceptable manner.

The Spanish brought with them horses, cattle, sheep, cats and other animals, and other types of agriculture that had never been seen here before. Plus the wheel, ironwork tools, a rule of equality under the law and a unifying language, among many other things. They brought Western Civilization to the New World. This is significant! Something to celebrate, not try to erase.

Outside groups have strived repeatedly and relentlessly to eradicate the honoring of Columbus and his substantial contributions to world history. Vilifying Spain, its people and the Roman Catholic Church does not change the fact that his achievements were amazing. Was he a perfect man, no, but who is?

This mariner's audacity, perseverance, constancy, vision, and competence in his profession in confronting uncharted seas is worthy of extreme honor.

Columbus Day is a federal and a state holiday. However, here at Albuquerque Public Schools, it was obliquely eliminated in favor of nothing. (Actually, now simply a four day "Fall Holiday" weekend).

On Wednesday the Albuquerque City Council voted to substitute Columbus Day for Indigenous People Day. Erasing history? How sad. Perhaps Indigenous Day is a good idea, but let us not be deceived that it must be on October 12 and no other.

Why insist on this day when there are so many other days from which to choose? It does not honorably serve one to diminish another. This movement to eliminate a day set aside to honor Christopher Columbus, who sailing west to encounter Asia, first stumbled across the Americas on Oct. 12, 1492 – he made four trips to the New World, changing the history of the world for all time – should not continue. Let us not be a party to revisionist hate.

ART

Thanks-but only Dianne Gibson gets it-is finally fed up with the BS-lies Perry, Hernandez and APD put out.

The blame falls directly on the shoulders of our corrupt-seemingly Teflon Mayor Berry who unlike other US city mayors, refuses to come to council meetings to face the people. Both Greenwood and Ginger are also cowards-only willing to speak separately with them in a rolling quorum-a blatant violation of the Open Meetings Act. The six Councilors who met with them and Berry's attorney Hernandez are disgraceful.

Schultz was the one who had Berry "grease" the $70,000 no bid contract with Greenwood and the former disgraceful Cincinnati police Chief Streicher knowing he would give him almost $600,000 later while most except Garduno and Lewis on Council rolled over for that scam-taxpayer rip-off-were cowards.

Berry and Perry also hired the Journal editor's attorney brother to "help" the two Cincinnati mercenaries negotiate with the DOJ in a nice little pay to play to reward the editor's editorial board and reporters for never blaming him for any of this. Notice Dan McKay never mentioned in the Journal today Councilor Gibson's anger last night with Perry's lying about the unjustified retention payments to Eden's senior command staff.

Also don't give Klarissa Pena credit she doesn't deserve as she is afraid to challenge Berry. Unless she has a learning disability Klarissa has been there long enough to figure out what's going on. Her past record when serving on the EPC was just as bad-she came never prepared. She was also the one councilor who personally benefited from the Mayor's initiative to reduce/suspend impact fees-so she owes him.

I guess instead of supporting her constituent Louie Tafoya last night, Klarissa patted herself on the back for nominating Louie for an award for serving both in the military and as a community leader as if that made up for ignoring his opposition to ART and other misconduct by the city. Louie is a class act and won't compromise his integrity for this meaningless award that he didn't even show up to receive.

You also shouldn't feel sorry for Stephanie Lopez as she and her equally corrupt (us against them-all honest cops who talk are "rats") VP Willoughby and their killers on their APOA Board are all part of the problem.

The blame should not only fall on our elected officials but those appointed like Perry, Hernandez,

M006956

Eden, Huntsman and those in the procurement office who are equally to blame. As my earlier e-mail said, this is the fifth most corrupt state in the nation and our City is likely the most corrupt one nationwide.

Notice the four Republicans fell in line by voting against decriminalizing the small amounts of marijuana possession. Berry is viewing all of these four Republican sycophants of his as fools.

Notice once again, that the Council refused to put the public speakers' presentations put on the overhead projector on GOV-TV in a blatant act of censorship. They only put on GOV-TV the presentations of the city people and other friendlies/corruption supporters. Thank the Council's equally corrupt Jon Zaman for this.

Finally, are you really surprised with the sudden retirement of K-9 officer and his vicious dog on the scene of APD's murder of James Boyd? Now the dog who Boyd only tried to defend himself against with his small knives has to be euthanized as he is vicious.

This K-9 officer trained by then Schultz's SWAT/K-9 Commander-now Eden's disgraceful deputy Bob Huntsman apparently assumed charge of the killing of Boyd. This was because Eden was MIA and there also wasn't even one senior command staff officer-Lieutenant, Major, Deputy or other on the scene there.

It was getting dark and all 40+ cops wanted to get home to their families so Boyd was killed. The now retired K-9 officer then would lie on the stand in the preliminary hearing saying the APD shooters Sandy and Perez saved his life. But as you know, APD officers are trained to lie. More on this later.

Thanks Art for your good work

Subject: Re: Tonight's Council meeting

The legislators down there, with only a couple of exceptions here and there, get hustled constantly. Councilman Garduño is the only city councilor (also Lewis) who refused to fall for either of the two major rip-off contracts related to Justice, the "lead negotiator" in the APD/DOJ settlement agreement (Scott Greenwood) and the outrageous "Independent Monitor" bamboozle (James Ginger). These antics could serve as a learning lesson for the newer members of the Albuquerque City Council, Diane Gibson and Klarissa Peña; the other city councilors in my opinion really have no excuse....

I won't take sides in the internal battles going on within our municipal government except to state: I believe Stephanie Lopez was put in a very difficult situation and stood up well all things considered. The argument could be made, of course, that the $200,000.00 misappropriated for upper management Police Dept. personnel is only a fraction of what Greenwood got away with and everyone wants a piece of the pie.

Look - it's time to stop blaming police for everything and time to put the responsibility and the accountability where it logically belongs. Collectively our elected officials in Albuquerque government have failed the entire city terribly.

Subject: Tonight's Council meeting- It's time to copy Councilor Gibson and stop pandering to the insulting APOA and Perry

Councilor

I hope you read this on your break. I admire Councilor Gibson for daring to tell the truth about the unjustified pay raises/retention bonuses to Eden's Command staff that the red faced (intoxicated?) Perry and his ally (also red faced) Don Harris tried to justify with just their typical B.S.. Councilor Pena's uninformed defense of the retention bonuses was also embarrassing as were APOA President Stephanie Lopez comments. Not one honest officer respects Lopez knowing that she was charged with misconduct by the NM Police Academy Board. Stephanie, Shaun Willoughby and those on the APOA Board-many killers of citizens are disgraces to all of the honest rank and file officers. Yet with the exception of Councilor Garduno, you other five remained quiet on this retention pay scam on taxpayers-like cowards afraid to represent we the people. Honest cops would tell you that APD could get rid of most on the Command staff beginning with Eden and APD would be better off. These overpaid senior Command officers caused the problem and not part of the solution. Tony Pirard also told you cowards tonight what you didn't want to hear about other "inconvenient truths" about APD, about the DOJ and about the two killer cops-Perez and Sandy that you choose to ignore-want to sweep under the rug. The talk by Louie Tafoya was also on point. It's a sad commentary on how bad things have become here. I wonder how Berry's/Eden's/Perry's "boy" Dan McKay will spin this in tomorrow's Journal and whether others in the media will report it.

Dr. Joe and others in WSCONA

Reference my earlier recommended discussion subjects for the meeting tonight-sent to you today.

You might also find time tonight to also discuss something equally as important as APD manning levels-the Council's future selection of the next Executive Director for the new Police Oversight Agency.

Apparently the majority on the POB named as its first choice-a clueless/inexperienced former Milwaukee cop Ed Harness as discussed below. APD wants one of their own in the job someone who will continue to ignore their bad IA investigations and cover-ups. Robin Hammer was bad enough but now a former cop? If you are not concerned with this selection-you should be.

KOB had a great story about "boomerang thugs" that gave Eden, Huntsman, BCSO Sheriff Manny Gonzalez (who doesn't want body recorders for his deputies) and others some positive publicity for just one night answering KOB phones.

KOB or APD should have then put the photos of these characters in the Journal but they didn't do so forcing citizens to go to the KOB website. It seemed to be just a half-hearted one time PR effort.

Also not surprising was that no APD videos were made or released showing that Rafael Molina killed by APD officers Friday actually had a gun and aimed it at APD officers. He was shot in the back.

As with APD's murder of Mary Hawkes, where no recordings were made by scumbag cop Jeremy Dear and his partner (APD spokesman) Tanner Tixier, likely Dear put a throw down gun next to the body. Likely the same was true to justify Molina's killing

Note Joline Gutierrez-Krueger's front page article in the Journal today alleging APD and their medical investigator accomplice did a "cursory, superficial and incomplete investigation" alleging that respected attorney Mary Han committed suicide.

Some tell me Mary had information of APD's and other high ranking officials' involvement with a prostitution ring and were involved in some or all of the west side mesa killings of women-so she had to be silenced and her house searched by APD for this incriminating information.

We have more problems than possible APD manpower shortages that you assume exist but not yet proven.

The honest cops in APD are as disgusted as are we. Isn't it time for WSCONA to show up to Council meetings?

Cheers

Subject: The unqualified former Milwaukee cop Edward Harness is your first choice to be the next Executive Director of the Oversight Agency. What's the message that it sends to the people if the Councilors approve him?

TO: POB Members

Info to Councilors, media and others not shown

Reference my earlier e-mail shown below that expected you to respect the people and select the only candidate that was truly qualified to serve as the next Executive Director-Jay Rowland. You interviewed the five on July 29 and after conferring for hours should have announced your ranking then. You did not. The public had lost confidence in the oversight process as only attorney Alan Wagman spoke on July 29.

Rather than making your choice(s) on the 29th many believe you instead chose to ask APD, those Councilors who wanted to keep the oversight process a sham, the City's dictatorial Mayor and CAO just who they wanted. Of course these who wanted no real reform wanted a former cop even though Harness was completely unqualified for the job-had absolutely no related experience.

You then held another unnecessary POB meeting last night where not even one citizen was willing to speak to you knowing it would be a waste of time. This says that you have lost our confidence. Your again went again into secret executive session/discussions.

You came out incredulously saying that former Milwaukee cop Edward Harness was your first choice followed by very experienced but likely perceived feared by APD Jay Rowland and made the also unqualified Edna Sprague your third choice. Those close to her says she has blessed everything cops do.

After once again reviewing Harness's responses to you last week it was again clear he had no clue of the problems with the oversight old process but spoke only in generalities trying to cover up his lack of qualifications for the job. Does working for the Better Business Bureau show the proper investigative experience? Neither Ed nor the others were ever asked what they thought was wrong with the old and current oversight process some of which the knowledgeable Jay Rowland discussed in detail without being asked.

Both the DOJ and Judge Brack ignored some of the required changes documented in APD Forward's filed Amicus Curiae last January-first page of it is attached. Unlike Jay Rowland, neither Harness nor the other three ever discussed what should be the limitations of the 1967 "Garrity vs. Supreme Court" ruling that the DOJ opined to the Seattle Mayor but was ignored by the DOJ here. See page 1 of that opinion-attached. Nor did Ed or the other three discuss the police officers' "qualified immunity" that essentially gives them the benefit of doubt in any of their killings.

Harness restated his belief that a cop's life is more important than that of the average citizen-something it is NOT. Do you agree with that belief? This essentially gives cops the right to kill using the bogus excuse that they "felt threatened." Look at these same lies being told in court this week to try to justify Sandy's and Perez's murder of James Boyd.

Ed apparently never knew that under the current changed Ordinance that the Director and the POB cannot dictate discipline but that the APD Chief can ignore your recommendations offering up only some ridiculous excuses.

I guess Ed's only claim to fame was his alleged outreach ability-trade shows, police work with his local village association and his teaching of good financial practices to the poor. He has no investigative experience other than responding to Better Business Bureau (BBB) complaints.

We already have one pro bad APD cop hired as a police oversight investigator while the two others were former employees of Target and Lowe's and have none. Robin Hammer who was sued for judicial misconduct while working for the DA was a bad enough selection by the Mayor (who she worked for) and Council and now you want a former out of town clueless cop Harness to replace her?

The Councilors likely bothered to read the resumes of those many extremely qualified applicants for the APD Chief job before blessing the incompetent bureaucrat Eden. Likely the Councilors also never read the resumes of the five applicants for this Executive Director position-resumes we were not allowed to see for some unknown reason.

Realizing that this is a dictatorship here with the Councilors choosing to abdicate its role as an integral part of our government, the nine likely never reviewed the GOV-TV interviews with the five (handpicked by who?) candidates to see how they responded to the often too broad questions posed them by you on the 29th.

Choosing the clearly unqualified Edward Harness to be your first choice was disappointing to say the least. If this former cop is chosen, the oversight process will still be toothless-yet another example of disrespect shown to us citizens-the real stakeholders who want real reform-not the ones the Mayor chooses.

Time to rethink your choice.

TO: The Honorable Police Oversight Board Members

Info to City Councilors and Bcc to others

After viewing your meeting on GOV-TV last night that included interviews of five candidates for the "Executive Director of POA, the following are some of my observations/questions:

1. I assume that since current interim Executive Director Ms. Hammer was not interviewed, she did not apply for this POA Executive Director position or being considered as a sixth candidate
2. The talk by attorney Alan Wagman was right on target saying essentially that this selection is critically important-that we don't need more of the same (translated-not another Robin Hammer)
3. This position never required that it be an attorney when Ms. Hammer was hired for the IRO job since an attorney is already assigned to the IRO-yet all were attorneys.
4. Who chose these five candidates who you interviewed and more importantly who decided that you had to send three of the five interviewed to the Council to pick one? Only one stood out!
5. You saw their resumes-something that should have also been posted on the website. One candidate-a former Colorado sheriff's deputy had conflicting-erroneous information on his resume
6. Two of the applicants were former law enforcement/police officers both of whom had beliefs like Ms. Hammer.

Your selection decision is easy.

The only candidate that stood head and shoulders above the other four was former IRO during 2002-2007 Jay Rowland.

Based on his demonstrated knowledge of this job and expected respect by both the many APD honest police officers and the people, only Jay should be nominated to the City Council.

The only other even remotely credible candidate of the other four interviewed was Edna Sprague.

After Edna has the opportunity to review all of the GOV-TV interviews today, she too would likely believe that Jay would be the right choice.

The Honorable Michael McGinn

City of Seattle
600 4th Avenue, 7th Floor
Seattle, WA 98124-4749

Re: United States' Investigation of the Seattle Police Department – Garrity Protections

Dear Mayor McGinn:

On March 31, 2011, the Civil Rights Division and the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington initiated an investigation of the Seattle Police Department ("SPD"), pursuant to the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, 42 U.S.C. § 14141, as well as the anti-discrimination provisions of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, 42 U.S.C. § 3789d, and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000d.

At the beginning of our investigation, we committed to providing SPD with real time technical assistance to enhance SPD practices and procedures, and to ensure compliance with constitutional rights. During our meetings with Chief Diaz and the SPD command staff in May 2011 and September 2011, we advised that, if appropriate, we would provide in writing specific recommendations prior to completion of our investigation. In this letter, we convey our recommendations regarding SPD's practices relating to an officer's protections against self-incrimination pursuant to Garrity v. New Jersey, 385 U.S. 493 (1967).

Garrity provides important and fundamental protections for police officers, but its protections are limited. Our investigation has shown that SPD attempts to apply Garrity to all use of force and police involved shooting incidents. SPD's inappropriate blanket invocation of Garrity may result in the exclusion of important evidence from an investigation. Moreover, SPD's failure to shield criminal investigators from Garrity materials could taint and render unusable other critical evidence. These practices compromise both SPD's ability to supervise officers' use of force, and its ability to fully and efficiently conduct criminal and administrative investigations. Put simply: This practice makes it too difficult to quickly exonerate officers who have followed policy and to properly discipline officers who have not. Further, these practices compromise the ability of prosecutors or other outside agencies to adequately assess incidents and to hold officers accountable for their actions. The net effect of these consequences is diminished public trust in SPD.

Hello -

I am writing to you because I have been in discussion with community members and organizations regarding an upcoming exhibition that at the UNM Art Museum "Necessary Force: Art in the Police State" (see description below). I am organizing educational programming that will invite a diverse range of topics to be discussed and we would like to include a voice that represents how local law enforcement is working with the ABQ community. Is there anybody that I can meet with regarding this? I want to explain the exhibition in further detail and also talk about programming.

The bridge between the community and law enforcement is an important one - and I feel like the work you are doing is crucial to building solutions.

Good morning,

As requested by Leonard Waites at the POB meeting on October 15, 2015, attached are my minutes from the meeting with Cameron McElhiney of NACOLE (Indianapolis). The meeting was held at NACOLE 2015 in Riverside on Wednesday, October 7, 2015. If you have questions, please feel to contact our office.

Thank you.

Minutes of Meeting with Cameron McElhiney of NACOLE, Edward Harness, CPOA Executive Director and Michelle Contreras, Senior Administrative Assistant

Date of Meeting: October 7, 2015

Location of Meeting: NACOLE 2015, Riverside, CA

Re: NACOLE 2016, Albuquerque, New Mexico

1. NACOLE has a contract in place with the Doubletree Hotel, which will be the main hotel for the conference. The Hyatt will be the overflow hotel but there no contract in place yet. I also recommended Hotel Andaluz, 125 Second St. NW.
2. NACOLE has a contract in place with the Albuquerque Convention Center.
3. Cameron recommended that the Scholarship dinner be held at the El Pinto restaurant. As committees are formed, other venues can be considered.
4. For the Sankov Reception, Cameron suggested the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center. She says this venue would be good to highlight the important cultural aspect of Albuquerque.
5. If venues such as the El Pinto and the Pueblo Cultural Center are used, transportation will need to be provided. We discussed the possibility of finding sponsorships in order to pull off the transportation and facility costs. TO: COUNCILORS

(info to those shown and not shown)

YOUR DISRESPECT FOR US AND THE CITY'S DISRESPECT SHOWN TO COUNCILOR GIBSON

Last night during the first 2 ½ hours, you tolerated the idiot treatment given to Councilor Gibson by Berry's disgraceful personal (not our City) attorney Jessica Hernandez and by CAO Perry trying to justify giving pay increases to the already overpaid Command staff while denying it to the rank and file.

Cops on the beat who talk to me knowing I would not reveal who they are, have told me what is really needed in APD is for all of the Command staff to retire or be fired-not have their already high pay raised. The presence of the disgraceful Eden and his fellow contemptuous of you command staff thugs in the back of the room was nothing but pure intimidation of you

After waiting 3 ½ hours along with others who signed up to speak last night (many of whom left in disgust including POB chairman Leonard Waites), I stayed.

Had we been given more than 2 minutes, all would have condemned the over 2 ½ hours you wasted on far too many long proclamations, the Q&A and considering Councilor Harris' bill before the public comment period. During the 2 ½ hours before you took your dinner break it's clear that you obviously like to hear yourselves talk/pontificate on local issues things that could have been resolved with the administration in non Council meeting communications.

But instead we public speakers were deemed by you to be unimportant much like APS's School Board's blatant disrespect of other citizens over the Valentino affair of which Councilor Brad Winter while still at APS was complicit in what Valentino had done.

One of the questions you chose to never ask of the arrogant Chief Eden was just what specifically were the alleged 3,400 APD calls for service over the past weekend by APD as reported in the September 9 Albuquerque Journal? How many of these were just calls to 911? Did these calls to 911 constitute 90% or more of the calls for service and not actual police responses? Or didn't you care?

The Journal article cited only five incidences over the weekend that APD responded to. Yet fiscally irresponsible Councilor Sanchez who seemingly treats our taxes as nothing more than play or fun money claims in the absence of a long overdue resource allocation study by the Chief says that we ought to increase APD's manpower to possibly as high as 1500 as the Chief wants but can never justify.

THE EYE AND ABQ FREE PRESS

See the September 9 (previously dormant since July 7) Eye on Albuquerque posting "The Thin Blue Line" at <http://eyeonalbuquerque.blogspot.com/>. It properly places the blame for all of the APD problems squarely on the "politicians who have created this mess and have no clue how to fix it."

"Having no clue" was too nice a description for the damned politicians here who do have a clue/know how to fix it but don't have the guts or integrity to do it. You know that this criticism includes you but you choose to be in denial about this "uncomfortable truth." One local journalist properly said you nine-like this Mayor are the worst of any in this city's history. .

Also check out the latest September 9 issue of the ABQ Free Press that includes columns by another disgusted retired cop Dan Klein and articles by Joe Monahan and other writers. This ABQ Press issue (unlike the Berry Journal) speaks the truth about the complicit Berry Journal, Mayor Berry, Governor Martinez and her machine.

It also has articles about APD's former IPRA directed stonewaller and now whistleblower Reynaldo Chavez, the top APD brass worrying that their illegal bonuses are on the front burner and Berry's Convention Center insider the ACRV who has been ripping taxpayers off for years despite their abysmal performance.

Seems like you nine couldn't care less with any of this-nor do the other politicians in NM.

MY AND OTHERS' TALKS MONDAY

Before I spoke, Tony Pirard gave you an earful but you brushed him off as you do with all of us. Tony, like me is far too blunt-won't mince words about his disgust with the culture of corruption here. It extends to US Attorney Damon Martinez and Judge Brack-the reason he was visited twice by Damon's US Marshals for daring to criticize Martinez, Brack and others here.

When I finally spoke, you again showed disrespect to me when my upside down flag-an official US Flag code signal of distress-something that this city is in was put on the overhead projector and again was not shown on GOV-TV as yet another blatant example of censorship. Neither did you show any of the other public speakers' overhead projector presentations on GOV-TV.

In addition to the many earlier e-mails sent you opposing the selection of former cop Ed Harness who was clearly unqualified to be the POB's first choice to be the next POA Executive Director (ED) my talk was again critical of all of the previous foxes (former cops) assigned to guard the hen house.

I expressed my disgust for the POB preference for Harness who as Tony Pirard also said was not only clueless about our city's oversight process but was an embarrassing choice. Ed's only job as a mediator in Milwaukee was in a chump change paying job working for the Better Business Bureau. His only claimed police oversight experience was confined to his local village.

MORE FOXES GUARDING THE HEN HOUSE

After abdicating your responsibility to us when choosing to be MIA in the negotiations with the DOJ, you first blessed the Mayor's hiring of Schultz's Taser buddies former Cincinnati police Chief Tom Streicher whose Department was also a mess and investigated by the DOJ. This was yet another fox guarding the henhouse. You also hired his and Schultz's lying to you attorney buddy Scott Greenwood. .

You also cared little that Judge Brack chose the toothless PMR inc made up mostly of former cops to merely monitor-"audit" APD. Yet even more foxes guarding the hen house. Then-not surprisingly last night you chose yet another former cop/fox Ed Harness to be the new Executive Director of the Police Oversight Agency never really challenging his sweet sounding B.S-eloquently blowing the same smoke at you that he had done earlier to the POB during their interviews with him and the four others.

Your failure to use due diligence in his selection was the very same thing you did when never bothering to check the resume of all 40+ applicants for the APD Chief's job (most with eye-watering qualifications) before you blessed Berry's clearly unqualified Eden.

Many or most of you apparently never bothered to see the POB interviews with the five then candidates for the important ED job and never questioned the lack of experience of Ed Harness before approving him. Another fox guarding the hen house.

After me, Barbara Grothus also told you how you have willingly become part of the problem rather than the solution here but you brushed her off as well. She made the same points as in the Eye posting. You nine, Jessica Hernandez and Perry also gave the idiot treatment to Dianne Goodman regarding a bond question to be put on the ballot.

THE KNOWINGLY CLUELESS-EVEN ARROGANT CITIZENS YOU NAMED TO THE POB INCLUDED ONE CONDESCENDING ELITIST AND TWO FORMER POLICE OFFICERS

Rather than former LAPD police officer Beth Mohr who conducted the POB's interviews and promoted Harness for the job in the press showing up to talk, it was Dr. Moira Amado McCoy. She, like Beth and the others on the POB have never been involved in the old oversight process was the first to speak trying to defend their selection of Harness. You councilors were afraid of appointing knowledgeable people like us to the POB.

In McCoy's presentation, she demonstrated to all that she was an elitist who would repeatedly talk down to you and the rest of us as if we were all idiots-not up to her perceived PhD intellect. She would say that being an attorney was important for the ED although the POB already has an attorney. She incredulously deemed experience here irrelevant but claimed Harness was instead a "transformational leader-a collaborator." She also questioned our allegedly "dichotomous thinking" saying police are not enemies of the people.

She either naively or intentionally ignored the fact that bad-unaccountable APD officers and their leaders do in fact view themselves as enemies of the people. It's "them vs. us" as APOA VP Willoughby reminded the union rank and file in his secret 2013 memo previously sent you.

McCoy would further claim that being a collaborator (even working for the BBB in Milwaukee), rather than having relevant police oversight experience here was very important. (Memo to Maiora-That's NOT what the key job of the ED job is.)

Then it was POB member Joanne Fine who also said that experience here particularly in the past and current oversight process was also not that important. As I said POB President Waites left rather than speak.

Now with Harness, you have three other former cops in the Police Oversight Agency. This includes POB member and another strong Harness advocate former LAPD cop Beth Mohr, POB member Jeff Wilson and even one Executive Director's investigator-a former Belen senior police officer. It's clear where their loyalties lie. You know it but don't care.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR CANDIDATES SPEAK

Candidate and current NM prosecutor Ms Sprague during her talk pointed out that it was vitally important that people know the situation here and also that she is not a former police officer. That was right on.

The most qualified candidate Jay Rowland who was urged by the former IRO Judge Deaton to succeed him years ago proved from his interview with the POB and talk before you that he was the best man for the job. Likely he wasn't the Chief's or Mayor's choice who likely the POB first checked with as Jay was viewed as too knowledgeable-thus too dangerous.

During his talk, Harness claimed that being "empathetic and not intimidated" was his "persona." He then incredulously claimed the toothless settlement agreement between Berry's Cincinnati mercenaries and DOJ signed by Judge Brick was credible.

Ed also talked about APD's "core values" but never mentioned or discussed them. Any core values APD has are a joke-mere propaganda. He said the police nationwide are going through a "paradigm shift." Translated-this means there is now citizen and DOJ pressure to make them accountable, forcing them to wear body cameras and no longer above the law as our police officers have been here for far too long and still are.

While claiming he "empathizes" with police officers, Ed claimed he never said an officer's life was more important than that of a citizen. In fact contrary to his interview with the POB and what's in his resume, this man has shown himself to be dishonest regarding this. He is part of the brotherhood.

Ed showed no understanding that under the new Ordinance that APD Chief Eden still has the final decision in any police officer's punishment and can essentially ignore the POB as Schultz did to the old POC. A citizens' only recourse is to file a civil lawsuit.

I don't know who found Ed Harness in Milwaukee if not APD but it was clear Ed was making chump change working for the BBB there.

It's not clear why there had to be a secret ballot rather than have us see last night just who of you voted for Harness as the first choice. It showed your cowardice. Yet one Councilor claimed your votes would be later revealed.

POB'S VIOLATION OF THE OPEN MEETINGS ACT

Below is an e-mail you received yesterday from Attorney Paul Livingston with his attachment. It demonstrates just how bad this Police Oversight Agency Executive Director selection process was corrupted-but you don't care. It's really the way it is here as corruption is a part of our NM culture and few care while most feel that nothing they do will ever change it..

Disgusted with all of you and Berry's traitors of we the people

Subject: Notice of Violations of NM Open Meetings Act by the CPOA

M006975

Dear City Councilors,

Attached is a letter giving notice of violations of the New Mexico Open Meetings Act by the Citizens' Police Oversight Agency concerning the selection of an Executive Director. As the attorney representing Mark Bralley and Vecinos United, I sought and secured a Writ of Mandamus ordering the Police Oversight Board to hold its selection of an Independent Review Officer "openly and in public in accordance with the mandatory provisions of the New Mexico Open Meetings Act." That was sixteen years ago, in 1999.

Unfortunately, City attorneys and officials are engaging in the same misconduct now with respect to selection of an Executive Director of the new Citizens' Police Oversight Agency. Please review the attached letter, and consider whether the City would be making the same mistake it made 16 years ago and whether the selection of a Director today would be in accordance with law and the rights of the people to know about the operations of their government. Thank you.

Albuquerque City Council
Rey Garduno, City Council President
Albuquerque, New Mexico

Re: Violations of the New Mexico Open Meetings Act, §10-15-1, et seq.

Dear City Councilors:

Sixteen years ago, in 1999, I secured a Writ of Mandamus to ensure the openness of the process used to select the Independent Review Officer for the City's Police Oversight Board. The POB, poorly advised by City attorneys, had been going into closed meetings under the exception for "Limited Personnel Matters" even though the definition of "limited personnel matters" limits the exception to matters concerning current employees. A copy of that writ is attached.

The new Citizens' Police Oversight Agency is now making the same error and holding closed meetings on the selection of an Executive Director. Please consider this a "written notice of the claimed violation to the public body" pursuant to §10-15-3(B) of the Open Meetings Act with respect to the selection of an Executive Director of the CPOA, as follows:

1. On March 12, 2015, at the first meeting of the Citizens Oversight Board, "Mr. Bullock from the City Attorney's Office advised that the Board should go into Executive Session" to discuss the process for selecting the CPOA's Executive Director.

2. At the April meeting of the CPOA the Acting Chair "discussed the search process to select the new Executive Director:

The Board is bound by a Court Order to conduct interviews in an open meeting. The Board will select three names to be sent to the City Council . . . The City Council will make the decision on who becomes the Executive Director.

3. On May 19, 2015, according to the Board's minutes:

Board Member Fine made a motion that the Board meet in Executive Session regarding selection of the Executive Director. Board Member Ring seconded the motion. . . . At 5:42 p.m. the Board met in Executive Session to discuss the process of hiring an Executive Director.

M006977

The Executive Session ended at 7:03 p.m. After Executive Session, Board Member Fine made a motion to note that only personnel matters were discussed during the Executive Session. . . .

4. At the June 11, 2015 meeting of the CPOA, "Board Member Fine made a motion that the Board go into Executive Session. . . . The Board went into Executive Session at 4:34 p.m. The Board reconvened at 7:07 p.m. Acting Chair Mohr stated that the Board discussed select personnel matters and pending litigation."

5. At a special meeting on July 29, 2015, the Board interviewed candidates in public but then went into an Executive Session to discuss personnel matters. When they returned from the Executive Session the Board voted to reserve the Council Chambers for August 4, 2015 in order to rank the Executive Director candidates.

6. Although it is unknown what happened on August 4, there was no public discussion about the candidates for the Executive Director position and it is unknown how and by whom the three ranked candidates were chosen.

7. On August 12, 2015, the regular scheduled August 13 meeting of the CPOA Board was cancelled without any indication of why or by whom it was cancelled.

The Limited Personnel exception (H2) to the New Mexico Open Meetings Act allows closed meetings to discuss personnel actions concerning current employees only. It does not exempt discussions of candidates from open meetings requirements when those candidates are not current employees. Because the Citizens' Police Oversight Agency has improperly met in closed meetings to discuss both the selection process and the selection and ranking of candidates for the Executive Director position any action(s) taken as a result of such meetings should be considered void.

Please consider these matters prior to voting on the selection of the CPOA's Executive Director.

Yours very truly,

/s/ Paul Livingston

Info also to the media, UNM Regents and others-sent to them Bcc

This Phase 1 effort was worst than a "dog and pony show"-as Nora described it while the referenced Phase I report prepared by UNM and those reports that will follow appear to be a waste of $150,000 of our tax dollars. You avoided answering many of my questions in my July 26 e-mail below but merely sent the website reference to the UNM Phase 1 report.

I had asked for minutes of the meetings that would include the names of those attendees but these were never provided. I guess you now need a NM IPRA request to comply.

Therefore IAW the NM IPRA,

1. Request the opportunity to review or provide me with copies of the sign in sheets showing the attendees at these UNM conducted 22 "dialogues" and the names of those others aside from the four UNM folks who also participated in them.
2. Request the opportunity to review the resumes/qualifications of Dr. Guerin and his three likely graduate students, Tonnigan, Minssen and Torres to determine their qualifications to execute these Collaboratives.

I think UNM's Dr. Guerin was also given a contract to study APD's use of body recorders.

I would have thought rather than tasking UNM's Institute for Social Research, those from the Law School would have been more appropriate/knowledgeable in this reform area.

Preferably, honest retired APD officers like those four I mentioned and others who can make this more than just a data gathering effort resulting in no real changes to APD should have been hired as consultant to do this work. Those good cops if employed by us taxpayers would have had the prerequisite expertise to make this a meaningful outreach effort.

I'm sure you are aware of the tax dollars and the time of good volunteers that were wasted on the 2013 police oversight task force whose most critical January recommendations/reform of the citizens' police oversight process were ignored by both Cincinnati consultant Scott Greenwood, the Council but also the DOJ.

UNM's Dr. Bruce Perlman who was never mentioned in the Council's ordinance creating this oversight task force was nevertheless give the bulk of our tax dollars to manage the effort behind the scenes.

I guess some of us who have been on the front lines writing to and meeting with the DOJ, Council and other city leaders and were the ones who ultimately were the ones (along with the national media) who ultimately brought the DOJ here were somehow not deemed to be the "safe" stakeholders.

I note the name of one of your chosen gatekeepers who authored the July 25 e-mail to fellow activist Isle Biel below extended her the invite to participate in this Phase 2 "Collaborative." I guess not inviting me and likely others known to be active in this long APD reform struggle was just an oversight. Informed people are apparently not welcomed.

Understand my issue is not with the good people at UNM given this task but with those in the Mayor's office and the leadership of APD who are perpetuating this charade trying to convince APD really cares what comes out of this effort.

As I said before, they did these Collaboratives in Cincinnati and reform there took seven long years because the collaborative were also likely just a PR effort with resulting recommendations that their police department, assigned DOJ monitor and DOJ investigators ignored.

Those in the media particularly the ones who attended the dialogues have a responsibility to also question this research effort given to UNM. I can recall them only covering one of these "dialogues." Maybe they thought they were also PR efforts by those in the Mayor's office.

They likely saw how the improper no bid contract by Schultz to employer TASER Inc. was covered up in the amended Internal Auditor's report because the Mayor was also involved by "greasing" this $1.9 million contract for Schultz. As I said in previous e-mails, there is NO room for integrity in this Berry administration.

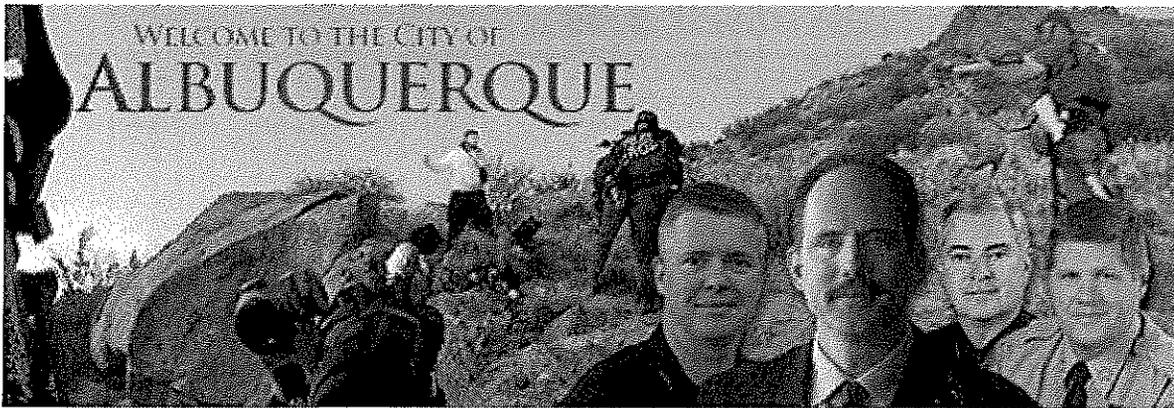

Meanwhile our Mayor remains in hiding, coming out of his cave on the 11th floor only to travel out of the city or to cut ribbons or do other meaningless PR tasks.

I await your reply to my IPRA request

Regards

Silvio

I did a cursory review of the lengthy UNM document posted on the website regarding Phase I effort that allegedly began on October 27, 2014 and lasted until June 6, 2015. This Collaborative study directed by the City Council (who unfortunately thus far has shown no real interest in real reform and involvement in the negotiation process with the DOJ), was seemingly assigned/contracted to the wrong people-your office and to UNM. Much like tasking some unqualified but apparently needing work researchers at UNM to do a study on proper use of APD recorders that apparently has not yet been completed, it is questionable now that the good folks at UNM's Institute of Social Research had any more competence in evaluating just what were the key priorities in police reform are here. Note in the charts in this Phase I report that that police accountability 3.4%, administrative /leadership changes-4.5% and transparency-3.1% were given low priorities although these are the key elements in any police reform. It demonstrates the UNM facilitators lack of knowledge.

A lot of taxpayers' dollars could have been saved on the APD recorder study by merely adopting the policies in Rialto, California or in an another US city where SOPs were in place and there was zero tolerance on rogue officers like killer cop Jeremy Dear and his partner Tanner Tixier who don't record. UNM has never been involved in offering reform remedies, thus, as this Phase I study document shows, those from UNM running it clearly lacked the expertise in evaluating what's are the real problems and solutions. We who have been deeply involved since the APD bloodbath that began in earnest under our still in hiding-MIA Mayor Berry and Chief Schultz know the tough decisions that have to be made to clean up the cesspool in APD. Chief Eden has no clue or is unwilling to do any reform. As asked for no names of participants during the Phase I effort are listed in the report. It appears that much like the earlier APD recorder study given to UNM, this $150,000 one was just a reward for UNM's support of the Mayor's "Innovate ABQ" and did not seek the most qualified people to do this community outreach effort.

UNM recently embarrassed itself when first firing outspoken APS Board member Kathy Korte for daring to criticize-call a well connected NM legislator a traitor for betraying his and her constituents and her criticism of the Governor's seemingly questionable APS testing policy. Kathy had to be shut up and every effort done to make sure she was not re-elected. The power brokers succeeded. Further the UNM Law School's acceptance of an APD (screw around on his wife) fired APD cop with a checkered past that included escaping a murder charge of his wife and his alleged false claims of a his stolen truck found in Mexico with his keys also showed where UNM's leadership lies and it's not with the people. This was also disappointing to all. We citizens would have been better served if honest retired APD officers like Dan Klein, Tom Grover, Paul Heh, Sam Costales and others were contracted to conduct these 22 sparsely attended "dialogues" many scheduled during working hours. They knew where the skeletons in APD were. This outreach effort was modeled after those done in Cincinnati where it took seven long years after the DOJ's investigation of their police department to accomplish any meaningful reform. Why would anyone except the naïve volunteer to serve on this next Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations Phase 2 Event 2 Action Planning effort? A reading of your referenced Phase One Report seems to confirm that nothing meaningful will come from their efforts. Sorry for my skepticism. I won't be part of this charade!

Info those shown and not shown including many neighborhood leaders. I await your response to my questions below. Related to this matter was last night's story by KOAT's reporter Megan Cruz below showing that those interviewed mentioned only superficial-merely "interesting" proposed changes. My comments to it are highlighted below. Among the info I asked for below is just who were those involved in these "22 dialogues" that you mentioned in your invite below? You should have a record of them and when they occurred

I await your response. Thank you

"Residents spearhead change in APD Community policing councils
provide new suggestions-updated 7:12 AM MDT Jul 27, 2015

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. —A major overhaul is in full swing for Albuquerque police. Last year, the Department of Justice found APD had a pattern of deadly force and ordered several changes, including a push for APD to be more community-oriented. To Michael Mora, that means, "doing more within the neighborhood." APD agreed, so it created what's called "community policing councils" across the city to find out what people think the department needs to change. Police said residents have already come up with some pretty interesting ideas." Just "interesting"? How about more than just interesting ideas like APD not editing and releasing full recordings of officers acts of excessive force including shootings rather than stonewalling NM IPRA requests? How about holding the far too many bad cops and their bad leadership accountable by charging and firing them? How about giving the citizens' Police Oversight Board real power? How about putting meaningful information into the current meaningless reports issued by Robin Hammer for the new Police Oversight Agency? Today's Journal article documenting the $13k taxpayers spent to send not one-but four Cultural Services employees to an April Jazz Fest in New Orleans while running up lavish expenditures there that was first reported in a April or May KRQE story-a trip the four failed to report. Today's article also mentions two trips by Councilor Benton to attend conferences on civilian oversight-I assume the meetings were hosted by NACOLE. Apparently no changes to our weak oversight process resulted from those conferences after he came back. How about putting dash-cams back in APD vehicles. Mayor Chavez had them removed after they captured too much incriminating information shown on the "COPS" TV show that he also banned? How about clarifying the limitations of "privileged immunity" for officers really means? How about clarifying the limited protections offered officers by the 1967 "Garrity vs. Supreme Court" ruling as the DOJ did following their investigation of the Seattle PD. See page 1 of their letter attached. How about implementing the changes proposed by APD Forward in the Amicus Curiae sent to Judge Brack on 1/14/15 that Brack ignored? See page 1 attached "First, people said they thought the tint on some APD patrol cars was too dark. "You can't see the police officer inside," said Albuquerque resident Robert Page. He said when you can't see the officer inside, it's hard to get to know who is patrolling the neighborhood. "You know, you can't wave or smile at them, you have no idea and you miss that chance to interact," said APD spokesperson Celina Espinoza." APD officer Celina Espinoza who was interviewed has thus far been an embarrassing spokesperson for APD as has Tanner Tixier-the former partner/accomplice of trigger happy and never make recordings cop Jeremy Dear in the murder of Mary Hawkes. We are getting tired of hearing from both. "So APD measured the tints on all their car windows. It actually found some were too dark, so those windows are being fixed at the officers' expense. Why were the window tinted by the officers in the first place-something known by their leadership? "Another suggestion had to do with the department motto on the cars. Instead of "In Step With Our Community," residents requested "To Protect and Serve. APD officials said they think that's a "pretty good idea" too so the motto will change on the vehicles next year." Why wait until next year? I suggested this change numerous times to APD beginning in 2011. Previously all APD vehicles had "To Protect and Serve" on them but this was changed. Many believe because of their oppressive blue code of silence that punishes honest officers, the only "Community" APD has been in step with has been their own-the reason for the DOJ investigation. Further the new almost black $40K Dodge Charger low reliability muscle cars don't even have a slogan on them. Any slogan means nothing if only there for PR purposes if APD ignores it-doesn't walk the talk. I also recommended why did APD not keep all of the APD cars white as were those earlier vehicles bought? At a Council meeting SW Mesa leader Louie Tafoya was also openly critical of the change to the black color but like me was ignored. Was the old white color not deemed intimidating enough by then Chief Schulz? "So while the top brass make a lot of huge reforms," What "huge reforms"? "the department wants you to know the little things matter, too." "We can't transform the community ourselves," said Espinoza. APD'S job is not to transform the community but to transform themselves and now serve and protect the community.

Some added comments-questions.

It seems kind of late to invite we-the people to now "collaborate" after the words of the DOJ agreement defining its limitations and the limitations of the monitoring team have already been put in concrete. Not stated by you are the specific goals, what is the agenda and just what powers this "action planning session" of the Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations really has.

You mention 22 community dialogues already held. I'm not aware of any of them but only one public meeting hosted by Dr. James Ginger. Shouldn't the city website post the minutes of these 22 dialogues? Just what is to be determined during these Community Education, APD/Community Communication & Collaboration sessions? More importantly, to what extent with this third group have any real influence over any "improvements to APD" since it was made quite clear to all including our City Councilors that the monitoring team PMR Inc. work for only those in the DOJ and Federal Judge Brack and have no obligation to listen to the Councilors or we-the people who they are supposed to represent. The Councilors have been willing bystanders in the whole reform process thus far and have essentially ignored what changes to APD we have demanded. Nor is consultant Scott Greenwood-and if still involved, his partner Tom Streicher obligated to comply with our demands but only to the wishes of the Mayor who contracted for their work over our objections. Further, will local NAACP boss-now another of the Mayor's consultants- Harold Bailey be involved and if so, how? It begs a question of skeptics like me whether this is just another Mayor Berry public relations ploy to give the illusion of real citizen involvement in the reform. As the saying goes-fool me once-shame on you. Fool me twice-shame on me. More specifics/details are needed Annabelle. I'm sure you have them to prove we will not be wasting our time if we choose to volunteer.

Thank you

Chief Eden

(DOJ-pass to US AG Loretta Lynch and suggest she stop paying this cop stonewalling of incriminating recordings just lip service-something typical of her fellow police state enablers in D.C.)

Reference again to your apparent lies told to the Journal below.

"Carjacking suspect shot at by officer gives SWAT team the slip-Albuquerque police search for a suspect near San Pedro and Karlson NE Wednesday morning. (Roberto E. Rosales/Journal) By Robert Browman And Nicole Perez / Journal Staff Writers

"As the suspect fled the scene, he pointed the gun at one of our officers, who shot at the suspect an unknown number of times," Eden said. Tixier said he didn't know whether the suspect was struck by the gunfire. Eden didn't name the officer who fired but said he wasn't injured in the shooting and would be placed on paid administrative leave, as is standard in police shootings. Although shooting at a moving car is a violation of APD's policies, Eden said the officer had perceived a threat to his safety. "The person, while he was in a vehicle, pointed a firearm at the officer," Eden said. "The officer perceived a threat and responded according to this training."

Your arrogance and cowardice and that of your bosses Perry and Berry are unbelievable-also aided by Berry's unethical attorney Jessica Hernandez. DO YOU THINK THAT YOU ALL ARE ABOVE THE LAW?

You know that neither my NM representative-former BCSO cop Bill Rehm nor another former cop-PMR Inc. boss James Ginger really don't give one damn about safeguarding we-the people against the bad police officers and their corrupt leaders/senior command staff here but only protecting/representing fellow police officers-even the bad ones. They are jokes!

You also know that most on the Council don't care about APD's excessive use of force also against the American Indians here. Five on the Council seem more preoccupied with supporting Rey Garduno's B.S. revisionist/hateful PC proclamation replacing Columbus Day with Indigenous Peoples Day playing the guilt card on those not of color-demonizing this explorer as a devil.

You saw today's Journal OpEd by resident Jackie De La Porte condemning this Garduno led hate proclamation. P.C. Rey can't be off the Council soon enough. He is an empty suit if there ever was one.

NM's tribal leaders also don't give a damn about their own people as most live in third world conditions on the reservations while the leaders live "high on the hog" in their fancy homes with their casino revenue. Those allegedly representing the "Red Nation" don't care about that either. Hypocrisy

This time it's for Garduno and his "Red Nation" who claim they represents current tribes recognize that they were NOT the original indigenous people who occupied our country over 10,000 years ago..

You, the DOJ, NM FOG and other addressees shown and not shown might be interested in the below postings. So true here!

Request status. Your compliance with this state law is required by Thursday 10/15

Related-Not surprising that BCSO deputy Jeffrey Bartrum was cleared by the DA's "office" for shooting and killing Adam Padilla in December because Sheriff Gonzalez doesn't want his deputies to have body cameras. No video recording-no proof of lies his deputies tell.

See again US AG Loretta Lynch's latest 10/5 attempt at damage control (attached) after her embarrassing 10/1 statements-(also attached) that included some disgusted reader comments to it.

See who Ms. Lynch is looking to help her-none other than those cop organizations who have blessed police states throughout the US and are part of the problem. It's not surprising that she never mentioned citizen civil rights groups like the ACLU, transparency advocates like the NM Foundation for Open Government NM-FOG and others. Like here, she is asking the foxes to guard the hen house-an insult to us all. See her comment below.

"The Bureau of Justice Statistic (BJS) and the FBI are collaborating with major policing organizations, such as the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), the Major Cities Chiefs of Police Association (MCCA), the Major County Sheriffs Association (MCSA) on defining data collections on police use-of-force and homicides by law enforcement officers."

I made an IPRA request to YOU six days ago on October 1 to see the videos and hear the audios of the shooting by an APD officer last Wednesday (see Journal extract below). I have since sent you THREE follow-ups on October 2, 3 and 5 asking for the status of your response-all of which you ignored.

Since interim Chief Banks said publically in early 2013 to KOAT that lying by your officers was acceptable in order to protect themselves and other officers, all can assume once again you lied as well as your shooter last Wednesday when claiming the fleeing suspect aimed a gun at your shooter. If this was the case, why stonewall my request to see and hear the recordings? It's because you both lied.

We can only assume that in every case Schultz and now you denied IPRA requests for videos of APD shootings, your shooters and their accomplices lied when claiming they were threatened-something you likely teach them to say as part of their training.

You still have Tanner Tixier-Jeremy Dear's accomplice in the murder of Mary Hawkes as your spokesperson. No videos of that murder were made by either Dear or Tixier ever/made or released. That speaks volumes about how corrupt and unfit for this job you are.

I previously sent you copies of new US AG's 10/5 attempt at damage control to her earlier 10/1 statements claiming transparency in all police shootings is essential for any reform. Those are empty words merely to appease the naïve who accept the propaganda that all cops are heroes-are doing us a favor by putting on the uniform and also above the law as their badge is a license to kill.

Yet while doing so, she doesn't even require that her US Marshals be equipped with body recorders while her DOJ people here like Damon Martinez and the former cop "monitors" of APD reform in PMR Inc really don't care.

BCSO's disgraceful Sheriff Manny Gonzalez won't even ask for federal money to buy recorders so his deputies won't ever be held accountable for their shootings and other excessive uses of force.

Retired honest cop Dan Klein exposed you for the incompetent/corrupt person you are in his recent ABQ Free Press letter comparing your thug boss Perry to a Mafia leader and you and others there to his Mafia soldiers. The Eye on Albuquerque also damned your incompetence. Not one honest APD cop respects you! You are just another Guv Martinez throwaway like your Mayor's personal attorney Jessica Hernandez.

More of our tax dollars will be used to settle many other lawsuits against APD, one of the latest being filed by your former IPRA stonewaller Reynaldo Chavez for spilling his guts on your command staff's, your direction and the direction of city attorneys to withhold incriminating recordings of the Mary Han murder.

As reported in a "Live Leak" posting, you also directed the withholding of incriminating videos of Perez's and Sandy's murder of James Boyd so they would not be convicted next year.

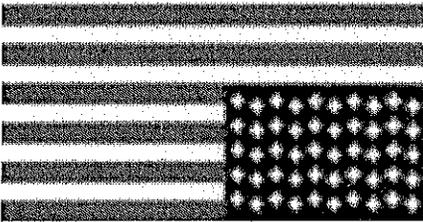

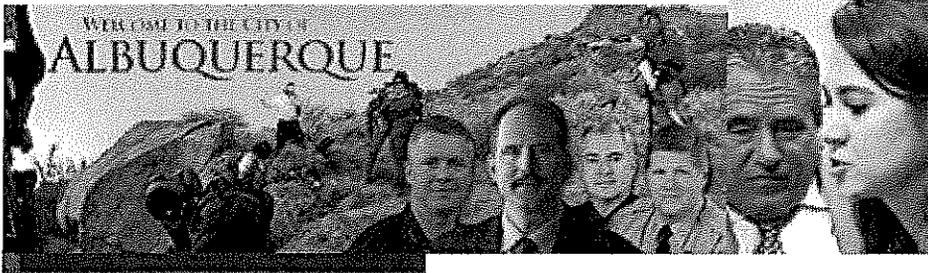

I am still waiting for your response to my 10/1 IPRA request. Apparently you are confident that nobody on the Council has the guts to demand that you comply with this State law.

Department of Justice

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2015
WWW.JUSTICE.GOV

AG
(202) 514-2007
TTY (866) 544-5309

ATTORNEY GENERAL LYNCH: USE-OF-FORCE DATA IS VITAL FOR TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

WASHINGTON—Today, in a press conference held at the Department of Justice, Attorney General Loretta E. Lynch reinforced the need for a national, consistent data on law enforcement interactions with the communities they serve, especially data collection on the use-of-force. The Attorney General noted that the department has already taken steps to improve the accuracy and consistency of use-of-force data from law enforcement.

“The department’s position and the administration’s position has consistently been that we need to have national, consistent data,” said Attorney General Lynch. “This information is useful because it helps us see trends, it helps us promote accountability and transparency,” said Attorney General Lynch. “We’re also going further in developing standards for publishing information about deaths in custody as well, because transparency and accountability are helped by this kind of national data.”

Currently, federal authorities publish annual figures on the number of “justifiable homicides” by law enforcement. But this reporting is voluntary and not all police departments participate, causing the figures to be incomplete. That’s why the Justice Department and the Obama Administration are taking steps to work with law enforcement to improve the process.

“This data is not only vital – we are working closely with law enforcement to develop national consistent standards for collecting this kind of information,” Attorney General Lynch added. The department has already taken steps to improve accurate accounts of use-of-force data from law enforcement: -The Bureau of Justice Statistic (BJS) and the FBI are collaborating with major policing organizations, such as the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), the Major Cities Chiefs of Police Association (MCCA), the Major County Sheriffs Association (MCSA) on defining data collections on police use-of-force and homicides by law enforcement officers.

-The department also requires the records of police interactions when we enter into consent decree and collaborative reform agreements.

-The FBI recently announced that the Uniform Crime Reporting Statistics (UCR) will begin to collect data on non-fatal shootings between law enforcement and civilians.

BJS has been conducting work on new methods for not only identifying deaths in police custody (as defined by the Deaths in Custody Reporting Act (PL 113-242), where they will go further than what the newspapers and media reports on law enforcement homicides that are derived from open source records verifying that the media accounts are correct and complete. BJS will do this by surveying police departments, medical examiners' offices and investigative offices about the reports that it identifies from open source and using data from the multiple source to obtain a more accurate factual account of each incident. BJS will complete its methodology study by late 2015/early 2016 and then begin to stand up a national program on arrest related deaths.

The President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing and the President's Police Data Initiative also seek to encourage better data and record keeping for local law enforcement reinforces the administration's position on this need.

Excerpts from the Attorney General's Press Conference:

ATTORNEY GENERAL LYNCH: [L]et me be clear: police shootings are not minutiae at all and the department's position and the administration's position has consistently been that we need to have national, consistent data. Both on excessive force and on officer involved shootings is vital. The point I was trying to make at that conference related to our overall view of how we deal with police departments as part of our practice of enforcing consent decrees, or working with them and I was trying to make the point that we also have to focus on building community trust which is a very individual – very local – practice. Unfortunately, my comments gave the misperception that we were changing our view in some way about the importance of this data – nothing could be further from the truth. This data is not only vital – we are working closely with law enforcement to develop national consistent standards for collecting this kind of information.

ATTORNEY GENERAL LYNCH: [W]e do require it [data collection]. When we have consent decrees with departments and frankly we find it very, very useful as we look at data and trends and as we publish consent decrees we encourage other departments to do so. And frankly police departments also are finding it useful. Certainly the fact that we don't have a nationwide, consistent set of standards is – not only does it make our job difficult it makes it hard to see these trends and that's why it is so important to focus on these. And that's why we are working through the department's research arm – our Bureau of Justice Statistics and the FBI – are working with the leading police organizations; International Association of Chiefs of Police; Major Cities Chiefs; Major Counties Sheriffs; to look at these standards. And we're also going further in developing standards for publishing information about deaths in custody as well; because transparency and accountability are helped by this kind of national data.

Loretta Lynch: Government Shouldn't Require Reports of People Killed by Police

By Ciara McCarthy, Guardian UK 03 October 15

The attorney general says local police are encouraged to maintain records on such killings, but improving police-community relations is more important

Attorney general Loretta Lynch says the federal government should not require police to report fatal shootings of civilians, sharply diverging from her predecessor Eric Holder's stance on police killings.

In a conversation with NBC journalist Chuck Todd on a range of criminal justice issues, Lynch said on Thursday that she does not support a federal mandate to report people killed by police.

"One of the things we are focusing on at the Department of Justice is not trying to reach down from Washington and dictate to every local department how they should handle the minutia of record keeping, but we are stressing to them that these records must be kept," she said at the Washington Ideas Forum, hosted by AtlanticLIVE and the Aspen Institute. Lynch said the Justice Department does "encourage" local departments to maintain records on police shootings but that improving police-community relations is more important. She noted that the small size of the average police department could make record-keeping difficult. "The statistics are important, but the real issues are: 'what steps are we all taking to connect communities ... with police and back with government?'" she said.

Todd pressed Lynch to comment on the lack of data, citing The Counted, the Guardian's project to track all deaths by police in 2015, as the best source for fatal interactions with police. "I'm not going to comment on news organizations keeping numbers," Lynch said in response. "I think they do a pretty good job sometimes."

Lynch's statements show a sharp contrast from her predecessor's position on tracking police violence. Holder, the former attorney general who left office in April, has called the lack of official data "unacceptable". Before leaving office he called its collection the "first step" toward improving police-community relations.

"I've heard from a number of people who have called on policymakers to ensure better record-keeping on injuries and deaths that occur at the hands of police. I've also spoken with law enforcement leaders – including the leadership of the Fraternal Order of Police – who have urged elected officials to consider strategies for collecting better data on officer fatalities," Holder said in January. "Today, my response to these legitimate concerns is simple: We need to do both."

A spokesperson for the Department of Justice told the Guardian in a statement Friday that Lynch encouraged police to maintain records regarding police-civilian interactions. The spokesperson, Melanie Newman, also noted that the department requires such record-keeping when it enters into consent decrees with local agencies. "Her broader point was that while maintaining data to record police interactions is important, we should be focused on preventing those interactions by improving relationships between local law enforcement and their communities," Newman said.

In the wake of high-profile police killings of unarmed black men, many looked for data on how many people police kill each year only to find that was no reliable number. Police departments may voluntarily submit information on "justifiable homicides" to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which counted 444 of these deaths in 2014. Director James Comey resisted calls for a mandatory reporting system this week, calling for more data on fatal police shootings but maintaining the voluntary reporting system. "I don't have the power to require people to supply us with data," Comey said at a roundtable with reporters on Thursday.

The Guardian has launched a project, The Counted, to track all people killed by police in 2015. As of Friday afternoon, 878 have been killed by law enforcement.

I trust the Guardian more than local police departments.

+13# tedrey 2015-10-03 10:13

L. Lynch explains "We are stressing to them that these records must be kept," but that they needn't be reported. Is this a "don't ask, don't tell" deal?

+22# Merlin 2015-10-03 10:27

Either Lynch is totally oblivious, a person with elitist views, or a complete incompetent. Take your pick. This, (as was predicted,) is yet another terrible appointment by our "great chief." Lynch is just completely coping out on her responsibility to lead and seek justice.

+13# tref 2015-10-03 11:34

@Merlin

I'd say she's an idiot. With gun deaths in the US higher per capita than any other major country in the world, Lynch is insane to think we can rein in police killing civilians without accurately tracking the statistics. Had she been on the Supreme Court, she no doubt would have voted with the majority to gut the Civil Rights Act of 1964 because all those Confederate states are now reformed. She has totally ignored the fact that ONLY body cams and civilian camera phones were finally able to put the lie to police claims of "he resisted arrest so we had to kill him." The only way to nail roaches is to shine a light on them.

+17# Anonymot 2015-10-03 10:59

We were told, we believed that minority appointees and women appointees would be more humane and caring than men. Here's another dumb one. She sounds as bad as Holder. Who picks these lulus? Hillary?

+8# tm7devils39 2015-10-03 11:57

The "pickers"(Dem or GOP) pick people who they know will repress their moral and ethical principles (in order to keep their job) in deference to government (party line) dictates. Critical thinking ability is not a prerequisite for the job.

+25# mmalinco 2015-10-03 11:39

What has she been smoking? She expresses concern for the record-keeping burden this would impose on small police departments: how many fatal shootings are those, "small police departments," involved in each year that it could become a reporting and record-keeping burden?

+13# skylinefirepest 2015-10-03 11:56

mmalinco...perfectly stated. I've lived in small towns for most of my life and we've only had a couple of well justified shootings by police. What we need in this country is to put the bright lights on these instances so there's not a "swept under the rug" justification of a bad shooting.

+16# randrjwr 2015-10-03 12:09

Quoting: "Lynch said the Justice Department does "encourage" local departments to maintain records on police shootings but that improving police-community relations is more important. She noted that the small size of the average police department could make record-keeping difficult."It might not be so difficult if they didn't shoot so many people. And, once again the chickens are consigned to care by the fox.Ridiculous!!P.S. Sorry--didn't see mmalinco's post before I wrote this, so it is redundant; but I'll post it anyway to weigh in on the issue alongside mmalinco (who said it better than I did).

+4# lewagner 2015-10-03 12:26

(Vote for change. :)

+6# Capn Canard 2015-10-03 13:46

SHIT CAN Lynch NOW. She has proven herself not fit for service, she is someone who is not with the people as she snuggles up to powerful to insure her own future. But what about the rest of us?

+4# Cirze 2015-10-03 14:03

This is no surprise. I remember seeing her outed as a plant before she was confirmed. Like Arne Duncan and so many before her, she was picked to make these very bad decisions. Sometimes I think it's still a part of being that good Republican-lite choice of times past in order to woo Republican votes . . . but then I remember that that also has been outed long ago. Are we stuck permanently with the wrong template used by our already planted politicians?"This, (as was predicted,) is yet another terrible appointment by our "great chief." "

+7# Archie1954 2015-10-03 15:58

Already this new appointee is backing off protecting the people from the police. How wrong can she be?

+4# Atliberty 2015-10-03 21:08

The US government is just an organization designed to stand as middle men between the corporations and the people, they work for the corporations not the people. She is worse of a corporate police state stamp of approval than Holder was.

+3# Shades of gray matter 2015-10-03 21:37

Her policy position is AWFUL, and her rationale for it is preposterous. Has she no shame? Is she the Samantha Powers of domestic policy, policy rationale? Slick Willie thought by sliding to the Right, ex., re kkkops, he could undermine GOPers. Then W got elected twice and the House & Senate are in GOP hands. Hillary & Obama can't see that?

+2# Banichi 2015-10-03 23:15

I am sick to my stomach to read this story. I would not have believed any black person, male or female, could possibly have handed the primarily white police departments of this country a free pass to not have to be accountable for their actions. But here we are and she did. As far as Hillary and Obama being able to see the results of a slow slide to the right NOT placating or "building bridges" with the GOP, if they don't know that by now, they are only demonstrating that there was no bridge to build in the first place. A GOP member of Congress has now admitted openly that the order was passed down after Obama's election to block everything he tried to accomplish. Obama could not have missed that fact in short order after his election, but he seemed to keep on trying to buy acceptance by giving away big pieces while getting little crumbs in exchange. The terms of passing the NDAA in exchange for ending 'Don't Ask, Don't Tell' are an example, and I mean no offense whatever to gays in the military in saying that. It is good that 'Don't Ask, Don't Tell' ended. The NDAA affects the entire country. I assert that both Obama and Hillary know very well what the elite's marching orders have been and are now. We are the only ones who keep on hoping that they might change their ways. Both Hillary and Obama have pushed for the finalization of the TPP and TPIP which would supersede any rights under the Constitution. Think they don't know that? THEY DO.

+2# Banichi 2015-10-03 23:31

Whether it is the NDAA giving the military the right to pick up US citizens off the street at any time or place, or the TPP and TPIP having clauses which allow the corporations to sue the U.S., state or local governments for 'loss of potential profits' if laws or local ordinances prevent them from going after resources anywhere they want to (and this is regardless of the damage to the environment or citizens' health or any other reason; such suits will be decided in corporate tribunals with no regard to the sovereignty of any nation who signs the agreements) the direction is clear. I should not have to point it out to you. Hillary has been a member of the .01% for a long time, and has no commitment to anything else. What she says on the campaign for President means zero, just as Obama's campaign promises meant nothing. The only hope I have left for restoring the rule of law as delineated in the Constitution and Bill of Rights is the possible election of Bernie Sanders, folks. Otherwise we are stuck with people whose political loyalty is to a system that has only served to get us where we are today, and will not help the restoration of the Constitution, the middle class, or help the poor, or people of color (and that includes 'white'). This is the end result of a capitalist system with the power to enslave all of us with no accountability, get it?

+3# gerald 2015-10-03 21:50

Oh how I have come to hate Obama. I voted for the asshole in 2008. It seems that we have an Aunt Jane running the USDOJ. I thought that Janet Reno in the 2000 presidential election was bad enough when she refused to jump into the fray as U.S. AG to halt and investigate the stealing of the 2000 presidential election and the massive violations of the VRA at the time, but Loretta Lynch is getting up there. Obama is a lot smarter than this. If Obama was the president he claimed he was when he was candidate Obama, how can he screw up so badly with virtually all of his appointees and cabinet members?

+4# lfeuille 2015-10-03 23:04

To Bernie Sanders: When you become president please make sure to appoint people who actually believe in your agenda.

Roberta

Thanks for your help today. I wonder why your boss City Attorney Jessica Hernandez still in hiding like the Mayor-far too important to respond to me.

Please confirm whether signed sheets for collaboratives are same as typed ones and whether names of APD officers who attended are on them. This includes the officer who berated citizen attendees claiming we had to serve/accommodate APD and not the reverse. He also said the DOJ's and monitor's oversight was not needed-that they could police themselves.

Shows the arrogance-disdain for citizens and urban warfare culture at APD still hasn't changed. Stonewall as much IPRA requested info as they can.

I will schedule new appointment and bring portable scanner in since copy costs are now back to the knowingly punitive .50/page ( maximum allowed but not required by State) vs. the .10/page as was the case previously. So much for the alleged empty claims of the City's and particularly APD's transparency.

Just who is now the IPRA compliance office-your law office or the clerk's as was the case in the past? But in Ms. Howard, we no longer have a lawyer now in the clerk's job but one that is not an expert in the IPRA.

Will schedule new appointment since I had to drive around underground parking garage for over 35 minutes to even find a parking place. Yet some APD cars were using our spots and over 25 or more reserved spots were never filled. Crazy

I await your reply. Thanks for your help today. These attendance sheets should be part of the reports and free to citizens.

Roberta

Thank you.

It's interesting that attendance lists were not included in UNM reports and we citizens must pay to get copies. It appears that UNM is also not interested in providing resumes of their $15,000 researchers.

Ms. Jessica Hernandez

Why no comments to this from you? Are you in hiding in your own law office bunker like your Mayor or just asleep like him afraid of challenging APD? See attached? Are you just another David Tourek with a dress?

Not surprising that the "DA's office" (whomever that is) now refuses after more than two years to release the APD videos of the killing of African American Vietnam vet with PTSD Vincent Wood by two trigger-happy cops in early July 2013 as discussed in the Journal article today. Is this "office" still afraid of retaliation (as was done to DA Brandenburg) from APD?

I made an NM IPRA request (attached) for these two video recordings and other information of the Wood killing over two years ago-on July 27 2013. I was repeatedly stonewalled by now departed APD records custodian Renaldo Chavez, interim Chief Banks and now Chief Eden with the blessing of the Councilors, Perry and Berry. Transparency here? Really?

Apparently APD has no problem with immediately releasing APD video recordings when they do something right. Berry's $4.5 + million James Ginger and his PMR Inc. people happily can't/won't do anything about these APD scams and their IPRA requests stonewalling because they are limited to just monitoring these efforts to give the illusion that APD really is reforming-reaching out.

Is this an early indication that the judicial system will again fail us and the judge will not charge Perez and Sandy for their murder of homeless camper James Boyd? I hope such is not the case.

(Info to those shown and Bcc to many including the media, councilors and concerned citizens)

You saw my last e-mail also dated yesterday, not the July 30 one below. It asked for a reply from City Attorney Jessica Hernandez.

I would have thought the names of attendees at these would have been included in the reports but surprisingly they weren't for some reason.

It appears much like these no-bid contracts to local attorneys, you give out contracts over the $75,000 Council approval limit-in this case the $150,000 to UNM and other contracts to them blindly without knowing the qualifications of just who besides the high paid lead will do the work.

Is it just one high paid Dr. Guerin and three low paid warm bodies/UNM graduate students who we taxpayers are paying $150,000 for? As a taxpayer, don't you care or are taxes just play/fun money?

Regarding Ms. Annabelle Romero who is leading the effort who now in the Office of Diversity and Human Rights, I (and likely other taxpayers) wonder just what unique skills she had to fill that likely high paid former "Senior Advisor" job to the Mayor and doing exactly what since he already had Rob Perry, a COO, the head of Constituent Services, Gil Montano and others.

Nothing from UNM-as expected although I copied them on my last response to you.

Is there any wonder those attending placed transparency among the lowest priorities desired to accomplish APD reform. Chief Eden and the Mayor must love it.

Where are you located as I may be in to get the signatures Monday prior to Council meeting? Any complete report on phases 1 and 2 by Dr. Guerin should have included these attendees' names.

No comment from you?

Date: Thursday, June 18, 2015 11:18:41 AM

Robin, Beth, Scott, and Leonard, I've deliberately included only three POB members -- the chair and the two vice-chairs -- in addition to our Acting Executive CPOA Director on this e-mail in order not to violate opening meetings issues. I've also made sure to include a copy to pobipra@cabq.gov.

I will be traveling to the Democratic Republic of the Congo in central Africa Sept. 15-Oct. 3 to help repair a water delivery system to a "village" of 35,000 precious people in the southwest corner of that nation. Assuming it stays as presently booked, my airline itinerary puts me back into ABQ at 4:20 PM on Saturday, Oct. 3rd. The NACOLE Conference in Riverside, CA begins on Sunday evening, Oct. 4th, at 6:00 PM. Since we are all at least tentatively supposed to attend this, I trust I won't be too jet-lagged to do so, but wanted you each and all to be aware of this prior commitment on my part.

Also in this regard I've done a bit of internet research. The closest major airport to Riverside is Ontario, CA -- about 18 miles distant. It's possible to get there from ABQ on several airlines, but only Southwest has reasonable connections that don't involve "all day" travel. Flying on Southwest we could leave ABQ at 12:20 PM on Oct. 4th, connect in Phoenix, and arrive at Ontario at 3:00 PM. This would give us time to claim luggage, rent vehicles (three or four if we all go), and make it to the NACOLE headquarters hotel, which is the Mission Inn Hotel and Spa in downtown Riverside, in time to check in, get into our rooms, and be available for the opening 6:00 PM session. The current cost of that Southwest outbound itinerary is $195 per person. The Mission Inn Hotel is offering a NACOLE convention rate of $130 per night single or double (which I'm pretty sure doesn't include taxes and fees) and we would each need 4 nights' lodging to attend the full conference. (I estimate that, with taxes, fees and parking charges, to cost $350 total per person, assuming we all double up.) Early bird registration for the conference itself is currently $460 per person for "members." (I assume we are considered members since our POB is already part of NACOLE?!) That figure goes up progressively after June 31st. I have no clear idea what meals will cost, except to say that daily "continental" breakfasts are included in our NACOLE registration fee. Thus we are looking at 4 lunches and 4 dinners per person, so I'm "guessing" about $200 per person total for our eats. The conference ends at noon on Thursday, Oct. 8th. Again using Southwest Airlines, we can fly from Ontario to ABQ (via PHX) leaving at 2:10 PM and arriving ABQ at 6:20 PM. That return itinerary is currently priced at $193 per person. Adding up all those numbers yields a total of $1398 per person, to which I would add $102 to cover the car rentals plus a small safety factor, yielding $1500 per person as a round-figure budget.

If any of you think I'm a little strange by doing this sort of planning and budgeting, at this point in my life it's pretty much second nature to me. I've been organizing church groups of 12 to 20 persons to travel the world over for several decades now, so I more or less know what's involved. I also know that the farther out from the actual dates we plan -- and pay up-front for -- a trip's components, the more we'll be likely to save.

So, my questions to you are, first, are we committed to sending our entire POB, plus CPOA staff (approximately 15 persons total) to this NACOLE event in October? Second, do we have, and/or can we use, the funds to do it (about $22,500 overall)? And third, is there someone on staff, either in the CPOA office or elsewhere in ABQ city government, who can take care of booking the air travel, vehicle rentals, hotel accommodations, and the NACOLE conference itself for us? If not, I am capable of taking care of all these items once I know the answers to the above questions and am assured that I can readily voucher back whatever funds I must pay upfront, e. g., the SWA flights and the NACOLE registration fees. And, of course, in order to complete airline bookings in this post-9/11 era, I would obviously need the full names of each one who is committed to going, plus birthdates.

Please let me know what you think of all this. Blessings! -- Dave Ring

POB Members:

Please let me know if you wish to attend the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement Conference in Riverside, California from Sunday, October 4 through Thursday, October 8, 2015. It is my understanding that the host hotel rooms are filling up and that we should reserve our rooms.

Michelle Contreras will coordinate the travel plans using the City's credit card.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

White House Holds Community Policing Forum

On Thursday, July 23rd, the White House and the Department of Justice Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) hosted a Community Policing Forum to discuss and share best practices on the implementation of the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing recommendations. Kelvyn Anderson, Executive Director of the Philadelphia Police Advisory Commission and a former NACOLE Board member, represented NACOLE at the forum. Throughout the day, Administration officials, 21st Century Policing Task Force members, law enforcement, faith and community leaders, and local elected officials discussed and shared strategies for implementing the recommendations and developing ideas that communities across the country can utilize to establish public safety while building trust. Kelvyn wrote about the forum and his experience for our website and the NACOLE Digest.

NACOLE to Screen Award Winning Documentary Peace Officer at Riverside Conference

NACOLE is excited to announce that it was given the rights to offer a free screening of the award winning feature documentary Peace Officer at the 2015 Annual Conference. Peace Officer is a feature documentary about the increasingly militarized state of American police as told through the story of William "Dub" Lawrence, a former sheriff who established and trained his rural state's first SWAT team only to see that same unit kill his son-in-law in a controversial standoff 30 years later. Driven by an obsessed sense of mission, Dub uses his own investigative skills to uncover the truth in this and other recent officer-involved shootings in his community while tackling larger questions about the changing face of peace officers nationwide.

The film will be screened on Tuesday, October 6th at the host hotel, the Mission Inn, following the conclusion of the day's sessions. Tickets will be limited. Keep checking the NACOLE website for details.

Register Now for the 21st Annual NACOLE Conference

Over the last year, issues about policing and communities, justice, and the role of civilian oversight have been a major focus of a national conversation - from living rooms to city councils, to the highest levels of government and everywhere in between. NACOLE has been a part of that conversation, and this fall we will bring it to Riverside, California, during our 21st Annual Conference.

To register today, please click HERE.

With increased attention to and growth of civilian oversight, there has also been a call for more information and for discussions and training that are responsive to current events and emerging trends. To meet those needs, NACOLE has moved to a schedule that will feature three concurrent sessions on both the Tuesday and Wednesday of the conference. In doing so, we have also been able to organize the sessions into three unique tracks, better serving the needs of the range of people involved and interested in oversight.

law enforcement oversight agencies and practitioners and others that works to enhance accountability and transparency in policing and build community trust through civilian oversight.

and Scholarship Recipients

NACOLE is pleased to announce the recipients of its 2015 Flame Award and Achievement in Oversight Awards. They are:

Charles D. Reynolds, recipient of the 2015 Flame Award, is a court-appointed consent decree monitor, a former chief of police in five communities, a past-president of an international police executive organization, a recognized expert on police organizational and management issues, and a past NACOLE board member.

St. Louis City Aldermen Terry Kennedy and Antonio French serve their community with distinction as elected representatives of their wards on the Board of Aldermen and are together recipients of one of this year's Achievement in Oversight awards.

Samara Marion, a policy analyst and staff lawyer with the San Francisco Office of Citizen Complaints, is a recipient of the second Achievement in Oversight award.

NACOLE is also pleased to announce the recipients of the 2015 Scholarship Awards in the following categories:

Founders' Community Scholarship Award: Deborah Jacobs, Melissa Smith, Olga Orraca, Torin Jacobs

Presidents' Scholarship Award: Lynn Erickson, Marielle Moore

Membership Scholarship Award: Richard Olquin, Aisha Miles

NACOLE Attends 39th Annual NOBLE Conference in Indianapolis

NACOLE President Brian Buchner and Cameron McElhiney, NACOLE's Director of Training & Education, attended the 39th Annual Conference of the National Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) in Indianapolis, Indiana. NOBLE invited Mr. Buchner to participate in the Opening Plenary Session where the Attorney General for the U.S. Department of Justice Loretta Lynch delivered the Keynote address. As an invited guest, NACOLE was also given free booth space in the Exhibition Hall, which turned out to be a great opportunity to meet and speak with law enforcement officials and NOBLE members about NACOLE and civilian oversight. It was a good opportunity to build a relationship with NOBLE and its members, as there is alignment between what NOBLE and NACOLE have been working toward for many years. NOBLE's 40th anniversary conference will be held in 2016 in Washington, DC. More information about NOBLE is available on its website, www.noblenational.org.

New Orleans Office of the Independent Police Monitor Gains Independence

You may have been following recent developments in New Orleans with the Office of the Independent Police Monitor (IPM). Yesterday, the IPM announced that it signed an agreement with the Office of the Inspector General that will begin a process to separate the two offices and allocate funds for the IPM to increase staffing and to move into an office space that is more accessible to the community. The agreement outlines a mutually-supported charter change that, if approved by the public in April of 2016, will allow the IPM to operate as an independent entity. The Inspector General has also rescinded his request to fire the Police Monitor.

Ferguson Crowd Control After Action Report - Summary of Findings and Lessons Learned (Daigle Law Group)

On August, 9, 2014 in Ferguson, Missouri, Officer Darren Wilson shot and killed 18 year old Michael Brown. There were significant reactions to the shooting from the community, including public demonstrations, rioting, looting, arson, shots fired, and property damage. More than 50 police departments provided assistance to Ferguson police for crowd control.

The United States Department of Justice (USDOJ) and the St. Louis Police Department agreed to investigate the actions of the four police departments that were most involved after the shooting. The USDOJ, through the COPS office, evaluated their actions. They issued a report that included 48 findings and 113 lessons learned that are applicable to all police departments across the United States. This article by attorney Eric Daigle of Daigle Law Group, LLC provides an overview of the findings and the recommendations.

NACOLE and the John Jay College of Criminal Justice to co-sponsor 2016 Academic Symposium in New York City

NACOLE is pleased to announce that it will be co-hosting its 2016 Academic Symposium with the John Jay School of Criminal Justice on April 22, 2016. The symposium hopes to bring together academics, policy makers, police leaders, oversight practitioners, and community members to explore issues surrounding civilian oversight of law enforcement. A call for papers and additional information will be posted later this fall.

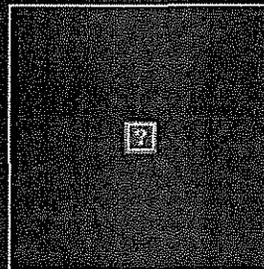

John Jay College of Criminal Justice is also the home of the first graduate-level course in civilian oversight of law enforcement. This course, a part of their public administration program, is designed to prepare students to assess, evaluate, and monitor police conduct and policing performance from an oversight perspective.

NACOLE to Participate in American Bar Association Task Force on Body-Worn Cameras

The American Bar Association has established a task force of national experts to develop guidelines for the use of body-worn cameras (BWC) by law enforcement agencies in the U.S. The task force is comprised of law enforcement, federal judges, prosecutors, public and private criminal attorneys, civilian oversight, law professors, and civil liberties groups. Current NACOLE board member Nick Mitchell (Denver's Independent Monitor) and Margo Frasier (Austin Police Monitor) have been asked to serve on the task force, whose comprehensive study will identify best practices for the deployment and use of BWCs, and assess their impact on the criminal justice system and individual liberties. More information about the task force can be found here: http://www.americanbar.org/groups/criminal\_justice/bodycamera.html.

Principal Assistant Attorney General Vanita Gupta to Speak at NACOLE Annual Conference

NACOLE is honored to welcome Vanita Gupta, Principal Assistant Attorney General and head of Civil Rights at the U.S. Department of Justice, as the Keynote Speaker at this year's Annual Conference. Under her leadership, the Division continues its crucially important work in a number of areas, including advancing constitutional policing and other criminal justice reforms. Prior to joining the department, Ms. Gupta served as Deputy Legal Director of the American Civil Liberties Union and Director for its Center for Justice. Over the course of her career she has earned a reputation for working closely and collaboratively with law enforcement, departments of corrections, and across the political spectrum to advance smart policing and criminal justice reforms.

This year NACOLE has worked to respond to the ever-increasing demand for information and discussions that are responsive to current events and emerging trends. As a result, NACOLE has moved to a schedule that will feature three concurrent sessions on both the Tuesday and Wednesday of the conference. These sessions will be arranged into three unique tracks, better serving the needs of the range of people involved and interested in oversight.

The addition of a third track allows us to also cover more subject matter over the course of the conference.

This year, delegates will be able to choose from a large and diverse selection of workshops focusing on subject matter such as understanding and identifying the many roads to reform, strategies for community engagement, racial reconciliation, prosecuting police officers, the importance of data collection, and emerging technology in policing.

and an Open Data Portal that publishes raw data from the California Department of Justice's statewide repository of criminal justice datasets.

The Dashboard includes three important data sets: (1) Law Enforcement Officers Killed or Assaulted in the Line of Duty; (2) Deaths in Custody, including arrest-related deaths; and (3) Arrests & Bookings.

The Open Data Portal is an online repository of downloadable criminal justice data in raw form available to the public. This tool will enable researchers, civic coders, and journalists to help tackle seemingly intractable problems in the criminal justice system. OpenJustice embraces transparency in the criminal justice system to strengthen trust, enhance government accountability, and inform public policy.

In the coming months, the Dashboard will expand to spotlight more metrics from across the justice system and a broad array of datasets will be released to foster accountability and trust.

On behalf of the NACOLE Board of Directors, I wish to thank you for the timely renewal of your membership. Together, we represent a significant voice in policing and police oversight, and as a group, we are making a positive difference in communities around the country.

NACOLE is thankful for each and every one of our members and we are continually looking for ways to enhance the value of your membership. One of your membership benefits is access to the NACOLE.org members-only website. If you are having any problems accessing that section of the website or need to have a username created, please contact Liana Perez, Director of Operations, at (317) 721-8133 or by e-mail at Perez@NACOLE.org.

We look forward to seeing you at our 21st Annual Conference in Riverside, California in October. Please remember that the early registration deadline is July 31.

Best wishes for a wonderful summer!

NACOLE 2015 ELECTION COMMITTEE & ELECTION PROCEDURES

Announcements

The Election Committee shall prepare Election Information for distribution to all members upon payment of dues. The information shall include but not be limited to:

- Election Notification Letter
- Declaration of Intent to Seek Office Form
- Proxy Vote Authorization Form
- Other related election information and materials

The Election Committee will post the following on the NACOLE web site:

- The procedure for filing Declaration of Intent
- Declaration of Intent to Seek Office Form
- The procedure for filing the Proxy Authorization
- A Proxy Authorization Form
- The names and bios of the Declared Candidates
- A Sample Ballot Form

Progress Reports

The Chair of the Election Committee shall file progress reports on the election and candidates for office sixty (60) and thirty (30) days prior to the election of Officers and Board of Directors, and in addition, as may otherwise be requested by the Board.

Eligibility

Only regular members in accordance with the Bylaws who have been a member in good standing for one (1) year, whose dues are fully paid at the time that he/she files a declaration of intent to stand for election, and who have attended at least one (1) of the two previous national conferences shall be eligible for election as an Officer or to the Board of Directors.<sup>1</sup> Any organizational member who seeks election to office must hold his/her organization's voting membership.

Declarations for Election to Office

The Election Committee shall receive declarations of candidates and pertinent background information for each position in the regular election of Officers and Board of Directors. Members may file for no more than one position.

Declarations of Candidacy for Election shall be received by the Election Committee no later than thirty (30) days prior to Annual Meeting. Declarations shall be sent via US Postal Service, email or fax to the Election Committee member at the address specified in Election announcements. The ballot for elections of officers and Board of Directors shall be final 30 days prior to Annual Meeting.

Proxy Vote Procedure

A member in good standing who is unable to attend the Annual Meeting may submit a Proxy Vote Authorization Form naming an eligible designated voter. The form shall be received via U.S. Mail or electronically by the designated Election Committee member no later than seven days prior to the first day of the Annual Conference OR shall be personally submitted to the Election Committee on or before the day of the Annual meeting. The Election Committee reserves the right to establish certification of proxies.

Election Procedure

The Chair of the Elections Committee or another member of the Election Committee as may be designated by the President shall conduct election proceedings.

Elections shall be held through a secret ballot process. Ballots for the election of the President, Vice-President and Board members will list the names of the persons who have appropriately filed Declarations of Candidacy and will provide spaces for members to write in names of members appropriately nominated from the floor.

Members who have not filed declarations may be nominated from the floor; however they may be nominated for no more than one office. In no case shall the name of a member, whether through declaration or nomination from the floor, appear more than once on the list of candidates at the close of nominations from the floor or at the time of voting at the Annual Conference. Incumbent Officers or Board members seeking election to the Board or as an Officer should file a formal declaration in accordance with the procedure set forth in the Declarations for Election to Office procedures above.

Nominations from the floor must be made and seconded by eligible members. Members may not nominate themselves.

The Election Committee shall make every effort to determine the eligibility for election to the Board of all members nominated from the floor. Should it be later determined that at the time of the election a member nominated from the floor and elected was ineligible, then the member will be disqualified from holding office and member receiving the next highest votes will be deemed elected. Absent the existence of such a member, the position will be declared vacant.

If a member whose name appears on the official ballot elects to withdraw as a candidate for the office indicated on the ballot, he/she shall not be eligible for nomination from the floor for any position on the ballot for which another member is listed. Eligibility shall be restricted to positions for which no member has filed a declaration or received a nomination from the floor.

The person designated to conduct the elections shall, once nominations are closed, first proceed with the balloting for the election of the President, Vice-President, and the Board of Directors. In the event of a tie vote for any office, the tie shall be broken by a flip of the coin.

Special Election

In the event the election of the President or Vice-President results in a vacant unexpired term or terms on the Board of Directors, the Chair of the Elections Committee, or another member of the Election Committee as may be designated by the President, shall conduct a special election, also by secret ballot. Should the regular election of the President and Vice-President result in two vacant unexpired terms on the Board of Directors of varying durations, the person receiving the most votes in the special election shall be elected to the vacancy of the longest duration. Absent the existence of two or more candidates for the two unexpired seats, the shorter vacancy will remain vacant until filled by the Board.

Any member who has filed a Declaration of Candidacy, or who has been nominated and seconded from the floor, for an At-Large seat on the Board during the regular election shall be automatically included on the special election ballot, and nominations will be accepted from the floor for any eligible member, including any individual who during the regular election had declared or been nominated for President or Vice-President or who withdrew a Declaration of Candidacy.

Responsibility for Conducting Elections and Interpreting Election Regulations

The Election Committee shall be solely responsible for conducting the election of Officers and Board of Directors and shall establish procedures in addition to those included herein, subject to approval of the Board of Directors to regulate and guide the nomination and balloting processes.<sup>2</sup> Interpretation and application of Board-approved procedures that arise prior to the annual conference shall be decided by a unanimous vote of the Election Committee; interpretation and application of Board approved procedures that arise during the annual conference shall be decided by a unanimous vote of the Election Committee members present. The decision of the Election Committee shall be final. Absent a unanimous vote, the decision of the President shall be final.

Approved by the Board: April 8, 2015

Ms. Martinez,

Today in the POC's Personnel Subcommittee meeting, we asked about the status of NACOLE Conference registration for POB Members and CPOA Office Investigators. As you know, NACOLE is the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement, and the premier, if not the only, organization of this type.

Ms. Hammer stated that while NACOLE was set up for the POB Members, she was awaiting confirmation from the DOJ to ensure that the NACOLE training was appropriate and approved for the investigators and staff.

I have been associated with NACOLE since 2001; they have been the premier civilian oversight organization, and one of the few places that civilian investigators can receive training and certification. I am enclosing the agenda for the upcoming Conference; I think you'll find it very relevant to the work of the CPOA Office.

In the past, the IRO Office sent all the staff, including the administrative assistant, because the City was seeking the NACOLE Conference in Albuquerque. The 2016 Conference will be in Albuquerque, which makes it more important that all the staff attend, since we are hosts for the event.

Please let all of us know as soon as your office has approved this training for the CPOA Office staff, so that we can get them registered within the early registration discount period.

Please feel free to call me with any questions. Thanks very much, -Beth

News and events in civilian oversight and police accountability.

In this Edition...

- Welcome to the new NACOLE Digest!
- NACOLE submits public comment to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights
- A Call for Papers
- Register for the 21st Annual Conference
- Community oversight in Utah
- Police technology and civil rights
- Summer edition of the NACOLE Review

Welcome to the new NACOLE Digest!

Since 1995, NACOLE has worked hard to bring you information about civilian oversight. Recently, we have significantly expanded the amount and types of information.

We are conscious of the fact that our emails are just one of the many you receive daily in your inbox. Our new e-digest format will offer regular, user-friendly information that won't clog your inbox.

The Digest will not replace the articles, insights, or updates published in the NACOLE Review or posted on the NACOLE Listserv. The Digest is yet another resource provided by NACOLE to get the latest news in civilian oversight and police accountability, updates and events, and information on training across the nation.

If you have an event or information you wish to be considered for inclusion in the digest, please email mcellhiney@nacole.org. We will make every effort to include as much of the information submitted to us as possible.

NACOLE Submits Public Comment to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights

On June 19, 2015, NACOLE submitted public comment to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights for its Briefing on Police Practices and Use of Force, held on April 20, 2015 in New York City. The briefing was a chance for the Commission to hear from experts concerning current police tactics, training, and field implementation to help identify practices that could avoid deadly confrontations. ## Community oversight in Utah

Earlier this month, the ACLU of Utah brought together approximately 30 state legislators, police chiefs from throughout Utah and experts such as NACOLE Board Member and Independent Monitor of the Denver Police and Sheriff Department, Nicholas Mitchell and Rick Rasmussen, Salt Lake City Civilian Review Board's Investigator and Administrator to discuss the possibility of implementing oversight throughout the state. Although the idea was met with some skepticism, it was generally well accepted and experts were able to provide valuable information to those in attendance.

Police technology and civil rights

On May 19, 2015, NACOLE Board Member Christian Klossner participated in a discussion exploring the issues surrounding body worn cameras and how we can better understand communities' interests and concerns surrounding their use. In addition to his participation, Mr. Klossner provided examples from the District of Columbia's Office of Police Complaints and Denver's Office of the Independent Monitor of how to monitor policy compliance and the kind of analysis that each police department should be doing when it comes to police technology.

Summer edition of the NACOLE Review now available

The Summer Edition of the NACOLE Review is now available. In addition to articles exploring topics such as body-worn cameras and effective community involvement, this is our annual conference edition. It features articles and information about our Keynote Speaker, Vanita Gupta, Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General and head of Civil Rights at the U.S. Department of Justice; our host city Riverside, California; the current schedule; and hotel and other information.

Date: Friday, June 26, 2015 12:58:36 PM

All: I just had a very nice conversation with Cameron McEllhiney of NACOLE. She confirmed that even though it's not yet official because the contracts aren't signed, (and even though it really wasn't supposed to be announced yet), that NACOLE is indeed coming to Albuquerque in 2016. The other choice was Detroit, but Detroit dropped the ball and missed a deadline, so ABQ was chosen.

Jay Rowland originally put in for the NACOLE conference about 10 years ago, and folks have been trying every since, so it's very exciting that this is finally going to happen. Cudos to Robin and the CPOA Staff for continuing to work on this with the Convention & Visitor's Bureau folks.

Cameron stated that they normally don't select a City when there is a potential change in Executive Directors, but she told me that since so many of the NACOLE Board members still keep in touch with me, and they knew I was one of the POB members, that they decided to select Albuquerque anyway. They are a really nice group at NACOLE, and it was very kind of her to say that.

Carmon is looking forward to meeting many of you this fall at the NACOLE conference in Riverside. We should schedule a time for POB and CPOA Staff members to meet with NACOLE Board members and do some advance planning. We will be expected to speak at the Conference in at least one slot, and I've already spoken there a couple of times, so we need other POB members who are willing to participate to think about doing that.

Thanks again to all who made this possible - the official announcement will be forthcoming in the next few weeks. Thanks, -B

The first journal article discusses trigger-happy APD shooter Brian Pitzer while the second includes statement by interim Chief Banks who had said to KOAT in an earlier 2013 report that it was acceptable for police officers to lie to protect themselves. I assume the videos will prove that the officers didn't lie when saying the fleeing suspect was pointing a gun at them.

Carjacking suspect shot at by officer gives SWAT team the slip

Albuquerque police search for a suspect near San Pedro and Karlson NE Wednesday morning. (Roberto E. Rosales/Journal)By Robert Browman And Nicole Perez / Journal Staff Writers

Kat Ramos heard it before she saw it. Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Then screeching tires. A car came barreling toward her, narrowly missing her son, who was playing with Legos on the sidewalk. She had just witnessed the Albuquerque Police Department's latest officer-involved shooting. Police say an APD officer opened fire at a carjacking suspect who was fleeing down Ramos' block in a car Wednesday morning. The suspect, who police said pointed a handgun at the officer, sped away and drove to a mobile home park in the Northeast Heights. SWAT officers worked throughout the day at the mobile home park to try to find the suspect and arrest him, only to find he wasn't there Wednesday night. The incident began when officers were called to Española and Grand NE around 10 a.m. after a security company gave them GPS data on a car that had been carjacked from a woman, said officer Tanner Tixier, an APD spokesman. Police Chief Gorden Eden said that when officers arrived at the scene, they took two suspects into custody, but that a third suspect jumped into a stolen vehicle and fled. "As the suspect fled the scene, he pointed the gun at one of our officers, who shot at the suspect an unknown number of times," Eden said. Tixier said he didn't know whether the suspect was struck by the gunfire. Eden didn't name the officer who fired but said he wasn't injured in the shooting and would be placed on paid administrative leave, as is standard in police shootings. Although shooting at a moving car is a violation of APD's policies, Eden said the officer had perceived a threat to his safety. "The person, while he was in a vehicle, pointed a firearm at the officer," Eden said. "The officer perceived a threat and responded according to this training." Ramos said she was drinking coffee with her neighbor and saw about six police cars in front of a house about a block down her street. Officers started making announcements over a loudspeaker. Then, she said, she saw a gray sedan weave through the police cars and speed down the street. An officer walking on the east side of the street raised his gun and pointed it at the car, which was fleeing ahead of him, Ramos said. Then she heard five shots. "The cop just opened fire, trying to take him out," she said. She said she couldn't see whether the suspect pointed a gun at the officer but said officers told her he did. Shannon O'Neil, who lives nearby, said he heard five shots, went outside and heard an older officer tell the other officers that he had missed the suspect. "He said something to the effect of,

TO: ALL

(DOJ-please pass to Loretta Lynch)

DANIEL WEBSTER-ALL OUR SORROW IN HIS PASSING

I asked often in my past e-mails to please pray for the recovery of a good cop and former 20 year Army Ranger, combat veteran-Daniel Webster. We lost this good cop today and all of the city is grieving. See <http://www.kob.com/article/stories/S3945490.shtml?cat=500#.VjKundKrTDc>. Thanks also to the good doctors at UNMH who worked hard to try to save him.

The gesture by a former fellow Vietnam vet yesterday to give Daniel one of his Bronze Stars showed the high respect he and we all had for Daniel. I'm sure the rest of us would also have willingly donated our own awarded Bronze Star for our wartime service to that good cop.

MORE PRO-BERRY JOURNAL PROPAGANDA TODAY

The danger now is to allow Berry, Perry and Eden and APD's corrupt command staff to go back to their good old days of "them vs. us" police training and shoot first and ask questions later. Why are we not surprised with yet another reported Photo-Op arranged by Berry put on the front page of today's Journal, "Mayor, police gathers as Webster battles for his life." See <http://www.abqjournal.com/667281/news/officer-webster-battles-for-his-life.html>.

The Journal's editor Kent Walz was more than glad to accommodate him. The 10-27 blog posting by Joe Monahan at <http://joemonahansnewmexico.blogspot.com/> says when properly criticizing the Journal said, "Its editor enjoys the title "Deputy Mayor" from those in the know. The Journal has become a newspaper, dedicated to its propaganda." The ABQ Journal never seems to mention Berry's name when reporting a negative story." In my earlier e-mails, I was less kind to Walz who I compared to Hitler's propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels. See the October 23 Journal article and later October 25 editorial in the Journal attached with my comments to both. Walz and his propaganda crew must think we readers are morons.

JUST POLICE LIVES MATTER?

Isn't it more than interesting that in the midst of the APD bloodbath on citizens-first under Schultz and then Eden, not once did Berry ever mention these police murders of citizens during any one of his annual state of the city addresses or expressed any remorse for their killings. When homeless camper James Boyd was murdered by Eden's cops Perez and Sandy that was captured in a likely inadvertently released helmet recording, Berry would claim that this shooting was now "a game changer." What he meant was that former Chief's Schultz's blessed by Berry policy of stonewalling NM IPRA requests for incriminating video will be continued and the oppressive blue code of silence will be demanded of all officers at all cost. Honest officers rightly feared for their careers if they exposed the sanctioned lying within APD. Boyd's murder was the first and only time a APD recording showing the actual shooting was ever released and APD's IPRA stonewalling people like Reynaldo Chavez would again be told to ignore our State law the NM IPRA and make sure no other incriminating recordings are released. When Eden tried to make Chavez his scapegoat for the criticism of his IPRA stonewalling policy, Eden fired him. Chavez then spilled his guts including saying how he was directed to cover up the murder of Mary Han.

Both Joe Monahan and I are not alone in damning the Journal-particularly its editorials as nothing but a propaganda vehicle for Berry and the culture of corruption that has become even worse here since he was elected in 2009. Also see <http://civicpolicy.com/journalwatch/?p=7560&cpage=1#comment-12704> "Falsifying The News-Albuquerque Journal Watch I have often referred you readers to the honest reporting and analysis in Joe Monahan's blog, in the Eye on Albuquerque's blog <http://eyeonalbuquerque.blogspot.com/>, the ABQ Free Press newspaper at www.freeabq.com and other news outlets. The Eye's latest blog today memorialized Officer Webster while yesterday's and Joe Monahan's October 27 and 28 postings that are attached tell more of the truth about APD's cesspool..

RAHM'S RULE-GUIDANCE

Now with the same day deaths of Lilly Garcia in a road rage where blame was never but should be placed on her father as well as the boomerang criminal, and then the shooting of officer Webster, Berry's advisors told him to follow the advice to all corrupt politicians by former Obama Chief of Staff Rahm Emanuel. While working for our President Rahm would tell him, "You never let a serious crisis go to waste."

That's exactly what Berry is doing now and what Emanuel is doing now as the Mayor of Chicago. Earlier this month Rahm would begin by claiming that all his Chicago killer cops are now in a "fetal position." See <http://www.abqjournal.com/658941/news/chicago-mayor-cops-now-fetal.html>. This corrupt politician intentionally fails to mention that his cops' shootings and other acts of excessive force against citizens are finally now being questioned.

Rahm wants the public to allow his cops to shoot first and ask questions later like Eden, Perry and Berry also now desires here. None of our City leaders including our thus far apathetic Councilors are willing to believe Berry, Eden and the corrupt Command staff are the problem. They are more preoccupied with feathering their own nests.

In addition to throwing unjustified retention money at Eden's senior officers, Berry thinks the time is now right for the NM legislators to allowing double dipping that Berry claims will stop the mass exodus of the good APD cops. He thinks we are fools. That's NOT the reason why cops are leaving APD in numbers.

WE NOW KNOW THAT THOSE IN THE DOJ NOT OUR SAVIORS BUT WANT TO BLAME OTHERS LIKE US AND THE MEDIA

While we have looked to the DOJ to help us clean up the cesspool in APD beginning with Mayor Berry, new US Attorney General Loretta Lynch made it clear in her early October public comments that she is firmly in the camp of police forces throughout the US and the police chiefs are her advisors. Unless a black citizen is murdered by the police, she seemingly doesn't care. See <http://readersupportednews.org/news-section2/318-66/32732-loretta-lynch-government-shouldnt-require-reports-of-people-killed-by-police>

In Wednesday's Journal article Loretta Lynch would echo this misguided and dangerous policy at a recent International Association of Police Chiefs Conference held in Rahm's corrupt Chicago saying she is depending on these Police Chiefs to advise her what to do. This is essentially nothing except go back to the good old days. She would also parrot her President's claims that none of the cops are to blame but it's the media who is now daring to report their unjustified shootings and other use of excessive force.

STILL "THEM AGAINST US" HERE

President Obama also at the Chicago Chief's conference would claim that the media should stop saying that cops believe "it's them against us." Really? Yet see my August 20 2013 comments to the memo sent out-likely written by APOA president Shaun Willoughby attached that tells the rank and file to remember that it indeed "them against us."

MONDAY'S COUNCIL MEETING

Once again, none of the Councilors will have the guts to ask Eden or Perry why APD is not complying with our State law-the NM IPRA and release the recordings of cop shootings and other likely incriminating information requested. As they know, Eden and Berry's attorney Jessica Hernandez two of the Governor's throwaways have been defying my latest October 1 IPRA request to see the videos of APD's illegal shooting at a fleeing suspect in his car.

See another example of this titled, "A Prosecutor's Guide To Not Prosecuting A Cop who Killed Someone-Six easy steps to decide that an officer who shot an unarmed teen shouldn't be punished." at http://www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/police-prosecutions-zachary-hammond\_562fee51e4b00aa54a4bb834?utm\_hp\_ref=politics -

Will Council President Garduno who only seems preoccupied with sponsoring meaningless and often hateful resolutions ever allow me to show my US Flag upside down even though he knows it is NOT a mere banned banner but a US Flag Code sign of a people in distress? We in this City are in distress! I doubt is as like Berry, President Garduno also seems to have no qualms lying to people.

After telling me many months ago that now as the Council President, I would now be able to display it upside down, when I did so. He then directed that it be taken away from me after his fellow P.C buddy Councilor Ken Sanchez objected to it being shown. He also allowed a misinformed alleged former vet to ridicule me publicly at the meeting saying showing this upside down flag was a UCMJ Court Martial offense.

At last night's Presidential debate, one candidate said that one thing that he can NEVER forgive is someone lying to him. I'll never forgive or forget the Council President lying to me as well. Good riddance.

THE NOVEMBER 5 COMMUNITY MEETING WITH JAMES GINGER AND THE DOJ

See the attached image providing details of the November 5 meeting at the Sheraton Uptown with toothless APD reform monitor James Ginger and the DOJ.

Why is APD's leadership, the Mayor's attorney Jessica Hernandez and the APOA President who have all been obstructionists to APD reform being invited to this community meeting as this is blatantly disrespectful to we citizens who show up? Are they there to answer the questions Dr. Ginger can't? It's disgraceful to all Ms. Gibson. Why not invite US Attorney General Loretta Lynch to personally hear what we say?

For WE THE PEOPLE

When Does It End?

The recent murder of innocent four year old girl Lilly Garcia and the shooting of Officer Daniel Webster has left our community in a state of shock, and once again put Albuquerque in the national lime light.

We at the EYE were disgusted by the quick reaction of the politicians. Chief Eden asking on local news, what is going on in New Mexico? Mayor Berry asking state lawmakers to make changes to grow the Police Department and keep violent felons in jail (reported in Journal ).

Let's looks at these two politicians. As reported in ABQ Free Press, Mayor Berry was asked why The Albuquerque Police Department is having problems retaining Officers. Berry responded that Officer retention is a problem across the state. The Free Press investigated and found that most Police Departments in New Mexico are staffed at 95% or better (a Berry lie). When the ABQ Free Press asked for an explanation from Berry he and his staff refused to answer.

We at The Eye want everyone to understand that before Berry became Mayor he was one of those State Lawmakers making the laws we have now; No change in the laws is going to bring cops back to

The Albuquerque Police Department for the simple reason they don't trust Berry or Eden and want no part of your failure and non leadership.

You Mayor, you Chief, and past Chief have been responsible for the termination of good officers just in an attempt to make you politicians look good in the media. The Officers can't know if they are going to be the next victim of your politics, not to mention they have cameras that do not work, can't count on their pay check being the same from week to week, or if their money is going to be stolen by the top brass for bonuses for their already fat salary ( ALIBI).

Chief Eden it is not a problem with New Mexico, it is a problem with Albuquerque. We at the EYE would like you to know where was Officer Webster's back up? Oh that's right you have no cops, and no way of getting anymore. Chief you are a politician and all you want to do is shift the blame to someone else. The Officers both past and present look at an empty suit and empty uniform with Disgust!

We at The EYE are proud of The Citizens of Albuquerque how they have come together to help the families of these tragedies. We have good people in a good city run by incompetent politicians that all they can offer is lies and alibi and unfortunately these tragedies will continue.

God bless and keep Lilly Garcia and Officer Daniel Webster in your prayers.

The Missing Word In ABQ's Crime Dilemma, Plus: Guv's Machine And City Hall, Also: The Econ Beat, Baca Blasts Back And Turnout Talk

Whatever happened to rehabilitation? Has the word ever left the lips of Gov. Martinez Mayor Berry or APD Chief Eden? Amid the city's latest violent crime outbreak cries of "lock 'em up and throw away the key!" dominate the debate. But you can't keep them locked up forever. Santa Fe defense attorney John Day comes with this on perhaps the most neglected aspect of the New Mexico crime dilemma: Day said it is impossible to lock everyone up forever, and believes prisons need to make sure they're doing everything they can to prepare inmates for their return to freedom. He questioned if prisons are doing enough to rehabilitate and address the underlying issues so that when convicts get out of prison, they do not return to criminal activity. Fiscal conservatives recoil when they hear that New Mexico needs "massive" investment to resolve its crime and education crisis. But a 4 year old shot dead on the freeway and police officers being gunned down like sitting ducks just might make some of them rethink their position. Isn't rehabilitation—a word that in this environment seems downright foreign and a throwback to another era--worth a better try, along with proper punishment?

HOW IT WORKS

We took Mayor Berry's call for legislative action in light of the slaying of 4 year old Lilly Garcia and the shooting of APD Officer Webster as a thinly veiled launch of the GOP campaign to try to take over the Dem-controlled state Senate next year.

Michael Corwin, a longtime observer (and critic) of the Guv's political machine, says that analysis was a no-brainer: There is little doubt as to why Mayor Berry chose to launch a political attack on the Legislature rather than try to develop and implement a plan to turn Albuquerque around following the dual tragedies. Berry, like Gov. Martinez, is attached by the umbilical cord to political consultant (and Machine head) Jay McCleskey. McCleskey has cross-pollinated both administrations to the point where messaging and actions are one. Want proof?

Jessica Hernandez, Martinez's chief legal counsel and deputy chief of staff has become Berry's legal adviser, although technically she is supposed to serve as the city's attorney. APD Chief Gordon Eden was serving as Martinez's director of public safety, until what in baseball terms is described as a double steal, where Edén despite having no police department experience, was tapped by Berry to head APD, making room for Greg Fouratt, a Martinez advisor on judicial selections and at the time the director of litigation at the US Attorney's office, to become Martinez's new director of public safety. No one else was considered for the position of public safety director. Without ample coordination such moves do not happen. McCleskey, for better or worse, yields significant sway over both the mayor's office and the governor's office, so much so, that both offices, have merged into a full time coordinated campaign operation, whose interests lie solely in making money for a selected few and advancing political careers and agendas. It may be working politically but in terms of improving the state and city? Not so much. Interested in reaching New Mexico's most informed audience? Advertise here.

The Economy And Crime Still The Sore Spots; Forbes Highlights The Link, Plus: More Crime Crisis Coverage As Readers Take On Media And The Democrats, And: Time For The Best Things About ABQ

The economic spinners for the Republican administrations--Jon Barela in Santa Fe and Gary Oppedahl in ABQ--continue to claim that New Mexico's business climate is now highly attractive because of changes implemented by Governor Martinez and ABQ Mayor Berry. But their assertion is simply not true. Forbes Magazine is a pro-business publication if there ever was one. In its 2015 rankings of the "The Best and Worst States to Do Business" New Mexico ranks among the worst states in the nation for business, coming in a dismal 47th. Here's why, says Forbes:

Oil & gas production, tourism and the federal government drive New Mexico's economy. Federal technology labs, Los Alamos National Laboratory and Sandia National Laboratories, are two of the largest employers in the state. New Mexico ranks in the bottom six overall for a third straight year largely due to a weak labor supply and lousy current economic climate. New Mexico has the worst employment growth in the U.S. over the past five years. The state also fares poorly on quality of life metrics, a product of comparatively low school test scores and high crime And Forbes repeated that stab to the New Mexico heart, noting that we had a net outmigration of 11,500 people in 2014.

Notice how Forbes lists "high crime" as a reason this has become a lousy place to do business. So, you see, Mayor and Governor, it's not only yer little 'ol blog that is saying this truth, it's your business friends of the highest order. A massive investment is needed in crime fighting and education if the state is going to pull itself up the ladder. But you already knew that. . . More on this now from an Alligator who on Monday attended the University of New Mexico's economic development summit:

How will Gov. Martinez and Mayor Berry deflect these numbers? UNM held its second economic development conference about creating a "rainforest" for business growth. Martinez Chief of Staff Keith Gardner spoke and blamed the same people the administration has been blaming for 5 years--Congress, the federal government, etc... There were lots of claims that Martinez and Berry were completely engaged in economic development but they didn't show up for this crucial meeting. They aren't engaged, they're negligent The Governor is in Hawaii this week raising money for the GOP.

BLOOD ON THE STREETS

When there's literally blood on the streets--and, boy, has that been the case in ABQ lately--the hits come for anyone directly or indirectly involved. That includes the media. From the email: The most befuddling part of it is the media. They are all on the Mayor Berry bandwagon and as interested in protecting him and promoting his interests as he is. The ABQ Journal never seems to mention Berry's name when reporting a negative story. Its editor enjoys the title "Deputy Mayor" from those in the know. The Journal has become a newspaper, dedicated to its propaganda. TV news is appalling and all about making money. It supports the "status quo" and can't risk offending advertisers.

However, the national media is reporting the truth. Look at the New Yorker, Rolling Stone and LA Times articles. Compare them to the crap we get here. The intrepid Dan Klein, a retired APD sergeant and a frequent blog contributor, says he has some very specific questions for the media to ask Mayor Berry:

1. Officers began leaving Albuquerque in great numbers starting in 2011. This was after Berry voided the contract raises, reduced officers' salaries and ended the retention bonus program (city audit in 2012 showed 133 officers were in this program and left when it ended). All of this before the legislature even began debating changes to PERA. Albuquerque and the APD police union have been at odds for years over the contract and the lawsuit over that voided contract.

On October 19 City Councilor Ken Sanchez was going to sponsor a bill to provide Berry the money he needs to settle the police contract and lawsuit. Instead of accepting it and settling, Berry tells Sanchez it's none of his business and all the GOP councilors back Berry. The money disappears and we still have a huge labor dispute. Here is the question for Berry:

Before you point fingers at the Legislature and demand that the entire state be on the hook for APD manning issues (double dipping), shouldn't you settle your contract dispute with the APOA? If settled before Thanksgiving the city can stop a number of retirements that are slated for the end of the year.

2. The District Attorney pointed out that the new Supreme Court rule, requiring indictments within 10 days (if the offender is in custody) is almost impossible for her office to comply. Why? Because APD doesn't staff enough people in their crime lab and their court discovery unit to process the requests in a timely manner.

Remember why the Supreme Court made this rule, APD left 3 innocent men to languish in jail (18 months for two and 30 months for the other). DNA evidence excluded all three from the crimes they were accused of, but APD didn't report this because Discovery was not in effect. This is why we have a Constitution. Don't toss it out just because Berry refuses to staff court services and the crime lab with enough employees to do the job. So here is the next question:

Instead of pointing a finger at the Supreme Court rule which simply protects an innocent citizen from being incarcerated for long periods of time, why doesn't Berry adequately staff and fund the APD Crime Lab and Court Discovery Unit so that these items are processed and handed to defense attorneys and the District Attorney within the 10 day time period? Instead of pointing fingers and demanding a change of Constitutional law why not fix what you have the ability to fix? Fully staff and fund the APD Crime Lab and Court Discovery Unit!

This is the home of New Mexico politics.

LATEST PRO-BERRY JOURNAL PROPAGANDA WITH MY COMMENTS HIGHLIGHTED

Journal Editorial: "Officers' lives are always at stake to protect the public"
by Albuquerque Journal Editorial Board Sunday, October 25th, 2015 at 12:02am

Some extracts along with my comments

"Even before this seemingly open season on police officers, NOT TRUE HERE OR ELSEWHERE IN THE US-see www.freeabq report on this. There is NO war on cops!

"APD was already short handed and working under Department of Justice oversight after the feds concluded the department had a pattern and practice of using excessive force. Those reforms will take time. Still, a vocal group of community activists tends to be quick to condemn officers on the occasions when they do fire their weapons and generally silent when they are victims. A lie. We all care for all fallen officers as well. Why won't the Journal or Councilors ever ask why Berry, Perry, Eden and others why they are not releasing the recordings of all their shootings? The only exception was the one helmet video of their murder of James Boyd. Why won't the DOJ or toothless "monitors" in PMR inc. ask?

Not surprisingly Berry's propagandists on the editorial board intentionally omitted APD's own Lt. Greg Brachle's shooting of fellow cop Jacob Grant that Berry and his personal attorney Jessica Hernandez are now trying to justify. Grant is now suing.

In response to this editorial, former APD cop Dan Klein wrote "Please don't forget Albuquerque Police Detective Jacob Grant, who was gravely injured during a drug investigation in January 2015. Not sure how the Journal Editors forgot to include him. All cops lives matter." Yes-not only Grant's but all citizens' lives matter as well.

MORE BERRY PROPAGANDA-TRANSFERRING THE BLAME FROM HIMSELF

Emotional Berry urges lawmakers to take action

By Dan McKay / Journal Staff Writer Published: Friday, October 23rd, 2015 at 5:23pm

Extracts from it-again with my comments

Berry paused repeatedly to compose himself as he spoke to reporters in a City Hall conference room. "I've seen one too many officers ???? wheeled down the hallway on a bloody gurney," the mayor said. "I'm tired of it." A BLATANT LIE MR. MAYOR. "TOO MANY OFFICERS?" HOW ABOUT "TOO MANY CITIZENS WHEELED DOWN THE HALLWAY ON A BLOODY GURNEY?"

Changes to the state pension plan to encourage retired officers to return to work. INSULTING SUGGESTION THAT IGNORES THE REAL PROBLEM IS HIM, EDEN AND HIS COMMAND STAFF

The victims and their families "have all been let down by a system that's got some holes in it," the Mayor said, "so let's get them fixed." AGAIN FAILS TO BLAME HIMSELF. FACT-NOT ONCE DURING ANY OF HIS PRESS CONFERENCES DID BERRY EVER MENTION-MUCH LESS EXPRESSED REMORSE FOR THOSE RECOD NUMBERS KILLED BY SCHULTZ'S AND NOW EDEN'S COPS

This is a great town full of great people." UNFORTUNATELY BERRY, PERRY, EDEN AND EDEN'S CORRUPT COMMAND STAFF ARE NOT AMONG OUR GREAT PEOPLE HERE.

"I didn't come here to point fingers," he said. REALLY? HE BLAMES EVERYBODY BUT HIMSELF

"We can't let the pain of these last few days fade away," the Republican mayor said. THE PAIN STARTED HERE WITH BERRY'S ELECTION IN 2009 AND HIS THEN BLESSED APD KILLING SPREE OF CITIZENS UNDER SCHULTZ AND NOW EDEN, THE WITHHOLDING OF ALL INCRIMINATING APD RECORDINGS AND MANY MILLIONS OF OUR TAX DOLLARS PAID OUT IN LAWSUITS.

The mayor said he had used some "language I can't repeat" in recent discussion with lawmakers. "We're going to have to pick our poison," he said. "Do you want officers or don't you?" THIS BERRY "SOLUTION" INSULTS OUR INTELLIGENCE. THE REAL SOLUTION IS FIRST A CHANGE OF APD LEADERSHIP INCLUDING EDEN AND HIS COMMAND STAFF AND OUR NOW APATHETIC COUNCIL-NOT ALLOW DOUBLE DIPPING. THEN IN 2017 GETTING HIM AND HIS CORRUPT CRONIES LIKE PERRY AND HERNANDEZ AND OTHERS OUT OF PUBLIC OFFICE.

The mayor estimated the city could bring back 100 to 150 officers if return-to-work legislation is passed. NO AND UNJUSTIFIED. He maintains it would not hurt the pension fund. ANOTHER BERRY LIE-IT WOULD HURT THE FUND

TO: POC and Task Force on August 20, 2013 by Silvio Dell'Angela-Stop Police Atrocities NOW!-SPAN

FYI is a recent appeal sent out to all APD union officers in response to a recent Eye on Albuquerque.com posting. It was sent out to all APD/APOA union members by Shaun Willoughby -the current APOA VP and its Political Action Committee Chairman. The disgraceful Shaun pretends that another APD officer authored it. It was directed against all honest officers and retired APD Sergeant mayoral candidate Paul Heh who dared break Schultz's and now Banks' oppressive blue code of silence on former Union President Joey Sigala's misuse of APOA dues. One honest officer recipient disgusted with Shaun's "it's us against them" appeal for all to shut up, leaked it to the "Eye" and TV reporter. Note the misuse of grammar and failure to proofread.

Prior to last night's 8/19 Council meeting new Chief Banks apparently asked a number of Councilors who are the willing enablers of police misconduct like Janice Arnold Jones, Trudy Jones and others to honor APD officers for some routine actions. Among the officers recognized was the Leah Kelly-Acata, the shooter of a young man downtown who was only cutting himself with a six inch round-tip butter spreader. The former Leah Kelly-now married, has also been the subject of numerous citizen public complaints (CPC) to the POC and because no recordings were made she was always exonerated. I pointed out to these councilors that they never bother to honor returning military vets who truly put their lives at risk. I am a Vietnam vet.

The disgusting letter from this disgraceful cop/union officer follows:

Disappointed board member. said...Hello,

I would like to say this to all officers.I would first like to voice my displeasure at the comments here and at work by officers against the APOA and it's staff present and past.

Everyone wants to judge what we do here. I am sick of it. I am sick of hearing you needy complaining officers bash us, the department, the city and it's leadership. You are all worthless. We work hard at keeping stability and you all do nothing but attack the place and tear it down. You all are the reason for things falling apart. Don't cry about how your money is spent when you all never show up for union meetings.

We know who is speaking out against us and you will see. All of you air our dirty laundry. Laundry that should be kept in house. You all give the community ammunition against us. You should know better. This liberal retarded band of vengeful activists called Albuquerque makes me sick. You are no better than them. These bunch of uneducated subhuman animals that constantly attack us, march against us and sue us for no other reason than to fill their greedy pockets so that they can buy more drugs to smoke up and shiny rims for their ghetto rides.

You have lost sight of the big picture. We should be backing eachother. For your information, it is us against them! Do half of these so called citizens have jobs? Probably not. They probably have EBT cards though. These entitled lowlifes have the guts to insult us in our house? But you all attack the APOA? As for money being stolen, that should have been handled in-house. There was no reason_ for that to get out. That was just plain stupid. Everyone here is angry and hateful. I will not standby and accept the trash talking just because we are not backing Paul. He should have left well enough alone. He decided to cross the blue line when he made complaint against a fellow board member. You don't turn on eachother. A rat is a rat. Period. Joey may have been a bonehead, but he was our bonehead. We could have taken care of it, but Paul had to be the hero and take the official route. This caused so much aggravation. Paul is also supported here. This is why we voted not to support him. He betrayed us just as all of you shit talkers here do. You cry about representation. You don't deserve representation and he doesn't deserve support. Be happy you have jobs. If you don't like it, quit and join the jobless moochers called Vecinos United and the rest of the entitlement crowd sucking the city dry. Go join the crybabies and see if anyone cares. Just like all of you complainers, these worthless whiners will eventually lose interest when their circus loses it's followers.

In closing, I will say this, nothing is perfect and nobody said life was fair. Get over it! You all deserve what you get. Crybaby people constantly bitching about the police when they contribute nothing to society and cops who are snitches who sell out their own. Sleep in the bed you all made. We do our jobs. Shame is you all have no idea because you are never at a damn meeting.

Cheers!

VICE-PRESIDENT-OFFICER SHAUN WILLOUGHBY

o Committees: Political Action Committee (Chair)

I became a member of the Albuquerque Police Department in 2002. I have been a member of the Albuquerque Police Officers Association Executive Board for the past 4 years and held the position of CIB representative for 3 years prior to becoming the APOA Vice President in May of 2012. My primary goals in this first term is to bring the APOA to a more solid fiscal position by controlling spending and over hauling our By-Laws to protect the assets of the Association.

Second, I would like to see the APOA more proactive in the community, thus having a positive impact for the citizens we are sworn to protect.

Most importantly, I want to bring that sense of family back to this organization, I want our members to look upon this Association with prideful eyes knowing they have people they Trust in their corner when the time comes. Thank you for the honor and opportunity to serve those who devote their lives serving others.

SOS DURAN AND NM REPRESENTATIVE REHM

Much has been written about our disgraceful Secretary of State Dianna Duran who our state legislators are wasting $250,000 of our tax dollars to hire an attorney and meet to decide whether she is impeachable. Duh!

See Joe Monahan's commentaries on Duran and the whole mess in Santa Fe. Also see photos attached (Images 1 and 3) of Dianna "Lucky 7" Duran. She is another example of what "New Mexico True" stands for.

I have been critical not only of the many former cops in James Ginger's PMR Inc. APD reform toothless monitoring-"audit" team but the four ex cops in the new Police Oversight Agency who are evaluating their brothers in blue. Other former cops are in our State legislature like Bill Rehm, Paul Pacheco and others who are also seemingly doing their part to perpetuate the police state we have here.

Bill not only expressed support for making the very few cop killings here a hate crime but in last night's KOB report (copy attached) seems to be providing cover for Dianna Duran. See Bill Rehm comments to Stuart Dyson. Sounds like Bill is suggesting an alibi to fellow Republican Duran claiming the money she took was merely a loan. Really Bill?

THUG PERRY

Also reference my earlier e-mails of another disgraceful individual-Berry's thug CAO Rob Perry who like Duran (and Berry) also represents what "New Mexico True" stands for. In one e-mail, I referred to an article in the latest 9/23 ABQ Free Press by the honest now retired-now disgusted APD officer Dan Klein.

In it, Dan compares Perry to someone far worse than Mafia boss Al Capone. He also refers to Perry's Mafia-like APD "soldiers" that includes Eden and those in his command staff.

Perry, clearly one of the most corrupt and disgraceful members of our government appointees earns $182,478,71/year now the highest paid in our City government. See photo attached (Image 4) of Perry.

Perry's history before coming here was not worthy of being hired-much less promoted from his former job as Berry's personal (not City) attorney to now our City's shadow Mayor. Berry like us obviously knew that as Secretary of the Department of Corrections, closed all prison law libraries and promoted/defended the high rate of solitary confinement in NM prisons. The July 22, 2001 article "Inmates do harder time" by Steve Terrell in the Santa Fe New Mexican has some of that information on Perry.

Recently we were insulted with retention bonuses given to Eden's corrupt Command staff who were responsible for the bloodbath here first under Schultz and now under Eden. Most on the Council were afraid to challenge but just accepted the BS Perry was spouting to justify it after seeing their intimidating entrance into the Council chambers when the matter was discussed- something orchestrated by Perry.

Those murdered with the blessing of these APD Command staff soldiers of Mafia-like boss Perry included many homeless including James Boyd by killer cops Perez and Sandy and fellow Vietnam vet Vincent Wood with PTSD who was murdered by two officers in July 2013. Both Perez and Sandy claim they are receiving death threats.

Yet it's not surprising that APD is making little effort to find out if they are real. It's likely more APD BS/lies to justify moving their trial to Las Cruces.

While we saw clear evidence in a helmet video of Boyd's murder (while others were never released according to a Live Leak posting), the videos of Wood's murder were withheld from the public and his two killers were never charged. As Image 2 says being homeless is not a crime as APD would have us believe.

TEFLON BRAD WINTER AS A COUNCILOR

We were lied to by Berry when told that Perry just had to get a huge pay raise to keep him here as CAO because the Mortgage Finance Authority was going to give him their head job-a job for which Rob knowingly was never qualified for.

Insiders claim that it was Brad Winter's wife Nan who worked at the MFA who would claim that Perry was their first choice-a knowingly false statement but something Brad's "Emperor" Berry wanted in order to justify Perry's pay raise.

Like Berry, nothing seems to stick to Teflon Winter (one of the best reasons for passing term limits) as he is again being endorsed by the Berry Journal for re-election to his District 4 seat solely because of his long service.

Insiders believe he will not serve his full 4 year term if elected but retire and let Berry appoint an even worse Republican machine controlled successor to represent District 4.

Some believe Berry's other Council sycophant my Councilor Trudy Jones would do the same- retire before her four year term was up.

WINTER WHILE AT APS

It's not surprising that no blame was ever placed on Brad for the disgraceful situation at APS long before Valentino showed up. This included his stonewalling of NM IPRA requests exposing his fiscal irresponsibility.

Seemingly also ignored was the fact that Brad served for months there after his retirement to help in the transition of disgraced superintendent Luis Valentino to the Superintendent's job.

Brad was likely the one who recommended that Valentino hire APS's School Board's arrogant ("How dare you criticize me?") President Don Duran's daughter to ensure the School Board's support. Another example of pay to play.

We are also asked to believe that Brad was hiding in a cave when Valentino's sex offender Martinez and the search firm's employee (who found Valentino) were hired. Also we are to believe that Brad had no influence in the selection of a mere caretaker Ms. Reedy as Valentino's replacement who conveniently decided to keep Don's daughter and the others and perpetuate the status quo.

How many more examples of "New Mexico True" can we stomach?

Special committee member: Loophole in campaign finance law could weaken case against NM Secretary of State

Created: 09/29/2015 5:21 PM By: Stuart Dyson, KOB Eyewitness News 4

There may be a loophole in the state's campaign finance law that could weaken the criminal case against Secretary of State Dianna Duran.

So says one state lawmaker who sits on the special investigatory committee looking into impeachment charges. Rep. Bill Rehm, an Albuquerque Republican, was re-reading the state election code before the committee's first hearing Monday, when he saw something in the section that spells out what candidates can spend campaign contribution money on – and what they can't.

"I am not advocating this," Rehm said. "I think it is unethical, but if you review the campaign laws it appears that there is nothing to stop you from borrowing (???) money from your campaign.

Duran is accused of embezzling money from her campaign accounts to pay off casino debts. She's also charged with fraud and money-laundering, but Rehm worries that the embezzlement charges could be weakened if she claims she was borrowing the money. (Really Bill?-Seems like a suggested defense to Duran?)

"This may damage the criminal case, but I still think there's ethical issues," Rehm said.

Rehm asked the legislature's legal staff to research the borrowing question, and that is being done. Attorney General Hector Balderas' staff will not comment on any of the legal issues in the case against Duran.

If she's impeached, she would be the first in state history. The committee will examine the criminal case evidence and the ethical issues, then recommend either impeachment or no impeachment to the full House of Representatives.

If the House votes to impeach, the case would go to the state Senate, which would then hold a trial and determine whether to remove her from office or let her stay. The Democratic Party of New Mexico called for Duran's immediate resignation Tuesday.

Dear City Councilors,

Attached is a letter giving notice of violations of the New Mexico Open Meetings Act by the Citizens' Police Oversight Agency concerning the selection of an Executive Director. As the attorney representing Mark Bralley and Vecinos United, I sought and secured a Writ of Mandamus ordering the Police Oversight Board to hold its selection of an Independent Review Officer "openly and in public in accordance with the mandatory provisions of the New Mexico Open Meetings Act." That was sixteen years ago, in 1999.

Unfortunately, City attorneys and officials are engaging in the same misconduct now with respect to selection of an Executive Director of the new Citizens' Police Oversight Agency. Please review the attached letter, and consider whether the City would be making the same mistake it made 16 years ago and whether the selection of a Director today would be in accordance with law and the rights of the people to know about the operations of their government. Thank you.

Albuquerque, New Mexico

Re: Violations of the New Mexico Open Meetings Act, §10-15-1, et seq.

Dear City Councilors:

Sixteen years ago, in 1999, I secured a Writ of Mandamus to ensure the openness of the process used to select the Independent Review Officer for the City's Police Oversight Board. The POB, poorly advised by City attorneys, had been going into closed meetings under the exception for "Limited Personnel Matters" even though the definition of "limited personnel matters" limits the exception to matters concerning current employees. A copy of that writ is attached.

The new Citizens' Police Oversight Agency is now making the same error and holding closed meetings on the selection of an Executive Director. Please consider this a "written notice of the claimed violation to the public body" pursuant to §10-15-3(B) of the Open Meetings Act with respect to the selection of an Executive Director of the CPOA, as follows:

1. On March 12, 2015, at the first meeting of the Citizens Oversight Board, "Mr. Bullock from the City Attorney's Office advised that the Board should go into Executive Session" to discuss the process for selecting the CPOA's Executive Director.

2. At the April meeting of the CPOA the Acting Chair "discussed the search process to select the new Executive Director:

The Board is bound by a Court Order to conduct interviews in an open meeting. The Board will select three names to be sent to the City Council . . . The City Council will make the decision on who becomes the Executive Director.

3. On May 19, 2015, according to the Board's minutes:

Board Member Fine made a motion that the Board meet in Executive Session regarding selection of the Executive Director. Board Member Ring seconded the motion. . . . At 5:42 p.m. the Board met in Executive Session to discuss the process of hiring an Executive Director.

M007068

The Executive Session ended at 7:03 p.m. After Executive Session, Board Member Fine made a motion to note that only personnel matters were discussed during the Executive Session. . . .

4. At the June 11, 2015 meeting of the CPOA, "Board Member Fine made a motion that the Board go into Executive Session. . . . The Board went into Executive Session at 4:34 p.m. The Board reconvened at 7:07 p.m. Acting Chair Mohr stated that the Board discussed select personnel matters and pending litigation."

5. At a special meeting on July 29, 2015, the Board interviewed candidates in public but then went into an Executive Session to discuss personnel matters. When they returned from the Executive Session the Board voted to reserve the Council Chambers for August 4, 2015 in order to rank the Executive Director candidates.

6. Although it is unknown what happened on August 4, there was no public discussion about the candidates for the Executive Director position and it is unknown how and by whom the three ranked candidates were chosen.

7. On August 12, 2015, the regular scheduled August 13 meeting of the CPOA Board was cancelled without any indication of why or by whom it was cancelled.

The Limited Personnel exception (H2) to the New Mexico Open Meetings Act allows closed meetings to discuss personnel actions concerning current employees only. It does not exempt discussions of candidates from open meetings requirements when those candidates are not current employees. Because the Citizens' Police Oversight Agency has improperly met in closed meetings to discuss both the selection process and the selection and ranking of candidates for the Executive Director position any action(s) taken as a result of such meetings should be considered void.

Please consider these matters prior to voting on the selection of the CPOA's Executive Director.

Yours very truly,

Not to be outdone by another one of Schultz's former bad senior command staff cops-Conrad Candelaria, we have yet another self proclaimed "hero" to the people-David Gilmore who believes he too did us all a favor when putting on the APD uniform in the "good old days" of no demanded police accountability.

He would be the latest to destroy his own credibility in his referenced letter to the Journal today. Yes Albuquerque is a violent city and the criminal trigger-happy cops in APD must share the blame for this.

Gilmore criticizes the DOJ investigation whose out of town clueless PMR Inc. assigned "auditors" are not allowed to be enforcers of police reform and are mostly retired police officers like him.

Spending $4.5+ million on them is a blatant waste of our tax dollars when honest local retired officers like Costales, Heh, Grover, Roberto and others could have done a better job for the money. But they knew too much about APD's cesspool.

Now we have the majority on the Police Oversight Board choosing to insult us further my making a clueless former cop from Milwaukee their first choice to be the new Executive Director of the Police Oversight Agency. The Mayor's minion Robin Hammer was bad enough and now this former cop possibly selected.

The only thing Gilmore said that was true was, "this DOJ investigation could have been totally avoided had the Mayor, CAO and chief of police along with his command staff and supervisors, been doing their jobs." This alone should have been the subject of his article but he was too gutless to elaborate on it but instead would then blame everybody else.

While claiming there are no longer enough officers to properly respond and claims we now need 1500, he conveniently forgets that over 40 officers were on the East Mesa for well over two hours before cops Perez and Sandy murdered homeless camper James Boyd. Five to ten times the number of officers needed are now being dispatched by APD.

Boyd NEVER threatened the K-9 dog handler or anyone else with his small knives that he pulled out to only protect himself against the vicious K-9 dog straining at its leash to rip him to pieces. The city paid out $5 million of our tax dollars to settle the family lawsuit in that Perez and Sandy murder.

Gilmore conveniently also ignores the fact that this was the first and only APD murder ever recorded and seen by the public. It went viral nationwide. Note that former NM IPRA stonewaller Reynaldo Chavez is now suing the city claiming city attorney Kathryn Levy told him to bury the recordings and other documentation proving that attorney Mary Han was murdered. Likely APD officers were directly or indirectly responsible for it.

One of Gilmore's last statements in the letter tells you how insulting to readers this former cop is. "I thoroughly enjoyed my tenure as an APD officer coming to work each day and not having the worries that officers have here today." TRANSLATED: In the good old days we didn't have to worry about ever being held accountable.

We didn't have to wear body cameras to record what we were doing including unjustifiably brutalizing and murdering citizens and putting our throw down guns next to their bodies. In these good old days, we could also trust that APD's corrupt Chiefs, deputy Chiefs, APD's Internal Affairs, the complicit multi-jurisdictional investigative teams and the DA would accept all of our lies.

Gilmore also knew that fellow officers wouldn't dare break the blue code of silence and even lie under oath during any court hearings. He also knew that the (afraid of APD retaliation) folks in the DA's office, members of their secret grand juries and regular juries would always bless everything APD cops do.

APD cops could even seize cell phone and other videos made by citizens and arrest them and also seize those recordings made by business surveillance cameras and destroy all of them.

Note the referenced AP article today that the latter is a nationwide problem with police departments. Embarrassing BCSO Sheriff Manny Gonzalez's deputies still seize citizen cell phones in defiance of a recent Supreme Court ruling and don't have body recorders-nor do the US Marshals here.

Gilmore knows that the corrupt city leadership swept his former mentor-former Chief Schultz's pay to play with TASER Inc. "greased" by Mayor Berry under the rug-never punished this scumbag Chief for ripping off taxpayers. Now we have an incompetent APD Chief, the reason Gilmore's buddy-former Schultz Commander Bob Huntsman was brought out of retirement to be Eden's deputy-run APD for him

My final comment. Gilmore disgracefully bemoans the fact that officers now have to use the proper restraint when dealing with citizens including the homeless and mentally ill, something that he claims causes them to "fear public reaction, and their career and their family."

Why not have these same well paid, pampered never held accountable now "restrained" APD officers who Gilmore believes are getting a raw deal instead put on a military uniform and see how real danger in a war/foreign land is. Or how they don't have the luxury of coming home to their families each night.

Nor do GI's-our true heroes have APD's overly generous benefits and are issued a take home car to use for their own personal use after duty hours.

It's amazing that the Journal continues to print such rubbish from these retired self-proclaimed APD heroes. What's next-a letter from former Schultz Captain Craig Loy?

I don't know who were these "many members of the community" Mayor Berry claimed he talked to but TV polling of our citizens and even his closest allies on the Journal editorial Board said removal of the Confederate Stars and Bars flag from Old Town was unjustified. What's next to be banned by this Mayor? P.C. Berry has no backbone, the reason this city has become the disgrace of the nation.

Have Mayors in the other US cities been that stupid-disrespectful of the historical significance of this Confederate flag. NO! Will a future Journal editorial criticize his decision? Don't hold your breath.

APD with the blessing of this Mayor has murdered countless African-Americans here but just ignore the historical significance of this.

You ought to be ashamed of yourself Councilor Benton for even being part of this demand for its removal from Old Town!

ALBUQUERQUE (KRQE) – Mayor R. J. Berry has announced his final decision on the Confederate symbols controversy in Old Town. After much controversy and debate among the community, Mayor Berry announced on Monday afternoon that the Confederate symbols in Old Town will be taken down. The symbols in Old Town include the Confederate flag, plaques and replicas of Confederate canons. He said, "After taking all of this into consideration, I have determined that the City of Albuquerque will no longer fly the Confederate flag over Old Town. It will be returned to its owner or donated to the Albuquerque museum and replaced by the City of Albuquerque official flag." There's been a call to remove the symbols after a white supremacist went on a shooting spree at a black church in Charleston, South Carolina. Some community members felt that the symbols supported white supremacy. Others felt that the symbols were a part of history and should be displayed.

COMMENT-Had this young killer in Charleston waved the Mexican flag or the flag of Spain would those flags have been banned by the Mayor since both brutalized the indigenous people and condoned slavery. What they did to our indigenous people was even more brutal. Maybe the Mayor will replace the Stars and Bars with the flag of his native Nebraska or maybe display (bomb threat) Cory Crosby Lockwood's panties that she left in an empty suitcase in his office as his preferred displays. Those would be truly historical!

Mayor Berry's full statement:

Over the past several weeks, I have listened carefully to many members of our community who have brought passionately different perspectives regarding the issue of the Confederate Stars and Bars flag and the civil war commemorative plaques and cannons in Old Town. This debate has presented us with an opportunity to consider diverse viewpoints pertaining to how we should mark our history in an appropriate and respectful manner. These diverse perspectives include those who feel strongly that the Confederate flag and any other Confederate artifact of any kind need to be removed from Old Town immediately. Others believe that the flag and artifacts are all valid historical reminders of the important role that Albuquerque and New Mexico played in the fight for freedom for all Americans. There is much to consider here including consideration of facts and consideration of the very real and differing perspectives of our diverse city. Those (many, many) who consider the flag and artifacts to be nothing more than markers of history, should consider those (very few) who are deeply offended by the Confederate flag flying in Old Town because they view it as a celebration of an ideology that did not recognize all men as equal and an affront to those who died to ensure freedom for all. Those who consider the Confederate flag, plaques, and cannons to be so objectionable that none of them have any appropriate use as markers of our history should consider that Albuquerque and New Mexico played an important and historically significant role in turning back Confederate plans for westward expansion; and there is merit in honoring the role we played at the place where that history took place.

As we consider all sides to this issue, we need to search for common ground and do our best to build a bridge connecting those who have fundamental differences of opinion – a bridge that will also foster deeper and more meaningful dialogues on other important issues facing us as a city, state and nation. (Blatant B.S.) And as always, carving out common ground will result in a compromise that may not please everyone. After taking all of this into consideration, I have determined that the City of Albuquerque will no longer fly the Confederate flag over Old Town. It will be returned to its owner or donated to the Albuquerque museum and replaced by the City of Albuquerque official flag. The City will however continue to mark our important contribution to the fight for equality for all Americans by retaining the civil war era cannons and plaques that accurately represent our place in the history of the Civil War. Historically inaccurate plaques and plaques that imply bias will also be removed and returned to those who donated them. We should never ignore our history; but we should also recognize and display our history in a way that is respectful to all those who it represents. By striking this balance, it is my hope that we can work through this debate as a community and build a strong foundation for future discussions of importance to us all.

All: On July 24th, the POB's Personnel Subcommittee met and evaluated the candidates supplied to us by City HR. To guide our decisions, we utilized a matrix based on the job description you all created, the NACOLE standards for executives, and discussion that the POB and Subcommittee had about the traits we desired in a candidate. We did not score applicants, but used these documents as a guide, along with the applicant's application, writing assignment and any other materials they provided. We divided candidates into "Yes", "Maybe" and "No" piles based on this protocol. The City asked us to invite one candidate for an interview based on Military Service, per a City policy. In the end, we had 8 "Yes" candidates, 3 "Maybe" candidates and 8 "No" candidates, as listed below. We further decided that if 3 or more of the "Yes" candidates withdrew, we would invite the "Maybe" candidates.

The list of "Yes" candidates below have been invited to the interview on Wednesday, July 29th. I have spoken with all of them. IT took a couple of days to reach everyone. Only one candidate has withdrawn. After some consideration, J. (James) Richard Brown has decided to withdraw, I will forward his email of explanation to you. At this point, we have 7 candidates to interview on July 29th, therefore, we will not be inviting the "Maybe" candidates.

The subcommittee also went through interview questions proposed by us, other members of the POB, Mr. Baker, Ms. Hults, APD officers, and a few others. All proposed questions were considered. In the end, 6 questions were selected, hopefully these questions will help us discern which of these candidates are our top three, and rank them for City Council to select one. I will send you the questions, and I will bring print-outs for everyone to use at the July 29th meeting. We propose that each answered question be scored by each POB member during the interviews. After the interviews are conducted, we will have a brief Executive Session (if so approved by the POB during the meeting) where we can discuss the relative merits of the candidates and tally scores. We will then return to the public meeting and vote to rank the top three candidates, and send their names to Council.

After that, the City will conduct a background check on the top three candidates, prior to any vote by Council. The Personnel Subcommittee also created a set of questions to ask references. The POB can decide how to divide up the task of reference checks at the meeting. There is a July 31st Personnel Subcommittee meeting during which we can discuss any findings of the reference checks which require further action.

I have committed to contact all of the candidates who will not be offered an interview, and let them know the status. I didn't want them to find out that they weren't selected when they saw the other candidates interviewing on TV or read about it in the newspaper.

I will send you the complete packets for each of the 7 remaining candidates. Please spend some time reviewing their qualifications, as that is still a relevant part of your decision, along with the interview. I will also send you the questions we'll be asking at the interview, so you can review them.

I know there's one or two of you who will not be able to attend the meeting, it is very important that everyone who possibly can be there to participate in this process.

Please avoid hitting "reply all" or communicating about this outside of the public meeting. We will deal with questions and any housekeeping matters at the beginning of the meeting to ensure that we're all on the same page before we take our first interview. I'll see you all on July 29th, we begin promptly at 5:30.

Thanks much, -B

Beth A. Mohr, Acting Chair
Albuquerque Police Oversight Board

POB Members:

Attached are the Minutes from the June POB Meeting. Also attached is a document which I provided to the DOJ Monitor at his request regarding Citizen Police Complaint cases received and closed or completed during the Monitor's first reporting period, 2/1/15-5/31/15. I will discuss this document and the CPOA Administrative Office staff's conversations with the DOJ Monitoring team during the Executive Director's Report at next week's POB Meeting.

Leonard is still finalizing the Agenda, which will be distributed and posted on Monday.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Happy 4th of July.

Regards,

MINUTES

- I. WELCOME AND CALL TO ORDER: Acting Chair Mohr called the meeting to order at 4:10 p.m.
- II. PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE: Board Member Amado-McCoy led the Board in the Pledge.
- III. APPROVAL OF AGENDA - Acting Chair Mohr requested that there be a reorder of the agenda so that Item X will be discussed after Item VI. Board Member Fine made a motion to approve the Agenda with the above change. Board Member Wilson seconded the motion. Passed. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.
- IV. APPROVAL OF MINUTES – The Board discussed changes to the April 2015 minutes to better reflect what occurred at the April meeting. Board Member Ring made a motion to accept April 2015 minutes with revisions. Passed. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring. The Board discussed May 2015 minutes and Board Member Wilson made a motion to defer acceptance of May 2015 minutes until the revisions could be verified. Board Member Amado-McCoy seconded the motion. Passed. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.
- V. PUBLIC COMMENTS – There were no public comments.

VI. DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION OF IPRA AND OMA RESOLUTION –

Attorney Baker informed the Board that the draft resolutions for IPRA and OMA were on the way over to the Board. Attorney Baker discussed the appointment of a records custodian. Board Member Ring felt the records custodian should be an administrative office employee, and Attorney Baker agreed. Board Member Amado-McCoy raised the question of the administrative office staff's capacity for the position of records custodian. Board Member McCoy made a motion to defer this decision until more research can take place. Board Member Wilson seconded the motion. Passed. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Fine, Ring. Against: 1 – Cruz.

Board Member Ring spoke about IPRA requests that are now pending. Attorney Baker discussed the statutory process, and that there is a three-day time period to provide an initial response to the requestors. There is a 15-day normal response time to provide reports, but in the event the request is overly broad and burdensome, the statute allows for additional time. Attorney Baker informed the Board that the City has been providing assistance and that the statutory guidelines have been met. Attorney Baker informed the Board that his function is to provide legal advice to the Board. In response to Board Member Amado-McCoy's inquiry, the Acting Executive Director informed the Board that the requestors are in the loop regarding the status and timeline of their requests. Ms. Hammer informed the Board that it is a joint effort between the City Clerk, City Attorney, and herself to coordinate the IPRA requests.

X. MEETING WITH COUNSEL RE: PENDING LITIGATION AND PERSONNEL ISSUES -

Board Member Fine made a motion that the Board go into Executive Session. Board Member Ring seconded the motion. A roll call vote was taken. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring. The Board went into Executive Session at 4:34 p.m.

The Board reconvened at 7:07 p.m. Acting Chair Mohr stated that the Board discussed select personnel matters and pending litigation. Nothing of merit was discussed during the dinner break.

Board Member Wilson made a motion to confirm Acting Chair Mohr's statement. A roll call vote was taken. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.

VII. REPORTS FROM CITY STAFF

A. Acting Executive Director Hammer – Acting Executive Director Hammer reported May 2015 statistics as follows:

May 2015:

25 new Citizen Police Complaints

10 Job Well Done Letters

Acting Executive Director Hammer informed the Board that the NACOLE conference will be held in Albuquerque in September 2016. Board Member Ring stated that some of the Board should attend the October NACOLE meeting. Acting Executive Director Hammer informed the Board that funds should be available so that the entire Board can attend the conference.

B. SOP Update – CPOA Lead Investigator Paul Skotchdopole reported that he is now back on the APD board, and attended a meeting on June 10, 2015. Prior to Mr. Skotchdopole returning to the board, ten SOPs were revised because of outdated and duplicate policies. Mr. Skotchdopole reported to the Board that the SOPs now indicate an effective date and expiration date, and the SOPs will come up for review every six months.

C. Mayor's Staff – No one was present to report.

D. City Council Staff – Mr. Moya stated that the budget for fiscal year 2016 has been approved, which includes increases for training and for Independent Legal Counsel.

E. City Attorney's Staff – City Attorney Hernandez stood for questions. None were presented in the open session.

F. APD – Lt. Jennifer Garcia from APD Internal Affairs presented the report for May 2015.

APD Calls for Service: 42,898
Internal Affairs cases for May 2015
Received - 13                      Inactivated - 2                      Completed -20
Mediated - 0                      Pending - 4

Discipline imposed in May 2015
4 verbal reprimands                      9 letters of reprimands
1 8-hour suspension                      1 15-hour suspension
1 32-hour suspension                      1 40-hour suspension
1 48-hour suspension                      1 termination

VIII. REPORT FROM SUBCOMMITTEES

A. Complaint Review Subcommittee – Board Member Fine informed the Board that the Complaint Review Subcommittee met on June 9, 2015. Paul Cash will continue to refine the monthly reports submitted to the Board. Board Member Fine stated that the 90-day time frame seems to be a problem, and that staff keeps cases for up to seven times that period. The Subcommittee will continue to meet every two weeks. Board Member Fine wants open communication with the Chief, and suggested that the Board could meet with the Chief if necessary. Acting Executive Director Hammer informed the Board that cases received after the DOJ settlement agreement are priority cases. Board Member Wilson will no longer serve on this committee. Board Member Amado-McCoy made a motion to replace Board Member Wilson with Board Member Fine. Passed. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.

B. Outreach Subcommittee – Board Member Baca reported that the Subcommittee met on May 26, 2015. Human Resources provided a draft advertisement for the position of an outreach coordinator. The ad was posted immediately and will run for three weeks. The official title of the position will be Community Engagement Specialist. Board Member Baca reported that the Subcommittee will be involved and will work with Acting Executive Director Hammer in the selection for this position.

Board Member Baca reported on the New Mexico Youth Forum, and their desire for their organization to be involved with the Police Oversight Board. Board Member Baca desired more time to respond to the organization.

Board Member Baca discussed locations where information regarding the Citizen Police Complaints could be posted, such as on buses and at Healthcare for the Homeless. Board Member Baca observed handouts located at APD substations.

Board Member Baca discussed business cards for the Board. The Board requested that “volunteer member” be added after the Board Member’s name, with their personal e-mail address, and that no reference to “City” be listed on the card. Board Member Baca moved for the acceptance of the business card as revised. Board Member Ring seconded the motion. Passed. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.

C. Rules and Regulations Subcommittee – There was no meeting of this Subcommittee.

D. Personnel Subcommittee – Acting Chair Mohr reported that the job posting for the Executive Director position went on line June 8, 2015, with a closing date of July 17, 2015. Acting Chair Mohr discussed the application process and timeline. The questionnaire that will be sent to the applicants was discussed by the Board. The finalists will be interviewed on live TV. Board Member Baca made a motion to approve the questionnaire with revisions. Board Member Ring seconded the motion. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.

IX. POB TRAINING – INTERNAL AFFAIRS PROCESS

Acting Chair Mohr made a motion to table this item. Board Member Wilson seconded the motion. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.

XI. POB TRAINING – ATTORNEY BAKER

A. Police Oversight Ordinance –

B. Consent Decree (formerly DOJ Settlement Agreement)

Board Member Ring made a motion to table these items. Board Member Walker seconded the motion. For: 8 – Waites, Mohr, Wilson, Baca, Brown, Cruz, Fine, Ring.

XII. OTHER BUSINESS – No other business.

XIII. ADJOURNMENT - Next POB meeting will be on Thursday, July 9, 2015, at 4:00 PM in the Vincent E. Griego Chambers. The meeting adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

- III. Approval of the Agenda. Chair Waites advised that he would be turning the meeting over to Co-Chair Mohr, who is the Chair of the Personnel Sub-Committee, to run the interviews for the Executive Director. Chair Waites would resume the meeting after the Executive Session as stated in the agenda as Item VII. Board Member Fine moved to accept the agenda with changes. The motion was seconded by Board Member Ring. Passed.
For: Fine, Wilson, Waites, Mohr, Ring, Amado-McCoy, Brown.
- IV. Approval of Minutes. Board Member Ring moved to approve and accept the minutes for the July 9, 2015 Police Oversight Board meeting. The motion was seconded by Co-Vice Chair Mohr. Passed.
For: Fine, Wilson, Waites, Mohr, Ring, Amado-McCoy, Brown.
- V. Public Comments. Alan Wagman offered his comments on the importance of the POB's decision of the new Executive Director of the POB.
- VI. Interview of Candidates for Executive Director Position. Co-Chair Mohr led the meeting as it related to interviews of the candidates.

The candidates agreed to wait outside the room while each candidate was interviewed individually. The following candidates were interviewed:

- a. Edward Harness
- b. Duncan Bradley
- c. John Grubestic
- d. Jay Rowland
- e. Edna Sprague

The following questions were asked of each candidate:

- a. What experience as an employee most impacted the way you manage others?
- b. Can you describe your experience working under the direction of a board of directors or analogous body of individuals? What are some of the strategies you would use to ensure a constructive and collaborative working relationship between yourself and the POB?
- c. How would you measure the success of the CPOA?
- d. How will you deal with the institutional resistance to change?
- e. How will you create a strategy for public outreach? What groups will you prioritize for outreach, and why?
- f. Based on your review of the DOJ Findings Letter, Settlement Agreement/Consent Decree, the Police Oversight Ordinance, what do you expect to be some of the primary challenges for the Executive Director, and how do you plan to address those?
- g. Please add anything else you'd like to tell us that will assist us in making this decision.

VII. Meeting with Counsel re: Personnel Issues ~Mark T. Baker
Closed Discussion and Possible Action re: Personnel Issues

Limited personnel matters pursuant to NMSA 1978, Section 10-15-1(H)(2)

Date: Tuesday, August 04, 2015 8:15:45 PM

Dear Candidates: (BCC'd on this email)

Today the Police Oversight Board held a special meeting and ranked our top three Executive Director candidates to sent to Council. The POB is acutely aware that our selection for Executive Director will have an impact on this community for years to come. Therefore, with much deliberation, we selected the following candidates to forward to Council for their ultimate selection:

1. Edward Harness
- 2, Jay Rowland
3. Edna Sprague

The POB extends a sincere thanks to all of the candidates. Every candidate was given consideration, and our selections were as the result of several hours of thoughtful discussion and deliberations.

City Council is free to selected any one of these names, without regard to our ranking of them, and offer that person the position. If Council's first choice does not accept the position, they may offer to a second choice; if their second choice does not accept the position they are obligated to ask us to start the search over again. We have no idea what action Council will take; it is difficult to predict the actions of those over whom we have no control.

We expect that Council will take up this matter for a vote at their August 17th meeting. I'm not exactly sure how you will be contacted about their choice, but presumably someone from Council staff will take care of that detail.

In the mean time, if each of the top three candidates would kindly let me know how soon you could start if you are selected, that would help the POB with our short-term planning.

If any of you would like to discuss this matter with me, please feel free to call me at [REDACTED]

Beth A. Mohr, Volunteer
Albuquerque Police Oversight Board

All: Sorry for the late hour, but I finally got through all the proposed interview questions. As you will probably figure out, a variety of folks have contributed to this collection of questions, including officers, critics and other POB members.

Don't feel like you have to do anything with these prior to the meeting, we'll go over them at the meeting in detail, pick the best, and rework them as needed, or add more.

I'll bring copies to the meeting for everyone to have. Thanks, -B

1. Per the ordinance, the POB supervises the Executive Director, and the Executive Director supervises the CPOA staff, yet the CPOA Office is the support staff to the POB. How would you propose to ensure that POB members have adequate staff support, while dealing with staff concerns that they are being supervised by the POB?
2. The CPOA office currently has a backlog of investigations which are past the 90 day time frame allowed for completion. What is your plan for resolving that backlog using the current staff?
3. Would you make recommendations for discipline prior to the investigation's completion?
4. What burden of proof would you apply to investigations of officer shootings?
5. Although you are a lawyer, which is a requirement for this job, the Board as its own independent legal counsel. How do you see yourself interacting with the Board's Counsel, and under what circumstances would you think it appropriate for you to provide legal advice to the Board.
6. Where is the balance point between public safety and personal rights, how do you attain it, teach it, and maintain it.
7. How do you get the public to understand and appreciate a night in the life of a patrol officer?
8. The POB is currently required to go on 2 ride-alongs with APD officers every six months, but there is no such requirement for the Executive Director or CPOA Staff. Do you think that the Executive Director and/or CPOA Staff should also go on ride-alongs? Why or why not?
9. Please explain your understanding of the 1989 US Supreme Court decision of Graham vs. Connor and how your understanding of this Supreme Court decision will influence you and the decisions you make as CPOA Executive Director.
10. How would you support officers in their work, implement procedures to stop police abuse and compliment the orderly and efficient operation of the police department?
11. Within the past two years, there have been several sustained complaints where the officer was not able to be disciplined, due wholly to the lack of timely investigation of the complaint by the CPOA office. All complaints should be completed within the 90 day time limit, but at this point there is a backlog. Until that backlog is resolved and all complaints are completed on time, what is your plan for triage or prioritization of complaints to ensure the most serious, or those most likely to involve discipline, are completed within the 90 day time frame?

12. What experience as an employee most impacted the way you manage others?
13. By ordinance, the CPOA is charged with dedicating a majority (more than 50%) of its time to identifying and addressing systemic problems within the APD (versus adjudicating individual complaints). Can you describe your experience organizing this kind of research and policy analysis? What is your vision for carrying out this critical function of the CPOA?
14. Please describe your experience with community outreach. Which groups would you prioritize for outreach, and why?
15. Like most civilian police oversight bodies around the country, Albuquerque's CPOA does not have the authority to mandate discipline for officers who are found to have violated policy and/or civil rights. Do you think this is a shortcoming of the CPOA model? Why or why not?
16. Can you describe your experience working under the direction of a board of directors or analogous body of individuals? What are some of the strategies you would use to ensure a constructive and collaborative working relationship between yourself and the POB?
17. How would you measure the success of the CPOA? How would you determine whether or not the CPOA was achieving its goal of effective police oversight? How would you measure the success of the POB?
18. APD officers generally cannot be disciplined unless their actions violate APD policy. Many members of the public feel that many APD policies allow and even direct inappropriate officer actions -- a position supported by the Department of Justice. How will you deal with the tension between these two positions when they arise in the context of an individual civilian complaint against an officer?
19. What do you see as the most important task of the CPOA? What is the most important task for the POB?
20. The Department of Justice in its April 10, 2014 report heavily criticized APD policies which allowed officers to shoot at motor vehicles, and the settlement agreement in the lawsuit mandated that the policy be changed. Yet over a year later, when an APD officer shot at a moving SUV in a residential parking lot with passengers, including a five-year-old child, in the SUV, Chief Eden not only announced that the policy had not yet been changed, he appeared to justify the officer's actions. How will you deal with this kind of institutional resistance to change?

21. Officers frequently have recollections of events that differ from the images depicted on their lapel cameras. Some police departments mandate that the officer must write their report or give their statement prior to viewing their own camera footage, others allow officers to decide which to do first. When an officer's statement differs from the video depiction, how do you judge whether or not the officer is being untruthful, is mistaken or simply has a different perspective from that of the camera?
22. Will you deal differently with officers whose violations of policy may be the result of improper past training than with officers who violate policy after proper training? If so, how? If not, why not?
23. Of those people who are paying attention to police oversight issues, some portion have come to mistrust the office you are seeking. The Department of Justice was heavily critical of the people who have filled the position in the past. How will you deal with those who mistrust of anyone in the job? How does your past experience or personal character indicate an ability to handle this type of situation?
24. What is your strategy for public outreach?
25. As an applicant for our CPOA Director position, you've obviously experienced many interactions with police officers over the years. Please describe one such personal positive and one negative. Be as specific as possible; please avoid "glittering generalities".

TO: ALL

PROTEST YESTERDAY

Thanks to Art, Sayrah and others who attended the protest yesterday. Sorry I could not. I also sent the announcement shown below of yesterday's protest to Journal, KOB, KRQE, KOAT, ABQ Free Press and many others.

Not surprising that Journal had just a small article about it buried in the back of today's New Mexico section-page B-2 with a small 4" x 1 1/2" photo. On the same page was a 9" x 9" photo with caption of Governor Martinez after she jumped out of an airplane. All know what was important there-don't we?

KOB and KRQE covered stories but we saw nothing from KOAT. See:

<http://www.kob.com/article/stories/s3911315.shtml#.Vf7up9JViko>
http://krqe.com/2014/09/14/group-protests-nra-shooting-contest/Protestors\_march\_against\_police\_shooting\_contest. BY KATY BARNITZ

MORE FREE THESE TWO KILLER COPS PROPAGANDA

The free the bad cops propaganda continues unabated.

KOAT chose instead to report alleged death threats made against Boyd's killers Perez and Sandy by Sandy's attorney Bregman who wants the two to still carry guns.

<http://www.koat.com/news/james-boyd-case-death-threats-made-against-cops/35343230>

KOAT affiliated with Journal still parroted APD's lie that Boyd threatened the K-9 officer. Fact is that Boyd pulled small knives just to protect himself from his fierce K-9 dog who was straining at leash in front of his K-9 officer to get to and tear Boyd apart. When released, it chewed on Boyd's dead body.

First were lies told under oath by K-9 officer that the two killers saved his life. Then the fluff piece on claimed "hero" Perez by Journal's Ryan Boetel.

Then false claims by a retired officer at a "heroes" luncheon and later by union ("them against us"-damn the honest "rat" cops) VP Willoughby that cops were targeted here-the killing of any should be a hate crime.

Then wife of an officer doing same pitch for hate crime legislation with a former cop-now NM

Legislator Bill Rehm supporting her.

Now this likely lie of death threats against Sandy and Perez to brainwash potential jury members and the judge to justify moving trial to Las Cruces and then set both free. Did friendly to Perez and Sandy cops call them in? This defense of the two killers with the help of some in the media is disgusting.

People nationwide saw the video of the murder of Boyd! Just don't let the facts/video and comments by Sandy beforehand get in the way when it comes to defending the two killer cops here. Right boys?

COUNCIL PART OF THE PROBLEM

I earlier criticized the POB's and Council's choice of former Milwaukee cop Ed Harness to be next Executive Director of the even more disgraceful now Police Oversight Agency.

Councilors promised us during Sept 9 meeting that they would reveal how each of the eight voted- (their individual priorities given to the three ED nominees) but that too was a lie. I don't know how the Councilors who have chosen to abdicate their role as the legislative body of our government can look themselves in the mirror and sleep at night. At least two even want to be our next Mayor.

Why should citizens even bother going to Council meetings anymore? The nine don't care but accept the B.S. put out by Perry and Jessica Hernandez

A EVEN MORE PRO-BAD COP OVERSIGHT PROCESS

The completely inexperienced-smooth talking, clueless about our oversight process Ed Harness is yet one more fox disgracefully assigned to guard the hen house-much like having cop family members sitting on a jury of the charged killer cop. This is Mexico True

More than disgusted with this third world city and State

MORE INSULTS TO US BY BERRY

Today's front page Journal article says that our corrupt Mayor Berry along with other NM mayors now want to petition our State legislators to further increase the pay of police officers by allowing double dipping as if that's the reason for their failure to retain officers. Our cops, particularly Berry's senior command staff are already overpaid.

The problem with retention is that bad officers are now afraid of being held accountable while the good ones are fed up with APD's corrupt leadership that starts in the Mayor's office. This Berry organized appeal is an insult to allow double dipping is yet another insult to all by this Mayor. My last e-mail said it's about time cops

TODAY'S PROTEST MARCH

Also announced in today's Journal, today-Sat Sept 19, citizens will be gathering at Robinson Park downtown (8th & Central) at 6 PM and marching to the Embassy Suites on Lomas & I25 where others will meet them at 7PM to protest the NRA National Police Shooting Championship. This hotel is hosting the police shooters and profiting off glorifying police violence. The march is only 1.5 miles. Protestors will have some cars providing bottled water, respite, as well as street medics. It should be good weather to march! All are asked to dress in black. There be glow sticks and candles once marchers reach the hotel around sunset.

Folks are driving in from Santa Fe and Espanola to march, including the family of Victor Villaplano, the teenager killed by Espanola police. They are bringing a giant puppet of him to carry alongside the tombstones of APD victims. We need to pressure the city to stop hosting and paying for this disgusting contest that makes a game out of police shooting people! Please give us a couple of hours of your time tonight to march with us! Will any of our Councilors be there?

Hello everyone going to NACOLE,

I spoke to Veronica Barela who is the person who arranged your travel to NACOLE. She said that you are all authorized under GSA to be reimbursed up to $71.00 per day for meals and incidentals. Generally this breaks down to $12.00 for breakfast, $18.00 for lunch, $36.00 for dinner, and $5.00 for incidentals. If you spend beyond the $71.00 per day, the City will not be able to reimburse you for the amount spent beyond the $71.00. The City will reimburse you for shuttle service, and taxi service, but I am told that rental cars were not authorized and that any expense related to rental cars will not be reimbursed. Please keep all of your receipts for meals, bring back your hotel receipt (the City will need this), and keep your receipts for taxi or shuttle service as meals, taxis, and shuttle service will be reimbursed. When you get back, those receipts will need to be turned in to Veronica so she can get you all reimbursed. We can help facilitate that from our office.

Veronica said that she is getting an e-mail together that she will be sending to the NACOLE attendees explaining all of the above in further detail. I hope this answers any questions you may have regarding the upcoming travel and if not, please do not hesitate to contact me so I can get the answers to any questions you may have.

Best regards,

TO: All

Haven't the DOJ, Judge Brack and Berry insulted us enough by hiring foxes (former police officers) to stonewall any real APD reform?

THE FOXES NOW GUARDING THE HEN HOUSE

Who were the ones negotiating on behalf of us citizens with the DOJ? None other than Cincinnati's liar to the Council on needed police oversight ordinance changes-Scott Greenwood and his partner former police chief Tom Streicher whose Cincinnati PD was also investigated by the DOJ.

Who do we have as the DOJ's and Judge Brack's assigned toothless "auditors" of APD reform? They are mostly retired cops in PMR Inc. who only report to the Judge once a year and the DOJ and not to us.

Who is now the Police Oversight Board's (POB) first choice to be the next Executive Director (EO) of the new citizens Police Oversight Agency (POA)? It's a clueless former Milwaukee cop Edward Harness that the Council will likely approve at its September 9 Council meeting-Bill # OC-15-25.

LACK OF RESPECT FOR US AND DUE DILIGENCE BY THE COUNCIL

The Councilors never bothered to review the outstanding resumes of the 40+ other outstanding candidates for the APD Police Chief's job before blessing Berry's choice-the unqualified Eden.

Have any of the Councilors now taken the time to review the Gov TV broadcasted (and also YouTube sent to them by me) interviews with these three nominated POB candidates for the Agency's important Executive Director's (ED) position?

The video would show that this former Milwaukee cop Edward Harness was clueless-only a master of doubletalk. Ed said that he believed a cop's life was much more important to save than that of any citizen.

Apparently the Journal's Editorial Board shares this belief parroting the recent words of an embarrassing former Schultz Commander-now US Marshal Conrad Candelaria at a recent police officers' "heroes" luncheon.

Candelaria and the recent editorial called for all killings of cops here-a rare occurrence in NM to now be deemed hate crimes. That will be the subject of another of my e-mails soon.

FORMER COP HARNESS JUST ANOTHER FOX

The posted Council resumes of all three ED nominees also showed that that the only references listed by Harness except for one, were senior police officers. Harness would further say in his resume that police have a "special place in our society"-are not mere public servants here hired to serve and protect us.

After the first public meeting with the interviews of five candidates, with only one public speaker-Alan Wagman there, the POB could have made an easy decision during their three hour + closed door executive session and only send the name of Jay Rowland to the Council.

Jay showed that having been in the job clearly understood how a good oversight process works including the much required limitations of the Supreme Court's "Garrity vs. NJ" ruling on compelled officer statements. The DOJ report to the Seattle Mayor made these limitations on "Garrity" very clear.

POB STILL NOT INDEPENDENT AND NOT SERVING US

Instead the POB members apparently were told to check first with the Mayor, CAO Perry and APD Chief all of whom the last IRO/then interim EO Robin Hammer worked for-according to a written memo by former Berry/Perry personal City attorney Dave Tourek.

Clearly these ethically corrupt three only wanted this former cop Harness, who like Robin Hammer, would continue to make the entire citizen oversight process a sham.

Was the Council ever surveyed on their preferred ED? They seem to be part of the problem. Their first actions after the new oversight agency was formed would be to ignore most of their January 2014 recommendations of the police oversight task force based on the lies told them by Greenwood claiming what he recommended represented that of the DOJ.

The Council later then tried to further limit the Agency's powers.

So after the second POB meeting was held with not even one citizen showing up to speak-all of us finally disgusted with the POB, former cop Harness not surprisingly became their first choice.

Former retired San Diego cop Beth Mohr who ran the ED selection interviews for the Chairman would then try to defend to the media their selection of her fellow retired cop Harness with some insulting B.S.

OVERSIGHT AGENCY STAFF ALREADY A PROBLEM AND INTERNAL AFFAIRS A SICK JOKE

The new Police Oversight Agency already has a senior former pro-bad APD cop biased Belen cop as one of its investigators. The two other POA investigators' previous jobs were at Lowe's and Target.

APD's Internal Affairs investigations of Citizen Police Complaints are also shams as they always lie when doing their investigations.

Even APD cops are allowed to review video recordings before making their statements. No incriminating videos are ever released to the public or POB.

A NO-BRAINER DECISION

Only the POB's second choice former IRO Jay Rowland was even qualified for the ED job. Jay was apparently deemed too experienced/committed to the citizens and POB and far too honest for APD and the Mayor.

Those on the POB should be ashamed of themselves. Any with self respect should resign as three honest POC members did when Tourek make his disgraceful proclamation in 2013 that they were powerless.

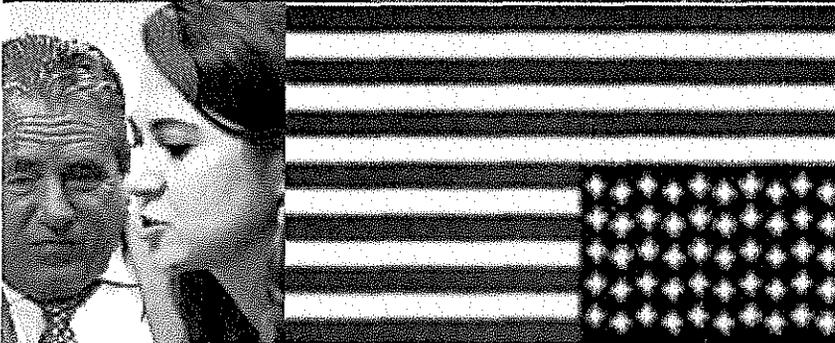

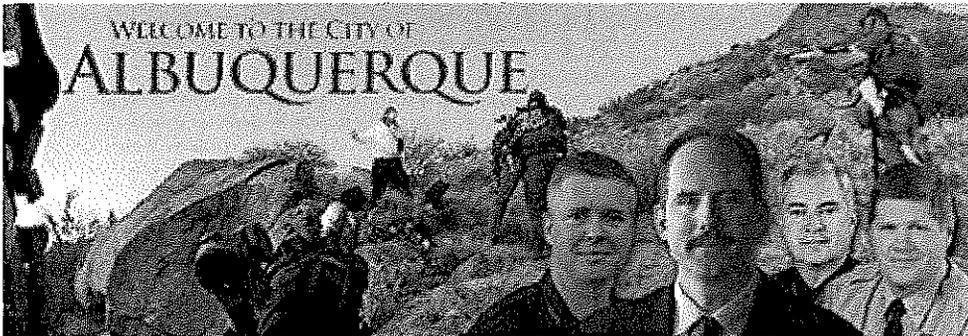

The Council's selection of Harness would be yet another insulting fox being asked to guard the hen house and further disrespect us.

Disgusted-as are many here

Silvio
