must satisfy all Department qualification criteria before a final offer will be extended. A conditional offer of employment is not a contract for employment.

B. Disqualification

The removal from consideration and/or the cessation of processing of an applicant or applicant for an academy class.

C. Highly Qualified Applicant

An applicant who has passed the testing weekend and is assigned to a Background Investigations Unit Investigator for follow-up investigation

D. Minimum Entrance Standards

The minimum standards of training for police officer certification established by the State of New Mexico as defined in New Mexico Administrative Code §§ 10.29.9.1 to 10.29.9.10. Law enforcement agencies may expand upon these standards but not lower them.

E. Qualified Applicant

A qualified applicant who has successfully completed the interest card and is scheduled for one of the testing weekends and is going through the background investigation process.

2-90-4 Selection Process

A. Interest Card Application

1. The applicant who wishes to apply to become a police officer, Crime Scene Specialist (CSS), or Police Service Aide (PSA) and who submits the Department's web-based Interest Card Application through www.apdonline.com.
 - a. For applicants with military experience, the only acceptable release or discharge from any branch of the armed forces of the United States shall be:
 - i. Honorable discharge;
 - ii. Any other discharge under honorable conditions shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis; and
 - iii. Under no circumstances shall a release or discharge under dishonorable conditions from any of the armed forces of the United States be acceptable, pursuant to NMSA 1978, § 29-7-6.
2. After the applicant submits their interest card application, the web-based application system www.apdonline.com qualifies or disqualifies them as based on information in their card.

- a. The Background Investigations Unit Investigator who identifies the following information during the background investigation shall disqualify the applicant:
 - i. Inappropriate conduct during former law enforcement employment;
 1. Inappropriate actions as a police officer or equivalent position (military police, security, prior law enforcement) have special significance in and of themselves due to the professional ethical standards of these professions, are considered in the evaluation process, and may serve as a disqualifying factor on a case-by-case basis.
 2. On-duty conduct in violation of generally accepted rules of conduct, such as dereliction of duty, acceptance of gratuities, sexual conduct, and conduct unbecoming as an officer during former employment may disqualify a highly qualified applicant/applicant on a case-by-case basis.
- b. Any applicant who is untruthful in any part of the recruiting or selection process;
- c. Any applicant who:
 - i. Refuses to take the mandatory drug-screening test;
 - ii. Has a test result showing a presence of illegal drugs, prohibited substances or prescription drugs not prescribed to the applicant; or
 - iii. Uses illegal drugs, prohibited substances or prescription drugs (not prescribed) by an applicant after the application to the Department has been submitted.
- d. Past illegal drug/narcotic use;
 - i. No drug use in the last two (2) years from the date of the Interest Card submission, including any illegal drug use that would amount to a misdemeanor crime if found in possession.
 - ii. No use of prohibited substances in the last five (5) years from the date of the Interest Card submission, including any illegal drug use that would amount to a felony crime if found in possession.
- e. Alcohol use by minors;
 - i. Use of alcohol by minors prior to the age twenty-one (21) may be a disqualifier as determined on a case-by-case basis.
- f. After the conditional offer of employment, an applicant may be disqualified after a detailed drug usage interview;
- g. The following criminal activity:
 - i. Criminal activity in which the applicant was convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered a plea of nolo contendere as an adult to any felony charge, or was involved in any prosecution diversion program (PDP) for a felony crime committed shall be permanently disqualified;
 - ii. Delinquency adjudications as a juvenile shall be considered on a case-by-case basis;
 - iii. Applicants who admit to an undiscovered felony crime where there is no deception shall be considered on a case-by-case basis.
Mitigating/aggravating circumstances may include, but are not limited to:
 1. Severity of the act;
 2. Number of times the act was committed;
 3. Age at the time the act was committed;
 4. Circumstances surrounding the act; and/or
 5. Recentness of the act.

- iv. Applicants who, within the three (3) years prior to taking the written test, were convicted of, pled guilty to, or entered a plea of nolo contendere as an adult to any violation of federal law, state law, or local ordinance that would be classified as a misdemeanor crime, shall be disqualified until the appropriate time passes;
- v. Any conduct that would constitute a misdemeanor offense committed that the qualified applicant, admits to, or is discovered during the course of the background investigation may be a disqualifier as determined on a case-by-case basis;
- vi. Any misdemeanor in which there is a court-ordered deferred sentence with a resulting dismissal of the charge upon completion of some court-ordered conditions, shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis; and
- vii. Incidents of domestic disputes not involving an official reporting of the incident to a law enforcement agency are considered on the basis of the nature of the domestic dispute(s).
 1. The Background Unit Investigator shall evaluate each domestic violence incident.
 2. The Background Unit Investigator shall, when possible, obtain written or recorded statements from all parties involved in any domestic violence incident.
 3. As part of the Omnibus Consolidated Appropriations Act of 1997, it is unlawful for any person convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition, or to sell or to otherwise dispose of a firearm or ammunition to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that the recipient has been convicted of such a misdemeanor. Therefore, an applicant with a conviction of domestic violence is disqualified.
 4. Any domestic violence in which there is a court ordered deferred sentence with a resulting dismissal of the charge upon completion of some court ordered conditions, is reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
- h. Applicants convicted of driving while intoxicated (DWI) in the last five (5) years whether from an administrative sanction by any motor vehicle department, criminal conviction, or military disciplinary action shall be removed from the process; and
- i. An applicant with two (2) or more DWI convictions from any of these categories within the most recent ten (10) year period shall be dropped from the process.
